Rare Oldsmobile Double Sided Rocket Sign with Great Color & Gloss Brings $6,050 at Matthews Auctions, LLC

Rare Oldsmobile "Rocket" double-sided porcelain die-cut sign, rated near-mint at 9.5 ($6,050).

Fisk Tires wood sand painted sign with boy-in-tire logo, framed, with hanger, rated 8.7 ($3,575).

Article & photos by Matthews Auctions, LLC

The sign was the top lot at the three-day event in Raymond, Ill., where 2,000+ lots were sold.

A rare Oldsmobile double-sided porcelain "Rocket" sign, the one that hung under the regular Oldsmobile sign to advertise the auto maker's "rocket" engines, sold for $6,050 at an auction held Nov. 23-25 by Matthews Auctions, LLC, based in Nokomis, Ill. The auction was held at the gallery of Pope Auction Center, on Illinois Route 48 in Raymond.

The sign, measuring 10 inches by 60 inches, was rocket-shaped and boasted excellent color and gloss. It was the top achiever of the more than 2,000 lots that came up for bid, in a wide array of categories: toys and firearms (on day one) and petroliana (gas station collectibles), antique advertising and country store collectibles, soda and breweriana (on days two and three).

Whippet and Willys-Knight double-sided porcelain sign, with great gloss and color ($4,125).

Wrigley's Doublemint/Spearmint Gum ("Lunch") double-sided porcelain sign, rated 8 ($3,740).

The Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society: Celebrating Ninety Years of Preserving Wisconsin's Cultural Heritage

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Most visitors to the 56th Annual Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antique Show, held on November 16th and 17th at Green Bay's Rock Garden Conference Center, probably came just to shop among the quality antiques dealers the show has become known for. What they may not realize is that the show serves a higher purpose: helping fund the preservation of the area's cultural heritage. The Society has raised more than a million dollars over the years to purchase, restore, and preserve artifacts of local historical significance.

J. Chein number 109 mechanical drummer litho-tin toy with box, from Pierce Regal - $295. 414-385-9820

My toy favorite from Time's Treasures - this 26 inch keystone ride-on locomotive, circa 1930s, asking price $375. 608-617-7066

A Major Step In Fighting Fraud In The Antiques Business

History has been made! The Federal Trade Commission and the Professional Show Managers Association (PSMA) have jointly taken a giant step in educating the public about fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles and the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association, dedicated to honesty and authenticity in the trade of antiques, has joined the effort!

A yearlong crusade, led by Nancy Johnson and Dordy Fontinel, board members of the Professional Show Managers Association, has resulted in the printing and mass distribution of hundreds of thousands of colorful informative bookmarks. Titled "Antiques, How to Shop Wisely", the educational pieces give bullet points of information to be considered when shopping for antiques.

"When shopping for antiques and collectibles, ask the dealer. How long have you been in business? How do you know any item is genuine, not a fake or reproduction? What are your criteria for identifying the item? Will you give me a written guarantee that the item is authentic? What is your return policy?"

In addition, Johnson and Fontinel were successful in their request that Consumer Information on Safely Shopping for Antiques and Collectibles be added to the FTC website. The two women spent nearly six months working with the FTC on the specific information that is now available. The recently posted article may be accessed by visiting the FTC.gov website or simply googling FTC antiques.

When PSMA President Nancy Johnson wrote an article in the Association's Winter 2007 newsletter entitled "When Did It Become OK To Cheat Someone?", a commentary on our world's complacency about being defrauded, show promoter Dordy Fontinel responded and began a dialogue with Johnson about the problem of fakes and fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles. This dialogue resulted in Fontinel speaking with Sen. John Warner, subsequent meetings with his staff and the Federal Trade Commission.

Last June, Fontinel and Johnson met with Jeanne Bumpus, Director of Congressional Affairs at the FTC, and members of the planning and information division of the FTC. Their goal was to have Antiques & Collectibles recognized as "consumer items" and to encourage the FTC to take note of the rampant fraud, which is taking place under the guise of "Antiques". The FTC agreed and the process began. Knowingly selling a fake is criminal fraud in most states.

PSMA also feels that the bookmarks will provide a convenient opportunity for anyone interested in educating the buying public and fighting the cause. PSMA encourages show promoters, dealers, shop and mall managers, club members, and auctioneers to get involved, therefore PSMA is offering the bookmarks at their cost.

The battle has just begun! Now that the FTC has issued an Alert that selling an antique or collectible item that is not authentic is Fraud, Fontinel and Johnson feel more consumer protection will occur on the state and local level. Such fraud can be reported directly on the Federal Trade Commission site at: <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/index.shtml>. Choose the tab "File A Complaint."

These informative bookmarks are given to attendees of the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association shows held in Waukesha each October & February.

