Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show is Moving in the Fall

Article & Photos by Jack Kelly

"There's years of memories here -- but it's time to make more memories at the new location," said one veteran dealer as the semi-annual Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine and Jukebox Show ended a three-day run on April 8th.

The worldwide-known spring/fall gathering will be moving from its longtime home, Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles, Illinois, to a new home 42 miles north, at the Lake County Fairgrounds & Event Center in Grayslake, Illinois. That is near the Illinois-Wisconsin border.

Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show - Going Strong for More than 30 Years

Article & Photos by Jack Kelly

For more than 30 years the main show has been hosted at the Pheasant Run Resort's Mega Center, with additional dealers filling the adjoining Pheasant Run Ballroom.

Show promoters said they were notified that the ballroom would no longer be available because of a heavy booking of weddings and special events, which markedly shrinks available booth rental spaces.

The Grayslake facility features 62,000 square feet, which is bigger than both buildings combined at Pheasant Run.

The final Pheasant Run April show offered a healthy Windy City mix of yo-yo temperatures, sunshine, cloudy skies and even a blast of spring snow.

Once again, the largest amount of floor space was taken up by Bill Rawski of Zap Props of Chicago, who estimated he offered "a quarter-million dollars of goodies filling 10 booths."

Many shoppers stopped to gawk at his restored 7' long tin framed Evinrude Outboard Motors neon sign, which could light up your life for $35,000. Those with more subdued interests checked out his 1880-1890s brass and zinc construction eagle with 5' wingspan rescued from an Ohio Oddfellows Lodge building priced at $5,500.

Barrington, IL, dealer Mike Hasanov, of Vintage Coin-op Restorations, spread out across multiple booths to display oversize coin-op machines. They included a pair of rare nickel operated 5 1/2 foot long, 48" tall wood and cast iron 1929-30s arcade machines, which were discovered at the same spot where they had been stored for 89 years. The games were Play Golf, a sports challenge game, and Play the Derby, a horse race theme machine. The pair was priced at $35,000.

Still another horse race machine, this one a 12x20 inch glass and wood countertop penny operated device, was offered by Keith and Tammie Stelter of Buchanan, MI. "It's a really fun contraption -- of all things, it was made by a men's suspender manufacturing company in Hastings, MI, during World War II," said Keith with a very short production run. It could spin and run races at your place for one penny -- plus $3,000. The Stelters are advertising thermometer collectors and offered examples priced from $5 to $500 each. And they sold more than half the 25 they displayed at Chicagoland!

"That one is fancy and pretty enough for the living room," said one shopper holding her hand over her mouth and pointing to a stunning hand-carved dark wood and etched glass 5' tall 1942 light-up Wurlitzer Victory Jukebox. The 24-selection music maker took "one and a half months to restore," according to dealer Tim Walker of Raymond, WI, who said it sold at the Chicagoland Show for $6,500. At the same spot, also sold, was an all original light-up Wurlitzer Model 600 jukebox, also a 24-selection player, priced at $2,000.

"Most of the stuff is sold, and I took over 20 orders," said Dan Cooney, Cooney Island, Antiques of Tustin, CA, looking over an expanse of multiple booths filled with Coca-Cola items. Pristine restored Coke vending machines were priced from $6,500 to $10,000, surrounded by other items with the famous soft drink name. The dealer added, "One customer paid with an American Express Titanium Card -- which means no limit."

Slot machine collectors hovered around the booth of Frank Zygmunt Jr., of Westmont, IL, where his usual selection of dozens of examples were on display,

A 12x20 inch glass and wood countertop penny operated horse race game was shown by Keith and Tammie Stelter of Buchanan, Michigan, priced at $3,000. Keith explained, "It's a really fun contraption -- of all things, it was made by a men's suspender manufacturing company in Hastings, along with other coin-operated machines, priced from $800 to $50,000 each. Many people admired his fancy countertop cast iron and carved wood Imperial "shock machine" which offered a "treatment" of medicinal help for just one penny. The oddball battery powered device, featuring the illustration of a pretty 1915 maiden's face under glass on the front was priced at $9,000.

