Cold Weather Doesn't Freeze Out Shoppers at the 16th Annual Antique Sporting & Advertising Show in Oshkosh

Article & photos by Timothy Wilson

The Antique Sporting and Advertising Show in Oshkosh, Wisconsin happened on the first weekend of February. The climate was frigid, with wind chill of nearly 25 below. With that in mind, it didn't stop the crowds from gathering near the doors, along with more waiting in their heated cars until the event opened to the public. Through Northstar Collective's acquisition of the show three years ago, the event has changed.

Mekenzy just loves being at Bemidji State University. The great outdoors just fits her personality. A few weeks ago, she sent me these pictures of the start of her day. Even though she has underground tunnels she can use, on good days, she still likes to take the long walk outside.

It's All About the Hunt at the 16th Annual Antique Sporting & Advertising Show in Oshkosh

Article & photos by Timothy Wilson

When Northstar purchased the event, it was originally a Sporting Show; guns, knives, lures, and traps. Combining advertising; such as early porcelain signs, neon beer signs, counter and general store displays, and more; helped create a wider range of items for shoppers to enjoy.

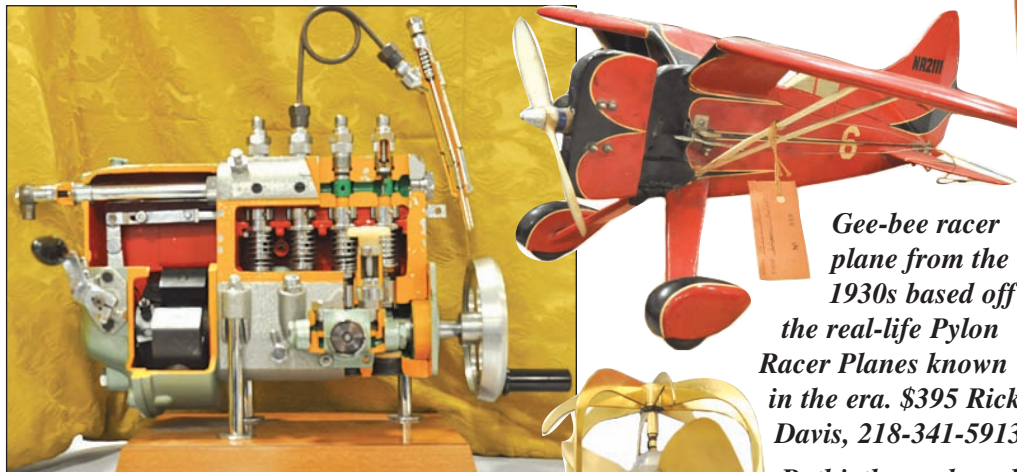

When the doors opened to the public, the crowd was ready to roll. Immediately as the event began, they were exposed to a vast amount of antique sporting goods and advertising available to buy. Many people came for the experience and history, but some acquired a piece or two of that history to take home with them.

The show contained dealers from the Midwest, and some came as far as New York, and California. Each dealer possessed a wealth of knowledge of what they brought to the occasion, and was a fountain of learning for the young and old alike. Whether the shopper was starting a collection, or had been collecting for decades, the Sporting & Advertising Show delivered. From grandpa's hunting knife to the exotic mounts from Africa. All alongside the ever-popular Coca-Cola signs to the rare lamps advertising political campaigns. The pool of diverse dealers and their inventory made it simple to find something of interest. Indian artifacts, military items, outdoor books and magazines, vintage toys, and more were also seen in the show.

Going to an event like this, you never know what you'll discover. The namesake gives away hints of what you might see, but in the long-run you must find out for yourself. As the collectors would say "It's all about the hunt."

The next occurrence of this event will take place next year's first weekend in February. For more information you can visit www.antiquesportingandadvertising-show.com or contact Northstar Collective by phone at 906-250-1618.

I would like to tell you a story. A story that starts similar to the stories of many auctioneers - attending auctions, admiring the auctioneer & enjoying the auction experience. This story started 30 years ago when, while assisting a family member with their auction, fate stepped in & the owner of Mason City School of Auctioneering crossed paths with this individual and the next school session had an eager student.