(See www.wisconsinantiquedealers.com)

Or, to order bookmarks in quantity, send a check made payable to PSMA to the PSMA Offices, Attn: FTC Project, P.O. Box 30, Bloomfield CT 06002. The cost of the bookmarks, including Priority Mail, is $25 per 1000 or a single package of 200 for $10. (PSMA is a non-profit trade association of consumer show managers, with the majority of its members in the Antiques & Collectible fields.)

We also want to wish Gloria a wonderful and happy retirement! She is currently in Floriday visiting her daughter, son-in-law, and her beautiful granddaughter Bella. Tom Hutchcraft is her replacement, and is doing a wonderful job!

Over break, Mekenzy was asked to practice with the high school team. She was excited and did an awesome job of keeping up with their shots. She had a couple of games and one was important, it was against the team they will play to determine who goes to state. Of course, she shut them out with a score of 0-5. She has won all her games so far. Her favorite gift was a Detroit Red Wings sweatshirt from grandma and grandpa.

Tia did alot of baking and helped me alot. She loved going shopping for fun and just trying on fancy dresses and shoes! Her favorite gift was dangling earrings and a silk skirt. I think she enjoyed the downtime the most.

Brandon had more games than Mekenzy and his sisters made it to almost all of them, which made him smile. He liked when it snowed all day and night by us. He built a snowman and had fun tackling it, a huge fort that him and Mekenzy built. They hauled all kinds of huge ice chunks down the road with our moving dolly. His favorite gift was a pair of black and pink tennis shoes. He loves pink!

Festive Mood at 56th Annual Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antique Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antiques Show is one of the Badger State's oldest antiques events, started way back in 1957. The society itself is far older though, founded more than eighty-eight years ago by local business-woman Jesse Buchanan. She had an ambitious goal: to make Green Bay an American center of history and culture. Buchanan was tireless in advocating historical preservation in the area and did much to preserve its treasures. She, along with a group of like-minded area women, founded the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society in 1923.

Distressed upon seeing early Green Bay artifacts being sold to distant collectors, Buchanan began a systematic search for historically accurate artifacts for the area's historic landmarks. That effort, often supplemented with loans or donations from her own collections and coffers, also helped refurbish many area museums. She was also instrumental in initiating a campaign to restore several historic buildings located at nearby Heritage Hill State Historical Park. Today's members continue the pursuit and restoration of original or period authentic furnishings for area museums.

Over the past fifty-plus years, the Antiquarian Society has gifted, through a Grant Program, over $500,000 to many local museums and other historical sites. Recent examples include a grant of $25,000 to assist in the restoration of the venerable Green Bay City Stadium. Funds are used for preservation and restoration of cultural artifacts throughout the community.

And the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society's Annual Holiday Antique

Show has been an important piece of that fund-raising pie for all of those years. This 56th edition of the show was a big success, with good attendance and sales on both Friday and Saturday. Quality dealers from Wisconsin and the surrounding states journeyed to the Rock Garden Convention Center with a wide variety of quality antiques and artifacts.

Milwaukee's Pierce Regal was among them, their booth filled with period furniture and lighting to furnish the finest home. More classic American furniture awaited at Haven Hill Antiques, from a cherry butler's chest with burl-veneer interior fittings to a handsome oak hall tree sporting carved winged Griffins and its original ornate coat-hooks.

And the Holidays were certainly in the air at Collector's Paradise, where vintage Christmas items of every description could be found, including a small forest of vintage holiday trees. My favorite there: a Mid Century Bubble Lite Christmas tree, 3' tall & priced at $295.

En Vogue came from the Windy City with a fabulous array of vintage jewelry, including the largest assortment of Miriam Haskell pieces you'll ever see. And Wintergreen Farm's display of Native American artifacts was just as impressive, from Inuit beaded sealskin moccasins to a pristine Sioux breechclout.

You can find more information about both the society and the show (and make a donation if you like) at the Green Bay - De Pere Antiquarian Society's website - www.antiquariansocietygbdp.org. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antique Show & Sale in the Auction Action Antique News!

En Vogue displayed a huge assortment of vintage Miriam Haskell couture costume jewelry, with these 1940s and 1950s necklaces priced from $395 to $800. 630-654-4588

Vintage Juliana jewelry was a feature at Time's Treasures, including this convertible belt necklace with removable pin, circa 1960s - $425. 608-617-7066

Milwaukee's Pierce Regal brought their usual excellent selection of period furniture and lighting, plus this just-acquired 19th century oil on canvas landscape, the frame measuring 40" by 50", asking price $995. 414-385-9820

Circa 1930s to 1960s Miriam Haskell seed pearl beaded brooches, from En Vogue - $195 to $395. 630-654-4588

From Carolina's Once in a Blue Moon, a set of three Royal Haeger pottery musician figures, designed by Glenn Richardson - $120. 920-468-1177

Shoppers found plenty of vintage tools and related items at Indian Creek Antiques, including this full boxed set of Eberhard Faber lumber crayons, price tag $20. 262-363-7338