Michigan, during World War II" keith@keithstelter.com

"Jeff gave those old coin-op scales some real pizzazz," blurted one shopper checking out a group of six different 60" tall Watling penny-operated porcelain scales -- each with a soda pop flavor name neon sign added to the top. Dealer Jeff Storck of Round Hill, VA, said the rectangular glass-faced tin boxes topping the scale heads originally housed printed advertising, but Storck got the idea to replace them with neon signs. He said it took 8 to 10 hours to restore each one and he priced them at $3,950 each.

Otto Dorris drove 12 hours from his home in Bixby, OK, to show off an oddball 14" tall cast iron Menominee "bankers fan" with vertical blades that directed the flow down to the desk. The contraption could "cool your cash" for $2,800. Still another spinner at the same spot, a 1913 tin spinner sign with oval shaped advertising on both sides and measuring 14x16-inches, was priced at $3,500.

Rick and Jaci Englert have visited the Chicagoland show as shoppers 30 times, but in April they returned to set up and sell, traveling 1,800 miles from their home in Spokane, WA. Rick pointed with pride to a restored penny-operated 1930's Caille trade stimulator with gumball feature and priced at $1,500. At the same spot sat an 18" long pressed steel toy truck advertising Wrigley's Gum which could sit on the mantel at your place for $900.

As the show ended, Rick said with a smile, "I'll do it again. I had a great time."

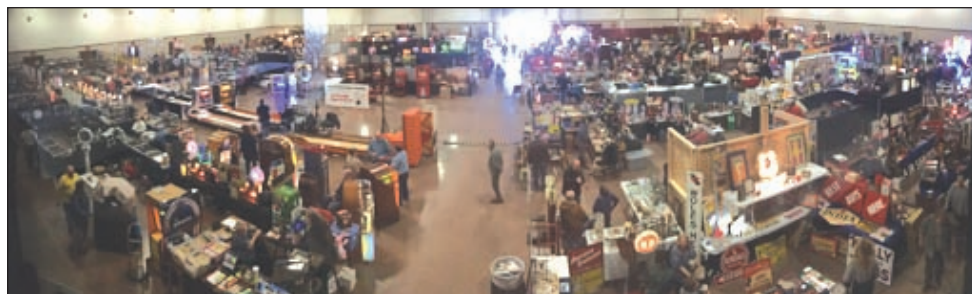

The fall show will be at the new Grays Lake, IL, location for the first time in more than thirty years and the show co-promoters had these candid comments on the change: Said Bob and Penny Traynoff: "We will still have inside and outside dealers, just like we do now, just transplanting everything to the new location. Each move has been to better the show, and this move will be no different.

Dawn & Kevin Greco had this to say: "We're excited about the show's new location at the Lake County Fairgrounds Event Center in Grayslake, IL. It will be great to have all the dealers in one building."

Bill Rawski of Zap Props, Chicago offered a dealer's perspective: "The show is not about the location, it's about the dealers and types of merchandise they offer, and both have always been top notch."

The upcoming fall show dates are Nov. 16 -18.

Dealers can get information from co-promoters Bob and Penny Traynoff at 847-244-9263. Show information is available from co-promoters Kevin and Dawn Greco at 815-353-1593 and at www.chicagolandshow.com.

third year at Michigan Tech in Houghton, www.chicagolandshow.com

Professional model Clare Sinclair tried out the 7' tall auto test training game priced at $20,000. Mike Hasanov, 630-624-7466

A life size wooden Indian with built in slot machine appears to be guarding the coin op devices priced at $800 to $50,000 each.

Frank Zygmunt Jr., of Westmont, IL, also offered a penny operated arcade electric shock machine for $9,000. 630-985-2742.

"These fun vending machines are affordable priced $55 each or two for $100," said Walter Herbst of Grand Rapids, Mich. The dealer showed off his "new gumball machine illustrated shirt" at the Chicagoland Show. camelwalt@yahoo.com

A 1942 hand carved wood Victor Wurlitzer jukebox priced at $6,500 was marked "sold" by dealer Tim Walker of Raymond, Wisc. Also marked sold, for $2,000, was his Wurlitzer 600 jukebox. 414-975-7322.

