Kalamazoo Airgun Show Celebrates 25th Anniversary

With Full House on August 20th

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

The doors opened at 7:30 a.m. for early buyers and vendors at the Kalamazoo Expo Center - and in under eight hours, throngs of happy buyers and sellers were headed home.

The big bash was the 25th anniversary of the Kalamazoo Air Gun Show, held August 20th, where more than 100 tables were overflowing with all types of air guns and related paraphernalia.

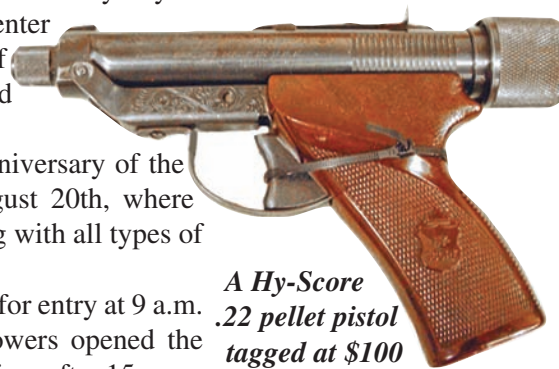

As the general public lined up for entry at 9 a.m. show promoters Wes and Theresa Powers opened the gates under their direction for the last time after 15 years at the helm. New promoters Dennis Baker and wife Cheryl, of Baker Air Guns, Mt. Victory, Ohio, were also at gate, greeting visitors and vendors alike.

Dealers at the show received a packet with information on the event, including a 4 x 5-inch mini poster saluting the 25th anniversary of the event.

Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association 66th Fall Antiques Show & Sale in Waukesha October 6 & 7, 2017 - 55 Dealers from 7 States

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

Founded in 1948, the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a non-profit charitable organization dedicated to preservation & education within Wisconsin. Funded by admissions charged at their February & October antiques shows, their Association awards scholarships and grants annually.

Through the support of those who attended past WADA shows, two Waukesha County 2017 high school seniors were awarded scholarships. Joseph Foye of Muskego High School received a scholarship for his essay, "Learning From Our Past," the history of a 1921 silver dollar given to him by his grandfather on the day he became an Eagle Scout. Julia Gahr of Sussex Hamilton High School also received a scholarship for her essay, "The Traveling Ring," the story of their family's wedding ring that has been used for several generations.

In 2016-2017 WADA awarded a fifth grant to the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society, continuing as the founding sponsor of FWHS's "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction". Important funding provided by WADA was used to restore a Victorian square piano at Wade House in Greenbush, Wisconsin. Proceeds from the April, 2016 auction held at Old World Wisconsin continue to fund restorations throughout the State. The latest grant from WADA will carry the partnership between the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association and the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society through the April, 2018 auction.

To encourage donations from the general public of items more than 50 years old for the next "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction", WADA is providing a free booth to the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society at their October 6 & 7, 2017 Antiques Show. Tax deductible receipts for donations dropped off at the show will be provided.

In addition the Price County Historical Society was awarded a grant for interior restorations to their Old Town Hall Museum in Fifield, Wisconsin.

And the Rock County Historical Society in Janesville was awarded a grant for the restoration of a print important to their history.

To learn more about the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association's ongoing grant & scholarship opportunities along with their many other endeavors promoting Wisconsin's history, visit their website at www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com.

Show your support and help promote history by attending their antiques show Friday, October 6, 10 am - 8 pm and Saturday, October 7, 10 am - 5 pm at the Waukesha County Expo Center, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha (a Milwaukee suburb), Wisconsin 53188. A free special exhibit, "Pauline Pottery and Her Clay Kin", will be available to all attendees. A traditional Wisconsin fish fry (baked fish also available) will be served Friday, late afternoon and evening. As always, there will be five drawings for $50 gift certificates. There's plenty of free parking and an ATM is on the premises. Questions? (414) 510-4441 or visit www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com.

Wade House, Greenbush, Wisconsin, was the recipient of a grant to restore a Victorian piano. The grant was awarded by the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association via the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society.

Customers frantically race into the WADA show to find their favorite dealers.

Kalamazoo Expo Center Hosts 25th Anniversary Airgun Show

Article & Photos by Jack Kelly

Although the Powers team handed off the show, both agreed they would be on hand for future events because they thoroughly enjoy the yearly gathering.