Two religious themed shell cameo as from Sunshine Treasures, the 2 3/4" Christ figure in nine carat gold frame priced at $1,475, the 2" last supper in gold filigree frame at $695. 414-463-1796

Another Juliana jewelry necklace from Time's Treasures' huge assortment of vintage fashion jewelry, this 1960s rhinestone example priced at $327.50. 608-617-7066

I found this illustrated 1856 "Expedition of an American Squadron to the China Seas and Japan" at Rosebrit Antiques, asking price $500. 920-469-1043

From Rosebrit Antiques, an 1870 edition of Mark Twain's The Innocents Abroad - $80. 920-469-1043

S. G. Adams (St. Louis) souvenir France Victory Medal, complete with box, from Victorian House Antiques - $135. 608-879-2567

Two unusual early churns from Ted Slaton Art & Antiques: the double-action "The Jacobs Churn" priced at $395, the Patented-1879 "Wonderful Churn #2" with stenciling & pin-striping at $495. 608-792-5470

From Victorian House Antiques, a mint-in-box Mattel Shootin' Shell buckle gun complete with its original box of caps, asking price $145. 608-879-2567

Two vintage Christmas tree is from collectors paradise, the 36" bubble light tree, circa 1940s or 1950s, priced at $295; the 6 foot tall green aluminum tree, complete with box, priced at $395. 715-854-3187

I found this pristine circa 1900 Sioux beaded breechclout at Wintergreen Farm, 17" square and priced at $325. 803-415-0760

Among the eclectic inventory at Lyn's Antiques, this vintage Swiss automaton music box with singing bird, 11" tall and priced at $255. 920-246-0282

I caught Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Show Chair Maria Zehren doing a little Christmas Shopping with the Society's Governor, Joanne Rathburn.

It'd be hard to find a more handsome oak hall tree & bench than this one from Haven Hill Antiques, 34" in width & priced at $1,125. 263-313-7234

From Haven Hill Antiques, a nicely-restored 42" oak pedestal table (with three leaves, $795) and set of four carved oak chairs - $700 for the set. 263-313-7234

Shoppers found a wide array of "Mary Gregory" glass at Carole Kuenster Antiques, including this rare amethyst powder jar, asking price $489. 952-941-5964

Oddities at Weathervane Antiques included this vintage fishbowl on a green iron stand, 23" tall overall & priced at $138. 262-375-0641

Two classic Green Bay Packers programs from Maki Antiques: take your pick of the 1957 Pack vs. 49ers or 1954 Pack vs. Rams for $20. 414-510-6372

Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. Also, discover a variety of manatee items in the Club's gift catalog at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/shop/>.

Advertising Signs Bring Strong Prices at Matthews

November 23-25 Auction

Article & photos by Matthews Auctions, LLC

"This auction actually did better than I thought it would, with some nice surprises in the form of high prices realized for items we didn't think would bring as much as they did," said Dan Matthews of Matthews Auctions, LLC. "We also had many different kinds of merchandise in one sale, so there really was something for everybody. Buyers and sellers went home happy."

Around 200 people attended the auction live (out of which about 150 had bid numbers). In addition, 735 people registered to bid online, via Proxibid, and they accounted for a 35 percent sell-through. Telephone bidding was also quite strong (especially on Saturday, the sandwich day of the sale) and Mr. Matthews described absentee bidding as "heavy throughout the auction."

Following are additional highlights from the auction. All prices quoted include a 10 percent buyer's premium.

A Whippet and Willys-Knight double-sided porcelain sign ("Authorized Service – Genuine Parts"), 24 inches by 36 inches, both sides rated 9+ out of 10 for condition, with great gloss and color, gaveled for $4,125; and a Wrigley's Doublemint/Spearmint Gum double-sided porcelain sign ("Lunch"), rated 8, 9 inches by 30 inches, with some wear and chips, hit $3,740.

Two lots posted identical prices of $3,575. The first was a DeSoto - Plymouth "Sales and Service" double-sided porcelain sign, 18 inches by 35 inches, rated 9 both sides, with good gloss and color but a few chips here and there. The second was a Fisk Tires wood sand painted sign ("Tubes, Service Station"), with a boy-in-tire logo, rated 8 and 7, with frame and hanger intact.

An Eagle Bird Cigarettes single-sided porcelain sign with ten layers of porcelain and exhibiting great color and gloss, rated 9+ and measuring 30 inches by 20 inches, made $3,300; and original mixed media on artist board artwork for Pepsi-Cola ("The Light Refreshment – Refreshes Without Filling"), rated 8.9, with a bottle cap applied over the painting, hit $2,530.

A Grape-Nuts cereal single-sided tin self-framed sign ("To School Well Fed"), 30 inches by 20 inches, with super color and graphics but some wear on the outside frame, made $2,310; and a 1920s Winchester Flashlight five-piece cardboard window display poster, 40 inches by 24 inches, with a man working on his early roadster using a Winchester flashlight, rose to $2,090.

