20-30-40 Society Glass Show, One of the Longest Running Glass Shows in the Country

Article & photos by Tim Wilson

On March 10th and 11th, the 20-30-40 Society Glass Show held its 46th year running at the Concord Plaza Midwest Conference Center in Northlake Illinois. The first day of the show had a good turnout of people coming out to the event. The last day was a bit slower, but as dealers would say it's not always how many people there are, but what kind of people show up. Some of the dealers did just as well on the last day as the first day, if not better.

20-30-40 Society Glass Show Celebrates Its 46th Year

Article & Photos by Tim Wilson

The 20-30-40 Glass Society is a non-profit organization in LaGrange, Illinois, and focuses on learning more about 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s glassware, along with preserving it. They originally started the society in Joliet, Illinois in May of 1972, and later went on to moving the organization to LaGrange. When the organization was first founded in 1972, there were only a handful of people. By the end of 1973, the organization had grown to 105 members and continued to grow through the common ground of an appreciation for glassware.

With 46 years of memory-making shows, the 20-30-40 Glass Society has made this event one of the longest running shows of its kind in the country. How did all this become possible? There was a combination of reasons that must have made this all come to occur, but the main one would have to be the comradery with fellow glass enthusiasts, sharing their passion for the artistry of glass and collecting. You could also see the desire to preserve and further educate people about the glassware from the different booths set up with people representing museums that specialized in glass.

The show had 24 dealers and museum representatives from all over the country that carried Depression, Carnival, patterned, art deco, art nouveau and Victorian glass and pottery. This event additionally had a glass identification center and reference library for anyone interested in learning more about glassware they may own or want to start collecting. Plus, Mary Lou's Crystal/China Repair was available to anyone who had an item of glassware that needed repairing.

Next year's show will be held on March 9th and 10th of 2019, and for more information about the show or the 20-30-40 Society, you can call 630-851-4504 or you can go to their website www.20-30-40glassociety.org. You can also contact them by email 20-30-40glassociety@comcast.net, or their Facebook Page, www.facebook.com/203040gsoil.

Antique Motorcycle Club of America

The Antique Motorcycle Club of America was founded in 1954 by a group of antique-bike fans in the New England area (pictured from left are T.A. Hodgdon, Emmett Moore, Henry Wing Sr., and Henry Wing Jr.). AMCA FoundersIn the decades since, the AMCA has grown to become one of the largest organizations of antique-motorcycle enthusiasts in the world, with 11,000 members in the United States and more than a dozen other countries.

Owner with three-wheeled motorcycleFrom the beginning, the purpose of the club has been the "preservation, restoration and operation of old-time motorcycles." Members of the AMCA own, restore, preserve, study or just admire motorcycles that fall into the antique category, meaning they are at least 35 years old. Although the Club is based in the United States, fans of motorcycles from all countries are welcome, and ownership of an antique motorcycle is not required to become a member.

Through its network of 59 affiliated Chapters in the U.S. and abroad, the AMCA provides a way for antique-bike fans to share their interest with others in their local area. Chapters typically host regular meetings, plus activities like bike shows, swap meets and antique-bike road runs.

At the national and international level, the AMCA maintains a calendar of National Meets and Road Runs that include some of the premier antique-motorcycle gatherings in the world. National Meets typically include a large vendor area, where members can sell everything from antique-bike parts to entire motorcycles that are at least 35 years old. In addition, National Meets offer a full schedule of other activities, ranging from seminars and bike shows to motorcycle field games and antique-bike racing.

JudgingAll National Meets also feature the AMCA's National Judging Program, in which members' motorcycles can win awards in three categories: Restored, Original Condition or Period Modified. Instead of competing against each other, bikes entered in the AMCA Judging Program are evaluated on a 100-point scale against the standard of the same motorcycle as it would have appeared when it originally left the factory.

National Road Runs provide an opportunity to use these classic machines for their intended purpose—riding on back roads in some of the most scenic parts of the country.

In addition to those events, AMCA members also get access to a number of benefits, including a high-quality magazine six times per year, online forums where they can seek advice from experts, and the AMCA Virtual Motorcycle Library, featuring downloadable copies of hundreds of old and rare sales brochures, parts lists and repair manuals. Plus, AMCA members receive discounts on admission to some of the country's premier motorcycle museums.

