THEFT ALERT

This is to alert you that there are burglars on the loose . . . East State Street Mall in Rockford, IL was broken into Sunday night. They managed to open the steel garage door over their main doors and then broke through the glass doors, going directly to a case filled with gold, silver, and diamonds.

Last night they attempted to enter Roscoe Antique Mall, South Beloit, IL, thankfully they were unsuccessful. However, they tried to cut the electricity by breaking into the electric boxes, then they cut a big hole in the rear wall (however they ran smack into the kitchen cupboards, then they attempted to break into the back doors which set off the alarm and caused them to leave empty handed.

Both malls are working with the police but currently have no descriptions to release. I'm not sure what you can do to thwart this type of burglary, but at least you are aware.

If you have any information please contact:

Czech Collectors Association

The origins of CCA stretch back to 1995 when the Czechoslovakian Collector's Guild International (CCGI) was founded. The club was reorganized in 2001 and renamed the Czechoslovakian Collector's Association (CCA). This new name, however, only partially captures our interests as the organization also encompasses a wide range of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czechoslovakian Decorative Arts, what many members refer to as the ABCs of collecting.

Our mission is to foster the collection and appreciation of the art glass, ceramics, and other decorative arts of Austria, Bohemia, and Czechoslovakia from the years 1850 to 1940. CCA's mission is accomplished through: research, education, the publication of a Newsletter twice a year, the sponsorship of an annual Convention, and a comprehensive Web site which features articles and columns devoted to deepening our understanding of the history and production of these beautiful objects of art.

The current board members of CCA were elected at the 2010 and 2011 Annual Conventions and will serve two year, staggered terms. They are David Phelps (President, elected 2011), Rosie Bodien (Director of Publicity, elected 2011), David Fein (Director of Membership, elected 2010), Aggie Elwell (Treasurer, elected 2009), Bob Collier (Secretary, appointed 2011)

Our general membership includes both beginning and advanced collectors, researchers, educators, appraisers, and dealers. Most of the members have been collecting or dealing in the Czech decorative arts for many years. Collectively, the expertise of the members of CCA is unrivaled and our annual conventions also feature seminars from leading researchers in the field. Members can also tap into this expertise through one of our new on-line services, a regular column entitled "Ask the Experts." We also remain committed to an ongoing program of research and publication. In addition to the newsletter, CCA has published three volumes of the Journal of Czech Decorative Arts. Back issues are available through this Web site. Forthcoming articles will be appearing in an on-line version of the journal.

In addition to our commitment to providing club members with the latest research in the field of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech Decorative Arts, we also realize that many members are active collectors and, as a club, we try to facilitate avenues for club members to purchase those elusive, beautiful, whimsical, and sought after pieces. The annual show, which is held in conjunction with our yearly convention, has always served as a major venue for collectors to view and purchase a wide range of glass, pottery, jewelry, and perfumes and it will continue to serve this function. In addition, we are now offering new services on this Web site, a "where the dealers are" page, a "for sale by members" page, a "Flea Market Finds" page, a "Collection of the Month" page.

The "where the dealers are" page will help members locate dealers who specialize in Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech decorative arts by providing information on the dealers, their locations and their upcoming shows. The "for sale by members" page will allow members of CCA to buy and sell pieces from their individual collections on the CCA website free of charge.

Antique Lamp & Lighting Clubs Plan 46th Annual Gathering

The 46th convention of antique lamp and lighting clubs will meet in East Peoria, Illinois July 11-15, 2018 at the Embassy Suites Hotel & Convention Center. The Gathering is sponsored by The National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors (www.aladdincollectors.org). Other participating antique lighting clubs include The Rushlight and The Night Light Clubs. Representatives from the International Coleman Collectors, Historical Lighting Society of Canada and The Historic Lighting Club UK are invited to attend.

Collectors come to meet friends with common interests, buy and sell their duplicate lamps, find needed parts, learn how to restore a lamp and support their club.

Everyone interested in collectible and antique lamps is welcome to come learn about lighting of the past, how to light and use old lamps, meet club members, make new friends and perhaps develop new hobby.

Many collectors arrive early for room shopping. Registration opens Wednesday. The first activity is an Aladdin lamp auction—preview Wednesday evening and auction Thursday. This is followed by the 29th International Lamp Show & Sale on Friday and Saturday.