In the toys category, a Dale Evans "Queen of the West" official holster outfit, new in the box, rated 9 (box is rated 7), die-cast and leather, with guns and holster in very good condition, hit the mark for $715; and a "Have Gun, Will Travel" die-cast and leather travel holster set, with an image of actor Richard Boone on the box, new in the box, made by Halco, commanded $633.

Also, an official "Bat Masterson" cartridge-loading toy pistol with removable chambers, die-cast, new in the box with the gun never-before used, in fair condition, made by Carnell Mfg., went for $440. As for real firearms, a World War II commemorative Thompson 45-caliber semi-automatic rifle with 18-inch barrel, rated new, with no wear on the never-fired gun, made $1,430.

Matthews Auctions, LLC will hold live online-only auctions in December, January and February, before its next live audience sale, slated for Feb. 19-20, 2013 in Raymond, also at the gallery of Gavin Pope Auction. Headlining the auction will be antique and modern toys, plus petroliana items, glassware, pottery, decorative accessories and other items yet to be secured.

Matthews Auctions, LLC is always accepting quality consignments for future sales. To consign a single item, an estate or an entire collection, you may call them toll-free at (877) 968-8880; or you can send an e-mail directly to Dan Matthews at danm@matthewsauctions.com.

Mr. Matthews has written a book about petroliana, titled The Fine Art of Collecting Petroliana. For information on how to order a copy, please log on to the Matthews Auctions, LLC website, at www.matthewsauctions.com. Badger State Auction Sells Collection of Wisconsin Sports Memorabilia

By Doug Welch

Collectors of rare and unique Wisconsin sports memorabilia benefitted from a Badger State Auction Saturday, December 1 at America's Best Value Inn, Janesville.

When Milton's Kevin Bergeron decided that not all of the items in his amazing collection of Packers, Brewers, Bucks and Milwaukee Braves memorabilia could transition to a smaller home, he called Badger State's Bob Johnson.

Johnson and his Badger State crew hosted the morning-long sale at the Janesville hotel where more than 145 registered buyers bid on 327 items that brought Bergeron more than $7,500.

In addition, one of the sale's highlights was Bergeron's 2009 Harley Davidson Road King that fetched $11,000.

A number of furniture and household items, including several curio cabinets, also interested buyers and brought top dollar.

But it was Bergeron's large collection of Wisconsin sports memorabilia that gained the most attention on the day.

Bergeron has been collecting with passion for most of his life but had to part with a large portion of the collection after he and his wife, Marcee, decided to move into a smaller home.

"It was kind of amazing going through all this stuff," Bergeron said. "I found a lot of stuff I'd forgotten I had."

"I feel good about getting a lot of these items back out on the market and in circulation."

Some of Bergeron's more unique items included a Bart Starr autographed football with case that sold for $135; a Ray Nitchke signed football for $155; a signed Milwaukee Braves scorebook for $90; a Robin Yount 3,000 hit print for $125; a Braves pennant for $40; Bart Starr and Willie Davis decanters for $130.

In all, 327 items brought $7,5320.

Badger State Auction, based in Milton, has conducted more than 160 auctions thus far in 2012. Badger State has sold farm land at record prices this year and also specializes in farm, estate, living estate business liquidation, fund raising and consignment auctions.

7th Annual Top of the Class Antiques Show

Forty quality antiques dealers from throughout the mid-west will converge on the Illinois State University campus in Normal, IL from Friday, January 25 through Sunday, January 27, 2013.

Last year's edition featured top dealers from eight mid-western states ranging from Ohio to Iowa and from Michigan to Tennessee. A few additional vendors have been added for this year's show which promises to bring a wide range of style and eras for display and sale.

Many of the vendors carry a general line, but some of the specialty dealers will bring quality toys, early Americana, jewelry, primitives, quilts, and hunting/fishing collections. The show strives to be a balanced one by also featuring furniture, art-glass and art-pottery, silver and glassware, advertising, paper, and books.

The show is a benefit for the students of the School of Communication at Illinois State and provides a real-life laboratory for students majoring in Public Relations and Communication. Senior students are involved in publicity and hospitality aspects of the show. PR students participate in planning and organizing show promotion to local and national media. One of the trade-marks of the show is vendor hospitality as students become involved in move-in and move-out support, booth sitting, and other dealer assistance.

Students also help maintain the show web site: www.topoftheclassantiques.com which offers driving directions, a list of vendors, and other show materials.

Show hours are Friday, January 25, 5:00 - 8:00 p.m., Saturday, January 26, 10:00 - 5:00 and Sunday, January 27, 10:00 - 4:00 p.m. Admission is $5 and is valid all three days. The show is held in the Bone Student Center at Illinois State University, 100 N. University Ave., Normal, IL. The Bloomington/Normal community is in the center of Illinois, at the cross-roads of Interstate 55, 74, and 39.