Mostly, though, people join the AMCA to meet up with others who share their interest in machines from the classic era of motorcycling. For some, that means the satisfaction that comes from investing thousands of hours in bringing a rusted hulk back to its original perfection. To others, it means preserving artifacts of the past so that they can be appreciated by future generations, or the simple pleasure of enjoying a two-lane road at an unhurried pace—just like motorcyclists generations ago.

Does that sound like you? Why not join with thousands of other like-minded antique-bike fans by becoming a member of the AMCA? Visit www.antiquemotorcycle.org

The American Bar Lip Decanter- Form and Function

By Bill Morrison

The cultural history of material objects can reflect events and industrial processes in unexpected and interesting ways. They were often created to cater to specific social trends or phenomena, became part of the fabric of everyday life, but then disappeared almost as quickly as they appeared, to be replaced in turn by improved versions and styles.

The bar lip decanter is one such object, and its history offers a fascinating glimpse of the social and economic development of America's first 100 years, as well as the evolution of glass manufacturing in this country. It appears that the bar lip decanter was an exclusively American form. While catalog illustrations confirm that they were manufactured elsewhere, foreign-made examples appear to have been specifically made for export to the US, as bar lip decanters do not appear to have been used elsewhere in the world.

The 1830s witnessed radical changes in the interior design of bars and saloons. The traditional layout had placed the keeper "behind bars," in a caged area with an opening to the taproom, to protect him and his inventory from unruly customers. However, as bars became more open, the ironwork disappeared and shelves were fitted to a wall behind the tender's back for displaying his range of liquors.

Bars and saloons continued to store large quantities of liquor in barrels, but a means was required to house liquor at the counter in a manner that helped project a suitably refined image. Pottery stoneware jugs were old fashioned and suffered practical disadvantages.

By 1845 new-style city bars had begun to resemble their modern descendants, fitted with elegant trappings and comfortable furniture, intended to attract more discerning customers than old-fashioned saloons.

Newspapers began to describe some as "drinking palaces," with long rows of decanters behind the bar. On the other hand, sleazy bars and saloons were referred to as "barrel shops" because they still poured directly from barrels, not decanters.

With most liquor during the period remaining colorless, sophisticated establishments would have required decanters of differing shapes, sizes and designs to assist the bar tender in identifying specific brands. Blown molded and engraved bar lip decanters first appeared between 1830-1840 to meet this specific need.

By the late 1850s the blown decanters were being replaced by pressed versions in numerous patterns and sizes.

The bar lip decanter enjoyed a heyday spanning just 45 years, between circa 1830-75, during which decanters in countless patterns, shapes and sizes, were being manufactured by dozens of American glass houses. Two factors, one technical, one sociological, combined to cause its ultimate demise.

The first technological advance was the development of lime-based glass, which was around sixty-percent cheaper to produce than lead-based equivalents. The increased workability of lime glass allowed more efficient manufacturing methods and encouraged the introduction of cheap, labeled bottles.

The associated cultural change was rapid "nationalization" of American drinking preferences. Soldiers who had traveled the country during the Civil War returned home having newly acquired tastes for particular brands that had previously been unknown in their hometown or state. The smoother and more flavorful liquors developed by some distillers, notably in the south and east, proved particularly popular. Early Times (1860) and Jack Daniels (1866) are only two of several brands established at the time of the civil war and reconstruction. Bar owners were quick to recognize the commercial potential that "added value" brands brought to their business, and the explosive expansion of the railroads provided the routes of national distribution.

Advances in bottle-making technology encouraged the manufacture and the distribution of new "branded bottles" embossed with the type of the liquor, or branded and decorated with logos identified with specific brands. The first "bar bottles" appeared in the McKee catalog of 1871, and within four years bar lip decanters had all but disappeared from glass catalogs.

Bitters-sized decanters survived longer as they were adapted for use as sauce bottles, with examples illustrated in catalogs into the early part of the 20th century.

Hearthstone Historic House Museum

21st Annual Appleton Antique Show & Sale, April 14th & 15th

Article & photos by Cheryl Kaczmarek
(Friends of Hearthstone)

Hearthstone Historic House Museum.

