Out & About

There are still many events to keep all of you antiquers busy. Please let our advertisers know where you saw their ad, this way it let's them know their advertising dollar is working for them. Advertisers, remember with the holidays around the corner and everyone getting busy, get your ads in to us early. This gives our readers time to plan, so they can attend as many shows, sales, shops, malls and auctions as they can.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of those who have been dealing with the wrath of Mother Nature, from South and North Carolina, Virginia to around the world. It seems that some of us more than others are really being tested more than once. The weather has been unpredictable everywhere. It seems a lot of people feel seasonal weather has changed. Late snow, lots of rain at one time and shorter seasons. Seems you just brought out your summer seasonal items and now your putting them away and getting ready for winter. It sure was a short summer and didn't seem like there were to many hot days, just humid ones.

We went to Bemidji, Minnesota this past weekend for Family Weekend. Mekenzy is the president of the C.A.B. (College Activities Board). So she wanted us to come for a fun weekend. She did not disappoint. Once in town, we dropped off stuff at her dorm & went for a walk on campus, then to dinner, to finish the night painting pottery. Saturday, parked & walked to town to watch the parade, walked back along the water to campus, watched the football game, finished the night with Matt the Knife mentalist & magician. We had a wonderful weekend with Mekenzy. Tia will visit her in October for fall break.

Antique Motorcycle Club of America

The Antique Motorcycle Club of America was founded in 1954 by a group of antique-bike fans in the New England area (pictured from left are T.A. Hodgdon, Emmett Moore, Henry Wing Sr., and Henry Wing Jr.). AMCA FoundersIn the decades since, the AMCA has grown to become one of the largest organizations of antique-motorcycle enthusiasts in the world, with 11,000 members in the United States and more than a dozen other countries.

Owner with three-wheeled motorcycleFrom the beginning, the purpose of the club has been the "preservation, restoration and operation of old-time motorcycles." Members of the AMCA own, restore, preserve, study or just admire motorcycles that fall into the antique category, meaning they are at least 35 years old. Although the Club is based in the United States, fans of motorcycles from all countries are welcome, and ownership of an antique motorcycle is not required to become a member.

Through its network of 59 affiliated Chapters in the U.S. and abroad, the AMCA provides a way for antique-bike fans to share their interest with others in their local area. Chapters typically host regular meetings, plus activities like bike shows, swap meets and antique-bike road runs.

At the national and international level, the AMCA maintains a calendar of National Meets and Road Runs that include some of the premier antique-motorcycle gatherings in the world. National Meets typically include a large vendor area, where members can sell everything from antique-bike parts to entire motorcycles that are at least 35 years old. In addition, National Meets offer a full schedule of other activities, ranging from seminars and bike shows to motorcycle field games and antique-bike racing.

JudgingAll National Meets also feature the AMCA's National Judging Program, in which members' motorcycles can win awards in three categories: Restored, Original Condition or Period Modified. Instead of competing against each other, bikes entered in the AMCA Judging Program are evaluated on a 100-point scale against the standard of the same motorcycle as it would have appeared when it originally left the factory.

National Road Runs provide an opportunity to use these classic machines for their intended purpose—riding on back roads in some of the most scenic parts of the country.

In addition to those events, AMCA members also get access to a number of benefits, including a high-quality magazine six times per year, online forums where they can seek advice from experts, and the AMCA Virtual Motorcycle Library, featuring downloadable copies of hundreds of old and rare sales brochures, parts lists and repair manuals. Plus, AMCA members receive discounts on admission to some of the country's premier motorcycle museums.

Mostly, though, people join the AMCA to meet up with others who share their interest in machines from the classic era of motorcycling. For some, that means the satisfaction that comes from investing thousands of hours in bringing a rusted hulk back to it original perfection. To others, it means preserving artifacts of the past so that they can be appreciated by future generations, or the simple pleasure of enjoying a two-lane road at an unhurried pace—just like motorcyclists generations ago.

Does that sound like you? Why not join with thousands of other like-minded antique-bike fans by becoming a member of the AMCA? Visit www.antiquemotorcycle.org

National Autumn Leaf Collectors Club

We love and collect the famous Autumn Leaf pattern, one of the most-popular vintage china patterns in America. The many and varied dinnerware pieces, produced by the Hall China Company, were sold door-to-door by Jewel Tea Company salesmen for many years. Numerous accessory pieces, including metal, paper, plastic, cloth and glass items were also offered.