Visitors at the Aug. 20 show could hunt for goodies with dealers from all over the United States. But not all dealers came to sell items - some to just to share their prizes with fellow collectors.

Mentioning the name Quackenbush will make air gun rifle collector heads turn - and there were examples both for sale and for display only at the show.

It was a 10-hour drive to Kalamazoo for Jeff Sipling of Spring Grove, Pa., who showed off his flawless Quackenbush Excelsior rifle produced between 1877 and 1889. It could be used for target practice at your place for $4,000.

Show promoter Powers smiled as he showed off his personal 1922 #10 Quackenbush rifle, "only of one of 810 produced" and priced at $1,100. Other rifles at his booth were priced from $40 to -- $1,100 each.

Foot traffic came to a halt at the booth of Terry Wittmer who drove 1,500 miles from Banner, Wyo., to show - but not sell -- a massive display of 19 Quackenbush rifles mounted high along with an illustrated company history. It was the second time at Kalamazoo for the Western dealer/collector, who proudly offered a dozen "hard to find" flat cast iron bb targets priced from $800 to $1,200 each.

"It's the only one I've ever seen," said George Sage of Galesburg, Ill., pointing to a Hy-Score .22 pellet pistol at tagged $100. Someone else liked it too, as it sold before the show ended. Many folks checked out his 19-inch-long King cork rifle made by the same company that produced BB guns in the early 1900s. It was priced at $75.

Another pistol marked "sold" early in the show was bizarre looking cast iron 1903 dart ball pistol shown by Scott Evans of Monroe, Mich., and tagged at $275. An early Upton BB gun made by the Whirlpool Corporation in Benton Harbor, Mich., was ready to use for target practice at your range for $95.

Double-barrel bb guns were said to be a favorite of many collectors, and Richard Gentry of North Lawrence, Ohio, offered a pair at the show, priced at $700 each. The dealer said the 5-hour drive to the show was "well worth it."

"I like to share," said George Mitchell of Minburn, Iowa as he pointed with pride to a display of vintage BB gun advertising pieces, added with a smile, "They're not for sale, but fun to look at." Two real crowd pleasers were a pair of 3-foot-tall die cut cardboard signs featuring famous cowboy Red Ryder, holding BB guns of the same name. The two signs are part of six displays of the same kind from the Mitchell collection.

The longest drive a first-time show attendant may have been won by Larry Hannusch, who spent 26 hours and 1,450 miles traveling to Kalamazoo from his Texas home. When asked about his first visit to the Kalamazoo show, he stated, "it's phenomenal for displays as well as buys."

The annual event was once again a "grandad and lads" event for Bill Duimstra and 15-year-old Grandsons Eli and Alex from Holland, Mich. The pair have been assisting their grandfather for five years of the 20 years he's been showing at the event.

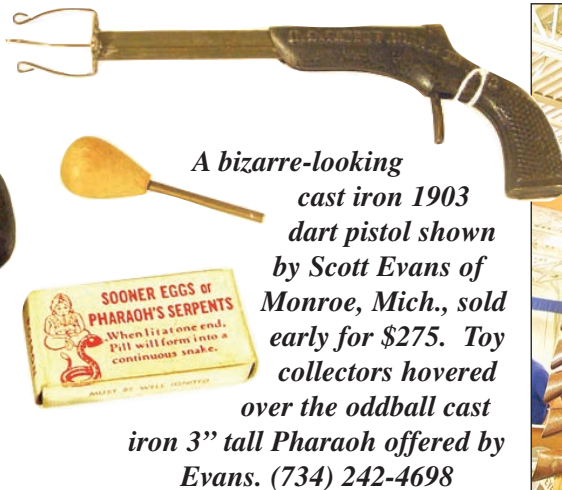

Dealer Dennis Plummer, also from Holland, mixed a bit of humor and advice for potential buyers with a printed notice at his booth, stating: "I am here to sell soooo feel free to make offers. I promise not to be offended with a low ball offer if you promise not to be offended if I giggle a little. Package deals are always considered and generally yield the greatest 'discount'."

Did it work? Plummer said with a smile, "We've had a really good day. We were priced right and willing to negotiate."

As the show ended, retiring promoter Powers summed up his 15 year stint with, "We've made a lot of friends because of BB guns."

