Out & About

Happy Labor Day!

Have a safe Labor Day

We wish everyone a safe and happy Labor Day weekend. Lots of events happening this weekend, so make sure you take some time to yourself and enjoy some antiquing.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the victims of the Texas flooding. My older brother Mike and his family live in Austin, Texas. My parents have not been able to reach him. Sometimes it is hard to reach him though, as he is always busy with his job. Summer went fast this year, remember that school has started for some kids, so slow down in those school zones. Brandon starts after Labor Day and this year he will be able to drive.

So, I hope this unofficial end of summer holiday weekend that everyone has fun and a wonderful time spent with family and friends. Making lots of memories and finding lots of antique treasures.

Top left Tia with some of her college items. Move in day was pretty painless. She is on the second floor, thankfully her elevator is huge. It didn't take long for Tia to set up her room. Tia & Olivia tried to coordinate their room colors together. They both love decorating! Tia has already started cooking meals for herself, Olivia & Carter. Tia has noticed that she is the only early bird, so she ends up in the library early in the morning & does homework. The coffee shop is in the library too.

American Cut Glass Association

The American Cut Glass Association is devoted to the study and research of American Brilliant Cut Glass. The Brilliant Period lasted from approximately 1876 to around 1914. The Association offers a number of member benefits including a newsletter published 10 times a year, an annual convention, regional chapters, and Brilliant Weekends - special events held by ACGA chapters.

The ACGA's website homepage consists of some cut glass illustrations, a welcoming statement, bulletin board and navigation menu. This menu, serving as a site map, does an excellent job of directing first time visitors to the various sections on the website.

Divided into five columns, there is a column of features on the American Cut Glass Association, itself, including their history, organization, code of ethics, endowment fund and gifts & Acquisitions fund. another column offers segments on member benefits while a third column features information and photos of examples of Brilliant Cut Glass. The fourth and fifth column comprise information on the ACGA Store and contact information.

This is a very functional club website and serves the ACGA well.

Musical Box Society International

The Musical Box Society International is a non-profit organization dedicated to the enjoyment, study and preservation of all automatic musical instruments. From its modest beginning in 1949, MBSI now numbers several thousand members with representation in each of the 50 states and 19 other countries.

The MBSI website at www.mbsi.org is easy to navigate and understand. Visitors to the site will find a great deal of helpful information about automatic musical instruments. There is a large museum section showing various museums and repositories that have automatic musical instruments and a huge listing of manufacturers of these instruments. We particularly enjoyed the Photo Gallery. Twenty-five musical instruments are shown and by clicking on a button by each picture you can actually hear the automatic musical instrument playing. For members there is a large library for borrowing related books and also a MBSI Store. The Society's chapters are listed and an Events Calendar features the annual convention as well as chapter events.

The section on how to become a member is easy to understand and complete. Anyone visiting this site and spending some time here who has an interest in automatic musical instruments should end up at this section and join!

Reginaphone Table Model Hexaphone Phonograph Brings $22,000 at Donley's Vintage Music Auction

Article & Photos by Donley Auctions

Prices were strong throughout the auction. Some of the items bringing the most attention were a Reginaphone table model Hexaphone phonograph that brought $22,000, an Edison Class M electric cylinder phonograph that sold for $12,000 and a Victor Eldridge Johnson Type B trademark phonograph that played it's way to $7,500.

One of the most interesting pieces in this sale was a Lenzkirch Grandfather clock with a 15.5" music box. The piece stands just under 9' tall at 105", an Englis penny must be inserted into the right side of the cabinet to listen to the music box. The disc plays twice for one coin. This stunning piece did not sell, but if you are interested, you can contact the office.

Another nice piece was a restored Capitol phonograph lamp that brought $3,000. Manufactured by Burns Pollak of Chicago, this great looking piece has been totally refurbished, replated and the electric motor has been gone over, including new electric cord & new lamp shade. The new lamp shade has been remanufactured on a different style frame than was originally used by Capitol Lamp.

Randy Donley is co-owner of Donley Auctions and is the liaison between consignors and buyers. He has 40+ years of experience as a collector and dealer of antique phonographs and music boxes. He is also the co-owner of the Wild West Town, a family owned attraction with one of the best phonograph collections in the nation (certified by the Thomas Edison Institute). Randy is a charter member of Early Talking Machine of America. He is the founder of the world's largest antique phonograph event held annually since 1975 in Union, Illinois (Antique Phonograph & Music Box Show).