These beautiful dishes were often the centerpiece of family dinners and bring back many wonderful memories of our mothers, grandmothers, aunts or neighbors. Special memories of helping Grandma make pudding in the custard cups, setting the table with Mom's "good dishes," or smelling the wonderful aroma of fresh coffee and tea that was delivered directly to our homes continue to remind us of many happy times with our loved ones.

The NALCC offers a full-color newsletter six times per year, special commemorative Autumn Leaf items, many options for adding to your own collection, an Autumn Leaf Price Guide, a popular National Convention with an Autumn Leaf/Jewel Tea Show & Sale, Autumn Leaf Auction and much fun and fellowship with collectors from across the United States. If you haven't already joined us, do it today!

We encourage you to become a member of the National Autumn Leaf Collectors Club®. Additionally, you may know someone who collects Autumn Leaf chinaware and wish to gift an NALCC membership for that person. Our annual membership fee is $30.00. We welcome and introduce our new members through our newsletter. Visit: <http://www.nalcc.org>

The Search Goes On!

Article & Photos by Bernie Rhodes & Jim Stephenson (Badger Marble Club)

We can all agree on one thing. The 'world, (a.k.a. a sphere shaped like a marble), and the USA are not the same as we knew in the late 20th century. While the planet turns, yet another 'thing' is certain. Collectors will always be searching for their buckets of gold. While our (Badger Marble Club members) passion is finding a hidden stash of rare marbles, the anticipation still accelerates the heart each time we pass through an antique mall door. Confidence that a 'find' lies on a shelf or in a case waiting to be found is not 'imagination'. The aforementioned scenario, as a figment of my imagination, is true for the most part, for every collector and purveyor of the world's most recent endangered species, that finding those desirable collectibles requires some serious research, as in combing your most recent issue of Auction Action Antique News.

While I continue to roam the isles of antiquity, I no longer anticipate that the finds of yesteryear exist at any given place or time. Great marble finds are rare, as is true for valuable collectables of all genre.

If you're possessed to never give up, you might want to consider some other curiosity to help in the 'non-finding' time. Something more numerous yet fascinating. Someone once told me, after a discussion of 'a recent unsuccessful hunt', that I might want to start looking at other glass..... glass of every sort. His comment, "When God made glass, he made lots of it." conjured a moment of collecting sense. I refocused my obsession and saw the potential of shot glasses, cobalt blue bottles, then (shoot me please), I started looking at costume jewelry. It didn't help any that I inherited a gallon of the stuff when my mother passed away. After appraisal by a friend (who also loves marbles), I now ration my marble time leaning over display cases at Goodwill, St. Vinny's, and other reuse stores. Also, the wonderful Antique Road Show stirs a trace of ancient cult in all of us. (Please don't tell me another story of the $2.50 find that now funds a grandchild's college tuition!)

Like me, other dreamers will continue visiting their haunts and hunt for what a few lucky finders make it seem possible to uncover a find worth boasting of. Fact is.... the fun is 'still' in the hunt! Unfortunately, that is also where the frustration is. Maybe we should just relax and enjoy saving the cash. Walk away from any new temptations or consider plan B. There must be some kind of 'other' that you can leave to your ancestors. The reality..... today's children, your grandchildren, might have little interest in your passions, at least while they have a 'dumb phone' in their hands. You would be an exception if your grandchildren would join you in a hunt for matchbooks or bullet pens. Spoken as a grandfather intended.

One of our most dedicated collectors and seller of all things collectable has written a creative guideline for our upcoming Badger Marble Club show. You need only to replace your desired collectable for the word.... marble.... and move on to attend other collectables shows, Goodwill, St.

It's not just about marbles.

BREAKING NEWS NEVER TO BE SEEN ON ANY CONVENTIONAL NEWS OUTLET

On Sunday October 14th at the Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel in Madison, the Badger Marble Club, will be putting on its 21th consecutive fall show. Note the earlier than usual timing to avoid the Halloween rush and Badger football home games. Rumor has it that attendees will be donating their excess marbles to flabbergasted politicians running for office who by now have clearly lost theirs.

Kidding aside, here are the best 6 things about the Badger Marble Show, or any show.

