Out & About

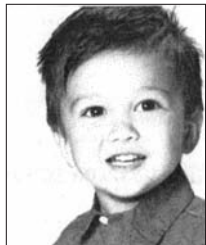

The weather has been just unmercifully cold lately.

Although we have some snow, I have not been seeing any snowmobilers. There have been lots of people ice fishing on our local Shawano Lake and on Lake Winnebago by me. Make sure to dress warm and carry gloves and a hat.

Mekenzy's holiday break ended and she went back to Bemidji, Minnesota. While she was home, some of the temperatures in Bemidji were -30 with windchill. She wears her Sorel winter boots with wool socks. She always carries extra gloves, so that she has a dry pair. Tia is still on break and has been working eight hour days filing transcripts. She just got back from her trip to Minneapolis, Minnesota. So, there will be photos in the next few weeks.

Brandon started a new job at Les Stumpf Ford. He seems to like the responsibility and the male comradery. Because he is only sixteen, his jobs are limited at this time. He still works his other job on the weekend.

We would like to thank all the children who participated in the coloring contest. As always, we enjoy everyone's entry and make sure you check out our coloring contest entries on page 10 and 11.

My mother and I went to a Ladies Christmas Brunch at my church. It was my dream come true. This was our first time attending an event like this. There were 57 designer tables, 12 of the tables were "Gingerbread" themed. The tables were beautiful and well thought out. The brunch that was served by the men were delicious. Two of the servers were my friends Matt & Tim. My mother and I plan on going next year too.

The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand
An Old "Blue Bird" Pot Shop

W. Nelson McCoy was born in 1820 in Harpers Ferry, Virginia, which is located in West Virginia. In January 1848, he and his wife Ester moved to Ohio's, Muskingum County, Springfield Township, in a community called Putnam. At that time, Putnam was a suburb of Zanesville, but in 1872, it became incorporated into Zanesville.

During the same year as W. Nelson and his wife arrived in Putnam, they had a son whose name was James W. Years later J.W. would go on to establish a well-known pottery, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery".

W. Nelson came to Putnam as a farmer. He acquired some land and built a house. In addition to farming, he also built a small, log building to produce stoneware during the warmer months. The pottery was a small, "Blue Bird" type shop, which was like the ones many of the farmers had at the time. It was primitive in its equipment, and the ware it produced was rough and unfinished. Although during that period, most of the home-owned, "Bluebird" shops operated under primitive conditions.

W. Nelson only produced pottery for a few years, not eight as previously believed. In January 1853, a notice was published in the "Zanesville Daily Courier" stating that a partnership that W. Nelson had with Jeremiah Elder was dissolved. The partnership was in a Putnam grocery store, named Elder & McCoy, which had been established at some uncertain prior time.

On the same date that W. Nelson ended his partnership with Elder, a second notice was published reporting that he had taken another partner, Norman Dodge, in the grocery business. Later W. Nelson bought out Elder, and the name of the grocery was changed to "McCoy & Dodge".

35Considering his job at the grocery, and the labor involved in farming, maintaining his household, supplying clay and firewood for his kiln, one would imagine that W. Nelson only had a small amount of time for actual pottery production. Surely, the volume he produced was small, and it was undoubtedly unmarked, since none that is attributable to him has been found.

Prior to 1853 a grocery store in Zanesville was owned by "James Benjamin & Co.". Sometime after 1858 W. Nelson acquired the major share in the "Benjamin & Co.", and the name of the store was then changed to "McCoy - Benjamin & Co.". Hugh McDonald was another owner besides McCoy and Benjamin.

In addition to the operation of the store itself, James Benjamin had other interests; he was a wholesale dealer in stoneware. The newspaper "Zanes Times Signal" carried an article in 1957 by Norris F. Schneider, who, quoting old sources, said that during the 1870's Benjamin was one of the three major stoneware wholesalers in the region. The other major stoneware wholesalers at the time were J.C. Gillespie, and Hudson C. Ward.

The crock shown is an example of Benjamin's wares. The inscription on it is stenciled in blue ink, and reads, "Jas. Benjamin Wholesale Stoneware Depot Zanesville, O".

W. Nelson is not known to have been associated with James Benjamin in the pottery business in Zanesville. However, he and Benjamin were associated in the pottery business located in Cincinnati. (See the article, "The History of the James Benjamin Potteries and his Connection with W. Nelson McCoy", which is contained on this Web site).

W. Nelson as a long-time, Zanesville businessman, became respected and popular. In 1881, he was elected the mayor of Zanesville, and in 1883, he was reelected. W. Nelson continued managing and working in his grocery and dry goods store until the early 1890's. He died in 1894.