For additional show information, contact show manager Doug Jennings at 309.838.7080 or email at dkjenni@ilstu.edu

Book Description

Historically, societies of women gathering together for the purpose of quilting have been referred to as quiltings, frolicks, and bees. This book brings together newspaper articles about their needlework activities with quilts inscribed with hundreds of names - known as signature quilts. Quilting communities encompassed families, church groups, civic and social organizations, and varied awareness groups. Using their quilting skills, women comforted both their families and those in need. They successfully raised monies for their villages and towns, for veterans and orphaned children, for worldwide organizations such as the Red Cross, and benevolent causes close to home. This nearly 200-year tradition in quilting carries into the 21st Century. With needle and scroll, quiltmakers continue to capture their special family events, hails and farewells of friends and coworkers, and needful societal causes in the medium of cloth.

Excitement Building For 11th Annual Antique Sporting Collectible Show

This annual event held in Oshkosh, Wisconsin is gaining a lot of popularity with both collectors and dealers. The Oshkosh Sunnyview Expo Center is an ideal location for this show. The modern facility is spacious, bright and clean. It is an easy drive from all of the major cities, with easy access off Highway 41. There are acres of lighted and paved parking.

"At this time we are looking at around 125 dealers with about 350 tables" states organizer Dennis Gauger. The contracts have been signed, with the show to be held the 1st weekend in February through the year 2018. We feel it is important to remain consistent. Each year the show will be held the same time (1st weekend in February), the same place (Sunnyview Expo Center in Oshkosh, Wisconsin) and the same hours Saturday, from 9-4 and Sunday from 9-2.

The first weekend in February is a prime date for the show to be held. It is a sure cure for "Cabin Fever", which its just about then. We are fortunate to have many fine reputable dealers that assist in the promotion of the show each year.

Each year there is more merchandise suitable for the novice collectors. We also have many items that the general public bring in for appraisal or to sell the weekend of the show. There is an amazing number and type of items that will be bought and sold including, Decoys, Fishing and Hunting Antiques, Traps, Indian Artifacts, Wildlife Mounts, Early Advertising, Baseball and Football memorabilia, Military Items, Carvings, Wildlife Art, Archery, Outdoor Books and Literature, Knives, Golfing Items and so Much More!

Due to the quantity of merchandise, Friday is dealer set-up day. Some of the dealers with larger inventory can drive right into the building for unloading. Friday is also an opportunity for a lot of networking among dealers who will be too busy during show hours because of the heavy show traffic. we are starting to attract dealers from neighboring states due to the continued success of the show and the low cost of lodging and fine restaurants in close proximity to the Expo center. Each year there will be new promotions. Live Saturday morning radio broadcast. Last Year's free Sunday morning breakfast at the Expo Center for all participating dealers and door prizes for the general public were appreciated by all and will be continued again this year. Dealer fees will remain the same low and the general admission for the public will remain the same at $5.00. Children will be admitted free to encourage young people to participate and start collecting got themselves. Sunday is "Ladies Day" with Free Admission for the women.

Food Service will again be on site. In addition there will be 24 hour security and surveillance cameras. Show hours are Saturday, February 2nd from 9-4 and Sunday, February 3rd from 9-2. Dealer Set-up Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday and Sunday at 7AM. Expo Center directions: just north of Oshkosh, Wisconsin off Highway 41 (Exit 124) Jackson St.

International Wood Collectors Society

Founded in 1947, The International Wood Collectors Society is devoted to distributing information on collecting wood, correctly identifying and naming wood specimens, and using wood in creative crafts. The society has a broad range of members including artisans, hobbyists, wood collectors, foresters, scientists, woodworkers, wood dealers and dendrologists representing over 35 countries.

The www.woodcollectors.org website is useful for both IWCS members and non-members alike. A first-time visitor to the site cannot help but be impressed by the fact that four major objectives are given right up front in only four sentences - 1) the history and purpose of the society, 2) identifies the membership and what they do, 3) wood as a collecting area, and 4) membership benefits. All in 20 seconds!

The rest of the homepage is done in a creative magazine format with current news and features about the society and the collecting area. A toolbar of drop-downs at the top provide additional information on how to join, on wood collecting and wood crafting, member requests, a wood auction, and more.

We like this website. It does a good job of serving both the IWCS membership as well as other site guests, and is done in a pleasing format that seems to blend both the electronic and the printed worlds.

The Association of Collecting Clubs is pleased to designate The International Wood Collectors Society as an ACC Featured Club Website recipient.

Red Wing Collectors Society Creates Young Collectors Club

RED WING, MN – Do you know a collector between the ages of 15 and 20 who is interested in history, art and collecting? If so, it's time to bring them to the Red Wing Collectors Society (RWCS) Convention this summer. In celebration of the RWCS 35th Anniversary, a new Young Collectors Club has been developed for collectors between the ages of 15 and 20 that will make its debut during the event. This program will be the next step for young collectors to continue learning about Red Wing and its wares.