6] - As dedicated auction participants and readers of AAAN know, marbles pop up from time to time at local auctions, estate sales, antique malls, and flea markets. Are they worth buying and if purchased what comes next? Knowledge on identification and valuation is the key to separate the wheat from the chaff.

Club meetings and especially shows are exceptional sources of this information.

5] - For instance, at the show there are any number of categories available to view for comparative purposes, including older handmade marbles from around the turn of the twentieth century, mostly American machine-made marbles from around 1920 to 1960, more recent artisan handmade marbles that are reminiscent of both classes of earlier designs, and even games, paper, and ephemera related to marbles.

5/8" Peltier

4] - To take it all in, relax. Shows can be initially intimidating, so slow it down before deciding what you want to do. Simply browse your way around the 20 or so dealer's offerings to see what you find interesting, politely ask questions as time permits, and you are on your way to revel in the inherent beauty of marbles!!

3] - Even better is to attend the room trading sessions over the Friday and Saturday leading up to show day. These tend to be a social highlight with a lot of extended catchup for old friends, showing of new finds and discussing of collecting trends, casually browsing through others inventories to find that missing link in ones' collection, and meeting/greeting new collectors or one-time attendees looking for a reasonable appraisal on their latest finds. All of this in a less hurried atmosphere than on show day itself.

2 - Room trading sessions also have a wider variety of material to sort through that might be too bulky to include on the show tables and not all room traders have tables on show day so the early bird might very well catch the worm.

1] - It's not all about the marbles. Tip a beverage with friends to celebrate/commerciate the 3/4"

Badgers vs Michigan during Saturday's room trading sessions. Share a pizza and listen to the oral histories about dear-departed friends who helped build up this wonderful hobby. Take a Saturday morning trip to the farmers market on the square, an event often mentioned by previous attendees as a highlight for making this weekend trip.

0] -Oh yeah, and by way of advertisement, the Badger Marble Club meets approximately four times a year in Waunakee, and emails periodic newsletters and information to the membership. For more info go to badgermarbleclub.com

A Brief History of Antique Pressed Glass

By EAPGS members Sean George and Wendy Jones of Sean George Pressed Glass & Goblets

Pressed Glass, also referred to as Pattern Glass, was produced between 1850 to 1910. The majority was produced in the 1880's. When it was originally designed, it was intended for everyday use and was made to be very durable and at the same time, attractive.

Families would use glassware as part of their table setting or for entertaining guests. For these reasons, producers made many different patterns to attract the customer to buy their products. Once a pattern was designed, it was patented along with its name so that it could not be duplicated, unless patents or molds were sold to other companies.

Often competitors would produce similar patterns or similar names, if the pattern proved to be popular with the public. For example, the "Flamingo" pattern has similarities to the "Clear Flamingo" pattern, not only in looks, but name as well.

Pressed Glass was produced in both Canada and the United States, with American companies outnumbering Canadian factories. Each year companies competed to produce the most attractive and popular patterns. Pressed Glass patterns were designed and then duplicated into a cast iron mold. The mold was then fired at an extreme temperature. The pieces of the mold were pulled away from the glass and the piece was left to cool.

If you examine a piece of pressed glass you will always find either two, three or four seams running through the glass, although sometimes the seams were well hidden in the pattern. The number of mold lines in a piece of glass does not determine the age. If the piece was small, manufacturers would use a two piece mold; if they were making compotes they would use a three piece mold. When manufacturers made punch bowls, they would use a four piece mold because of its large size, or a four piece mold was used for square patterns to help create the shape.

Around the 1920's, Pressed Glass lost its popularity and crystal became the 'in thing'. Affordable crystal was being shipped from Europe and France. When the depression came, people could no longer afford crystal and returned to pressed glass, or "the affordable glassware." This new period of glassware became known as "Depression Glass". It was produced the same way, pressed into a cast iron mold, but in different patterns and colours to brighten your day.

When manufacturers began producing pressed glass (1850-1910); patterns ranged from very plain to very elaborate cut glass imitations. The market tried and tested each pattern. Even patterns with Animals, Fruits and Florals were designed and created, with attention to fine details. Some of the patterns were produced as full table settings, while others were produced only in goblet form or single tableware pieces. People originally bought goblets and tableware for their beauty and artistic design. In addition, it was functional and affordable.

Just as ladies back then were collecting, trading and buying pressed glass for gifts, we continue to do so today. Collectors enjoy choosing and finding their favourite patterns among the over 3000 known patterns produced in early Pressed Glass.

Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association 67th Fall Antiques Show & Sale in Waukesha October 5 & 6, 2018 - 55 Dealers from 9 States

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

Funded by admissions charged at February & October antiques shows, the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association awards scholarships and grants annually. Founded in 1948 this non-profit, charitable organization is dedicated to preservation & education within Wisconsin.

Through the support of those who attended past WADA shows, three Milwaukee-area 2018 high school graduating seniors were awarded scholarships based on essays responding to the question, "Why is it important to understand and preserve your family's heirlooms?". Winners and scholarship recipients were:

Heaven Lucas, Muskego High School, Muskego, WI

Eric Passler, Waukesha West High School, Waukesha, WI

Brendan Wells, Kettle Moraine High School, Wales, WI

Scholarship information for the 2018-2019 school year competition is posted on the WADA website.

In 2018 WADA awarded a sixth grant to the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society, continuing as the founding sponsor of FWHS's "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auctions". Such WADA grants over the past decade have funded important restoration projects throughout the State. The latest grant from WADA will carry the partnership between the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association and the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society through 2019.

To encourage donations from the general public of items more than 50 years old for the next "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction", WADA is providing a free booth to the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society at their October 5 & 6, 2018 Antiques Show. Tax deductible receipts for qualified donations dropped off at the show will be provided.

BONUS: Enter to win Milwaukee PBS Television's 2018 Appraisal Fair Tickets + $50 Gift Certificates!

Truly, there is something for everyone, and in every price range, at the WADA show!

Human-friendly antiques are offered for sale, ALL INDOORS, in spacious booths along wide aisles. Free parking. ATM.

Show your support and help promote history by attending the 67th Fall Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show & Sale, Friday, October 5, 10 am - 8 pm and Saturday, October 6, 10 am - 5 pm at the Waukesha County Expo Center, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha (a Milwaukee suburb), Wisconsin 53188. A special exhibit, "Antique Candy Containers", will be available to all attendees. A traditional Wisconsin fish fry (baked fish also available) will be served Friday, late afternoon and evening.

Free Parking. ATM on Premises.

Your admission of $7.00 (at door or online) funds college scholarships as well as grants to Wisconsin historic preservation groups. For $1.00 discount coupon towards admission see www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com Questions? (414) 510-4441 or www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com.

Illinois State Archaeological Society Indian Artifact Show

Article & Photos by Ray Fraser

The 17th Annual Indian Artifact Show will be held Sunday, October 7th, 2018 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Amerian Legion Hall, 9054 Route U.S. 34 (just east of Rt. 47) in Yorkville, Illinois. The show is free and open to the public. It is sponsored by the Illinois State Archaeological Society, a non-profit organization which has been in existence since 1936.

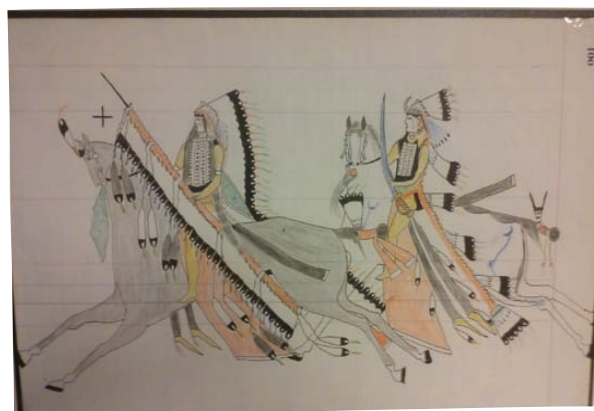

Exhibits will be brought from throughout Illinois and surrounding states with the Chicago area heavily represented. Exhibits will include a wide variety of tools and weapons used by Native American people over the thousands of years of their residence in the American.

Visitors are encouraged to bring any Native American items which they have found, purchased, inherited or which may have been hiding in the family attic. Free identifications and appraisals will be offered. There will be a professional archaeologist from the University of Illinois on hand to answer questions and to help with identifying artifacts.

The event offers a unique opportunity to see and touch the tools, weapons and personal items the Native Americans used to survive in the Americas before the coming of the Europeans. It is anticipated guests will come away with a better understanding and appreciation of the people who lived here before us.

For more information about the show contact Ray Fraser 847-347-1719 or Duane Treest 630-385-2806.