We all know that once you get a taste of the auction life, you are hooked. This individual is no different. But as we all also know, there is some hesitation & uneasiness when you come home from auction school. There is the big question of: Now what? For this individual, the answer came with a phone call from Jack Hines and an introduction to the Wisconsin Auctioneer Association. Since that call, this person has never missed a WAA conference and has served in every possible position in the association.

Here are a few more fun facts about our inductee:

- * This person is a first generation auctioneer and has sold everything from cattle & farm equipment to real estate, antiques & estates
- * This person can expertly navigate farm wagons into spaces as small as a postage stamp & a keyboard with the sole of two fingers
- * This person will drop everything to help out a family member or neighbor in need
- * This person has worked with many other auctioneers, loves networking and learning from peers
- * This person is a 30 year member of the WAA and Member of the National Auctioneers Association
- * This person hates bridges & will apparently drive for miles to avoid them
- * The craziest thing this person has ever sold is dinosaur poop
- * This person is great at remembering bidder numbers but not great at remembering bidder names. In fact, he often describes people as "the one with the oval face"
- * He met his wife at a fireman's dance when one of his former high school teachers pushed him into a group of women. Being the stubborn guy he is, he started dancing with the first girl & continued around the circle until he had danced with them all. The family says these moves are quite memorable!
- * He belongs to St. Thomas Church and donates his time and talents for fundraising to many community organizations
- * He is an active member of the Waterford FFA Alumni, where he was recently elected Alumni President and supporter of the Burlington FFA chapter
- * He is active with local 4H, raising animals for exhibitors!
- * He has served on the board of directors for Lake Area Realtors Association and is a member of the local, state and National Realtors Association
- * He has been married to his lovely wife Sally for almost 35 years. He is the proud father of Abby, Megan, Katie and Kevin, and grandpa to Jayce

He is large in stature with a bigger heart, loves his family and friends and we love him!

A wonderful career, years of service to the auction industry, and a great friend- I am honored to introduce your newest inductee, Bob Hagemann.

Self-Taught Woodcarver/Artist/Photographer Dispersing in Upcoming Auction

Don and Liz Hollatz have two upcoming auctions on Saturday, March 3 in Deforest, WI and Saturday, March 10 in McFarland, WI. Moving to Indiana and assisted living, the entire collection of Liz's glassware, collectables and Don's well known wood carvings, fishing decoys, will all cross the auction block. Plus lots of antiques and collectibles from the 1800's from the Oconomowoc Mayor's seated estate, purchased by Liz's family in the 1930's, will be offered.

A couple of great auctions, plus maybe a 3rd, where you can purchase a self-taught man's expert handy work which is slowly becoming a lost art in this country.

Living in Madison, WI for over 50 years, the Hollatz family collected a very wide range of items which will be of interest to collectors, e-bayers, resellers and historians. Please check AAAN for both auction ads and visit Arneson Auction's website: www.whats4sale.biz for photos and list or call 715-819-6723 or 608-797-6086.

Ackerman's Bring Four Great Antique Shows To Iowa City, Iowa In 2018

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

The Johnson County Fairgrounds at Iowa City, Iowa will be the location for four great area/regional antique events during 2018. The fairgrounds is located at the southwest edge of Iowa City at exit 89 off the Avenue of the Saints. The location is just 30 minutes south of Cedar Rapids, Iowa and 45 minutes north of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, then north _ mile to the fairgrounds.

ALL SHOWS ARE AT THE JOHNSON COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS
AT THE SOUTHWEST EDGE OF IOWA CITY, IOWA.
EXIT 89 OFF THE AVENUE OF THE SAINTS.

32nd ANNUAL IOWA CITY KIWANIS CLUB ANTIQUE SHOW
FRIDAY MARCH 9TH 5 TO 8 P.M. & SATURDAY MARCH 10TH 9 A.M. TO 3 P.M.

