Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show - Enjoy the Thrill of the Hunt

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

On Sunday, July 8th one of many summer "Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Shows" was held at the fairgrounds located at 1401 Suydam Road in Sandwich, Illinois. Sunday at Sandwich is a place to see great treasures of the past. The drive was beautiful, so if you are interested in traveling to a great show, grab a friend or tell the hubby that he can golf at the Edgebrook Country Club while you shop! There are paths throughout the grounds full of vendors, as well as in some of the fair buildings. Vendors came from all over Illinois and additional states also traveled to share their treasures!

Just remember that not all vendors have contacts so in order to see their amazing inventory you must visit the shows. Make sure you hit one of the summer Antique Market sales throughout the summer so you don't miss out on that great piece that can add character and stories to your home.

Out & About

Labor Day weekend is fast approaching and it is the last long weekend for families before school starts. There are many events to attend before the holiday, so don't put that travel bag away just yet. Be sure to let our advertisers know where you saw their ads. This helps them to know that their advertising dollar is working for them.

We had our last family dinner together before the kids head off to college. Usually I make their favorite items or we have what we call "fry" day. Because it was on a work day and we wouldn't be together until 5pm. We opted for something new. We picked up a little bit of everyone's favorite restaurant food. So there was pizza, Chinese, fries. Mekenzy and Tia don't have many food options in their towns. So, we figured they could get their favorites. It is always sad to watch them go, but I try not to burden the girls with my tears. We don't want to make leaving hard on them, as they are excited to go back to college. Last weekend Mekenzy went with Noah to Plymouth, Wisconsin to help him get his rented house set up. The four boys who are all studying to be engineers are fixing up the place in exchange for discounted rent. She giggled when none of them knew how to open a foaming soap dispenser or that they didn't have toilet paper. So, she went to work taking care of them for the weekend. The one thing going away to college teaches our kids is there is no limit for them helping each other, they are their own support system.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

Wisconsin Pottery Association Art Pottery Show on Saturday, August 25th. Located in Exhibition Hall at Alliant Energy Center in Madison, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

Dodgeville Lions Club Antique Show & Flea Market on Sunday, August 26th. Located at Ley Pavilion in Harris Park in Dodgeville, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

Pleasant Valley Native American Artifact Show on Sunday, August 26th. Located at Washington County Fair Park in West Bend, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

East State Antique Mall is having their Mall Wide Sales Now through Sunday, September 9th. Located at East State Antique Mall, 5411 East State Street, in Rockford, Illinois. See their ad in this week's issue of Auction Action Antique News.

Mark your calendars for:

Kane County Flea Market on Saturday, September 1st & Sunday, September 2nd. Located at Kane County Fairgrounds in St. Charles, Illinois. See upcoming events for more information.

Cedarburg Maxwell Street Days on Sunday, September 2nd. Located at Cedarburg Fireman's Park in Cedarburg, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

Ralston Creek Labor Day Antique Flea Market on Monday, September 3rd. Located at Johnson County Fairgrounds in Iowa City, Iowa. See upcoming events for more information.

Noah and I attended the 3rd Annual Sunflower Fest at Bergsbaken Farms in Cecil, Wisconsin the weekend of July 27-29. It was a very hot but beautiful day. There was a bounce house for the kids, balloon animals, face painting and you could make a sunflower center piece. We rode the wagon around the farm and then walked through the sunflowers. It was exciting to see and would make for a great family event. Admission was free, perfect for us broke college kids. There were concessions available. Getting in and out was really easy. We had a wonderful fun filled day.

Antiques, Collectibles and so Much More at Sunday at Sandwich Market in Illinois

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

The successful Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show begins its fourth year with continued dedication to providing a rewarding experience for exhibitors and customers alike. Managed by the same team of seasoned antiques dealers, this Second Sunday market of antiques and collectibles has helped to define Sandwich, Illinois as a destination location for both the casual visitor and the sophisticated collector. Parking is free, adult admission remains at $5.00, children 12 and under free, and food is available from several popular vendors. Come and join us under the trees at the historic Sandwich Fairgrounds and discover the many treasures and hard to find items our dealers bring to you.

It was such a pleasant day walking around the grounds with music playing, there were food vendors as well as a few area businesses that you could pick something to enjoy in days to come. "Sweet" or healthy like "veggie's" from Sweet Sensation &

Larson's Country Market & Bake Shoppe, Inc. seem to add just that little something fun to the event. I couldn't leave without a chocolate chip zucchini bread from one and some eggplant & fresh zucchini from the other to enjoy at a later date.

For more information, contact Maureen at 847-321-1712 or Renie at 630-251-3454. You can also send them an email at: sundayantiques-sandwich@gmail.com and visit the website: www.sundayatsandwichantiques.com for upcoming events.

Article by Priscilla Lindstrom
(Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association)

The CIADA Board and Show Promoters, Richard & Priscilla Lindstrom, are excited about the upcoming 2018 Fall Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association (CIADA) Show & Sale. Show Dealers, many of whom do not participate in other antiques & vintage shows in Central Illinois, will provide a wide variety of quality merchandise.