World-class dealers will offer an eclectic variety of antique lighting and accessories.

Lamps of all kinds include pattern oil lamps, Gone-With-The-Wind, art glass lamps, opalescent lamps, miniature lamps, student lamps, finger lamps, Victorian fixtures, floor lamps, center-draft lamps, as well as early electric lamps and Aladdin's Deco style figurines! Each club has a booth in the Lamp Show.

Other activities include an opening reception dinner, display room to see rare and unusual lighting, educational seminars and a raffle to win the beautiful ladies quilt. The closing banquet is Saturday.

Registration is required to attend all activities and events. However, the public and non-members are invited to the Aladdin auction and to attend the Lamp Show & Sale, there is $5 door admission.

The schedule of events is posted on the website: www.aladdincollectors.org. Also visit The Rushlight Club: <http://www.rushlight.org>, oldest lighting club in America; and The Night Light Club <http://www.nightlightclub.org>, collectors of miniature lamps.

Flow Blue International Collectors Club Meet in Iowa for Annual Convention

Bettendorf, Iowa – To the typical person, Flow Blue and Mulberry may sound like odd names for china but this variety has been around since the 1800s with thousands of patterns.

For collectors and interested enthusiasts, a highlight is the annual international convention. This year the Quad Cities is the host destination for the Flow Blue International Collectors Club convention on July 26-28 at the Isle Casino Hotel in Bettendorf, Iowa.

Located on the Mississippi River, the Quad Cities is comprised of Moline/East Moline & Rock Island in Illinois; Davenport & Bettendorf in Iowa; and surrounding communities.

If you have an interest in Flow Blue or Mulberry china and a curiosity about its patterns, potters and history, you are encouraged to attend. Attendees must be members of the Flow Blue International Collectors' Club and may join via the website at www.flowblue.org.

As part of the convention on July 26, attendees will tour the Quad Cities, including a tour of the John Deere Harvester combine factory, a luncheon cruise on the Celebration Belle Riverboat, tours of the Butterworth Center & Deere-Wiman House, and a visit to the John Deere Pavilion.

Convention activities also include an information-packed First Timers seminar, educational presentations, excellent buying opportunities, a show of Rare & Unusual pieces, getting to know other Club members, and a fabulous 300-lot auction of only Flow Blue and Mulberry items.

About Flow Blue and Mulberry

With patterns numbering in the thousands, Flow Blue and Mulberry ironstone accommodates the taste of every collector. The striking patterns create beautiful vignettes on a side table or dazzle when amassed in a glass cabinet. With patterns spanning categories such as Scenic, Oriental, Art Nouveau, Floral, Advertising, Children's pieces, Souvenir and Brushstroke, Flow Blue and Mulberry complements all types of collecting interests.

Why did such a variety of patterns appear on items like dishes, chamber sets and garden accessories? The rapid expansion of the British Empire in the 1800s into Africa and Asia inspired the imaginations of common people and inspired the travel plans of wealthy people. The unusual fabrics, spices, artifacts and porcelains that returned with travelers created a longing for faraway places and exotic things. English potters seized the romantic dream of travel abroad and placed it in reach of all classes of people as fascinating yet functional items for their homes.

Potters discovered that transfer printing in light blues, greens, pinks and browns gave a distinct, almost photographic quality to their patterns. That definitive image had a certain attraction, but to appeal to the householder who dreamed of something more mysterious, a process of introducing chemicals to the kiln while firing generated a blurring of the transfer lines which lent itself to fantasy.

All manufacturers must know their consumers to market well and make a profit. It quickly became clear that British housewives found Flow Blue with its vivid cobalt hues and Mulberry in a range from chocolaty browns to moody purples, less desirable than their American counterparts. Adapting to this observation, potteries exported much of their Flow Blue and Mulberry to America for use as everyday dishes.

In homage to this American love of Flow Blue and Mulberry, the Flow Blue International Collectors' Club became a reality in 1986. Its stated purpose "to stimulate, educate, and maintain interest in the collection and study of Flow Blue, Mulberry, and related fields of china..." is carried on by hundreds of members in countries across the world.

Your opportunity to join this vibrant club begins at www.flowblue.org where you will find a membership application and a copy of the convention booklet which you can view. Hopefully, it will help you decide that you want to become a member and attend the convention.