The first event will be the 32nd Kiwanis Club Antique Show that will be held in Building C at the fairgrounds. This show attracts over 1000 eager antique buyers and collectors each year to buy from the 35 quality antique dealers who participate. Lots of quality antique furniture, primitives, fine glassware, ephemera, advertising items, stoneware and pottery, antique clocks and lighting, coins and jewelry, sterling silver, primitives, farm and country antiques, as well as many more categories of antiques will be represented at the show. The show is in its 32nd year and has been under the management of Ackerman's since 1986 and is the major fundraiser for the local Kiwanis Club. Admission is just $3

ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET
SUNDAY JUNE 10TH 8 A.M. TO 3 P.M.

ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET will be held again this year on Sunday June 10th at the Johnson County Fairgrounds at the southwest edge of Iowa City, Iowa just off the Avenue of the Saints at Exit 89

For the 5th year, ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET will be set up in three buildings at the fairgrounds as well as many outdoor dealers surrounding the buildings and adjacent to the large parking lots at the fairgrounds.

A great lunch stand is available to feed and water the hungry shoppers all day long.

About 80 or more dealers are expected to be participating in ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET. All types of antiques, primitives, collectables, lots of antique furniture, paper goods, advertising items, farm and country antiques, glassware, jewelry stoneware, Iowa Hawkeye items, lighting, coins, silver clocks, artwork items, and much, more will be for sale. Admission is just $3/person and parking is plentiful, close and free.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET
JULY 4TH 7 A.M. TO 4 P.M.

THE 4TH ANNUAL ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET will be held again this year.

This event has taken off like a POLKA FEST with free beer! and attracts people from all over the Midwest and beyond and is well worth attending from any distance.

This show has become the replacement show for the long running Hanson's Grove Antique Show that was held at Solon, Iowa for 34 wonderful years and ceased operation in 2014. As a show was needed to fill the void left by the absence of Hanson's Grove, Ackerman's developed the market and the fairgrounds was secured and the show started in 2015 and has become a "have to go to" event on July 4th.

Over 100 dealers participate each year in ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH OF JULY STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET and the show is held in the three main buildings at the fairgrounds as well as many outdoor dealers. The open air ambiance brings back the flavor of Hanson's Grove, and the indoor dealers are offered the comfort of selling quality items in the event of inclement weather. So far, the weather has co-operated nicely the past three years, and that is hoped and prayed for again this year.

Parking for ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET is immediately adjacent to the show and the parking areas are well utilized all day long. Early arrivals are plentiful and the show draws a strong crowd right up to closing time at 4 p.m. There are numerous parking lot assistants to direct the many eager customers and antique buyers to the parking areas as well as to answer any questions about the show or direct you around the fairgrounds.

In 2017, thousands of antique enthusiasts attended ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET. Attendance has been tremendous each year and with the great area location for the show, which is easily accessible from the Avenue of the Saints, customers arrive from all over.

Many of the dealers stockpile goodies just for the 4th of July as it is the number one day in the year that people are out antiquing and visiting area shops and antique malls. A tradition has been maintained in our area with a great antique show at a great easy to get to location. Admission is only $3/person and parking is free.

A great lunch stand is available and is well patronized. We hope to see all of you on July 4th at Iowa City, Iowa.

LABOR DAY MONDAY SEPTEMBER 3RD 8 A.M. TO 3 P.M.

The last event that rounds out the 2018 antique show season in Iowa City will be the 18th Annual Ralston Creek (Now Creekless) Labor Day Antique Flea Market. Also held at the fairgrounds, a large attendance is always on hand and there are usually about 60 dealers set up outside at the fairgrounds. More details later on.

For information on any of the above listed shows, please contact Bill Ackerman at 319-430-3737 We are always eager to accommodate dealers for any of our events.

68th Oregon, Illinois Annual Antique Show March 24th & 25th

Article & photos by Ron Bry

The Oregon Woman's Club wants to announce their 68th annual antique show, one of the premier antiques shows in Northern Illinois. The Oregon Woman's Club, a member of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, sponsors this show as a major fund raising event and uses the proceeds to help fund various community projects and charities.