The new director, Dennis Baker, said he was pleased with the show's past performance, adding that he looked forward to keeping it a fun event for both dealers and visitors.

Next year's show is tentatively being planned for the usual third weekend of August at the Expo Center at the Kalamazoo, Mich., Fairgrounds. For further information, phone 937-660-9152 or bakerairguns.com

"I'm going to use these later today" chuckled one young man while scooping up a handful of Daisy bb gun targets, all for $2 at the August show.

Dennis Plummer of Holland, Mich., demonstrates a 2015 Cold Defender BB pistol priced at $50, while in the foreground is his selling philosophy: "I am here to sell sooo Feel free to make offers. I promise not to be offended with a low ball offer if you promise not to be offended if I giggle a little. Package deals are always considered and generally yield the greatest 'discount'." (616) 738-1191.

For the fifth year in a row, 20-year show veteran Bill Duimstra of Holland, Mich., was assisted in selling by 15-year-old grandsons Eli and Alex. (616) 566-5246.

Some antique and collector shows may offer one or two Red Ryder BB rifles, but one vendor at Kalamazoo showed off seven of them.

Not all BB guns are traditional metal and wood. This oddball 16-inch-long cardboard, wood and metal contraption, which shot BBs with "pump style action," was offered - and sold - by Texas dealer Larry Hannusch.

Both advertising and BB gun collectors hovered around the pair of 3-foot-tall cardboard advertising signs displayed, but not offered for sale, by George Mitchell of Minburn, Iowa. (515) 677-2618

18 year old Gage Krieger of Waterveleit, Mich., talks to dealer Duane Shaferly of Fostoria, Ohio about the dealers Daisy Model 21 double barrel bb gun priced at $950. Others checked out his selection of small cast iron pistols. (419) 435-7909.

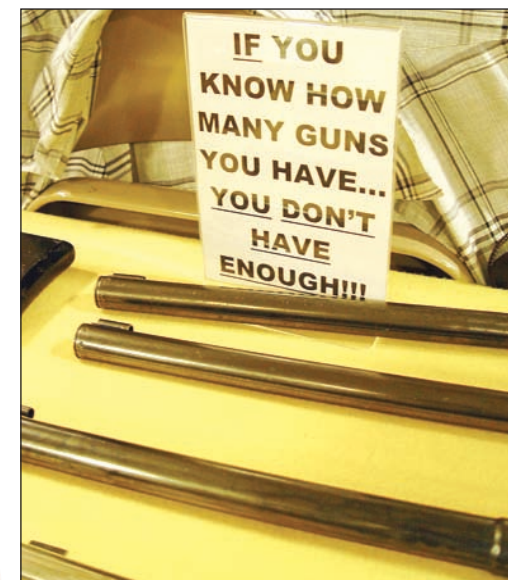

"It's the best bargain of the show," one buyer said with a smile as he walked off with an 11-inch-long 1930s wood and metal toy cork pistol. The price of his prize -- $2!

"Those are some of the finest examples at the show - and displayed well too" said one visitor pointing to the rack of air rifles shown by John Ghizzoni of Highwood, Ill. At the same spot, collectors checked over the selection of reproduction bb gun bayonets. (847) 652-2393.

"I didn't know there was such a thing" said one shopper pointing to a display of early oddball antique self defense air pistols.

Many got a chuckle reading a sign about collecting bb guns while attending the Kalamazoo gathering.

Antique Motorcycle Club of America

The Antique Motorcycle Club of America was founded in 1954 by a group of antique-bike fans in the New England area (pictured from left are T.A. Hodgdon, Emmett Moore, Henry Wing Sr., and Henry Wing Jr.). AMCA Founders In the decades since, the AMCA has grown to become one of the largest organizations of antique-motorcycle enthusiasts in the world, with 11,000 members in the United States and more than a dozen other countries.

Owner with three-wheeled motorcycle From the beginning, the purpose of the club has been the "preservation, restoration and operation of old-time motorcycles." Members of the AMCA own, restore, preserve, study or just admire motorcycles that fall into the antique category, meaning they are at least 35 years old. Although the Club is based in the United States, fans of motorcycles from all countries are welcome, and ownership of an antique motorcycle is not required to become a member.

Through its network of 59 affiliated Chapters in the U.S. and abroad, the AMCA provides a way for antique-bike fans to share their interest with others in their local area. Chapters typically host regular meetings, plus activities like bike shows, swap meets and antique-bike road runs.

