Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

On July 21st & 22nd, 2018 the Political & Historical Collectors Show was held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Springfield, Illinois. Out & About

The colors have been slightly starting to change around here. Advertisers please remember to send your photos direct from the camera. Please do not send us thumbnails, we are unable to clean the backgrounds from them. Also, keep in mind that our readers like to plan ahead, so please, if possible advertise your events at least two weeks in advance to the date of the event.

Mekenzy got the admissions job, so she is very excited. She has also joined two other committees, the Student Activity Fee Allocation Committee and Mental Health Advisor Board and Textbook Affordable Committee. The college has also banned straws from the campus and so she has ordered this collapsible straw that comes in a case and can clip to her backpack. Bemidji State University was named one of the Nation's Most Environmentally Responsible Colleges. Tia has been making her lists for summer internship programs. You have to send an application and resume months in advance. Most of them are out of state and so we wouldn't get to see her. Now that he is older, Brandon was promoted to the Quick Lanes. He can now do oil changes, tires and some minor work on the cars. He is using this opportunity to see if he would like to stay in this line of work.

Crowne Plaza Hotel Hosts the Largest Political & Historical Collectibles Show

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

There were over 225 dealer tables at the show and each booth you went to had a piece that just wowed you more than the last piece you saw! As I was visiting the booths and speaking to the vendors, I realized I should have paid more attention in my history classes! Although I have followed politics in my adult life, I feel the need to do more reading and research since I attended this show. So much great things to continue to learn!

The American Political Items Collectors is a nonprofit membership organization, dedicated to promoting the collection, preservation and study of materials relating to political campaigns and the presidency.

Although the campaign button is the most recognized and widely collected of all campaign memorabilia, our members actively search for everything from street banners to vintage political ribbons, ferrotypes, glassware, autographs, textiles, canes and torches, posters, medals, pennants, tokens, postcards, novelties, sheet music, pamphlets, local campaign items, and photography. Almost anything that has the image or name of a candidate for any elective office.

Here is a very RARE Civil War Ivory type of CSA Spy Rose O'Neal Greenhow.

This is original Ivory type (photographic Image made on fake Ivory. It usually was hand-painted to have the appearance of a miniature painting. It was invented in London in 1858 and was most popular in the mid to late 19th Century) of FAMOUSCONFEDERATE CSA Spy Rose O'Neal Greenhow in the original frame purchased directly from her family..... LEV $2,500 w/full story but here is a blurb: Among her accomplishments was the ten-word secret message she sent to General Pierre G.T. Beauregard which ultimately caused him to win the battle of Bull Run. She was imprisoned for her efforts first in her own home and then in the Old Capital Prison. Contact William Kulick, Phoenix, Maryland.

THE CHICAGOLAND SHOW IS MOVING

Article & Photos by Dawn Greco (Tilt Promotions)

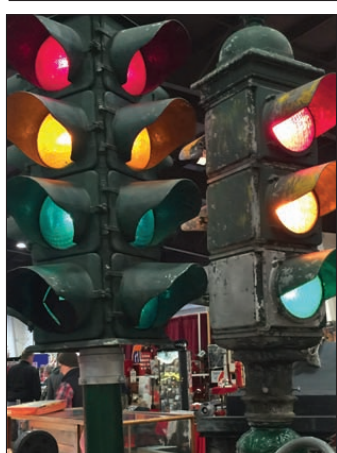

The November 2018 Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show is on the move! Now in its 39th year, the long-running show is moving to a bigger location. After much searching in the Chicago area for a large enough venue, Tilt Promotions is happy to announce that the November 16-18, 2018 Chicagoland Show will be the first at its new home at the Lake County Fairgrounds Event Center in Grayslake, IL - just 4 miles off I-94 at the Buckley Rd/IL 137 exit.

Compared to other locations considered, the Lake County Fairgrounds Event Center had many more benefits for the show, including a huge, modern, indoor 62,000+ square foot event center - all dealers will be in the same building - a large, free parking lot, plus a convenient location in the Northern suburbs of Chicago. There is also complimentary wifi throughout the building, as well as the Farmstand Eatery, which offers a wide variety of breakfast and lunch options.

For those visitors coming from out of town, the Lake County Fairgrounds is located between Chicago and Milwaukee, with easy access to both Chicago's O'Hare International Airport and Milwaukee's General Mitchell International Airport. It is also 1/4 mile from the Prairie Crossing commuter rail station in Grayslake. In addition, there are many hotels within a 5-mile radius to choose from. The show will be held on Saturday, November 17 (9:30am-5:00pm) and Sunday, November 18 (9:00am-2:30pm) - $7/day per adult - kids are free! Dealer set up and preview is on Friday, November 16 (Dealer preview 3-day passes are $50/adult).

Fantastic Pieces of Television History Cross the Block at Sullivan Auctioneers in Illinois

Article & Photos by Sullivan Auctioneers

John was a well known and a popular actor who played Martin Crane on the TV show "Frasier" for 11 years! He was our uncle and brother to our mom, Rita Sullivan. Uncle John received two Emmy nominations and two Golden Globe nominations for his role of Martin Crane, the father of Frasier & Niles Crane. He had prominent roles in many major films including "Moonstruck", "Eight Men Out", "Suspect", "The American President" and others. John always held a special place in the heart of Steppenwolf Theatre. He won many awards, including Broadway's Tony Award for Best Featured Actor in John Guare's "The House of Blue Leaves". In addition, he won the Clarence Derwent Award and the Theatre World Award.