Donley Auctions is located at 8512 S. Union Rd. in Union, Illinois. ANN ARBOR, Mich. - What will quite possibly be the largest and most important collection of Cowboy and Native American Indian items ever offered at auction will come up for bid on the weekend of September 29th through October 1st at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor. The three-day event will be held by Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven.

Approximately 2,000 lots of investment-grade, museum-quality artifacts will cross the auction block, the vast majority of them coming from the lifetime collection of Brad and Mary Watts of Phoenix, Ariz. "Mary passed away not long ago and Brad has decided to unleash this incredible trove of material onto the collecting public," said Mike Eckles of Showtime Auction Services.

The Watts collection is filled with Native American Indian objects as well as traditional cowboy antiques and collectibles. "Even the cigar tins are Western themed with cowboys and Indians," Mr. Eckles remarked. This is a rare chance for "Old West" fans to enhance their collections."

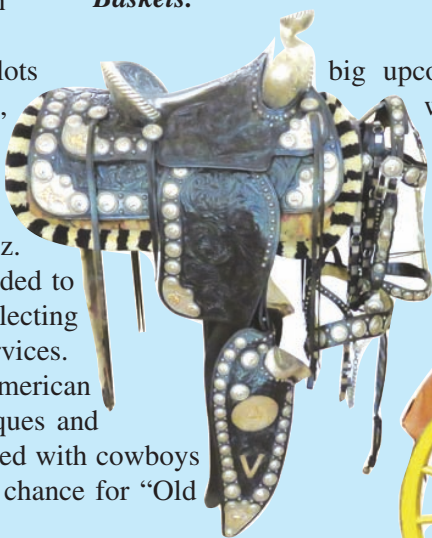

All items in the auction are guaranteed authentic, with no reproductions or fakes. In addition to the Watts collection, the auction will also feature investment-grade items from other advanced collections, to include cash registers, pharmaceutical show globes and holiday collectibles (for Halloween and Thanksgiving) and more.

Another highlight for collectors: The auction will be held at the same time as the 8th annual Indian Art & Frontier Antiques Show, which will be one day only - Saturday, September 30th, from 9-4 Eastern time - also at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor. For dealer table information regarding that event, interested parties may call Dick Lloyd at (248) 840-7070.

Amazing collection from New York to be Auctioned off in Earlville, Iowa

Harry Lahr Auctions of Earlville, IA will hold an auction for the Bill Lukan Estate from Long Island, New York on September 9th, 2017 at their Auction Center in Earlville. While living in Long Island, Bill purchased & remodeled a classic carriage house with an attached castle tower that he filled with very high quality and ornate pieces. The nephew in charge of the estate contacted Auctioneer Matt Lahr and said, "I am in charge of an estate and could you come take a look at the items and see if an auction would be possible and worth while?" The first items we saw were the refectory table and chandelier. He then explained to me that this estate was his uncle's, who originated from Dyersville, and was moved a few months ago from Long Island, New York back to Iowa. I thanked him for the call and opportunity to work with him and we started writing up the auction.

This lifetime collection includes 3 large stained glass windows with elaborate scrolling, small stained glass panels, Favre glass lamp shades, a large marble fireplace mantel & hearth, a Lionel toy train set with boxes, (2) Edison phonographs, a Regina disk music box & a beautiful brass chandelier with male & female busts. A partial listing of the furniture includes a Renaissance Revival stained oak refectory table & stained oak sideboard, both heavily decorated with carvings, both circa 1870. Marble top parlor tables, Bishop's chairs, early game tables with inlay tops, cylinder roll desk, 2 door display case & iron patio set.