As in past years, the show will be held at the Blackhawk Center Sports Arena, located on the Oregon Public School campus. The facility offers ample parking, handicap accessibility and a huge area for our 52 Midwest antique dealers from Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana and Iowa to display their merchandise for sale. Quality antiques from the early 1800's through mid-century 1950's, including all areas of collecting – furniture, glass, china, pottery, toys, primitives, textiles, jewelry, dolls, silver, decorator items and more.

There will be items for all collecting tastes and budgets, for both the new and advanced collector. We like to think of it as "Comfort Food for the Eyes".

The food concession will be provided by the Chana United Methodist Ladies. The menu will be a selection of sandwiches, chips, desserts and beverages, so bring your appetite and enjoy lunch. Mary Lou's Crystal Repair from Joliet, IL, will be on hand both days to repair your damaged heirlooms "while you wait". On Sunday, from 10am-3pm, Hack's Auction & Realty Services, Pecatonica, IL, will offer verbal appraisals of your small treasures for $5 per item. Please supply photos of large items. If a written appraisal is needed, discuss the details with the appraisers.

This will be the second year for the Woman's Club to invite a local area not-for-profit to have a representative at the show. This will give the agency or organization an opportunity to present their mission, activities, goals and needs to the visiting public. This year we are pleased to help showcase the Village of Progress.

Show times are Saturday 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and Sunday 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Entry to the show is $6 per person, which is good for both days. Door prizes will be awarded throughout both days of the show.

Location is the Blackhawk Center, 1101 West Jefferson Street, Oregon, IL 61061.

Mark your calendar for March 25 and 26, 2017, to make plans to come enjoy the day or weekend. For additional information visit www.oregonil.com or www.cityoforegon.org or call 815-732-2219.

Antiques & Appraising School Launches "New" e-Course

Article by Charles Green (Asheford Institute of Antiques)

The Asheford Institute of Antiques (AIA), a professional-level distance learning program on antiques, collectibles and appraising, recently rolled out its first ever online "e-Course," at an industry trade gathering earlier this month, in anticipation of the school's 50th anniversary to be held in New York later this year.

Described by school spokesperson Shelly Dumont, as a watershed moment for the Institute, Dumont said the school's first foray into e-learning was consistent with Asheford's innovative and groundbreaking teaching techniques employed over the last 50 years. "When we offer something new, we like to take the time to make sure it's done right," said Dumont at a Q & A session following the announcement.

When asked about the differences in curriculum between textbooks and the new e-Course format of the program, Dumont said there was literally no comparison. "In terms of sheer volume, it's almost double the size of the printed version, and comes loaded with interactive videos, multimedia-activities, web-based resource links, and a host of other features we simply can't add into the texts." Dumont went on to say that the e-Course had been in development for almost two years by the school's IT team, before any release dates were even considered.

Industry insiders attending the trade gathering were granted temporary passcodes to the e-Course, and were given full access to the programs options and features at a demonstration held during the event. Director of the school, Charles Green presided over the presentation, and noted during the unveiling, that the program had undergone almost a year of beta-testing by international students prior to its intended release in North America.

A statement issued from the school's Admissions Officer, Tony Drew seemed to indicate a "full" release date for the new e-Course to be some time in mid-July. "We don't want to rush it, but we're really pleased with the response so far," said Drew, "We think the e-Course is really going to be a game-changer when it comes to setting the bar for future antiques and appraising education." The press release went on to say that while the textbooks for the Asheford program were still available, they would likely be phased out in the next five to ten years.

For readers seeking more information about the school's new e-Course program, they can be contacted at: (877) 444-4508 or visit their web site at; www.asheford.com. You can also write to them at; the Asheford Institute of Antiques 981 Harbor Blvd., Suite 3, Dept. 275EC11 Destin, FL 32541-2525, or at their Canadian office at; 131 Bloor Street West, Suite 200, Dept. 124EC11 Toronto, ON M5S 1R8.
