It Was a Busy 2018 For Harry Lahr Auctions

Article & photos by Harry Lahr Auctions

Many of the auctions were estate auctions, but there were also many one owner collections that sold. A couple memories that stand out from the year were the marbles the family was going to throw away and then they sold for over $800. The life size horse went through the 2008 flood and was saved and sold for $3,400.

Red Wing 40 gallon crock sold for $2,350.

Red Wing 20 lb. butter brought $1,025.

Velvet tin litho sign brought $1,450.

Western 50 gallon crock sold for $2,100.

Lisbon Iowa rolling pin sold for $975.

September Edition of Kane County Flea Market, A Perfect Day for Antiquing

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

On September 2nd, 2018 Kane County held their Monthly Flea Market. Kane County is known for the Best Flea Market in the Midwest started by Helen Robinson in 1967, known as the "Queen Flea". It is held the first weekend of each month in the historic town of St. Charles, Illinois which is 35 miles west of Chicago just between I-90 & I-88. It doesn't matter if you are looking for something specific or not quite sure what you are looking to purchase next, this is the place you will find it!

Many Fine Treasures to be Found at Kane County Monthly Flea Market

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

The buildings, sheds and grounds are filled with great vintage, antique, handmade, restored items, collectibles and much more. You will be sure to see furniture, sports, indoor/outdoor creations, vinyl records, tin signs, vintage jewelry, clothing and trinkets, as well as unique vendors that you can find in a mall. You will also find florals, garden art and even barn wood to make your own vintage masterpiece. And just in case you need a boost of energy while you are searching for that perfect piece(s) the grounds have yummy food and beverage vendors to fit just about everyone's needs.

I met the sweetest man, he is the author of "The Christmas Santa Had No Beard", he was there to sell and sign books and share the background of the book. I couldn't walk away without buying one and having him sign it to my dad who has played Santa for several not for profit daycares during the Christmas season! Now my dad will be able to share it with the grandchildren and great grandchildren in our family!

Today was a great sale day, there were so many booths I visited that were marking sold items left and right. So, if you are interested in something, you have to remember someone could also be thinking the same thing, so get it before it's gone. It doesn't matter big or small stake your claim! If you are a collector, or addicted to great finds make sure you mark your calendar for at least a few visits to Kane County the first weekend of the month. And if you are a vendor that would like to get a spot at the events call (630) 377-2252. Happy Antiquing!

A Short History of Celluloid

Article & photos by David Meicher (Madison Button Club)

How are these three items related to the history of Celluloid?

- 1) An antique billiard ball
- 2) A Celluloid button
- 3) A ping-pong ball

A brief history lesson about Celluloid buttons will reveal the answers. Celluloid was invented in 1869 by the American inventor, John Wesley Hyatt. It was developed from the compound Cellulose, which is a combination of wood fiber and cotton fiber.

In 1862 the British inventor, Alexander Parkes, was given credit for inventing Cellulose — the first true plastic. He named it Parkesine. In those early years there was much chemical experimentation with Parkesine. They were looking for ways to stabilize and manipulate it so as to manufacture products for the ever-growing world market. Although treating it with nitric acid produced many uses for it, this method went by the wayside because it was still too unstable and very costly to manufacture.

Around the same time that all of this chemical experimentation was going on, an American company called Phelan and Collender in 1862 offered a prize of $10,000 to anyone that could invent a satisfactory substitute for Ivory. They used Ivory, which came primarily from elephant tusks, for the manufacturing of billiard balls. The game of Billiards was gaining in popularity at that time and elephant tusks were becoming increasingly scarce. The company that offered the $10,000 prize is still in business today and is known as the Brunswick Corporation.

The American inventor John Wesley Hyatt took up the challenge in 1862.

Hyatt, who had over 100 patents to his name, was determined to win the $10,000 prize. One day in the mid-1860's while working in his lab, he accidentally spilled a bottle of Colloidine on the Cellulose material that he was experimenting with. He found that it congealed his Cellulose into a tough, flexible mass. He decided to make a demo set of billiard balls with this new material. This new material worked to some extent, but it was still too unstable. It frequently caused small explosions when the billiard balls collided and the billiard balls would sometimes shatter because they had become too brittle.

So back to the laboratory he went. In 1868 he found a solution to these problems. He found that when Camphor, which is a by-product of the Laurel tree, was added to the raw Cellulose it caused the problems to disappear. He filed for a patent in 1869, and he named his new product, Celluloid. This product was the first thermoplastic: a substance molded under heat and pressure that would retain its shape when the heat and pressure were removed. He also won the $10,000 prize.

Buttons were not on the list of the many products that used Celluloid in their manufacturing processes in those early years. Combs, pins, umbrella handles, eyeglass frames, dentures, piano keys, photographic film, and billiard balls all preceded buttons. The use of Celluloid in button manufacturing did not start to appear until one or two decades later.