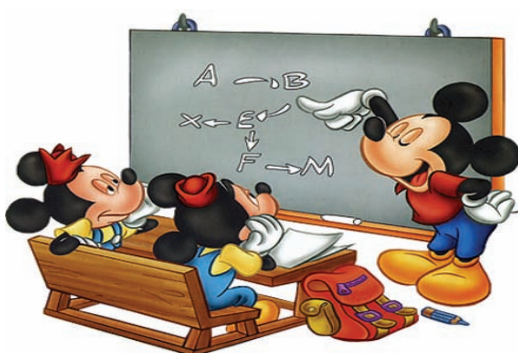

There are original works of art, advertising pieces, retro & mid-century items, clocks & a very early metal toy train set. Early literature, tin litho plates, 2 hanging sanctuary lamps, brass candelabra and even an autographed poster by Michael Jackson.

This will be a cataloged auction with approximately 450 lots. There will also be a selection of good quality household items. Go to harrylahrauctions.com for updated listings and pictures and a cataloged, numbered list the week of the auction. Harry Lahr Auctions has a great line up of fall auctions including the September 9th Lukan Estate, September 23rd Snyder Estate of Manchester, IA., October 7th & October 21st are both very high quality all antique & collectible auctions. Coming in November will be a large stoneware, advertising & antique auction. For more information or to bid on The Lukan Estate Auction or any upcoming auctions, call Matt at 563-329-1010 or Lisa at 563-880-2538 or visit their website at harrylahrauctions.com.

2017 WI State Champion Auctioneer

The Wisconsin Auctioneers Association held their annual WI State Champion Auctioneer Contest at the WI State Fair and David Allen of Cross Plains, WI received the wining scores from the 5 judges.

The journey began in January with a preliminary auctioneer contest held in conjunction with the annual Wisconsin Auctioneers Association convention. At that time contestants were in the preliminaries and the five judges narrowed it to 10 semi-finalists for the final competition at the WI State Fair.

The WI Champion Auctioneer final competition was held on the Main Stage in the Coliseum of the WI State Fair Park. The nine (one semi-finalist could not attend) competitors in the initial round sold 3 items and then determined by the judges scores the field was narrowed to 6 finalists. The six finalists then had to answer two industry related questions and sell an additional 3 items for the final round. This competition was also a fund raiser for the 4-H Foundation with the competitors selling various items donated for the 4-H Foundation and the WI State Fair Park Foundation.

The nine finalists were Seth Adams, Prairie du Chien; David Allen, Cross Plains; Jenny Markham-Gehl, Genesee; Ray Henry, Foley, MN; Jack Hines, Ellsworth; Kathy Packard, Antigo; Randy Stockwell, Dorchester; Sterling Strathe, Eagle River; and Kendall Thiel, Chilton.

With the first round of auction lots being sold the judges made the 9 semi-finalists to 6 and they were David Allen, Ray Henry, Randy Stockwell, Jack Hines, Kathy Packard and Kendall Theil. When the final “calling” was done and the scores were tallied the Champion was David Allen, with Ray Henry being the 1st runner-up and 2nd runner-up was Randy Stockwell.

Our WAA Championship Auction is open to the public and we invite you to attend at the next WI State Fair in 2018 held in the second week of the WI State Fair on Tuesday afternoon.

The Wisconsin Auctioneers Association is a non-profit trade association that exists for the purpose of promoting the growth and professionalism of the auction method of marketing and Auctioneering in the State of Wisconsin. For further information our website is www.wisconsinauctioneers.org or you may call 1 608 558 5041.

Hamm's Beer And General Beer Advertising Show

Article by Kirk Schnitker (Hamm's Club)

Back by popular demand the Fall Classic Hamm's Beer Collectors Show will again be held on September 9, 2017. This show had been held every year for 17 years and is an outdoor show, held right on the grounds of the Old Hamm's Brewery rain or shine. There will be lots of breweriana including Midwest Beer Advertising signs from Wisconsin and surrounding states as well as Minnesota advertising.

This is not a real big show with 14 - 18 dealers set up but those dealers who set up bring very good supplies of signs and other beer advertising to sell. One can expect to see some of the best Hamm's and beer items at this show.

Expect also to just plain have a good time at this show. Many clubbers make it an all day affair. Hot dogs and brats are served, as well as plenty of cool refreshments.

If you want a very fun show with a chance to spend a good time with others who enjoy beer advertising, take in the Hamm's Brewery Show at 707 Minnehaha Ave E, St. Paul. The fun starts at 9 am and runs until 3pm.

Dealers are welcome to sign up for a space. For more information about the show or to buy or sell email hammsclub@gmail.com or call 763-252-0114.