Dealers Rick and Jaci Engler set up for the first time at Chicagoland after 30 visits as buyers. Traveling 1,800 miles from Spokane, Wash., the couple showed off a 1930s Caille trade stimulator priced at $1,500 – and an 18-inch-long pressed steel advertising truck priced at $900. rjenglert@msn.com

Bill Rawski, Zap Props, Chicago filled 10 booths with a quarter million dollars of goodies. His restored 7' long tin framed Evinrude Outboard Motors sign could light up your life for $35,000. Others checked out his 1880-90s 5' wingspan brass and zinc construction eagle tagged $5,500. 773-376-2278

"His stuff is top notch and rare" said one shopper pointing to the outside "open air" spot of dealer Robert Sledge from Florence, Ala.. Marked "sold" was this 18 x 54 tin Coca-Cola advertising sign. 256-335-1592.

A classic 1947 Whizzer motorbike priced at $2,500 looks right at home with a 5-foot-long tin Firestone advertising sign priced at $700 by Mike Mech of Valders, WI. 920-980-5218

High ticket restored Coca-Cola items filled the booth of Dan Cooney, Cooney Island Antiques of Tustin, Ca. The dealer said "one buyer paid with an American Express Titanium Card – which means no limit." 818-720-5326.

Choice advertising items filled the booth of Greg and Anne Rosenak of Peoria, IL. Many folks admired their etched glass, tin and neon 22" long Sioux sign priced at $1,700 and the tin and glass peanut display tagged $1,650. 309-243-7071.

"It's just plain gorgeous" gushed one shopper pointing to an early 1900s framed yard-long advertising sign, priced at $350 by Ted Wahlfeld of Peoria, Ill. The dealer offered several of the popular prints along with various advertising signs at Chicagoland. t.wahlfeld.@comcast.net

A small fry visitor took time to rest on the Corvette Couch constructed from an actual automobile offered for $6,000 by Classic Couches of Chadwick, IL. 815-684-5310

Early advertising figures appear to be looking over the cell phone activity of dealer Michael Karberg of Schereville, Ind. The dealer offered a booth filled with over 100 vintage clothing items he said, "guys wore with pride." 219-201-1640.

Otto Dorris drove to Chicagoland to show off a 16-inch-long 1913 tin 2-sided tin spinner advertising sign priced at $3,500. 918-366-6832.

"There are bargains here" said one shopper walking into the booth of John Mahar of Saginaw, MI. A display of vintage Clix razor blades could grace your vintage medicine cabinet at just $1 per box. Toy collectors checked out his 1950s Murray Metal pedal car dump truck that could be "driven home" for $650. jgmant@aol.com

Vintage Razor Blade Packs $1.00 ea.

Dealer Josefina Briscoe of Onamai, MN keeps good company between two Magic Chef advertising figures, priced at $675 for the pair. Ice cream collector hovered around her 2 x 4-ft tin ice cream sign priced at $950. 320-532-3971.

This vintage 10-cent 1950s Rodeo Pony was in the booth of Rick Dynek of Milwaukee and was priced at priced at $4,495. 414-759-5679.

Jeff Storck of Round Hill Va., (left) took some time to "talk scales" with fellow scale collector Bill Berning of Genoa, IL. Storck displayed his latest efforts, vintage 1930s coin operated scales with added neon signs priced at $3,950 each. 703-868-3046 (Storck) 815-784-3134 (Berning)

Shopper Bill Howard of Akron, Ohio, left, and Jeff Halpert, give a "thumbs up" for a 4 by 5 foot painting found at the show illustrating early Coney Island amusement park activity. 330-864-0844.

Auctioneer and dealer Rich Penn of Waterloo, Iowa set up to promote his auctions and offered choice advertising pieces including a pair Goodrich Shoe signs. The 1920s die-cut cardboard pieces measured 20" tall and could be displayed at your place for $600 for the pair. 319-291-6688.

Soda pop collectors hovered around the booth of Bill Bryk of Coweda, Ok., for a look at two of many items. An 8 x 28-inch 1920s tin Smile Soda advertising sign could hang-up at your place for $2,300. 918-706-3076.

"They're moving" exclaimed one shopper pointing to a pair of life-size die cut cardboard clockwork driven Billy Kid Billiken Shoes figures. They could entertain you at home for $3,200. Nona and Mark Wilson of Northstar Collective, Park Falls, WI, also promoted their Indy Advertising Show in Lebanon, IN, held twice yearly. 906-250-1618.