The earliest buttons that used Celluloid used it as a clear sheet to protect lithographs and for background and trim. Today, those earliest buttons that used Celluloid are called Victorian Celluloid buttons.

The first patent for the Celluloid tighttop button wasn't made until the year 1917. The tight-top Celluloid buttons were the most abundant type of Celluloid buttons made and thus, most Celluloid buttons are classified as Modern vs. Antique buttons. Celluloid buttons reached their peak in the late 1930's, but by the 1940's were being phased out and replaced by other plastic type material buttons.

Celluloid buttons reached their peak in the late 1930's, but by the 1940's were being phased out and replaced by other plastic type material buttons.

The main reason that Celluloid lost its luster was because of its high flammability and its degradation problems. The common degradation problem occurred because the Camphor worked its way out of the button. This degradation when combined with water or water vapor would form a nitric acid gas that is very corrosive to metal, fabric, paper, and other materials. Extreme heat and UV ray exposure also contributed to the problem. Those things caused the button, or buttons to become brittle and they would develop deep crazing. The buttons affected would completely crumble away in time.

What can you do if you see this type of damage to your buttons? The answer is nothing because there is no way to stop this degradation once it has begun. The buttons affected should be discarded and the remaining buttons should be given a light cleaning.

How can you prevent this from happening to your buttons? Celluloid buttons should be stored separately from your other buttons, particularly metals. They should be kept out of direct UV exposure and they should have proper ventilation and temperature controls. With the proper care most all of your Celluloid buttons will be around for many years to come.

After reading this short history on Celluloid, button collectors should have a deep appreciation for the antique billiard balls of the past because without them, Celluloid buttons would never have been invented, and thus, we would not have any to collect. Finally, do you know what the only Celluloid product now made in any quantity is? The answer is the ping-pong ball!

Thanksgiving History FACT OR FICTION?

The first Thanksgiving meal was waiting for the Pilgrims when they arrived. Fiction. The first Thanksgiving was not celebrated until the following year 1621.

The Mayflower wasn't the only Pilgrim ship. Fact. The Pilgrims set off on two ships but the other ship, The Speedwell was unable to finish the journey.

The seas were very calm during the journey and the Pilgrims had fun the whole time! Fiction. The seas were rough and many Pilgrims were sea sick often.

Only just over half of the Pilgrims survived the winter. Fact. After a winter filled with hunger and sickness there were only 53 passengers left alive.

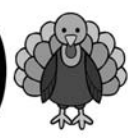

The Pilgrims built shelters upon arriving in the New World. Fiction. The Pilgrims stayed on the Mayflower all winter and didn't build until the spring of 1621.

The journey from England took the Mayflower 33 days. Fiction. It took 66 days on choppy seas.

Squanto (Tisquantum) was a Native American who spoke English and helped the Pilgrims live peacefully with the Native people. Fact. Squanto was a former slave who learned English while captive and he helped the Pilgrims and local tribes live peacefully.

The pilgrims would have been fine without the Native Americans help. Fiction. Without the Native Americans sharing their knowledge of which crops to grow, how to catch deer and fish for shell fish it's doubtful the Pilgrims would have survived another winter.

Doll Lovers & Collectors! Mark your Calendars for March 23rd, 2019 to attend the 48th Annual Madison Area Doll Club Show and Sale “A World of Dolls!”

Article & Photos by Vicki Kutz (Madison Area Doll Club)

For the past 47 years, the Madison Area Doll Club has put on one of the premiere doll shows in the Midwest. Held in Madison, Wisconsin it is easily accessed by many Midwest doll collectors and enthusiasts. Be sure to mark the date: Saturday, March 23rd from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison WI 53713. Admission is 5.00 per person with children under 18 years of age free when accompanied by an adult. There is a 7.00 per vehicle parking fee at Alliant, so bring a car load of other doll collectors with you to share the cost!

The show features over 30 of the best doll vendors from the Midwest in a well-lit display carpeted sales floor. Dolls of all eras and types are represented, including antique, vintage, modern, and artist dolls. Also included are doll clothing, accessories, doll house miniatures, furniture and anything doll-related. You might even find a few boy toys!

Among the treasures, you will find Barbie Dolls to French Bebe's. Antique German dolls are well-represented as well as vintage 1950s dolls, including Vogue Ginny, Madame Alexander, Ideal and others. Cloth and Felt dolls will include makers such as Lenci, Poir, Kathe Kruse and more! Modern dolls such as American Girl and others will provide you with many choices. Artist dolls include Ooak reborn dolls as well as well-known manufactured examples, done by artists such as Dianna Effner. A doll shopper's paradise for either the beginning collector or seasoned veteran!

