Woolbright's River City Antique Mall Celebrates a Great Year

Article & photos courtesy of River City Antique Mall

We would like to thank our fantastic customers and our great dealers that helped us put 2012 down in the books as the best year since we opened in the spring of 2006. As many of you may remember, before we bought the Mall, it was dirty, smelly, and very poorly lit. Well, after a very extensive remodeling job inside and out, Woolbright's River City Antique Mall has now become a favorite shopping spot for all to visit.

Out & About

Well, we are receiving even more snow! The kids might be enjoying it, but I have had my fill of winter. I know, we are not even close to winter ending.

Do you ever feel like every time you go to drive a distance, it seems to snow! My kids have been hoping for a snow day, but won't get one, because it will add a day to their school year. So, the district will not call for one.

Brandon got his report card on Friday. He received all B+'s and one C+. I think he understands how grades work now, this is his first year with letter grades.

As for hockey, he will not be going to state this year, his team lost to Green Bay. Maybe next year.

Tia has been doing a lot of presentations at school about her trip to China. The teachers are telling each other how good of a speech she gives, that they are all asking her to do one for them.

Kenzy can take pride in the fact that she will be going to state this year. She had a shut out game against Green Bay to determine which one of our teams would represent. She has been practicing very hard and very often.

42" Ivory Carved Sword Brings an Impressive $5,500 at Chuilli's Auction

Article & Photos by Chuilli's Auction Service

This exciting sale featured the estate of the late Karl Pilath of Birnamwood, WI. Several unique items crossed the block and prices were strong throughout the day. The highlight of the auction was a 42 inch circa 1950 Chinese ivory carved sword that drew spirited bidding and sold for the high bid of $5,500. Another item that drew a lot of interest was a 28 inch ivory walrus tusk with scrimshaw work by noted Alaskan scrimshaw artist Bob Merry, that sold for a high bid of $2,000.

Mr. Pilath enjoyed traveling and had a love for oriental pieces. There were several carved ivory figurines along with contemporary Chinese porcelain. Not being familiar with oriental collectibles Jerry sought the advice of an expert in that field. Walter West of West Wind-West Water was contacted to assist with the identification of the ivory and other select oriental pieces. Walter is a consultant, appraiser, authenticator and lecturer on Oriental antiques. Mr. West's knowledge and expertise in this field played a major role in the success of this sale. I would highly recommend his service to anyone. Located in Darlington, Wisconsin, Walter can be reached at (608) 776-

Several other items also commanded strong prices. A Seiko Melodies in Motion battery operated wall clock sold for an impressive $1,250. A pair of one ounce Chinese gold Panda coins sold for the high bid of $2,000 each. The sale also featured several excellent taxidermy pieces. A moose shoulder mount took top honors, realizing $1,700.

Chuilli's Auction Service has established a reputation for honesty and integrity. Jerry has over thirty years experience in the auction profession and is a certified personal property appraiser with two certifications and continues his studies in appraisal principles and methodology.

If you would like more information on this sale or if an auction is in your future, contact Chuilli's Auction Service. Central Wisconsin's Premier Auction & Appraisal Service Toll Free At (888) 219-4647 Or Cell (715) 297-2457.

Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. Also, discover a variety of manatee items in the Club's gift catalog at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/shop/>.

Candlewick: The Crystal Line, 3rd Edition

Book Details

ISBN: 9780764341731

Size: 8 1/2" x 11"