Library, facing looking south, Cherry woodwork, fireplace burned coal, electrolier had electrical wiring and gas jets.

Library, original Thomas Edison phonograph.

Front parlor, Birdseye maple fireplace with Minton tiles, Woodcraver.

Grand hallway.

Hearthstone Historic House Museum is the world's first home lighted with hydro-electricity using a Thomas Edison system. The Friends of Hearthstone support the preservation of this historically significant home and provide tours, exhibits and special events to share its unique history with the public.

This year's 21st Annual Appleton Antique Show & Sale will be held Saturday, April 14th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, April 15th from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is $6 and good both days of the event. Children under 16 are free. The event will be held at the Tri-County Ice Arena, 700 E. Shady Lane, Neenah, WI just off of the Prospect Street Exit on Hwy 41. Parking is free.

More than 35 of the Midwest's best dealers will be setting up at the show to sell high-quality antiques displayed beautifully in booths throughout the Ice Arena. Attendees will be able to walk the floor and purchase from an excellent selection of furniture, decor and country primitive antiques for home and garden; fine antique and vintage jewelry; sterling, crystal, porcelain and china including Flow Blue; art, pottery, quilts, textiles, vintage clothing, maps and prints, advertising, folk art, holiday, dolls, toys, sports memorabilia, clocks, tools, books, postcards, sheet music and more.

A wide variety of eras and styles will be represented including Civil War, country primitives, Victorian, Edwardian (think Downton Abbey), art nouveau, art deco, mission and mid-century modern. As always, there will be something for every taste and budget.

"Hearthstone's mission is to 'illuminate' history, culture and innovation in a beautiful 1880's era Victorian mansion built by Henry Rogers, one of Wisconsin's early entrepreneurs," stated Cheryl Kaczmarek, president of the Hearthstone board of directors. The Friends of Hearthstone continue to put on this wonderful and worthwhile Fox Cities event and use the proceeds to provide much needed funds for operation of the museum. It is a good fit for us and our mission, "The show dovetails nicely with the emphasis Hearthstone and its volunteers place on preserving the past and appreciating history."

Hearthstone, a beautiful Victorian house, has a unique spot in history, being the first residence in the world to have electricity from a central hydro-electric source using an Edison system. The electric lights were turned on in September 1882, shortly after the house was built, and the original light fixtures, Thomas Edison switches and wiring are still in the house. In addition to electricity, the house boasted other innovations like central heat, indoor plumbing and a call annunciator system.

Hearthstone is a non-profit organization operated entirely by volunteers, who assume responsibility for everything from renovations to program planning, historical research to fundraising. Proceeds from the antique show will help Hearthstone Historic House Museum continue its educational tours and programming, its restoration and maintenance efforts, and help ensure that this important piece of Wisconsin history has a strong, relevant future.

Hearthstone is open for tours from Thursday to Sunday, including the weekend of the antique show. See the website for hours at HearthstoneMuseum.org. Volunteers have researched and worked diligently to restore the grand Victorian residence to its 1880s appearance, complete with period furnishings.

For more details, a complete list of the dealers who will be participating in the show and to learn more about Hearthstone Historic House Museum, visit www.HearthstoneMuseum.org.

Spring Is Here And Ackerman's Antique Shows Are Soon To Be Sprung At The Johnson County Fairgrounds At Iowa City, Iowa On Sunday June 10th

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

Spring is here! Just around the corner of the calendar page are two great area events in the Iowa City, Iowa area.

Coming up on Sunday June 10th is the 5th Annual ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET to be held at the Johnson County Fairgrounds located at the south-west edge of Iowa City at exit 89 just off the Avenue of the Saints. Hours are from 8 am - 3 p.m.

Three buildings as well as the outdoors will accommodate a nice variety of antique and collectable dealers who will arrive and set up to display and sell antiques and collectables of all categories.

ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET started in 2014 to fill an area need for a local event in this area in mid-summer and has done a nice job of attracting nice crowds from a wide area to attend.

A good lunch stand (Sweeting's) from Riverside Iowa will be serving up great summertime goodies and drinks to feed and water the hungry and thirsty buyers who attend ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET.

Admission to the market is just $3 and parking is free and closely available.