Antiques & Appraising School Releases Data On Top Selling Items

Antiques
Collectibles

Rising
Trends

The latest results from the Asheford Institute Of Antiques survey of buying trends within the antiques and collectibles community were recently published online this past week by the school's Research & Polling Department.

After conducting similar surveys over the past five years, the internationally recognized home-study school on antiques, collectibles and appraising, released its latest trending data from the antiques marketplace for the 2016 year. The survey, which concentrated on compiling and grouping information related to customers buying habits over a twelve month period, was brought back this year after a strong response on the school's website from readers requesting updates from previous surveys, said current Director of the Institute, Charles Green. He went on to note that there were some interesting differences between the results from this poll, and those from previous years. "We've made our questionnaire sharper, and more specific, as well as bringing the participant base up to over 1,200 respondents, but the questions are still essentially the same," said Green, "even though the answers are quite different."

Carlee Jackson, the school's public relations director agreed with Mr. Green's assessment, and stated that the main goal of this year's survey was to once again measure the interest in current trends of antiques and collectibles, based on actual sales results and requests for specific items.

She noted that while the survey was informal in nature, and not predicated on scientific formulas, the results were still quite compelling when viewed in their entirety. "What we're seeing is a strong change in direction when it comes to certain areas of the decorative arts..." said Jackson, "It's not just Mid-century modern that's moving, but a number of other areas that are also making up ground." Jackson went on to note that interest in 1960's and 70's collectibles, particularly space and Star Wars related items, had also risen sharply as well. "There's no doubt in my mind that these are the new younger collectors that we're seeing today," said Carlee. "They're the one's who are really beginning to drive the industry forward."

Aside from the popularity of Mid-century modern furniture, many of the younger dealers from the survey also noted that literally anything twentieth-century, from brutalist metal sculptures to lesser known painters had also become increasingly sought after by both dealers and collectors. "We're in a virtual bidding war every time something from this era comes up," said Shannon Smith, a young east coast dealer. "Honestly, sometimes I wonder if it's worth all the fuss!"

Older dealers seemed to echo a similar sentiment, but indicated that there were other areas of the market that were beginning to show signs of renewed interest, particularly in the area of Greek and Egyptian revival styles - especially when done in stone and marble. Claude Paquin, a longtime dealer from Quebec, said some of his Victorian marble-top side tables, which hadn't moved in years, were suddenly flying out the door. "Who knows," said Paquin, "...maybe it's the beginning of something old!"

For readers wanting to view the full results of the Institute's survey, you can find them online at the school's Student News page at: <http://www.asheford.com/2016-survey-results.html>

FROM ALL AROUND THE WORLD!

$ Wanted! Reward! $

We own the large portrait photo of Wyatt Earp (taken by pioneer woman photographer Candace Reed in Quincy, Illinois in 1870) which is seen below on the top left. This photo was likely stored in the dark for almost 150 years along with the now missing matching portrait of Wyatt's first wife Urilla Sutherland. We believe both were sold out of the excess inventory of the Manitowoc, Wisconsin County Historical Society sometime in the 1900s. We will pay at least $25,000 (this amount is negotiable) to own the missing portrait of Urilla which is likely hanging in someone's house in Wisconsin or a nearby state. However, we must be able to examine it in order to determine it is her. If you have a portrait which measures 36" by 22" (frame O.D. 41.25" by 27.50"), and the frame matches the one Wyatt is framed in, and it's a woman wearing 1870s clothes- chances are you have the portrait we are looking for. We do not know what Urilla's dress looks like. Urilla may look like her sister Velma (seen below on the right) but she could be wearing a different style dress or jacket than the one shown in the frame below on the left. The best clue is the 36" by 22" actual size of the photograph which may also exhibit a strong resemblance to her sister Velma or the woman in the photo below in the center. Unlike Wyatt, the frame she is in may not be damaged. Like Wyatt, her portrait could also be signed Burger & Reed. An ad was run offering her for sale (as Wyatt's wife) around 2003-2006 in one of the antique newspapers distributed in WI. We will pay $5000 to the first person who can provide us with an original copy of that ad which shows Urilla's portrait.

If you have the portrait photo we are looking for and would like to part with it for some serious cash. Please call
