The Market with A Bang After the Fireworks

Article & photos by Tim Wilson

It was a beautiful day in Minocqua for nearly anything; fishing, touring the sights, swimming; but the day being July 6th, there was something going on in this beloved tourist sight. The Minocqua Antique Market had begun. At nine in the morning the show was off to a shining start. People from all over, whether tourists or locals, were present. Following two days after Independence Day; what better way to appreciate America's history than to go to an antique show?

Antiques School Releases List Of Top Sellers For 2017

The latest results from the Ashford Institute (a professional-level distance learning program on antiques, collectibles and appraising), recently published its annual survey of top buying trends within the antiques and collectibles community this past week.

The Institute, which has been conducting the industry related survey for over six years now, released its latest trending data on decorative arts sales for 2017 via a dedicated page on the school's web site. The survey, which focuses on compiling and grouping information related to customers buying habits over a twelve month period, came about as a result of strong interest from readers requesting updates from previous surveys, said current Director of the Institute, Charles Green. He went on to note that there were some interesting changes in the poll results this year. "Our questionnaire has become more detailed, resulting in answers that are more period and genre specific. We're really able to drill down now into the types of antiques and vintage items that are actually selling well within a 12 month period." Green also acknowledged that the increase in poll-participants (up 15% over last year), had led to more accurate survey numbers in regard to particular sales categories. "More data has simply given us better survey results," said Green.

The school's lead Poll Researcher, Tony Frey, echoed Mr. Green's sentiments and went on to say that the main goal of the Institute's survey was to provide meaningful analysis of measurable interest in current trends within the antiques and collectibles marketplace, based on actual sales results and requests for specific items from vendors.

Frey, who has worked on all six of the school's past polls, noted that while the survey was based on a general series of questions, and did not employ any standardized formulas, the overall results were still very revealing when looked at as a whole. "The shift in what's considered collectible is continuing to change, and at a more accelerated pace than ever before," said Frey. "For the last few years it's been Mid-century modern, but this year we're beginning to see some cracks in that crown."

Some of the other highlights from the poll included a resurgence of all things Western. "We're seeing a revitalized interest by the public in literally anything related to the American past and particularly the wild, wild west" said Frey. Other top sellers on the school's list include a few industry standards such as Star Wars items, space related toys from the 1960's and 70's, as well as automobilia and related mechanical items. Frey noted that just as in past polls, the most visible movement in collecting genres was being reported by younger dealers, who indicated that consumer tastes seemed to be trending towards virtually anything related to the latter half of the twentieth-century. "The reality is the younger collectors are the one's moving the ball forward now," said Frey, "the rest of us just appear to be along for the ride."

For readers wanting to view the full results of the Institute's survey, you can find them online at: <http://www.ashford.com/2017-survey-results.html>. Happy Labor Day!

LABOR DAY

We wish everyone a Safe and Happy Labor Day weekend. Lots of events happening this weekend, so make sure you take some time for yourself and enjoy some antiques.

So, I hope for this unofficial end of summer holiday weekend that everyone has fun and a wonderful time spent with family and friends.

Making lots of memories and finding lots of antique treasures.

Summer seems to have gone by fast. Remember that school has started for some kids, so slow down in those school zones.

The girls are back at college and Brandon starts on September 4th. Mekenzy has a job interview for Admissions. Tia will keep working at the Osthoff. Both girls are taking 17 credits each this semester.

Brandon will keep working at the dealership and soon turns 18.

Everyone keeps asking us if our family dynamics have changed. We say "not really" the girls are both very good at Facetiming us often and texting or Snapchatting us everyday. So, we all stay in touch with each others lives. The girls even keep in contact with Brandon to hassle him.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

Kane County Flea Market on Saturday, September 1st & Sunday, September 2nd. Located at Kane County Fairgrounds in St. Charles, Illinois. See upcoming events for more information.

Following my research experience I got a job in the watersports department at the Osthoff Resort. My job consists of helping families with kayaks, paddle boards, and even pontoons. The other day a bluegill floated to shore, and being a science nerd I picked it up. I named him Little Ray. There is never a bad day at work on a beach, only busy ones. I love what I do, especially being outdoors & around people.

