110 Fantastic Dealers, Two Exciting Shows: The Collector's Eye/Midwest Antique & Art Show

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

Cedar Rapids, "The Collector's Eye" Midwest Antique & Art Show was held on Sunday, April 8th and once again it was a spectacular day! This event never disappoints, it is filled with such a great array of antique, vintage and art that it is rare to see someone walk out empty handed, I sure didn't. There is such a great group of vendors that attend from our nearby Midwest states as well as those who travel from as far as New York, Nebraska, Kansas and even Texas. Drawing a variety of States definitely gives this event an advantage in providing their show goes a day filled with eclectic charm and the chance to find that amazing piece or pieces to take home.

Out & About HAPPY

Father's Day is this Sunday. Take your father to an auction this weekend. The weather looks like it will be beautiful. I'm sure just spending a day antiquing with him will definitely put a smile on his face. Make sure to pack lots of water, chairs, sunblock, hat and an umbrella. Afterwards take him for dinner. The kids wanted to celebrate with Todd this past weekend as Tia was home for a day. So, we grilled out and Facetimed Mekenzy and had dinner together. We try our best to keep us all connected. A lot of their friends wish their own families stayed in contact as much as we do with each other.

Hawkeye Downs Fairgrounds - Site of The Collector's Eye / Midwest Antique & Art Show

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

It's the antiques show once judged "The best show in the Midwest" by Country Home Magazine. The antiques show that's actually two shows in one - each with its own distinct personality. The antiques show with over one-hundred quality dealers from throughout the Midwest and beyond, featuring everything from period fine art to funky vintage advertising.

The Midwest Antiques and Decorative Arts Show has been part of Cedar Rapids antiques scene for more than a generation, and the Hawkeye Downs Exposition Center has been its home since the very first year. An expansion of the Exposition Center several years ago allowed the show to expand right along with it.

Although the aisle and booths were filled with shoppers, it is always fun to hang out at each booth listening to the conversations that are taking place about a particular piece, it is so interesting to hear the exchange of stories, the opportunity to learn about history never gets old. I don't mind waiting my turn in order to say hello and reintroduce myself, so I can get some input on the show, as well as snap a few pictures of things to share with you, "the readers" that may have missed the show or passed by an interesting piece. So, take this time to go and mark your calendar so you don't miss the next one being held on Sunday, October 28th, 2018 at the Hawkeye Downs Fairgrounds.

For more information call 319-360-4301 or 319-389-7779 or visit mwan-tiqueshow.com.

Gorgeous Set of Tiffany & Co. "Flemish" Flatware Brings $4,500 at Tumbleson Auction Center

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

Over 100 firearms crossed the block on Saturday. They included hand guns, shotguns, rifles and Military rifles from makers such as Colt, Winchester, Remington, Glock, Kimber and S&W. Saturday's sale also included a fantastic collection of old Arcade cast iron toys, older trucks & cars, tin windups and Lionel trains. Advertising pieces included thermometers, clocks, metal & porcelain signs and gas & oil collectibles.

Day two of the sale saw antique and modern furniture, a Grandfather clock, a large collection of sterling silver, Stueben and Bradley & Hubbard lamps and various items from Tiffany. There were also pieces from Waterford, Lalique, Bacarrat, as well as cut glass, cranberry and Carnival glass, Roseville and Weller pottery.

A large collection of postcards, books and advertising items were also up for bids on Sunday. There was Longaberger baskets and pottery pieces and a nice collection of vintage radios & TVs.

Antique Lamps To Light in Peoria

Coal-oil, or kerosene lighting, is often "mystic" to those who are too young to have experienced the warm glow that illuminated our homes in years past. Collectors restore and light the old lamps that were essential for our parents and grandparents. Many young people today are discovering the nostalgia and beauty that antique lighting add to their home décor—especially family heirloom lamps.

Collectors who prize old lamps will hold their 46th annual Gathering (convention) July 11-15, 2018 at the Embassy Suites Hotel & Riverfront Conference Center in East Peoria, Illinois. The Gathering is sponsored by The National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors (www.aladdincollectors.org/)

Tom & Maria Hopp are the General Knights (hosts) who plan and organize events. Calling themselves Aladdin Knights, the group is America's largest club of antique lamp collectors. More than 300 are expected to attend.