Our vendors include well-known local, regional and national doll sellers, including Fritzi's Antique Dolls, Victoria's Doll House, Nancy McCray Dolls and many more. We will also have some new vendors joining us this year. We are still accepting vendors for this show. Please see contact information below.

In addition to the opportunity to view and purchase merchandise at sales tables, free doll appraisals are offered and repair consultations will be available. This will be our third year of having silent auctions with items that you can bid on, which have proven to be a fun part of the show for everyone! As always, we will have a free grand prize drawing that some lucky attendee will win. We also feature our club members' doll display. The display will be based on our show theme “A World of Dolls” where different types of dolls from around the world will be featured.

A food court area will be available in the exhibition hall and offers delicious salads, sandwiches, coffee and beverages where you can sit down and take a break, as well as chat with other doll lovers about your purchases or dolls you have seen on the sales floor.

The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin, an affiliate of United Federation of Doll Clubs (UFDC), is a non-profit organization. Profits from the event support other local and national non-profit organizations.

Mark the date: Saturday, March 23rd 2019 from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison WI 53713. Admission is $5.00 per person with children under 18 years of age free when accompanied by an adult. There is a $7.00 per vehicle parking fee at Alliant.

For additional information or dealer inquiries, please contact Vicki Kutz at 608-279-5298 or via email: dollcoll@charter.net

Tinley Park Annual Holiday Show

Chicago Pop Culture Show & Sale!

November 24 & 25, 2018
 Pheasant Run Mega Center - St. Charles, IL

Pop Culture is in high demand again this year at the Annual Chicago Pop Culture Con, November 24th & 25th at the Pheasant Run Mega Center & Ballroom in St. Charles, Illinois! Thousands of pop culture treasures will be offered for sale for every collector's buying pleasure! Comics, toys, gaming, sci-fi and so much more! It's all at the Chicago Pop Culture Con!

The weekend will be packed with displays, memorabilia and special guests. Pop Culture Con is a multi-genre convention of comics, toys, gaming, sci-fi, Legos, TV/movie memorabilia, superheroes, Steampunk, action figures, animé, Cosplay, fantasy, horror, sports memorabilia, vintage music, publishers and artists – anything fan-related!

Take a look at just a few of the long list of special guests already lined up for this fantastic event*:

- ATHLETES, including: Pro Wrestler Steve Michaels, retired Chicago Bulls player Craig Hodges, former Chicago Bears Linebacker Jim Morrissey
- The Doctor Strange Archive, collection of Marvel Doctor Strange collectibles, including posters, art, statues, cards, books, figures, toys and much more.
- Chicago POC Cosplayers Cosplay Group, a group from different culture backgrounds on a mission to show that cosplay is for everyone.
- The Age of the Geeks Cosplay Group, Chicago Chapter.
- Deadgear's Dark Coffin Classics, a horror/comedy television show that airs in Wisconsin & other parts of the country.
- ACTOR Butch Patrick, former child star who is perhaps best known for his role as child werewolf Eddie Munster on the CBS comedy television series The Munsters from 1964 to 1966 and in the 1966 feature film Munster, Go Home, and as Mark on the ABC Saturday morning series, Lidsville from 1971 to 1973.
- ARTIST Jeremy Clark. Over the span of his career he has penciled &/or inked cover work for Zenescope Entertainment, Coffin Comics, Counterpoint Comics, Caliber Comics, No Gravity Studios, RIA Comics and Gin-Ryu which is currently featured on Amazon books.

- ACTOR/GOTHIC ILLUSIONIST Ron Fitzgerald, Master of the Dark Realm.

- The Horror & SciFi Prop Preservation Association traveling museum of screen used movie props and wardrobes.

- MUSICIANS Face

Time Police. The multi-faceted acoustic masked duo, Face Time Police, is ready to bring some masks and music to the Chicago Pop Culture Con! FTP draws inspiration from all over the pop culture spectrum: pro-wrestling, anime, comics, and video games have all played a part in shaping the band's direction.

- MAGICIAN/ILLUSIONIST Vincenzo Badalamenti, a young magician who intertwines comedy and magic.

- AUTHOR Phil Hore, Paleo-Author for the Prehistoric Times Magazine and Education Manager at Australia's National Dinosaur Museum. He will be signing copies of his first novel, The Order of the Dragon.

- FREELANCE ARTIST Frank Fosco, best known for his stint on the 23-issue run of Image Comics Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, along with work for DC.

- MUSICIANS Richie Ramone – drummer for the punk band The Ramones – and CJ Ramone – bassist for The Ramones.

PLUS many, many more - artists, authors, cosplay groups, illustrators, radio personalities, performing artists, publishers – you name it! There will be something to appeal to every fan group!

Chicago Pop Culture Con hours are Saturday, November 24, 9am-6pm, and Sunday, November 25, 9am-3pm. Admission is $12 and is good for both days. Children 12 & under are free with an adult. Parking is free.