Minocqua Antique Market Looking to the Future

Article & Photos by Tim Wilson

This wondrous event had an incredible lineup of dealers who were from all over the country. Their displays were full and bright with unique treasures, and outstanding oddities. Original artwork used for advertising, giveaway puppets replicated on Jim Henson's original first Muppets, Louis and Clark Trade Beads, and a millefiori smoking pipe are only a few of the unique treasures you would've seen at this spectacular show. There was also furniture: from large cabinets to wicker decor: available for the person looking to add more furniture to their home.

With a great lineup of dealers, behind the curtains, there must be brilliant promoters. They have made a few changes for the event over the past few years of ownership. One of the few changes being the alteration of what program to donate part of the door entrance fee. They now donate part of the door entrance fee to the high school the event is held in. The most current change they've made is the show is now annual over it being once a biannual occurrence. The first alteration gives the high school more money to invest in the children going. The most recent change gives the promoters more time and energy to focus on one over two shows.

This extravagant market was held in the Lakeland High School in Minocqua, Wisconsin. The days the event were held was July 6th to July 8th. July 6th and 7th the doors opened at 9 AM and closed at 4 PM, and July 8th the doors opened at 9 AM and closed at 2 PM. If there are any questions about the next Minocqua Antique Show you can contact the promoters by phone: 906-250-1618, or by going to their website: www.northwoodsantiqueshow.com.

HISTORY OF THE FOSTORIA GLASS COMPANY 1887 - 1986

The Fostoria Glass Company began operations in Fostoria, Ohio, on December 15, 1887. This site was chosen because natural gas at a recently opened field in the area had been offered at a very low cost to attract new industries. However, the field was so short-lived that in 1891, Fostoria moved to Moundsville, West Virginia, where there was an abundance of gas and coal, and other needed materials were close by.

During its first ten years, Fostoria made pressed ware, but early in the 20th century Fostoria realized the importance of developing fine quality blown stemware.

In 1924 the company was one of the first to start a program of national advertising, and the first to produce complete dinner services in crystal. Besides their regular line of blown, etched and pressed patterns they did custom work such as providing glass with government seals for officials in Washington. All the presidents from Eisenhower through Reagan ordered glassware from them. At one time Fostoria was the largest maker of handmade glassware in the United States, employing nearly 1000 people. The AMERICAN pattern, introduced in 1915, is still being produced by Lancaster Colony (who bought the Fostoria company in 1983), making it the most successful pattern in the history of glass making. Fostoria's business peaked in 1950 when they made over 8 million pieces of glass.

In 1986, after struggling with an outmoded plant and foreign competition, Lancaster Colony was forced to close the Fostoria Company, ending nearly 100 years of glass making.

Musical Box Society International

The Musical Box Society International is a non-profit organization dedicated to the enjoyment, study and preservation of all automatic musical instruments. From its modest beginning in 1949, MBSI now numbers several thousand members with representation in each of the 50 states and 19 other countries.

The MBSI website at www.mbsi.org is easy to navigate and understand. Visitors to the site will find a great deal of helpful information about automatic musical instruments. There is a large museum section showing various museums and repositories that have automatic musical instruments and a huge listing of manufacturers of these instruments. We particularly enjoyed the Photo Gallery. Twenty-five musical instruments are shown and by clicking on a button by each picture you can actually hear the automatic musical instrument playing. For members there is a large library for borrowing related books and also a MBSI Store. The Society's chapters are listed and an Events Calendar features the annual convention as well as chapter events.

The section on how to become a member is easy to understand and complete. Anyone visiting this site and spending some time here who has an interest in automatic musical instruments should end up at this section and join!

ATGLEN, PA - Schiffer Publishing, Ltd. would like to introduce Scenes from the Country Fair by Michael P. Gadomski.

