Out & About

Be sure to always check that upcoming events page, as events are added weekly. Auctions are always a good way to help cure your cabin fever. Spring is around the corner and the weather is just right for a weekend stroll through an antique shop or two. Be sure to mention where you saw their ads.

Advertisers when sending us photos, try to use white backgrounds when possible. Remove as many objects from in front of or on top of the object you are taking the picture of. This helps us provide you with better pictures for your ads. If you have a budget you are working with, let us know, so that we can better serve you, our customer. When sending a PDF be sure to call to get our color and size specifications.

Remember to call us if you have a change in your address. Periodical mail is not forwarded by the Post Office. It is always a courtesy by your postal delivery person when they do deliver your paper.

It has been nice having both girls home for the week. This time they did not work as much, so we can spend more time together. The girls and Brandon went to Wisconsin Dells with a group of friends for a day.

Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association Antique Show - 58 Years of Tradition

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

There were 40 quality vendors from various parts of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin. I know I say this often but it is so very true, the vendors are always so friendly and eager to share the knowledge of the treasures they're showcasing, in hopes that the story will live on in the next person home for generations to come. A vendor said to me, "if we stop talking and sharing backgrounds on the pieces of history, then all we have are things with untold stories". Coming from a family that collects, buys, and sells antiques with a focus on firefighting items, I must say each venue I go in to, there is always so much more to see and learn. I find myself losing track of time so easily that 3 to 4 hours of antiques seems to feel more like an hour. I encourage you to take a friend, spouse, child or even a grandchild and share the great experience of history!

There is no time like now, mark your 2019 calendar with next year's events so you don't miss out. The NIADA will be holding it's 59th Antique show on February 16th & 17th, 2019 in Rockford Forest Hills Lodge. ## Cabin Fever Has Been Cured!

Article by Dave Hunsicker

Pleasant weather and the desire to get out of the house brought 587 people to the 53 year old Hobbys Unlimited's Annual Cabin Fever Flea Market on March 4th. People were very pleased with their purchases from the vendor's 75 tables.

There were times when the aisles were jammed with shoppers and the parking lots filled up quickly, with many people parking two to three blocks away. Due to the popularity of this flea market, all vendors signed up for next year, with the show now being sold out already.

Auction Action Antique News was the popular answer to a mini survey where guests were asked what brought them to Cabin Fever. Many had the Auction Action Antique News ad in hand. Next year's show is scheduled for March 3rd, again at the Knights of Columbus Hall in West Allis (Milwaukee), where Cabin Fever will return and guests will be looking for a cure.

Article & photos by Colleen Alpers

Sunday, April 8th is the date for the Midwest Antique and Art Show and the Collector's Eye Antique Show to be presented at Hawkeye Downs Fairgrounds, 4401 6th St SW, Cedar Rapids, IA. We are going into our 32nd year of promoting this show and we think it gets better each year. The show has a highly deserved reputation for attracting richly regarded exhibiting dealers nationally known for outstanding presentations of art, American folk art and Americana. Along with long-time dealers such as Missouri Plain Folk from Sikeston, MO and Harvey Pranian from Evanston, Illinois we have some new dealers joining us. Steven Score from Boston, MA and Old Shed Antiques from Indiana will be bringing some new eye candy for you to view and buy.

Join the crowd waiting in line for the doors to open at 10. Check the website at www.mwantiqueshow.com for motel listings and to view merchandise from previous shows. Follow us on facebook to view pictures of our dealers and merchandise. Contact Thom Rawson for any questions at (319) 389-2041.

Vintage Lake Chautauqua, NY Fish Decoys “School” into the 53rd Annual North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show in St. Charles, IL

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, IL, April 27-28, 2018: The 53rd Annual North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, sponsored by the Midwest Decoy Collectors Association (MDCA), will feature New York's Lake Chautauqua fish decoys, or “minnows” as they were sometimes called. New York State fish decoys are among the first examples known to be produced by non-indigenous people and generally date from the end of the 19th century, when spearfishing was a highly popular sport. The sport became so popular that few examples date later than 1905 when ice-fishing was outlawed throughout the state because of concern over declining fish populations. Lake Chautauqua fish are among the most highly coveted decoys by collectors. These decoys were almost always made of wood, tended to be somewhat muted in color and impressionistic in terms of both design and detail. They are generally characterized by leather tails slotted into the bodies with single piece fins.

These pieces will be available for viewing Friday and Saturday in the Mega Center, following a week full of decoy and related sporting collectibles events.

A jar of marbles, including some cats-eyes rolled out at $275, a Louis Icart original sketched a $225 bid, a railroad lantern signaled a $225 final stop, a Squirt's metal sign popped to $225.

Free Appraisals Offer "Antiques Roadshow" Appeal to 53rd North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show at Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, IL

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Each year, at the North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, free identification and appraisals are offered for any item that is brought to the show. This effort is designed to help discover those old artifacts that are hiding around the country and recapture our rich hunting and fishing history. A wide range of items including artwork, duck, goose, shorebird, and fish decoys, wildfowl calls, shotgun shell boxes, fishing items and various outdoor collectibles show up each year for review by the experts in attendance at the show. Several years ago brought in a wonderful old hand carved duck call that was a gift to Joseph Nathaniel Whitley, a former top game warden and official in Arkansas over 100 hundred years ago. It was easy to see that this item was special as it was uniquely carved on all sides and had the image of a rattlesnake integrated into the mouthpiece. The call, carved by James Beckhart around 1890, subsequently sold at auction for a record $103,650. The diverse number of unique items that are brought in to the show each year has been growing steadily and attendees are always excited to discover that grandpa's old "stuff" can be so important and command such strong interest.

Free appraisals are available at our public tabled sales event in the resort's MegaCenter on Friday, April 27, from 2pm to 7pm, and on Saturday, April 28 from 9am to 2pm.

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art.
