The 44th Annual Wisconsin Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show - A Great Experience

Article & photos by Tim Wilson

The 44th annual Wisconsin Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show was held at the Hilton Garden Inn in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. It was a fairly nice day considering Wisconsin weather for the second week of March, so the roads were clear and easily accessible to those driving long distances. Possibly why the crowd was on the upside. And the dealers were eagerly prepared for them when it all started at 8 AM.

Out & About

The farmers are out in full force and busy. Some fields are still wet, and some are getting plowed and planted. It is nice to see one old barn finally getting rebuilt after a tornado two summers ago.

It is hard to believe just two weeks ago we had 33" of snow to shovel out of. It started melting the next day, but not fast enough that we still had to have our parking lots plowed. The Culligan Man stopped today and commented on how he was unable to get into a lot of his regulars due to the amount of snow.

Mekenzy is home from college and is already busy at work at two jobs. She will only be home for four weeks and then she goes back to Bemidji for six weeks to work at a camp for underprivileged kids. Tia has her Honor's Induction dinner this week. She still has three weeks of college left and then we have to move her across campus to live for her summer internship.

Plenty to See at the Wisconsin Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show in Oshkosh, Wisconsin

Article & Photos by Tim Wilson

Andy Schoneich, a dealer at this annual event, was selling his latest book he co-wrote with Terry Smart, the president of The Evans Society, who was also present at the show. The book is titled, "Evans Duck Decoy Factory: A Collector's Pictorial Reference Guide." The name says it all for what it is. For the collector who gravitates toward Evans decoys, for $75, this book would be of good use.

For those who are not as sharp-edged on understanding the decoy world, the dealers were willing to share their knowledge and help a beginning collector get started. There are a good number of decoy factories that made their mark in history, and are collectible, but knowing which company made which decoy can be rather difficult to recognize to the untrained eye. There was a free appraisal booth near the entrance of the show, for anyone who had a decoy and wanted to know the company that made it, its age, and its value to solve this problem for people with these questions.

Being a show for decoys and sporting collectibles, the event was chockfull of decoys, lures, gun powder tins, shell boxes, and hunting goods; but the duck decoys made up a good amount of the show. One eye catching highlight was the 36" Lead

Decoy, the largest decoy ever made to use with the idea that it would be seen easier by the ducks flying past. Another decoy that was rather intriguing was the stamped Evans canvasback drake that had never been rigged or used out on the water.

Although a good portion of the show gravitated towards the duck decoys, the sporting goods held their ground in keeping the namesake accurate. There was a head turning, late 1800s/early 1900s punt gun boat. Being a 14-foot-long boat, it wasn't too hard to spot in the room. In addition to falling along the category of sporting collectibles, there were a few booths with great fishing lures. Eye-popping Heddon lures, brilliantly painted Paw-Paw Wottafrogs, a neatly designed automatic fish hook by Monarch, and plenty of fish decoys were to be seen at this extravaganza.

The show was sold out of displays with 94 tables showing off exceptional merchandise falling under the decoy and sporting goods category. The show was on the 10th of March, but there was also room trade that started on March 7th all the way through March 9th. Next year's show is going to be on March 9th of 2019. For more information about the show you can contact Roger Ludwig by phone, 920-428-3765, or by email at rogfuzz@charter.net.

Golf Collectors' Society

A Brief History

The Golf Collectors Society is an international organization dedicated to preserving the treasures and traditions of the game of golf. Founded in 1970 by Robert Kuntz and Joseph S.F. Murdoch, the organization today has over 1400 members from 15 different countries. The philosophy of the Society was and has always remained "a not for profit fraternal organization that encourages members to visit, share information, and to establish friendships based on a common interest, the love of golf. Collecting the Game"

The GCS unites those who have a love for the game of golf and its artifacts. Members collect hickory shafted golf clubs, balls, books, tees, ceramics, silver, art, programs, postcards, early golf magazines, and autographs to name just a few. If it was used in the game of golf or portrays the game of golf, it's likely a GCS member collects it!

Society Members

GCS members come from all walks of life. Tour and club pros, notable golf writers, the curators of the world's most prominent golf museums, the guy who lives down the block, all share in the same common interest - golf and the memorabilia associated with it.

Membership in the GCS brings many benefits. Each member receives a Membership Directory and our magazine, The Bulletin, which is published on a quarterly basis. It includes golf history, featured collections and collectors, book reviews, unusual clubs and artifacts, and general news on Society doings. Members are also welcome to attend the frequent Regional Meetings held in every part of the country, as well as the Annual Meeting, held yearly in the early fall.