For more than 250 years, local fairs have been a symbol of grassroots America. They're a place to show pride in the homegrown and handmade, connect with neighbors and friends, and compete for the best draft horses and dairy cows, pumpkins, and cherry pie. Photographs of 13 country fairs in eastern and central Pennsylvania capture scenes of farm implements, sideshows, funnel cakes, cotton candy, and the magic of the midway after dark. For young and old, urbanites and country folk, regular fair-goers and rookies, this book shows why millions of people across the nation flock to the fair and continue the competitions between neighbors and friends that have gone on for years—and sometimes generations.

Bloomington, Illinois Original Antique Show

Article by Priscilla Lindstrom
(Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association)

The CIADA Board and Show Promoters, Richard & Priscilla Lindstrom, are excited about the upcoming 2018 Fall Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association (CIADA) Show & Sale. Show Dealers, many of whom do not participate in other antiques & vintage shows in Central Illinois, will provide a wide variety of quality merchandise.

Held in the Interstate Center, Mini Expo Building, 1106 Interstate Drive in Bloomington, Illinois the show will open at 10 a.m. both days and close at 5 p.m. on Saturday and 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $6.00 which is good for both days. See the CIADA ad in this edition and bring a copy of the ad with you to the show for $1.00 off (up to two admissions). NOTE: In appreciation of our Veterans and their service to our Country, during the fall CIADA shows, Veterans are admitted free with proof of service.

Dealers are invited to bring a wide variety of merchandise to sell, which may include: Advertising, Americana, Art, Books, Civil War Artifacts, Country, Ephemera, Folk Art, Furniture, Glass, Jewelry, Porcelain, Post Cards, Pottery, Primitives, Silver and Stoneware. Additionally, some Dealers have expanded their inventory to include categories such as Mid-Century Modern, Danish Modern and repurposed items.

If you are looking for someone to restore a family heirloom, returning to CIADA's fall 2018 show, are the following dealers who provide restorations:

- Jerry & Donna Bartlett of Crane Creek Antique Restoration. The Bartletts provide furniture restoration, refinishing & repair, chair caning and wicker repair.
- Chuck & Rhonda Kern of C-R Antiques. C-R Antiques specializes in furniture repair, restoration and repurposing. Additionally, C-R Antiques provide vignettes at the CIADA shows, giving patrons ideas on how to use antiques and vintage items in their home.
- Tom & Diane Muller of Diane's Corner Antiques. Tom specializes in China Restoration, including all types of china, porcelain, bisque, ceramic, clay & marble pieces.
- Rick & Rita Robben of Robben Antiques &

Silversmith. Rita specializes in metal restoration, polishing and plating.

Stop by and talk with these dealers about your restoration & repair needs... or bring your piece or pieces with you for these dealers to see first-hand your specific needs. They will be glad to assist you.

The CIADA show is one of the longest running Antiques & Vintage shows in Illinois and is BLOOMINGTON'S ORIGINAL ANTIQUE SHOW.

Known for its quality... which continues today, you won't want to miss this semi-annual event.

Mark your calendars now and plan to attend the Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association's 102nd Show & Sale Saturday, October 27th, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Sunday, October 28th, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

National Milk Glass Collectors Society 2018 Annual Convention

"Brad Gougeon presents a program on Atterbury Glass during a prior convention. Atterbury began making milk glass in the 1850s in Pittsburgh, and their products have become favorites of many collectors."

The National Milk Glass Collectors Society will hold its annual convention this year September 14 and 15 in Cleveland, Ohio area at the Cleveland Marriott East. The hotel is located at 26300 Harvard Road in Warrensville Heights.

Room reservations may be made by calling (216) 378-9191. Registration information and forms can be found on the National Milk Glass Collectors Society Facebook page. Convention activities include a 250 piece auction with pieces of interest to the beginning collector through rare, one-of-a-kind items.

A dealer room sale will offer more opportunity to view, handle and purchase interesting pieces. The NMGCS convention is chance to see milk glass that is not seen during antique excursions or estate sales.

The first collector convention was held in Nashville, Tennessee in 1984, and the National Milk Glass Collectors Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization in 1987.

"Every convention includes a Dealer Sale. Pictured are some of the milk glass items which may be found. Eight to ten dealers participate and there is an amazing variety of treasures to be found by attendees."