For many years, the RWCS faced the challenge of encouraging the next generation to maintain its interest in Red Wing's wares and the RWCS. Eleven years ago, Wendy Calliccoat and Sue Jones Tagliapietra, who at the time were members of the RWCS Executive Board, developed the KidsView Educational Program at the RWCS Convention to attract a younger generation of collectors to the RWCS.

"This program has developed into an exceptional part of the RWCS," Calliccoat says. "We have seen many kids come to our seminars during summer Convention and enjoy the activities of KidsView, only to age out and lose interest when they graduate from the program at age 15. In years past, many of the graduates have volunteered to assist during KidsView activities."

Calliccoat says the new challenge has been retaining KidsView participants' interest

With A Sold Out Show Of 70 Exhibitors, It Will Be Antiques Galore At Antique Spectacular

(Rock Island, IL) The Spring Antique Spectacular is coming the weekend of March 1st through 3rd at the QCCA Expo Center in Rock Island, IL. With a sold out show of 70 exhibitors, it will be antiques galore at Antique Spectacular. The show, now in its 19th year, is located at the QCCA Expo Center, 2621 4th Avenue in Rock Island in Illinois! The show will be brimful with a wonderful selection of fine antiques and collectibles for sale. Featured will be select antique dealers with unique merchandise from around the world. Attendees will have an opportunity, all weekend, to shop the wide range of quality antiques.

With the Antique Spectacular, there is always something to interest every collector including: furniture, art pottery, stoneware, books, prints, primitives, jewelry, silver, antique glassware, American Indian items, china, postcards, coins, quilts, dolls, toys, advertising, marbles, rugs, vintage textiles and period pieces. Shop, for a timeless treasure, that is new to you.

March 1st through 3rd, the Antique Spectacular show hours are Friday, 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Parking is FREE and show admission is $7 and is good for admittance all three days. in collecting as they become teenagers and young adults. Therefore, new education and retention opportunities were explored, and the new program was created for young adult collectors.

Young collectors are encouraged to attend sessions from 10 a.m. to noon on Thursday, July 7 and 10 a.m. to noon on Friday, July 8, where they will develop new friendships through peer-to-peer discussion groups and hands-on activities.

Collectors are encouraged to bring their computers for use during the sessions. A field trip will also be taken to the Pottery Place Street Sale, so participants should bring some spending money. Young collectors who participate in this first year of the program will become a charter member of the RWCS Young Collectors Club and receive a special stoneware crock to commemorate the beginning of this adventure.

Watch for more details about the schedule of events on the RWCS website and the RWCS/Kids View Facebook pages. If you're interested in attending or volunteering during the new program, or have a question, please contact Wendy Calliccoat at crocks701@aol.com.

The Red Wing Collectors Society was founded in 1977 in Red Wing, Minn. and is devoted to educating people about all American pottery. There are more than 4,000 members worldwide. The Red Wing Potteries had diverse pottery lines that included stoneware, dinnerware and art pottery. Annual membership costs only $25. For more information or to become a member, call the RWCS business office at 800-977-7927, e-mail membership@redwingcollectors.org or log on to www.redwingcollectors.org. Revised "Marble Mania"

It is our pleasure to announce the publication & availability of our table top book, Marble Mania. The original book published in July 1998 has been out of print & unavailable for over a year.

The revised edition contains over 240 pages & close to 1,400 illustrations. It has a hard cover with a dust jacket & like the original, covers all of the collectible areas of the hobby of marbles.

The various sections include: Section 1: Marbles Other Than Glass; Section 2: Early Handmade Glass Marbles; Section 3: Machine Made Marbles; Section 4: Contemporary Marbles; Section 5: Games & Toys; Section 6: Other Uses of Marbles. Also included are a glossary of terms, a list of marble clubs, a bibliography, & an index. In addition, each of the photos has a valuation of the item pictured as of the time the book was written & reviewed.

This book joins the seven other marble books the Society has done over the years. The retail price for Marble Mania is $34.99 plus $6 shipping & handling.

It is also timely to note that Schiffer Publishing, Ltd. currently has the 5th edition of Marbles: Identification & Price Guide, 5th edition which should be available later this year.

The Marble Collectors Society of America (MCSA) was founded in 1975 as a nonprofit organization established for charitable, scientific, literary & educational purposes. Society objectives include gathering & disseminating information as well as performing services to further the hobby of marbles, marble collecting, & the preservation of the history of marble s& marble making.

Some of the MCSA's major accomplishments to date are the uninterrupted issuance of the Society's quarterly newsletter, Marble Mania, & accompanying Calendar of Meets, shows & auctions; various surveys; photographing & publishing color sheets; gathering & placing museum collections, in addition to those currently housed at The Smithsonian Institute, The Corning Museum of Glass, & the Museum of American Glass at WheatonArts; publication of price guides with periodic updates; ongoing work towards establishing a library of articles & marble related material; preparation & publication of contributor listings; research & issuance of articles concerning marble factories & contemporary marble makers; publication of books dedicated to the hobby of marble collecting; classification & appraisal services.