Annual Dues

Dues are based on a calendar year.

Visit <http://www.golfcollectors.com> for more information.

International Association of R.S. Prussia Collectors, Inc.

The first gathering of R.S. Prussia collectors was held in Indianapolis, Indiana in 1985 with 20 families present and the association was formed a year later. Now there are members from all over the world. Members truly enjoy the beauty of R.S. Prussia and the association represents collectors, dealers, historians and simply appreciators of the type of porcelain known as R.S. Prussian and related china.

The International Association of R.S. Prussia Collectors website at www.rsprussia.com represents the association well. When entering the home page, the site is easy to understand within seconds. Three important areas show up front and center - a history of R.S. Prussia, club information and news, and how to become a member. This last area is actually a printable copy of the R.S. Prussia promo brochure. The Gallery section includes some tremendous photos of R.S. Prussia pieces and the Articles section has features on a variety of topics, everything from fakes & reproductions to Prussia toothpick holders.

We like the links to members' pages and the R.S. Prussia ReMarks sections which allows members to share their "harrowing or wonderful" experiences. A listing with information on associated clubs is provided and the site has a Forum section. The annual conventions are covered, but the information is not totally up-to-date. We like the balance between general information of interest to any visitor to the site and the information provided by and for the members.

The Association of Collecting Clubs is pleased to designate the International Association of R.S. Prussia Collectors as an ACC Featured Club Website recipient.

Over 1,000 Comic Books Cross the Block at W. Yoder Auction

Article & Photos by W. Yoder Auction

Comics that crossed the block that day included Superman, Batman, Green Arrow, Teen Titans, Captain America, Iron Man & Spiderman. The many great toys included a Sturditoy ambulance, Bell Cable Repair truck, and several rare Kokomo Electric cars.

There were some great cast iron toys as well, including a ladder firetruck, Arcade Greyhound bus, Conestoga Co. Big Bank cannon & armored car. There was also 3 early Mickey Mouse Viceroy rubber cars, Structo, Hubley & Buddy L trucks, many die cast tractors, lunch boxes & thermos bottles, Tonka & Ertl toy equipment, tin windup toys and so much more!

W Yoder Auction was founded by Wayne Yoder Jr. in 1999, and has been a member of the National Auctioneers Association since 2002. When asked why he became an auctioneer, he will tell you it is because he enjoys the many different types of people he meets across the country that come to the auctions and the action each auction provides. In 2008, Wayne became the Wisconsin Auctioneer State Champion when he participated in the competition held every year at the Wisconsin State Fair located in Milwaukee, WI. "It was a wonderful experience that I will never forget." He had participated in the competition 3 times prior to winning and each year learned from his mistakes and bettered himself. His hard work shows through in every auction that he has.

Since opening, W Yoder Auctions has been dedicated to staying on top of the most technologically advanced system to provide their customers with a smooth auction experience. We want everyone who comes to our auctions to have the most positive experience possible, and that is why we believe in having fun at our auctions. We look forward to seeing you at our next auction, and hope you walk away having a smile on your face with that winning item in your hands.

American Cut Glass Association

The American Cut Glass Association is devoted to the study and research of American Brilliant Cut Glass. The Brilliant Period lasted from approximately 1876 to around 1914. The Association offers a number of member benefits including a newsletter published 10 times a year, an annual convention, regional chapters, and Brilliant Weekends - special events held by ACGA chapters.

The ACGA's website homepage consists of some cut glass illustrations, a welcoming statement, bulletin board and navigation menu. This menu, serving as a site map, does an excellent job of directing first time visitors to the various sections on the website.

Divided into five columns, there is a column of features on the American Cut Glass Association, itself, including their history, organization, code of ethics, endowment fund and gifts & Acquisitions fund. another column offers segments on member benefits while a third column features information and photos of examples of Brilliant Cut Glass. The fourth and fifth column comprise information on the ACGA Store and contact information.

This is a very functional club website and serves the ACGA well.

American Breweriana Association

The American Breweriana Association was incorporated in 1980 as a non-profit historical and educational association organized to advance the public knowledge of brewing and brewery history, to serve collectors and historians, and dedicated to the preservation of the memories and artifacts of America's brewing industry. The ABA reached a major goal earlier this year with the dedication of National Brewery Museum in Potosi, Wisconsin in conjunction with their national convention in near-by Dubuque, Iowa.

The ABA website - www.americanbreweriana.org - presents a magazine approach to the look of the site. The homepage gives a center "pitch" on "Why Join ABA?" along with blocks on their American Breweriana Journal, the new National Brewery Museum and upcoming events.