Richfield Historical Society (RHS) announces its 10th Annual Antiques, Appraisal and Chili Lunch After 10 years a new location offers more dealers along with appraisers and tasty food

Article & Photos by Diane Pedersen

Do you ever long to own a priceless antique or know what your antiques might be worth? Well, you can do both at the 2018 RHS Antiques, Appraisal and Chili Lunch now held at Friess Lake School 1740 Hwy 164 in Richfield WI, February 18, 2018 9am - 4pm. Admission is FREE. RHS has had such success these past 9 years it was decided to expand the event to include indoor dealer booths and their long trusted 5 appraisers. February is also the time of year we often long for the warmth of summer and visit with friends. The RHS Antiques, Appraisal and Chili Lunch is the place you can stay warm, purchase a wonderful antique, discover the estimated value of your antiques, and mingle with friends while enjoying a tasty bowl of Chili.

DEALERS - Friess Lake School is in the heart of Richfield and offers easy access and expanded parking for dealers and guests. In recent years the 5 appraisers/dealers brought antiques to sell. In 2018, RHS is adding indoor vintage/antique dealer booths. Booth fees: $35 for 10.5 x 10 booth and $40 with electric. 2-8' tables FREE with each booth. More information regarding Dealer Registration, Guidelines and Booth layout at www.richfieldhistoricalsociety.org

APPRAISERS - Bring your coins, stamps, watches, civil war and WWII items as well as any general item for appraisal. Appraisals per item: $5.00.

FOOD - Mild, Tasty Fire House and Chicken Chili is featured item on the menu. Chose your favorite bowl of Chili along with fixings such as onions, sour cream and cheddar cheese. If you have attended the RHS event before, you will remember the delicious cornmeal muffins, brownies and beverage all included for $7.00. Chili Dogs went over so well in 2016 and 2017 we are offering them again in 2018. Homemade pie is $2.00 per slice.

BRING THE FAMILY - Richie the Raccoon, RHS mascot, will be there 11-1 PM.

This event supports projects of the Richfield Historical Society. In particular, restoration of the Messer/Mayer Mill. RHS completed restoration of the final foundation wall in 2017. Future goal is to "Get the Mill Grinding".

Richfield Historical Society was founded in 1996 to promote the interesting history of the Richfield WI area and pioneers who settled the area. In 1998 the Town of Richfield purchased land which included the Messer/Mayer Mill and Homestead. This land now is known as the Richfield Historical Park. Each year RHS offers various events: Antiques, Appraisal and Chili 3rd Sunday in February, Maple Syrup Family Day in March, Annual Art Fair 4th weekend in July, Annual Thresheree 3rd weekend in September.

Remember, you don't have to fight the traffic heading up north or into the city. Visit RHS Antiques, Appraisal and Chili Lunch once, and you'll return again and again. So, mark your calendar; and we will see you there.

"The Marketing of Tobacco" A Special Exhibit at the 44th Winter WADA Antiques Show

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle with Lee Bernard & Henry Hecker
Photos by Lee Bernard & Henry Hecker

Folks familiar with the semi-annual shows produced by the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association, aka WADA, are familiar with Lee Bernard Antiques, Jackson, Wisconsin. In recent years Lee, along with his wife Roxanne, have exhibited in Booth 3 at the WADA shows, but this February Lee will ALSO exhibit his tobacco advertising collection in WADA's Special Exhibit Booth just around the corner from the show's entrance. Joining Lee, long-time collector Henry Hecker who will also share very special examples of tobacco advertising from his own collection.

"The Marketing of Tobacco" is a free exhibit for those who attend the 44th Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show & Sale at the Waukesha County Expo Center in suburban Milwaukee. Come see the rarity, quality and variety of objects assembled by these top collectors of "Tobacciana". Henry Hecker and Lee Bernard will be on hand both days to answer questions and to share their knowledge of this fascinating field.

Tobacco Advertising 101:

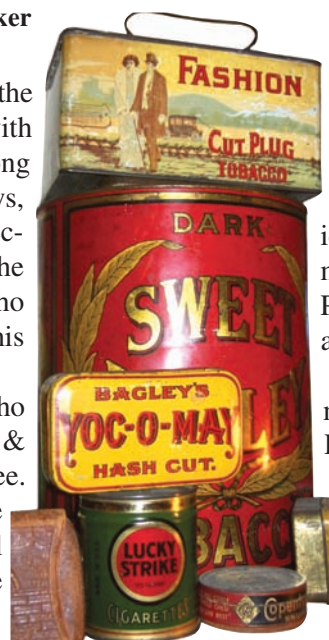

Native Americans introduced tobacco to the first European settlers in the early 1600's. Traders returned to Europe with tobacco plants from the Americas and, thus, the craving for a new commodity was born!