The auction featured memorabilia from the television show "Frasier". Items will include: • RARE Chihuly signed orange and green blownglass vase. A Chihuly vase was a fixture on the "Frasier" set. Inscription to John and autographed by Christopher Lloyd and Joe Keenan. • Paramount script covers, beginning with the first episode "The Good Son" through the last show "Goodnight, Seattle." • RARE Hardback Paramount Season 1, Episode 1, Frasier script book entitled, "The Good Son," dated April 29, 1993 and aired September 16. Inscribed to John and autographed by Peri Gilpin who played Roz on the show. • Nice selection of original photographs from the set, majority nicely matted and framed. • 15"x 18" Caricature drawing of main actors and actresses from the show. Autographed and numbered by artist, Al Hirschfeld. • "The Hollywood Reporter" magazine dated May 13, 2014 with Frasier crew on the front page.

• "Daily Variety" magazine dated May 13, 2004 with the Frasier Crew on the front page. • Other various items from the show.

Also in the auction was Mission style and contemporary furniture; collectibles, music & movie collections, glassware, books and photos from John's personal collection!

"Antique Candy Containers"

A Special Exhibit at the 67th Fall Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show

October 5 & 6, 2018

Waukesha (Milwaukee) Wisconsin

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

Genius! The 19th century candy container was early packaging and merchandising at its best, designed to delight the affluent child, first with the candy and, afterwards, with the toy that remained.

The early 1900s were the golden years for candy containers. The first commercially made in the late 1800s are generally of German origin, originally of a flour and paste recipe and later, mold-pressed papier-mâché, all with a hidden inner chamber to house the candy surprise. Begun as a cottage industry, companies in Germany, France, Japan and the U.S. expanded upon the idea and began to mass produce a wide variety of containers, not just in the original traditional materials, but also in glass, cardboard and tin litho to name a few. Themes are endless and include animals, dolls, transportation, buildings, weapons, furniture and furnishings, folk figures & more.

"Any collection of holiday items (Easter, Christmas, Halloween, etc.) will ultimately lead to candy containers." So says collector Jackie Kojis who, decades ago, was busy collecting bears. "I have two candy containers with Roosevelt bears on them but bought them because I was collecting antique bears. Same with dog or cat containers. . . . they often look like a stuffed toy and it's a surprise the head comes off and the bodies are hollow!"

Learn More From Knowledgeable Collectors!

Jackie Kojis will be participating with Scott Tagliapietra, Lee & Roxanne Bernard and a number of other advanced collectors in the special exhibit, "Antique Candy Containers", bringing many prized examples from their personal collections. These experts will be prepared to answer your questions and to share their knowledge with other candy container enthusiasts. They also hope a show attendee will bring something they've never seen for a little "show and tell"!

After visiting the Special Exhibit,

Patriotic themes made interesting candy containers; here, Uncle Sam riding a rabbit. (Jackie Kojis Collection)

Easter is well represented with candy containers in the form of rabbits, chicks and eggs. (Jackie Kojis Collection)

Scott Tagliapietra of Scott's Antiques, Whitefish Bay, WI (well-known holiday, doll and toy dealer) collects antique candy containers, particularly circa 1910 German papier-mâché examples. Here are just a few of the pieces he will share at the special exhibit.

Parts supplied by major doll manufacturers were used for candy containers, their clothes hand made; here a skier with bisque head and hands. (Jackie Kojis Collection)

Even 100 years ago, everyone loved dogs! Animals were very popular subjects for candy containers. (Jackie Kojis Collection)

Candy Containers could serve as souvenirs of a special trip, here in milk glass. (Jackie Kojis Collection) wander the three large rooms at the show featuring everything from vintage Christmas to fine jewelry to antique cupboards! Top dealers from 6 Midwestern states will offer a fresh variety of authentic, affordable antiques. The Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, October 5, 10-8 and Saturday, October 6, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite!

BONUS: Enter to win Milwaukee PBS Television's 2018 Appraisal Fair Tickets + $50 Gift Certificates!

Also at the show, antiques (more than 100 years old) and vintage (50-99 years old) items will be collected by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society for their upcoming "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auctions". Tax deductible receipts will be provided to all donors. The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is proud to serve as the founding & continuing sponsor of their events and has donated the booth for collection of objects for the fund-raising auctions.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association, founded in 1948, is a not-profit organization that produces two antiques shows annually. Your admission of $7.00 funds college scholarships as well as grants to Wisconsin historic preservation groups. A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available at www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com

Free parking. ATM on premises.

Jim & Debbie McArdle of Iron Horse Antiques, Crystal Lake, IL acquired this 9-1/2" tall reindeer candy container that had once been part of an entire set (7 other reindeer + Santa in his sleigh) that once graced the famous candy counter at Marshall Field's Michigan Avenue location in Chicago.

Lee & Roxanne Bernard of Lee Bernard Antiques, Jackson, WI will share a favorite at the exhibit, stating, "We have one exceptional old composition candy container that has two tabby cats, gray & brown, popping out of a barrel that we bought years ago when we had our first two cats, one of which was gray, the other brown."