Drop downs from the masthead provide important links to contact information, how to join, ABA chapters, ABA officers and board, Code of Ethics and events.

The ABA site appears to be equally informative for both their 3,000 members and other site visitors... including some who may well decide to become members. And, areas on the site seem to indicate there is much more to come regarding new site features.

Dodgeville Lion's Club Flea Market & Antique Show

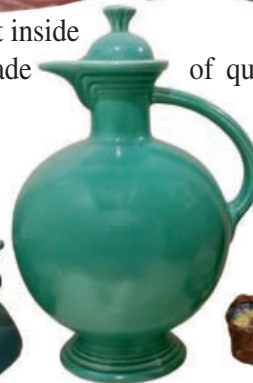

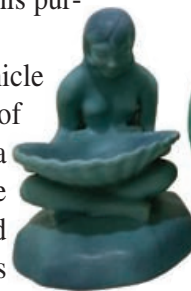

Article by Bob Kratochwill (Dodgeville Lions Club)

Coming on June 10th is the first of two shows to be held in 2018. The second show will be held on August 26th. The Dodgeville Lion's Club Flea Market has become a very popular one day show well attended by shoppers who find this a very relaxing venue. Sixty five spaces are available for dealers, most who return year after year with a wide assortment of goods for purchase. The event is held indoors and therefore it is never rained out.

Most of the merchandise available is smaller in size and wouldn't require a large transport vehicle to haul the purchase home. There was one exception to that however when one of the dealers inquired whether it might be acceptable for her to bring a motor home as an item for sale. This was allowed but obviously not brought inside the pavillion for display. The sale was made and a satisfied buyer drove his purchase home.

Interested in a vehicle on a smaller scale? One of our newer dealers makes it a business of restoring vintage pedal cars, velocipedes and other collectibles. This dealer will be returning with some outstanding items. At past shows, another dealer has brought restored carousel animals, so beautiful they would be a showpiece in your home.

This show is a very enjoyable outing with a wide variety of antiques, collectible and other unusual finds. Dealers are always very knowledgeable, congenial and willing to listen to your friendly offers. Come and spend up to seven hours shopping at as many as 65 dealer spaces.

Need a break? Go into the lunch room and enjoy a lunch which could include a piece of delicious homemade pie. The pies are a sell out item for every show and some shoppers state they always come early so they don't miss the pies. If you enjoy flea market shopping don't miss our show. We receive many compliments from shoppers regarding how enjoyable their shopping experience has been. We have wide, uncrowded shopping aisles, friendly dealers with a large assortment of quality items and possibly the treasure you will be happy to have found. See you in Dodgeville.

The show runs from 8:00 AM To 3:00 PM. Come early and stay late to allow for a relaxing day of shopping. A great food stand is on site including fresh baked homemade pies made by members of the Dodgeville Lioness club. A $3.00 admission fee is charged for the event. All funds go toward Lion's Club projects. Information... Please phone Bob at 608-574-4011

Minnesota Antique Dealers Association Antiques & Decorative Arts Show

Article & Photos by Carol Eppel
(Minnesota Antiques Dealers Association)

The 2018 MN Antiques Dealers Show will be held on June 9th and 10th this year, again in the Fine Arts Bldg. at the MN State Fair Grounds. With 45 MADA members and selected dealers from across the Midwest exhibiting, the sale offers a variety of high quality antiques and decorative arts: signed original art, bronzes, estate jewelry, art glass, furniture, Victoriana, Scandinavian, postcards, and fabulous holiday. With an amazing array of objects for the seasoned collector and those interested in learning, this show is always a visual treat. The Fine Arts building allows exhibitors to set up in small vignette like settings, making it feel personal and inviting.

A special event this year will be the addition of an antiques appraisal booth.

Revere Auctions of Minneapolis will sponsor the event from 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm, on both Saturday and Sunday. With paid admission to the show, items may be presented for a verbal appraisal. Robert Snell and Sean Blanchet, co-owners of Revere Auctions, in conjunction with the knowledge of the dealers on the floor, will assess items at $10.00 per item.

Photographs of previous years shows, along with a discount coupon, can be found at www.MNAntiquesDealers.com. Additional information can be obtained by email at mnantiques@gmail.com or call 651-430-0095.

Show hours are: Saturday, June 9th, 10:00 am - 6:00 pm, and Sunday, June 10th, from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. Admission is $6.00. Handicap accessible and Free Parking.