Henry provided some background on the earliest tobacco advertising. "Paper and wood were undoubtedly used several hundred years ago to advertise tobacco. While it is likely simple ads in newspapers and postings of broadsides began long before the mid-nineteenth century, the real explosion in graphics marketing occurred in the last quarter of the 1800's. With the advent of sophisticated lithography on both tin and card stock, manufacturers of tobacco products employed every conceivable image and narrative in advertising and packaging. Images of attractive women were the most commonly used to gain the attention of a predominantly male customer base.

Often the women were displayed in, what was considered at that time, a very risqué manner. But cigar box labels covered the gambit: politicians and war heroes, sports figures and sportsmen, race horses, actors and actresses, fanciful depictions from literature and mythology, and holidays (especially Christmas and New Years). Native Americans and African Americans were commonly depicted often in less-than-complimentary ways that are today considered politically incorrect, if not downright racially discriminating. Inducement to use the product was, therefore, by association with vividly-depicted references of sex appeal, heroism, outdoors life, sports talent, literary knowledge, etc., all designed to appeal to the male gender.

"Early on a segment of the public realized there was circumstantial evidence to health risks of smoking. The noted Hall of Fame baseball player, Honus Wagner, halted the sale of his tobacco baseball cards because of his concern about young people using the product. However, as the large tobacco companies emerged in the 20th century, more ruthless and deceptive marketing became common place actually claiming health benefits of smoking and the denial of health damaging effects of tobacco. Eventually this resulted in governmental regulation with warning labels and the ban on television ads for smoking materials. Recall the 'Marlboro Man' ads of the 1950's-60s. Tragically, several of these actors succumbed to lung cancer because of their loyalty to the products they pitched."

A display of tin litho advertising illustrates the artful use of color and design to attract the consumer's eye.

A variety of cigar box art. Images of attractive young women helped push the product.

How did the collections start?

Lee began collecting tobacciana a scant five years ago, illustrating there's plenty of fine examples available. About his first acquisition he says, "I bought a colorful tobacco tin, Buckingham Cut Plug, with the intention of selling it; but I really liked it, so I kept it. That was the start of my collection of cigar & other tobacco related items. The great graphics on the old tins & boxes appeals to me & the hunt for items to add to my collection is fun & interesting." Lee's favorite piece is a colorful Possum cigar tin. "Who would want to smoke a cigar out of a tin with an opossum on it?" Lee asks!

Henry's been collecting cigar boxes for about 25 years, focusing mostly on Wisconsin cigar makers but also boxes with great graphics. Henry says, "My first purchase was a box from the Henry Castenhoz saloon in Milwaukee, probably from his sample room.

Castenhoz also bottled beer for a time; the reason I acquired the box as a brewery 'go-with'. This was way before I purposely started collecting cigar boxes. Ironically I bought the box from Lee Bernard!" Henry's favorite piece is a small Milwaukee Stock Yards Christmas box with Santa on it; he's never seen another, the survival rate of such boxes is so low.

Words of wisdom? Henry notes the field has gained popularity in the last 10 years and good boxes are commanding strong prices, becoming hard to find. Henry recommends, "Buy what you like and you can always upgrade later. Base your purchases, first and foremost, on good graphics and condition. Pick a theme, otherwise your collection can become unwieldy and consume too much space." Lee adds, "Buy the best you can afford - it's better to buy one $20 tin than four $5 tins. Educate yourself on the subject by attending antiques shows, talking with knowledgeable dealers, and studying books on the subject so you get a feel for what is available."

EXPECT THE UNUSUAL!

Henry and Lee will both be on hand to discuss antique tobacco advertising collecting. In addition, wander the show's three large rooms featuring everything from vintage holiday items to jewelry, to antique cupboards offered by 55 of the Midwest's top dealers from 9 states. The Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, 10-8 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite!

Also at the show, antiques (more than 100 years old) and vintage (50-99 years old) items will be collected by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society for their biennial "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction". Tax deductible receipts will be provided to all donors. The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is proud to serve as the founding & continuing sponsor of this event since 2008 and has donated the booth for collection of objects for the fund-raising auction.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a non-profit organization that produces two antiques shows annually. Your admission of $7.00 funds college scholarships as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups. A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available with any ad or at: www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com/ Free parking. ATM on premises.

This colorful Mi Lola humidor was suitable to become a permanent fixture in a home. An attractive container refilled, time after time, keeps the brand name in front of the smoker.

“The West Bend Antique Show is a family-oriented event that encourages adults and youth to explore, discover, learn about and even own a piece of the past. These items were used and cherished by our ancestors,” says Kaczmarek. “We can teach our children to appreciate old things by showing them that an antique show is more of a treasure hunt, if you will. The workmanship and beauty of some of these items make them real treasures.”