At the national and international level, the AMCA maintains a calendar of National Meets and Road Runs that include some of the premier antique-motorcycle gatherings in the world. National Meets typically include a large vendor area, where members can sell everything from antique-bike parts to entire motorcycles that are at least 35 years old. In addition, National Meets offer a full schedule of other activities, ranging from seminars and bike shows to motorcycle field games and antique-bike racing.

Judging All National Meets also feature the AMCA's National Judging Program, in which members' motorcycles can win awards in three categories: Restored, Original Condition or Period Modified. Instead of competing against each other, bikes entered in the AMCA Judging Program are evaluated on a 100-point scale against the standard of the same motorcycle as it would have appeared when it originally left the factory.

National Road Runs provide an opportunity to use these classic machines for their intended purpose—riding on back roads in some of the most scenic parts of the country.

In addition to those events, AMCA members also get access to a number of benefits, including a high-quality magazine six times per year, online forums where they can seek advice from experts, and the AMCA Virtual Motorcycle Library, featuring downloadable copies of hundreds of old and rare sales brochures, parts lists and repair manuals. Plus, AMCA members receive discounts on admission to some of the country's premier motorcycle museums.

Mostly, though, people join the AMCA to meet up with others who share their interest in machines from the classic era of motorcycling. For some, that means the satisfaction that comes from investing thousands of hours in bringing a rusted hulk back to its original perfection. To others, it means preserving artifacts of the past so that they can be appreciated by future generations, or the simple pleasure of enjoying a two-lane road at an unhurried pace—just like motorcyclists generations ago.

Does that sound like you? Why not join with thousands of other like-minded antique-bike fans by becoming a member of the AMCA? Visit www.antiquemotorcycle.org

Evans Decoy Book Available Now

Ever since the inception of the Evans Society in the late 1990's there has been discussion of documenting the history of Walter Evans and the Evans Decoy Factory. Over the years there have been a number of articles written based on information that was gathered by Evans collectors.

A few years back, Jackie Robinson worked to put together a book on Walter Evans, but with Jackie's passing the book was never completed and we are not aware of what happened with all her work. In 2012, Terry Smart was elected president of the Evans Society. Andy Schoneich and Terry Smart began their independent work on the Evans book almost two years ago after agreeing at the 2015 Oshkosh Wisconsin Decoy show to take on the project. The majority of the work started in July 2015. The goal of the book was to provide the collector a comprehensive pictorial guide to the different grades and species of Evans decoys. With the support of many collectors, we were able to assemble a comprehensive collection of all the species and grades of known Evans decoys. Through our research we were able to bring clarity to the (4) grades of Evans decoys (Mammoth, Standard, Competitive, and Hardware Store) and the distinguishing characteristics between each grade. The objective of the book was not to speculate, but only make claims based on known/documented facts. The book was completed in April 2017 and available to collectors at the 2017 North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show. Given that this has been the first comprehensive publication regarding Walter Evans and his decoys, it has been well received and appreciated by collectors.

To order a copy, please go to www.decoyrelics.com, select the Evans Book tab and print an order form, or call us at (708) 448-3061 and we would be happy to help complete a form for you.

The Lighter Side of Collecting

Funny Cartoons for Serious Collectors by New Jersey Cartoonist John Stinger

The Lighter Side of Collecting!

JOHN STINGER

Funny Cartoons for Serious Collectors

John Stinger's cartoons have appeared in many leading publications for years. Now, the artist, collector, and cartoonist has released his new book called The Lighter Side of Collecting! It features 200 cartoons and over 60 pages of quirky humor about collecting.

Stinger said, "The book is designed to appeal to both young and experienced collectors, dealers, auctioneers, appraisers, flea marketers, show promoters and pickers. It's also family-friendly, non-offensive, and promises to entertain anyone who wheels and deals (or trades) in vintage treasures or other magnificent possessions."

Stinger sold his first cartoon about antiques in 1973. In 1992, he published his first book about collecting. His general line of award-winning cartoons is syndicated in the US, Canada and the UK. His monthly political cartoons are distributed nationally by Senior Wire Services.

The Lighter Side of Collecting! is available for $15.95 plus shipping. (Readers of this publication are entitled to a 10% discount off the retail price; be sure to mention us.)