The De Pere Antique Show at St. Norbert Continues On & On

Article by Audre & Ray Hanson (AR Promotions)

After 25 years of promoting the De Pere Antique Show we, Ray and Audre' Hanson of AR Promotions, have decided we physically can not do two shows one month apart. Since we live in Wausau, we will continue the Wausau Shows in February and November.

We have always been proud to have a show at St. Norbert College & will miss everyone associated with the show. Some of you have participated in this show for many years and we thank you for your support & helping us establish a quality event since 1993, which 1000's of loyal customers have attended. There were 32 Dealers in 1993 & admission was $2.00 & eight of the original 32 dealers are still doing the show, now there are 60 Dealers!

Nona & Mark Wilson of Northstar Collective will be the new promoters of the De Pere show, they are very capable promoters who will do a splendid job of advertising & continuing the quality professionalism everyone expects. Please give them the Support and the opportunity to show you their good intentions and ideas. They also promote shows in Oshkosh & Minoqua, Wisconsin and in Lebanon, Indiana. We are confident that they will provide the dealers and customers a successful event on March 23-24, 2019. We will still see you at the show, but as a fellow dealer.

We thank all of you for your wonderful support & assisting us when help was needed and having confidence in us since 1993. See you at the Show! Audre' & Ray Hanson, AR Promotions 715-355-5144. The new Promoter is Northstar Collective, Nona Wilson, 906-250-1618.

Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market In Its 4th Year And Just Around The Corner In Iowa City, Iowa

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

The 4th Annual ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET will be up and running again this coming July 4th at the Johnson County Fairgrounds at Iowa City, Iowa. The fairgrounds is located just off the Avenue of the Saints at exit 89 at the southwest edge of Iowa City, Iowa, then north just _ mile.

Hours of the event are from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on WEDNESDAY JULY 4TH. Admission is just $3/person. There is lots of close by parking in two adjacent parking lots.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET originated in 2015 as a replacement show for the long running (34 years) Hanson's Grove Antique Show at Solon, Iowa. Upon closing in 2014 a new venue was needed to accommodate the many dealers who had done Hanson's Grove for so many years and the Johnson County Fairgrounds was selected as the location and Ackerman's undertook the new project to get the July 4th show up and going. Since its inception the market has taken off very well and large crowds attend each year to buy from the many dealers who arrive from a wide area.

Now in its 4th year, ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & ANTIQUE MARKET STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET has filled the need in this area and both dealers and antique buyers set up and attend from a wide area.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET is held in three buildings at the Johnson County Fairgrounds as well as many outdoor booths that surround the buildings.

Denkman's Lunch will be providing some great food and drink to feed and water the many customers who will be attending this great annual area event.

Dealer space is currently available and we welcome you to give us a call to get information about the market or to reserve a space. We can best be contacted by calling Ackerman's 319-430-3737 319-338-8449

Porquier Beau Statue “The Newlyweds”

Quimper Club International

Dick's Quimper collection began with a major piece, the Porquier Beau statue “The Newlyweds.” It was love at first sight for him.

I had been collectioning cups and saucers and an occasional small plate to display with my four Quimper eggcups. My budget for collecting was tiny and even buying a piece at all seemed like a huge luxury.

Dick and I were at an antique show in L.A. when one of our favorite dealers had some wonderful cups & saucers AND this large wonderful statue. Well, Dick took a good look at the statue and decided that we should have it. So, after quite an extensive conversation we agreed – we would buy it. I must admit, the statue pretty much ate up a whole year's collecting budget for me but I have never regretted the decision.

Through the years, I've added to Dick's collection a piece at a time. The terracotta pieces don't seem to mix well with the faience pieces (or maybe they do and I'm overly sensitive to glazes and finishes), but in any case, they certainly display well as a collection! One piece at a time is usually how they entered our home but occasionally I was able to find a pair.

The matching newlywed platter is a favorite and this Porquier Beau themed collection is a source of great pride for us both.

About The Author

Lucy is Co-founder and a former President of QCI. In addition to collecting and selling French faience she plays in an orchestra, teaches piano, quilts and keeps up with her handsome grandsons.