Brad Peidt of Benton Harbor, MI, hams it up with his WWII original Howard airplane cockpit. The dealer said the company made only about 500 of the airplanes, all circ early 1940s. He priced the oddball piece at $4,500. 269-208-9462.

28 year show veteran George Budzik of Munster, Ind., pointed out two choices in his booth, both priced at $850. A pristine Triple Ajax Hot Nuts peanut machine could vending goodies at your place – or you could test your skills on the penny operated Vest Pocket Basketball machine – your choice, $850 each. 219-836-5339.

Introducing The 20-30-40 Glass Society

Article & Photos by Jane Schleinzer (20-30-40 Glass Society of Illinois)

The Society is a non profit [501(c)(7)] social organization located in the Chicago suburb of LaGrange, Illinois. The Society's purpose is to gain more knowledge of American made glassware of the 1920's, 1930's and 1940's and to further its preservation. We gain our knowledge through the study of American glassware manufacturers and the glass making process. Our members all share a common bond; a love of the beauty of glass and to indulge in the pleasure of collecting. Hobnail display

Officers and Committee

Chairpersons

Here is a listing of the 2017 Board and Committee Members. As this list changes from year to year, we present it in PDF® format. You will need the Adobe Reader to view the document.

Meetings

Club Meetings are held six (6) times per year, usually at the American Legion Hall in LaGrange, IL. On occasion, meetings may be held in alternate locations. A typical meeting consists of a lunch followed by a short presentation by one of our members on a topic related to glass collecting, a specific pattern or company, or a glassmaking process.

Newsletter

The Society publishes a bi-monthly newsletter, the Society Page, to keep members up to date on events related to the Society. The newsletter also contains articles related to American-made glassware and pottery. Each issue is liberally sprinkled with photographs. Upcoming events are highlighted as well.

Outings

From time to time, one or more members of the Society arranges bus trips or caravans for the members to get together and visit a museum, antique mall, glass factory or other activity. Hosted by a member(s), these bus trips are planned and designed for fellowship and to have fun, to enhance your appreciation and knowledge of the art and history of glass making and to increase your knowledge of glassware made in America during the depression era.

Membership in the Society

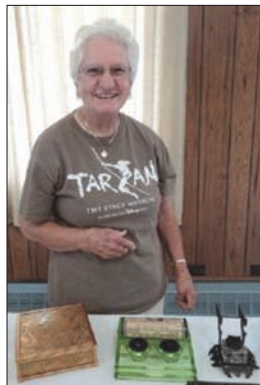

Membership is open to everyone, not just those who live in the Chicago metro area. Dues are $30/year for a single person and $45/year for a household membership that includes all persons in the household. Dues are payable by December 1 for the following full year. Be sure to print on the Membership Application, as someone else has to read and record the information. Please join us for fun, fellowship and GLASS.

Research Library

The Society maintains a very impressive research library consisting of many reference books on glass and related topics. These publications are available to members during and after regular meetings. If you are interested in researching a particular company or pattern, you will almost surely find useful material in the library "corridors." A listing of the publications is located at: www.librarything.com/catalog/20s30s40s.

History of the Society

For those who may be interested, here is a History of the Society from its founding in 1972 until the present day. The 20-30-40 Glass Society was, and is, one of the most active and enduring collecting clubs in the country.

August 2015: Sandy Davidson presented her wonderful Victorian Inkwells and Writing Instruments.

August 2015: Sally Cousineau with her collection of Heisey Plantation.

August 2015: Karen Trendal speaking about her collection of Salt/Pepper shakers.

Millers Auction Co. Sells Amazing One Owner Advertising Collection in February

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

What an amazing live auction held by Millers Auction Co. in Tomah the weekend of February 10th. The room was set up for great viewing and placement of auction items. This auction runs like a "Well Oiled Machine" starting with the layout of the auction items, to the printed handouts, the auctioneers, bid spotters and staff showing each piece as they are being auctioned do "not" skip a beat. I was amazed how quickly they continue to move wasting no time or space as they continued for hours, switching between auctioneers Glenn Miller & Tim Barnum each hour and moving the pieces along to the winning bidder's area for easy pick up and close out at the end of auction.

