The Washington County Fair Park Pavilion once again played host to one of the best winter antiques shows around - the N.L. Promotions West Bend Antiques Show. Show organizers Nona and Skip Knapp know how to put together a great antiques event. They should, it's now N.L. Promotions' thirty-second year in the business, starting with the now famous Elkhorn Antique Flea Market back in 1982. They know the secret to a successful show is in the dealers, and they always put together fantastic group for this one. The two-day show, held this year on January 19th & 20th, has grown to be one of the Badger State's must-attend antiques events.

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

As I'd noted a few weeks ago, it was very encouraging to see the large crowd at the January 5th & 6th Janesville Antiques Show. That trend continued at this West Bend Show, with folks lined up bright & early for the show's opening – and good attendance on both days. And the mild weather we've had for most of the winter made travel for us antiques enthusiasts a pleasant task.

The Pavilion Building at the Washington County Fair Park was host for the show, as it has been for the past several years. It's become a popular venue for events of all kinds in this part of the state, and it's not hard to see why. The state of the art facility, about thirty minutes north of Milwaukee, offers easy highway access and unlimited free parking. The soaring windows let the natural light flood in. It's a great place to spend the day on a Wisconsin winter weekend.

Toy collectors found much to like at the show. Yesterday's Memories came with a huge assortment, from antique cast iron toy stoves to a Buck Rogers Ray Gun complete with box. More toy gems could be had at the nearby Pearmont Antiques, who brought not one, but two, hard-to-find WWII-era Buddy L toy cars made of wood due to metal rationing during the war.

There were several furniture dealers of note at the show too, including Ken's Family Antiques. They don't show often, but when they do, you know they'll bring some exceptional pieces from their Fond du Lac shop. My favorite there this time was a little different though – a circa-1960 Belmont barber chair in chrome, white enamel, and faux leather, asking price $895. There was plenty more restored 19th century furniture at L & L Antiques and Second Chance Antiques; and Portobello Road Antiques brought their usual great selection of Arts & Crafts furniture and accessories.

Sporting collectibles more your thing? There were finds scattered throughout the exhibition hall. That included some choice vintage eastern seaboard decoys at Sommerville's Antiques. Among them: a folky New Jersey brant carved by Bill Brown, asking price $495. And in the eclectic assortment at Lotz of Stuff sat perhaps the oddest sporting artifact at the show: a vintage Air Boy motor & propeller attachment that clamps onto your fishing boat to transform it into an airboat of sorts, and only $350 to boot!

As you probably know, N.L. Promotions are the folks who also run the massive Elkhorn Antique Flea Market. When they started the event back in 1982, a good show meant a few dozen dealers might show up. Fast forward three decades, and Elkhorn has grown into one of the biggest and best indoor-outdoor antiques markets in the Midwest - with 500, 600, or even 700-plus dealers at each of the four summer events.

This year's first Elkhorn Market will be here before you know it, on May 19th. Don't forget to mark your calendar with the rest of the 2013 Elkhorn dates too: June 30th, August 11th, and September 29th. N.L. Promotions can be reached at 414-525-0820. Be sure to take a look at their website www.nlpromotionsllc.com for more information about all of their events, and as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming show listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

Vintage toy oddities at Country Creations Antiques included this Japanese battery-operated Santa Bank (animated, with flashing eyes), complete with box - $185. 262-677-8589

Tiny Singer toy sewing machines at Country Creations Antiques ranged from this classic 1922 Model 20 ($295) to this later Singer Sewhandy with carrying case - $250. 262-677-8589

A matched pair of funky vintage table lamps from The Calamity House, with pottery planter bases and original 1950s shades - $225 for the set. 920-533-8731

Art Deco-era Proctor & Gamble electric advertising clock from The Calamity House, asking price $195. 920-533-8731

Attend any N.L. Promotions antiques event, including this January West Bend Show, and you'll be sure to see the smiling faces of promoters Nona & Skip Knapp at the door. They've been running successful antiques shows, including the massive Elkhorn Antique Market, for nearly thirty years!