Illustrations: 506 color & 31 b/w photos

Pages: 176

Availability: Nov 2012

Binding: Soft Cover

Updated values and text revisions have been made to this popular and thorough guide to Candlewick crystal, one of the most popular lines of glass produced by the Imperial Glass Corporation of Bellaire, Ohio, which was introduced in 1936 and manufactured until the company's closing in 1984. Today this pattern, made in crystal and many lovely colors, attracts avid collectors of fine glassware. In this beautifully photographed and updated book, nearly every item in the crystal line is shown and discussed. The author and her late husband, Bob, carefully researched Imperial's factory records, catalogs, and price lists to assemble extensive background information on these exclusively crystal Candlewick items. Organized in easy-to-use categories, the book covers place settings, serving pieces, sets, and miscellaneous items such as ashtrays, candleholders, compotes, and vases. To further help with identification, some undocumented pieces, reproductions, and similarities are shown as well. Measurements for all of Candlewick's stem and tumbler lines are included. In this new third edition, the primary focus is on updated values that are included in the captions and in an overall price guide organized by mold number. This book is an essential reference for Candlewick collectors and all who enjoy beautiful glass. According to collectors, the photographs are an outstanding feature of the book. A separate companion volume by the authors presents the colored and decorated lines of Candlewick.

Antiques are Green Campaign: Good Tie-In for Many Collecting Clubs

National Antique Week is promoted and celebrated in Great Britain during the week of November 23-30, 2009. This week long event with the theme Antiques are Green comes at a pivotal time for the antiques trade when public and media interest is heightened by campaigns such as "Antiques are Green" spearheaded by Nigel Worboys and the petition on "Antiques" designed to persuade the British government to provide more support to the Fine Art and Antiques industry.

The Association of Collecting Clubs and National Association of Collectors have become supporters of "Antiques are Green." We urge club leaders and partners to visit Nigel Worboys' website: <http://www.antiquesaregreen.org> for excellent information on the concepts of tying the green movement into antiques and signing up as a supporter.

The program has several aims. Some of these include:

- * Antiques are Green aims to promote antiques as an alternative form of recycling and conserving natural resources.
- * Antiques are Green aims to encourage existing consumers and attract a new audience who may not have considered buying antiques before.
- * Antiques are Green aims to encourage businesses and consumers on reducing their carbon footprint, dependency on fossil fuel and becoming greener.
- * By purchasing, conserving or selling antiques you contribute to these aims. By signing up for "Antiques are Green" you become part of this vision. There is no cost for signing up.
- * The Windsor Chair - As described on the "Antiques are Green" website, the best way to illustrate why antiques are green is by an example (this can be applied to many different antiques) the humble Windsor chair. The chair parts were made by craftsmen who lived in the woods where the materials came from. The turnings were produced on treadle-operated lathes, then parts were taken on foot to a local workshop to be assembled. From there the completed chairs would be distributed around the country by horse and cart or waterways. The chair saw hard use but is still around today. What a green product and what a life cycle! By buying this chair to use again we have conserved our natural resources and prevented the carbon footprint of another chair being produced, that possibly would come all the way from the Far East. I expect that a new mass produced chair will hit the waste dump long before the antique Windsor chair is sold again at auction, goes to the restorers to be revived and is retailed again for another 40 years use!

* By buying antiques and collectibles... and putting them into use, rather than buying a new product, is what "Antiques are Green" is all about. What a wonderful way for collecting clubs, for antique malls, flea markets, shows and auction houses to promote "going green" to younger consumers and buyers. This is another approach for reaching out to the young audience of 20-35 and showing how antiques can be an integral part of their lives while helping the environment all at the same time.

* Finding antiques and decorative objects to decorate your living space or work place is a great way to personalize your home or office and make it uniquely yours. Furnishing or redecorating your first apartment or home with old objectives makes economic sense, as well as "green sense."

* Vintage clothing... and clothing accessories are currently hot among young adults. We're talking buttons, fabric, jewelry, hats - either to wear or as decoration. Old advertising items and other graphic arts, movie posters and political posters, kitchen items, pottery and glassware, toys, music-related items, old record players and radios, old bottles, even vintage automobiles... the listing is endless, but can all tie in to the Green about Antiques concept. It provides a great way for a lot of collecting clubs to reach out to young adults by encouraging their interest in collecting in one or more of these areas by promoting the "eco-friendly" approach. These are the buyers, investors and collectors of the future. Find ways your club can whet their interest now.

As Nigel Worboys references on the "Antiques are Green" website, perhaps antiques is the oldest recycling trade in the world - promoting and marketing antiques and collectibles as "Antiques are Green" only makes sense.