This auction also has an active online bidding process that is monitored closely making this event widespread. Speaking of widespread, here is a peek of how far people are willing to travel for a great auction opportunity- Ontario & Manitoba Canada, Nebraska, Iowa, Florida, South & North Dakota, Minnesota, South Carolina, New York, Montana, New Hampshire, Alaska, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois are just some of those that were on premise. The room was full with knowledgeable bidders prepared to get the pieces they came for and some that they may not have planned for. I am sure that the bidding banter is more fun for those that are not involved but none the less it does add a bit of flare for those watching!

If you are looking for a professionally run event with amazing items to add to your collection make sure you check out Glenn Millers Auction Co. for upcoming events! Miller's Auction Company is located in Hixton, in the west-central part of the Badger State, and conduct auctions of all kinds. Glenn can be reached at 715-299-2543, by email: wisconsinjunk@yahoo.com and be sure to check out their website at: www.millersauctionco.com. Continued on pages 16 & 17

The American Political Items Collectors (APIC) To Hold Their 2018 National Convention In Springfield, Illinois

Article & Photos by Bob Atwater & David Yount

The largest Political and Historical collectibles show of the year is coming to the Midwest this summer! The American Political Items Collectors (APIC) has scheduled its 2018 National Convention for July 17th-22nd at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 3000 S. Dirksen Parkway in Springfield, Illinois.

The American Political Items Collectors is a non-profit membership organization, dedicated to promoting the collection, preservation and study of materials relating to political campaigns and the presidency.

Although the campaign button is the most recognized and widely collected of all campaign memorabilia, our members actively search for everything from street banners to vintage political ribbons, ferrotypes, glassware, autographs, textiles, canes and torches, posters, medals, pennants, tokens, postcards, novelties, sheet music, pamphlets, local campaign items, and photography. Almost anything that has the image or name of a candidate for any elective office.

The National Convention in Springfield, Illinois will include over 225 dealer tables of political and historical items being bought and sold. The show will be open to the public free of any admission fees on Saturday, July 21st from 9 am to 4 pm; and on Sunday, July 22nd from 10 am to 3 pm.

On Saturday and Sunday, members of the public can receive free appraisals of their political items and can have them auctioned, if they choose, during one of several sessions scheduled throughout the day, for a small commission fee. Watch as many of the nation's most avid political collectors try to outbid each other for your items. So now is the time to search those attics, closets, trunks, and basements to find those political rarities and bring them to Springfield (on Saturday or Sunday July 21st-22nd) to be appraised and/or sold for the highest fair price possible.

For additional information on the APIC National Convention or on APIC membership, contact Bob Atwater at batwater27@hotmail.com or phone 309-251-6461. Information is also available on our website: WWW.APIC.US.

Ackerman's Iowa City Flea-Tique Market Will Be Coming On June 10th At The Johnson County Fairgrounds At The Iowa City, Iowa

Article by Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

In just a matter of about a month, ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET will be in full swing on Sunday June 10th at Iowa City, Iowa. Located at the Johnson County Fairgrounds, ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET will be both indoors and outdoors and feature all types of antiques and collectables. Hours of ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET are from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Antique furniture, primitives, stoneware and pottery, stain glass windows, postcards and ephemera, antique clocks, glassware, antique and vintage jewelry, old galvanized items and farm junk, cast iron, linens and lace, pictures and frames, Iowa Hawkeye items, and many more categories of antiques will be represented.

ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET is in its 5th year, having started in 2014 as there was a need in the area for an early summertime flea market in the area. Attendance at the market is excellent, and there is wide diversity in what is offered by the various dealers.

Admission is just $3 and parking is free and adjacent to the market. The food stand at ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET is by Jerry and Marge's Catering of Riverside, Iowa and they do just an excellent job of serving up some great mouth watering food for the dealers and for those who attend.

We hope that you all can attend this great eastern Iowa event located at the southwest edge of Iowa City, Iowa just off the Avenue Of The Saints at exit 89, then just 1/2 mile to the north.

To get further information or to reserve a dealer space about ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET please call Bill Ackerman at 319-430-3737