Toys spanned the generations at Yesterday's Memories, from this hard-to-find Buddy L Cement Mixer ($1,195) to a

Buck Rogers Sonic Ray Gun complete with box, asking price $250. 262-352-2335

Two very different Buddy L toys from Pearmont Antiques: The rare WWII all-wood station wagon priced at $525, the restored early International Harvester "Red Baby" express truck at $1,675. 920-210-4101

From art pottery specialists Jim & Ellen Tyne, a foot-tall Western Stoneware vase in a matte green glaze, price tag $195. 815-758-7829

Folky finds at Iowa's T's Antiques included this painted tin whirligig standing a full four feet in height - $895. 563-343-5693

Sporting collectibles don't get much cooler than this vintage Air Boy clamp-on air boat motor attachment from Lotz of Stuff, with 30" propeller and priced at $350. 608-632-3147

The aptly named Fine Art Concepts came from the Windy City with just that - from this Miles J. Early "Texas Landscape" oil on canvas ($1,500) to an Ulla Marti portrait of a man reading a book - $450. 847-281-7505

It felt like spring was in the air at Out on the Farm Antiques, with Ohio Art sand pails priced from $36 and this extra-cute watering can, asking price $40. 920-294-3068

Larry Wilfert's L & L Antiques brought their usual excellent selection of restored furniture, like this oak tavern table complete with four press-back oak chairs (1,595) and circa-1870s general store counter made completely of butternut - $1,795. 262-242-5226

Some choice vintage musical instruments awaited at Benny's Junk Shop, like this all-original 1966 Gibson ES175 hollow-body electric guitar with case, asking price $4,200. 414-645-4327

“Moxley Dog” sets a Possible New World Record Selling for $20,500 at Rainbow Traders Auction

Article & Photos by Rainbow Traders

Dr. Maybelle P. Williams was born April 19, 1901 into a large family that were direct descendants of Pere Marquette Park & Grafton Pioneers. As a pediatrician, Dr. Williams herself was a pioneer for women physicians in the medical field, having conducted extensive research in gynecology & being one of the first female physicians in the Alton area. From an early age, Dr. Williams enjoyed collecting & hunting for fossils & Indian relics, some of which were found on her farm on Piasa Creek in Madison & Jersey Co., Illinois.

The late Jerome Shinkay was a successful business man who described himself as a collector. Jerome amassed quality groups of coins, stamps, antique cars and an important collection of ancient American Indian relics. His Clovis & Hixton sugar quarts points are numerous & legendary.

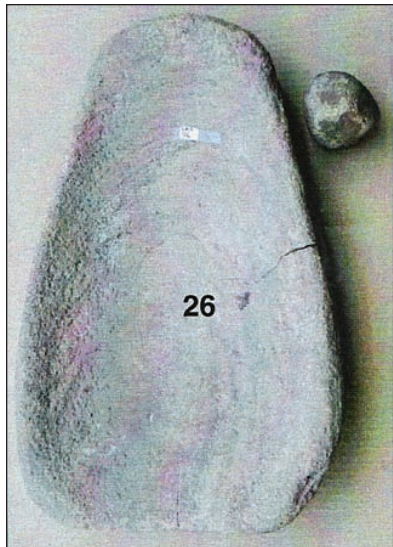

Randy Rengel was a successful farm & commodities trader, who hunted relics as a child on the family farm in McLean Co., IL. Randy became an expert on local historical & geographical maps in his search for artifact sites. Although he struggled with cerebral palsy his entire life, he continued field hunting until his passing in 2012 at age 53.

Alex Boykin, a retired mechanical engineer, was named for an ancestor who was a Confederate officer. Steve began hunting relics starting at an early age in Southern & Eastern South Carolina.

Theodore Reichert was born in 1881 & passed in 1950. A successful farmer & merchant in Southern Illinois. Mr. Reichert hunted relics on his own land & traveled extensively out west collecting points, pottery & rugs until 1910 when he ended his travels.

NEW "Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show" ~ Carpi deum!

Seize the day! Opportunity knocks! These were the motivating themes that have caused a small group of seasoned antiques dealers to decide to forge a new indoor-outdoor antiques and collectables market on the beautiful and historic turf of the Sandwich Fair grounds in Sandwich, Illinois. Under the banner of Blue Antique Productions, the group will launch their up-dated version of a monthly antiques and collectables market on May 12, 2013. These second Sunday markets during 2013 are planned to be both customer and dealer friendly. With memories of the glory days of past mega antiques markets at Sandwich in mind, the blue group will advertise the event and use their contacts and experience as antiques dealers to give the public and exhibitors a quality effort.

Located west of Sandwich at 1401 Suydam Road, the Sandwich Fairgrounds is the historic site of the DeKalb County Fair, an event that has been on-going for 125 years. The extensive grounds include historic buildings and mature trees that create a park like atmosphere. Visitors will find exhibitors displaying under tents, trees, grandstands, and inside permanent buildings. Hours are 8am-4pm. Rain or shine. Early buyers can purchase a ticket and come in as the dealer's set-up on Saturday and come in early on Sunday.