Held in the Interstate Center, Mini Expo Building, 1106 Interstate Drive in Bloomington, Illinois the show will open at 10 a.m. both days and close at 5 p.m. on Saturday and 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $6.00 which is good for both days. See the CIADA ad in this edition and bring a copy of the ad with you to the show for $1.00 off (up to two admissions). NOTE: In appreciation of our Veterans and their service to our Country, during the fall CIADA shows, Veterans are admitted free with proof of service.

Dealers are invited to bring a wide variety of merchandise to sell, which may include: Advertising, Americana, Art, Books, Civil War Artifacts, Country, Ephemera, Folk Art, Furniture, Glass, Jewelry, Porcelain, Post Cards, Pottery, Primitives, Silver and Stoneware. Additionally, some Dealers have expanded their inventory to include categories such as Mid-Century Modern, Danish Modern and repurposed items.

If you are looking for someone to restore a family heirloom, returning to CIADA's fall 2018 show, are the following dealers who provide restorations:

- Jerry & Donna Bartlett of Crane Creek Antique Restoration. The Bartletts provide furniture restoration, refinishing & repair, chair caning and wicker repair.
- Chuck & Rhonda Kern of C-R Antiques. C-R Antiques specializes in furniture repair, restoration and repurposing. Additionally, C-R Antiques provide vignettes at the CIADA shows, giving patrons ideas on how to use antiques and vintage items in their home.

Restoration, including all types of china, porcelain, bisque, ceramic, clay & marble pieces.

Stop by and talk with these dealers about your restoration & repair needs... or bring your piece or pieces with you for these dealers to see first-hand your specific needs. They will be glad to assist you.

The CIADA show is one of the longest running Antiques & Vintage shows in Illinois and is BLOOMINGTON'S ORIGINAL ANTIQUE SHOW. Known for its quality... which continues today, you won't want to miss this semi-annual event.

“SHOW AND TELL” DO YOU HAVE A SPECIAL COLLECTION TO SHARE?

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

Because the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a non-profit organization that promotes the appreciation and understanding of antiques, we are searching for owners of exceptional collections who would like to share their knowledge with the general public.

WADA Antiques Shows take place the first Friday and Saturday of each February and October. Every show has a Special Exhibit with a particular theme. For example, the October, 2018 theme for the Special Exhibit is “Antique Candy Containers”.

WADA provides locked showcases, electricity, tables and chairs and overnight professional security at no cost to the host of the Special Exhibit

Scott Tagliapietra of Scott's Antiques, Whitefish Bay, WI (well-known holiday, doll and toy dealer) collects antique candy containers, particularly circa 1910 German papier-mâché examples. Here are just of few of the pieces he will share at the special exhibit.

Parts supplied by major doll manufacturers were used for candy containers, their clothes hand made; here a skier with bisque head and hands. (Jackie Kojis Collection) booth. Sharing examples of your collection and swapping stories with other enthusiasts about “the hunt” is fun! The added bonus is when you make a connection with another collector who has something special to sell! We currently seek participants for our 2019 shows. To qualify, the participant should have a collection of pre-1950 items of interest to the general public. The collection should include unusual examples in good, clean condition.

To apply, send pictures and a brief description to: Debbie McArdle, jjmcard@comcast.net.

For more information about WADA's October, 2018 exhibit, “Antique Candy Containers”, see www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com/special_exhibit.

Jim & Debbie McArdle of Iron Horse Antiques, Crystal Lake, IL acquired this 9-1/2” tall reindeer candy container that had once been part of an entire set (7 other reindeer + Santa in his sleigh) that once graced the famous candy counter at Marshall Field's Michigan Avenue location in Chicago.

TLCI's new Online guide is Coming!

Members of Tea Leaf Club International are anxiously awaiting the launch of a new on-line informational site which will serve as a paperless handbook of all things Tea Leaf. Development of the site has been in process for many months, producing a comprehensive guide to help collectors identify and recognize the many body styles, motifs, potters, and characteristics of the popular decorated ironstone.

Target date for the launch of this exciting new source of information is March 1, 2016.

When available, one will be able to view many photos of representative pieces and learn more about the history and development of Tea Leaf through the years.

Cross-referencing will allow better access for comparisons. For example, calling up information on sugar bowls will bring up photos of many pieces in various body styles and by different potters. This will help in initial identification of a particular piece. Then, using the link from a photo, one can bring up more information on that style and potter.

The new site and its wealth of information will be available free of charge to non-members, too. TLCI members know that there are many people who may have Tea Leaf in their possession but have never known much about its age and history. We hope that visiting this site will stimulate interest, and encourage others to join us in our study and appreciation for Tea Leaf.

The Tea Leaf Club is dedicated to the study and collection of Tea Leaf Ironstone China and its Variants, produced in England and America from the mid-19th century through the early 1900s. The club boasts hundreds of members from almost every state in the union, as well as members from Canada. TLCI is made up of people who collect, study, love, and appreciate the simple beauty and endurance of Tea Leaf Ironstone China.

One of the goals of TLCI is to expand knowledge of the history and popularity of Tea Leaf ironstone throughout the years. The club welcomes new members and enthusiastically shares their appreciation for the sturdy, attractive pottery. Visit <http://www.tealeafclub.com> for more information about Tea Leaf Club International.