Lamp and lighting collecting clubs in attendance will be: The Rushlight Club (www.rushlight.org), oldest lighting club in America, who will hold their summer quarterly meeting in Peoria; The Night Light Club (www.nightlightclub.org), collectors of miniature lamps; and Aladdin Knights of the Mystic Light (www.aladdinknights.org). Members from The Historical Lighting Society of Canada (www.historical-lighting.on.ca) and the Historical Lighting Club of England are also invited.

Collectors and students of antique lighting attend to study and learn history of lighting ranging from rushlights and whale oil to discovery of new fuels and technology in lamp improvements. Crownplace Brands, Dalton, Ohio, manufacturer of Aladdin lamps, will be present. Gathering events include an auction, educational seminars, memorabilia display room, raffle, banquet and the huge Show & Sale. The "Ladies of the Knights" donate their time and talents to make a beautiful, hand-made quilt that a lucky member will win at the annual banquet.

The Antique Lamp Show & Sale opens to registered members at noon Friday and to the public on later Friday and on Saturday. Spectacular, rare, and beautiful are words that describe this unique and unusual show featuring antique lighting. World-class dealers will offer an immense variety of antique lighting and accessories. Lamps of all kinds including colored pattern oil lamps, Gone-With-The-Wind, art glass lamps, opalescent lamps, miniature lamps, student lamps, finger lamps, Victorian hanging fixtures, floor lamps, center-draft lamps, as well as the collectible early electric lamps, plus the world-famous Aladdin lamps including their Deco style figurines!

The public is invited to the 29th International Lamp Show & Sale on Friday, July 13 from 2 to 5:30 PM and Saturday from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Embassy Hotel Conference Center. There is a nominal $5.00 admission fee. See the website: <http://www.aladdincollectors.org> for details.

History - Brown & McCoy Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand

Paul Moody of Richmond, VA made a remarkable discovery of a previously unknown salt glazed crock, labeled, BROWN & McCOY WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STONEWARE ROSEVILLE, O. Just how this piece fit into the known history of the McCoy potteries was intriguing, so an investigation was begun. At first it was thought that the crock was made by a Brown & McCoy Company where the McCoy was unrelated to the McCoy family known to us, but subsequently the following was found.

The Brown in the inscription was James E. Brown who was born in 1820. His father, Joseph Brown who was from Delaware, moved his family in 1837 to McLuney, Ohio. McLuney is located in Perry County in Harrison Township about 11/2miles south of Crooksville.

James E. Brown had married Lucy Ann Sowers before 1850, and moved to Roseville. Throughout their marriage they had seven children, one of which was Sarah E. Brown. There is more about Sarah below. James E. Brown became a well-known merchant, and both he, and later his son George Washington Brown, was quite influential in the Roseville area. Among James' business ventures was a general merchandising store. In the Federal censuses of the late 1800s, James listed his occupation as a merchant rather than a potter, indicating that he was not involved in making pottery, but rather a wholesale seller of it in his store. It is known from a history of the Brown family, that James employed his son G. W. Brown, and J.B. Owens at the store, and that G.W. went on to establish a pottery around 1850. In 1883, J.B. established the J.B. Owens Pottery Company.

In April 1870, a connection between the Brown family and the McCoy family occurred. The McCoy in this connection was James W. McCoy. J.W. was born in 1848, the same year as his family arrived in Muskingum County. His father, W. Nelson and wife Esther, had settled in Putnam, which later became a part of Zanesville. J.W. was 22 years old in 1870 when he married Sarah (Sade) Elizabeth Brown, the daughter of James E. Brown.

During the following year, J.W. and Sarah moved to Uniontown, Newton Township, Muskingum County, where he operated a dry goods store. In 1872, they moved to the community of Roseville, very near his wife's parents. McCoy references have reported that J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876, but I was always curious why he, and his wife, moved to Roseville five years earlier, and what J.W. did during that time.

It was discovered that the reason he moved to Roseville was that his father-in-law offered to take him in as a partner in his mercantile business, and their partnership became known as Brown & McCoy. The Brown and McCoy business operated from 1872 until 1888. It is surprising that neither the name James Brown, nor information about the Brown & McCoy business, has appeared in the literature.

After 1888, evidently the Brown & McCoy business was sold; for James E. Brown went on to establish a furniture store on First Street in Roseville - he was 68 years old at the time. He died in 1907 at the age of 88. It is not known when J.W. left the business, but as mentioned above, J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876. Then in 1886, he entered into a series of partnerships in the pottery business. Finally, in 1899 he, along with several investors, established a pottery in Roseville solely in his own name, the J. W. McCoy Pottery.