For a modest $5.00 admission, children 12 and under free, the visitor will find free parking, food service, ATMs, permanent restroom facilities, and the offerings of quality antiques, collectables, artisans, repurposing, and garden fare. An added bonus is the ability to visit the many antique malls and shops in the quaint Sandwich community. For additional information visit our web-site at www.sundayatsandwichantiques.com or call 847-321-1712 or 309-310-3596

Golf Collectors Society

The Golf Collectors Society is an international organization dedicated to preserving the treasures and traditions of the game of golf. Founded in 1970 by Robert Kuntz and Joseph S. F. Murdoch, the organization today has over 1400 members from 15 different countries.

The Society's website features a masthead showing a golf memorabilia collection. Three sections underneath give a brief overview of what the group is all about, a center section on recent news and a block for text style ads. This gives the homepage a nice, clean and uncluttered appearance, yet traditional in approach.

Links across the top take site visitors to various segments including a webzine section, resources, events, a forum, membership, faq, links, and how to contact the Society.

We like the well-thought out membership page which briefly explains and visualizes some of the member benefits, plus providing contact information and a membership form. The links page includes links to several other golf collecting associations.

The faq section (frequently asked questions) is very simple and yet, very helpful. This is a section that should be considered on every collecting club's website. It simply and briefly answers questions like: Who belongs? How do I determine the value of items? Are there Society shows that are open to the public? How do I determine when an item was made? Where can I get more information? etc.

By spending only a couple of minutes on the site, if a visitor has an interest in collecting or studying golf memorabilia, it would be hard to resist joining!

Gold Rush Olmsted County Fairgrounds Now In It's 41st Year

A new addition to Gold Rush this year takes place on the southwest corner of the Gold Rush Fairgrounds.....it is an Arts and Crafts area made up of local and regional artists, home-based businesses and crafters making pottery, jewelry, wood items, clothing, paintings, prints, and fine art all for sale. Artists, home-based businesses and crafters can call for indoor and outdoor space at 507-269-1473.

The May Gold Rush at the Olmsted County Fairgrounds in Rochester, Mn is May 10, 11, & 12. Dealer set-up day is Friday, May 10th and the public is welcome to come and shop during the set-up day as well.

Again, the Spring Gold Rush returns with a bang for the first show of the 2013 season and now in its 41st year. The show is back on its regular Mother's Day weekend. Many dealers from Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Missouri, New York, Oklahoma, Texas, Tennessee, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Wyoming and various other states as well as Canada will make this an attraction you won't want to miss!

Gold Rush is an indoor/outdoor antique and flea market event with dealers in 10 buildings as well as dealers outside covering 52 acres of the fairgrounds. This huge antique & collectible event offers 1300+ spaces with dealers from across the country displaying an immense variety of antiques.

While shopping this show, you will find an outstanding selection of antiques and collectibles to interest the most discriminating shopper as well as the new collector. The selection will include china, porcelain, pottery, glassware, Victorian glass, clocks, coins, stamps, jewelry, stoneware, dolls, toys, holiday, sewing items, prints, furniture, primitives, Americana, linens, textiles, vintage clothing, quilts, militaria, advertising memorabilia, political, sports, brewery memorabilia, tools, fishing lures, post cards, autographs, oriental rugs, paper, books, lamps, fancy & funky junque, arts & crafts, and reference bookseller for the beginning collector as well as the advanced collector.

Gold Rush is considered one of the nation's largest shows and is one of the best shopping markets for all your antique wants and needs. It's truly a unique event requiring two full days to appreciate all it has to offer. There will be many food concession booths serving up your favorite foods. So, bring a friend or friends and come to Gold Rush; seek a bit of nostalgia!

Come shop, collect and find that special treasure to add to your collection or to decorate your home.

The PBS show called Market Warriors sent pickers to the August Gold Rush show last year to buy antiques from various exhibitors. The purchases made by the pickers were sold at auction at a later date. That particular segment showing the items being purchased and later being sold at auction will be aired on PBS, Monday, April 15th, 2013 at 8 pm.

Hours: Friday and Saturday - buildings and outside open 8 am - 6 pm; Sunday hours - 8 am - 4 pm. The event is free to the public with unlimited parking at $5. For exhibitor and show information, contact Townsend Promotions Inc at 507-269-1473 or 641-832-2700.
