Out & About

Valentine's Day is fast approaching, so be on the hunt for that something special for that someone special that they will treasure forever.

Reminder to our advertisers, if you are working with a budget, please let us know. It is better we know ahead of time when we are first setting up your ads, than after, when we have to take it all back apart. This way we can better serve you, our customer. Also, when sending us photos, try to use white backgrounds. Remove as many objects from in front of or on top of the object you are taking the picture of. This helps us provide you with better pictures for your ads. Also, please do not send us thumbnails, we are unable to clean or use them. Send your photos direct from your camera. When sending a PDF be sure to call to get our color and size specifications. Deadline is Monday's by noon.

Mekenzy is back at college in Bemidji, Minnesota. We will be going up there this weekend to take her furniture, she is moving into a house. It was nice that while she was home, she had the opportunity to goalie for her Dad's hockey team. It is always nice to watch her play. Guys from the other team thought she was on a hockey team in Minnesota. Brandon has finals this week. He is nervous and excited at the same time. For some of his science exams he gets to do some interesting experiments. He has been at his job for over a year now and likes it. Tia has been driving back and forth so she can sleep in her own bed and still take care of her lab duties at school. I think it is more she just wants to be around family but won't admit it. I think we give a calm to her hussle and bussle life at school.

Antique Show & Sale Appraisals & Chili Lunch February 17, 2019

Article by Richfield Historical Society

For 10 years the Antique Appraisal and Chili Lunch was held at the Richfield Fire Station on Hwy 175 on the third Sunday in February. The Richfield Historical Society (RHS) had five (5) knowledgeable appraisers to provide information and value regarding items that were brought in for appraisal. Some of the appraisers brought a few of their own antiques to sell. Delicious chili, corn muffins and desserts were available for sale and guests had a good time discussing antiques, learning about their own items and chatting with friends. In the past 3 years a Silent Auction was added. Last year we decided to expand this event which included a new name, more space, more dealers and additional food items.

As of 2018 the Antique Sale & Show, Appraisals and Chili Lunch was moved to Friess Lake School allowing more space for both dealer booths and food sales. The dealers offered a large variety of Vintage, Collectibles, and Antique items. Vintage items are 50-99 years old and Antique items are over 100 years old.

On Sunday February 17th, 2019 RHS will again host the Antique Show & Sale, Appraisals & Chili Lunch and Silent Auction. The same trustworthy appraisers will be available and eager to see what treasures you might bring in. These Appraisers are knowledgeable with regard to coins and stamps, military items, Native American items, Civil War and WWII items, jewelry and general vintage or antique items. The cost for a single appraisal is $5 per item which include Free entry to the show. Show entry is $2. The Silent Auction will include some interesting vintage or antique items, so be sure not to miss it.

A Chili lunch is available for $7.00 which includes a bowl of chili, fixings, muffin, and your choice of beverage. Hot Dogs, Chili Dogs and a variety of delicious desserts are available for purchase.

We hope to see you Sunday, February 17th, 2019, from 9 am to 3 pm at Friess Lake School in Richfield.

For more information check the RHS web site: richfieldhistoricalsociety.org. All proceeds help fund the various restoration projects of the Richfield Historical Society.

SNEAK PEEK!

45th Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show & Sale Waukesha (Milwaukee) Wisconsin February 1 & 2, 2019

Article & Photos By: Debbie McArdle

Shortly after the end of World War II, in 1948, a number of Wisconsin antiques dealers banded together to form the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association. Over those 71 years WADA has connected us to our shared past by consistently offering human-friendly antiques at affordable prices. Authenticity, condition and rarity have always been the guidelines for this top-notch group of professional dealers with offerings at ALL price levels. Friday and Saturday, February 1 & 2, marks their 45th consecutive Winter Show. Considering the list of participating dealers, THIS Winter show may prove to be the group's best ever!

Here's just a little about the line-up:

Portobello Road Antiques: Scott Watson has been saving his best merchandise for the Winter WADA Show. Specializing in Native American objects as well as Mission and Arts & Crafts Era furnishings, he plans to bring:

- Lamps, including a large Bradley & Hubbard and a large Wilkinson
- Globes, including a rare 1892 6" Rand McNally and a 1930s 8" Hammonds

"Made In Wisconsin" A Special Exhibit At The Show

"Made in Wisconsin" is a special exhibit for attendees of the 45th Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show & Sale held at the Waukesha County Expo Center February 1 & 2, 2019 in suburban Milwaukee. In addition to the antiques show featuring 55 dealers from 9 states, enjoy the Special Exhibit assembled by top collectors of Wisconsin history. This time around the members of the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association have been invited to bring, from their personal collections, their "Made in Wisconsin" items. Joining WADA members will be long-time collectors Henry Hecker and Peter Maas who will be on hand both days to answer questions and to share their knowledge.

WISCONSIN TERRITORY STONWARE!

WADA member Scott Rizer will team with Henry Hecker and Peter Maas to provide an impressive display of rare Wisconsin Territory stoneware. Jugs and crocks sold by a trio of merchants (William Cun-ningham, John Bonesteel, Leonard Farwell) in Milwaukee prior to Wisconsin statehood will be exhibited. Henry explains, "While technically the stoneware was likely manufactured in Ohio, they either contained a Milwaukee-made product or were sold by these merchants to be used by homemakers, grocers, or liquor dealers."

PER LYSNE (1880-1947)

Per Lysne (1880-1947) of Stoughton, Wisconsin is celebrated for reviving rosemaling (the Norwegian decorative art form) among second and third generation immigrants during the early 20th century. He also decorated and sold smorgasbord platters, tines, and trunks and provided decorative work on kitchen cabinets and home interiors. WADA member Phil Schauer will bring some exceptional samples of Per Lysne's work for the special exhibit and he will also have examples for sale in his booth.

EXPECT THE UNUSUAL!

In addition to Wisconsin Territory stoneware and Per Lysne rosemaling, members of WADA will contribute other "Made in Wisconsin" antiques for the exhibit so expect the unusual!

Wander the show's three large rooms featuring affordable antiques; everything from vintage holiday items to jewelry, to antique cupboards offered by 55 of the Midwest's top dealers from 9 states. The Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, 10-8 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite!

Also at the show, antiques (more than 100 years old) and vintage (50-99 years old) items will be collected by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society for their "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auctions". Tax deductible receipts will be provided to all donors. The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is proud to serve as the founding & continuing sponsor of this event since 2008 and has donated the booth for collection of objects for the fund-raising auction.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a non-profit organization that produces two antiques shows annually. Your admission of $7.00 funds college scholarships as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups. A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available with any ad or at: www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com BOGO: One 25 or under, free with one paid admission! Free parking.