Finally, MCSA has been an active & vital participant in the growth & visibility of the marble field throughout its 35 year history. The Society also recognizes its obligations as the leading voice & reporting agency for the hobby, a task taken very seriously.

For more information on MCSA write to PO Box 222, Trumbull, CT 06611.

Clubs Reaching New Audiences

For many traditional collecting clubs trying to reverse a trend of declining membership, success stories are not abundant.

Reaching out to new audiences can be difficult... but it can also be successful.

But to be successful, club leadership may need to think outside the traditional box. No longer are “traditional” collectors - those who collect rows upon rows of thimbles, or bells, or decoys, or (fill in the blank), the biggest group in the antiques, arts and collectibles industry. These collectors - who make up the majority of most clubs’ members - are still a very important group. Most of us are a part of this group. However, the growth in the industry is in other “non-traditional” groups - people who will more than likely represent new target audiences for those clubs willing to make some serious changes to increase your memberships and stay viable.

The Association of Collecting Clubs has worked continuously over the years on the areas of club promotion and membership recruitment. Admittedly, many of our suggestions and tools have been along traditional lines. Starting with our next ACC/NAC Update Newsletter, we will be including a regular feature on reaching new audiences with some more unconventional approaches. Many of you may simply shake your head and say “not for our club.” That’s fine. Hopefully, there may be some ideas your club leadership can discuss and perhaps implement.

And, of course, if your club has already something rather unique which is working in bringing in new members, we would love to hear about it. Send your comments to: Info@Collectors.Org or postally to: ACC, 18222 Flower Hill Way #299, Gaithersburg, MD 20879.

National Depression Glass Association

The National Depression Glass Association - preserving America's glass manufacturing heritage - is dedicated to the preservation of American made glassware manufactured just before, during, and immediately after the "Great Depression". The organization is also dedicated to the dissemination of educational information regarding the same - including a membership newsletter, "The News & Views," an annual convention and show, and a variety of other member services. The NDGA's ultimate goal is a first-class museum of American-made glass and related items.

The NDGA website - www.ndga.net - has been greatly improved with a total new design and look earlier this year. The primary purpose of the site is to provide information to the members and other site visitors. The homepage provides a listing of contents and features the latest NDGA news. Appropriately heading this list is the latest news on the much anticipated July 2009 annual convention.

There is a growing section on The National Collection and how to donate either glass or cash for this project.

The site contains a wealth of information. Articles on Depression Glass, dozens of past features from the NDGA publications, glass reference books, past glass company advertisements, a directory of glass dealers and another of glass collecting clubs and photos of members' glass collections.

Anyone who happens to have the least bit of interest and appreciation for glassware is going to find this site a place on the Internet to visit again and again... and it must be a tremendous resource for NDGA members. Actually there also are members-only pages on the site in addition to all the public pages.

Antique Vintage Handkerchiefs Fun To Collect And Use

By Shelby Weister, Four Seasons Antique Mall

Handkerchiefs have been around for centuries, but in the 1920’s, Kleenex tissues began to take their place. A hanky became an inexpensive accessory for an outfit and the perfect “Christmas gift for a friend or relative because you didn’t need to know the size to purchase. Also they were a special gift easy to enclose in a card and mail.

Today, many ladies carry or tie them on their purses or put them in the cuff of a blouse so they are handy when needed. The distinguishing features of handkerchiefs are patterns and designs. They come in many styles, colors and shapes. Many animals, such as dogs, appear o handkerchiefs, while floral ones are plentiful.

Children’s hankies depict cartoon characters or nursery rhymes. In the 1930’s, many children went to school with a handkerchief pinned to their clothing.

There are designer handkerchiefs, and some are signed like works of art. Though they were mass produced, you’ll be able to recognize the style of a particular artist even if the handkerchief isn’t signed.

History and patriotism is a way of learning of a handkerchief’s age or time span. the red, white and blue hankies represent the armed forces and instill patriotism in the wearer. Many military personnel purchased hankies as gifts for loved ones. “Remember Pearl Harbor” is one of the most poignant of all the hankies. After World War II, gas rationing stopped and many people took to the road for vacations. No item was a better souvenir than a handkerchief - inexpensive and small.

Most handkerchiefs are cotton or linen and most have hand-rolled edges. There are also some that are silk.

To bring your handkerchiefs back to a nice condition, try to remove stains by soaking them in Oxy Clean or use cold water with hand soap. Always rinse thoroughly and never squeeze or wring it dry. Lay the handkerchief flat on a towel to dry and then iron it and store with acid free paper between each handkerchief.

Lace, crocheted and tatted handkerchiefs are very nice for special events, such as confirmation or first communion. For a wedding, a handkerchief can meet the need for something borrowed, blue, old or new.

Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association February 1 & 2, 2013

Show To Benefit Grants & Scholarships

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association, founded in 1948, is a non-profit organization dedicated to education as well as preservation of Wisconsin's heritage.