George Auction Services Sells Fantastic Petroleum Collection

Article & Photos by George Auction Service

With Hoop's help, we used the entire property to display items, as the center of the property and in the building all gas & oil advertising items were sold, while the entire outside was "everything else" (collector car parts, vehicles, general antiques, skid loader & more). This set up and our great auction crew, allowed us to keep the auction moving, selling approximately 1,200 total lots during the 5 1/2 hour auction with two sale rings. A sign that was believed by its previous owner to be a dumpster item brought $3,900.00. The 1929 Buick sold for $2,000 more than the purchase price at a local auction just 3 years ago. Needless to say, the auction well exceeded the sellers expectations and the very smoothly run auction allowed bidders to go home pleased as well. If you are thinking of having an auction, contact us and let our experience work for you!

A Brief History of Nippon

The Nippon era began in 1891 when the Japanese porcelain was clearly marked "Nippon" due to the McKinley Tariff Act. This act required that all porcelain be marked with the country of origin. ("Nippon" literally translates to "Japan".) This porcelain was made specifically to be exported to the west with designs and patterns that suited American's tastes. At that time, Japan had a thriving porcelain industry using methods used in Europe and the United States.

The Japanese items were less expensive than pieces coming from Europe and became very popular in the U.S. The porcelain was sold in gift shops, dime stores, fairs and even at the local grocery. Nippon items were also sold by Montgomery Ward, Sears & Roebuck, mail order houses and other department stores.

In 1921 the United States government changed its position and required that Japanese imports no longer be marked "Nippon", but with "Japan". This marks the end of the Nippon era.

*Nothing tells the story as well as the porcelain itself!
It must be seen to be appreciated!*

Our main purpose One of the very best things about belonging to the INCC is meeting so many fellow collectors who share a common interest. If you would like to join, visit www.nipponcollectorsclub.com

Society for Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains

The Society for Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains is an organization of collectors and dealers who admire and collect Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains. The purpose of the Society is for the members to share information and educate themselves and the public about the history and beauty of these porcelains, promote the collecting of Old Ivory and Hermann Ohme porcelains, and to develop communications between those who collect these porcelain items.

The SOIOP website is clean looking and traditional looking in keeping with the character of the collecting area the Society represents. The homepage has representative photos of Old Ivory and Ohme porcelain pieces plus a side navigation bar.

There is a section on the history of Old Ivory and Ohme porcelains and some excellent segments with photos covering the types of porcelain, patterns and marks.

The site's sections on the Society, itself, and on their annual convention is almost secondary. This is an excellent reference site for both collectors and dealers, or for that person who just happens to own a piece of Old Ivory or Ohme porcelain and wants to know a little more about it.

The largest Political and Historical collectibles show of the year is coming to the Midwest this summer! The American Political Items Collectors (APIC) has scheduled its 2018 National Convention for July 17th-22nd at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 3000 S. Dirksen Parkway in Springfield, Illinois.

The American Political Items Collectors is a non-profit membership organization, dedicated to promoting the collection, preservation and study of materials relating to political campaigns and the presidency.

Although the campaign button is the most recognized and widely collected of all campaign memorabilia, our members actively search for everything from street banners to vintage political ribbons, ferrotypes, glassware, autographs, textiles, canes and torches, posters, medals, pennants, tokens, postcards, novelties, sheet music, pamphlets, local campaign items, and photography. Almost anything that has the image or name of a candidate for any elective office.

The National Convention in Springfield, Illinois will include over 225 dealer tables of political and historical items being bought and sold. The show will be open to the public free of any admission fees on Saturday, July 21st from 9 am to 4 pm; and on Sunday, July 22nd from 10 am to 3 pm.

On Saturday and Sunday, members of the public can receive free appraisals of their political items and can have them auctioned, if they choose, during one of several sessions scheduled throughout the day, for a small commission fee. Watch as many of the nation's most avid political collectors try to outbid each other for your items. So now is the time to search those attics, closets, trunks, and basements to find those political rarities and bring them to Springfield (on Saturday or Sunday July 21st-22nd) to be appraised and/or sold for the highest fair price possible.

For additional information on the APIC National Convention or on APIC membership, contact Bob Atwater at batwater27@hotmail.com or phone 309-251-6461. Information is also available on our website: WWW.APIC.US.