Funded by admissions charged at their October and February antiques shows, their Association awards scholarships and grants annually.

Waukesha County high school seniors recently submitted entries for the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association's scholarship competition. Winners will be announced in January and recognized at the February 1 & 2 antiques show.

Wisconsin historical groups that received

WADA grants in 2012 are:

- The Israel Stowell Temperance House in Delavan, Wisconsin, to secure the structure before renovation
- The Rock County Historical Society, Janesville, Wisconsin, for adaptive re-use of an exhibit case.
- The Richfield Historical Society, Richfield, Wisconsin, for foundation restoration of the Messer/Mayer Mill.

In addition, for the last 4 years the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association has sponsored the "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction", produced by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society and held at Old World Wisconsin. This auction has raised important funding to aid the endeavors of the Wisconsin Historical Society.

To learn more about the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association's grant & scholarship opportunities along with their many other endeavors promoting Wisconsin history, visit their website at www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com and attend their antiques show Friday, February 1, 11 am - 9 pm and Saturday, February 2, 10 am - 5 pm at the Waukesha County Expo Center, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha (a Milwaukee suburb). A fish fry will be served Friday night. There is plenty of free parking and an ATM is on the premises. Questions? (414) 510-4441

Nipper Collectibles Volume II

The Nipper and gramophone trademark, known as "His Master's Voice" was one of the recognizable images of the twentieth century. Nipper is a dog of mixed lineage, part bull terrier and fox terrier. The real Nipper lived only eleven years. His popularity as the model in the dog and gramophone trademark has continued since the early 1900s. Nipper retained his popularity with Americans and dog lovers throughout the world because of the following: The unusual and quizzical pose of the little dog in the painting of Nipper supposedly listening to "His Master's Voice" has fascinated young and old; the dog and gramophone trademark has appeared on billions of disc records, CD's and electronic entertainment devices as well as in countless advertisements; Nipper has been duplicated and reproduced in many different sizes and forms.

Nipper Collectibles Volume II is written to supplement the information and collectibles found in Nipper Collectibles The RCA Victor Trademark Dog, a book we published in 2007. Nipper collectibles found in the 350 pages of Volume II are not found in the first Nipper Collectibles book, as collectors brought to our attention many vintage Nipper items not previously described. Many new Nipper collectibles have arrived at the marketplace. Perhaps this is because the trademark is no longer a registered trademark in the United States. Once the world's most recognizable trademark, Nipper can now only appear in the country of origin. Because of territorial licensing, he can no longer be used as a tool for global marketing and identification of a product. Years of neglect and corporate mismanagement have diminished Nipper's recognition by younger generations.

This update is organized chronologically. The oldest Nipper collectibles are found in the first chapter and newest collectibles are found in Chapter five. New reproductions and Nipper imposters are found in the last chapter of the update.

There are an amazing number of Nipper collectibles. We received e-mails, telephone calls and letters from collectors and Nipper lovers informing us of their Nipper collectibles. The number of collectibles was accumulating and we were urged to do an update to our book Nipper Collectibles The RCA Victor Trademark Dog. Enjoy Nipper Collectibles Volume II and collecting Nipper memorabilia.

The cost of Vol. II is $36.00 or purchase both Volumes I & II for $60.00. To order you can visit our website at: www.audioantique.com or send a check to: Audio Antique, W6273 Cedar Cliff Dr. Hortonville, WI 54944

Collectors Trade Show - Serving Clubs and Collectors

The "Collectors Trade Show" on the Collectors.Org website is designed to serve the needs of both collecting clubs and collectors, offering aisles of vendors featuring products and services of interest to collectors and to the leadership of collecting clubs.

Collectors.Org is the official website of both the National Association of Collectors(NAC) and the Association of Collecting Clubs(ACC). ACC works with over 2400 collecting clubs on six continents. NAC is for individual collectors, identifying and addressing those needs and concerns that are common to all collectors.

The Collectors Trade Show can be reached directly at: <http://tradeshow.collectors.org>

Collectors will find vendors offering everything from shipping supplies to display cases...alarm systems to price guides...collector software to training courses...appraisal or restoration services and much more.

The leadership of collecting clubs will find vendors with customized logo merchandise, membership incentives and club management tools, event planning, convention sites or meeting facilities, printing options and internet services.

Other aisles feature auction houses, antique malls and galleries, collectibles shows, flea markets, and specialty aisles for specific types of collecting.

The Collectors Trade Show is always open...7 days a week...24 hours a day. Many vendors offer collectors special discounts if they are a member of an ACC member club or an NAC member.

A potential vendor wishing to have a display booth in the Collectors Trade Show can get information by contacting ACC/NAC at: info@collectors.org or 301.926.8663. A display booth can feature your full line of products or services with direct links to your own website. A booth costs $100/year and includes development of the booth based on your own website or materials provided - at no additional cost.
