pages 16 & 17

Flying "A" porcelain sign sold for $1,750.

1930's Coca-Cola Fountain Service sign sold for $1,700.

Coca-Cola Venrolator 27 machine & stand sold for $1,350.

Conkey's Poultry flange sign sold for $1,250.

Illinois State University Hosts Top of the Class Antiques Show In Normal, IL

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

I found this mint-in-box Tootsie Toy Freight Train set at The Paper Moon, asking price $375. 309-452-2593

From Schurter's Curio Cabinet, a rare Fenton Cactus Opalescent Topaz pitcher & goblets, produced for only six months - $750. 309-925-3031

One attendee described the Top of the Class Antiques Show as "one of the best in central Illinois," and I'm sure pretty near everyone who made their way out to this midwinter event in Normal, Illinois heartily agreed. Forty-plus quality antiques dealers from several states converged at the Illinois State University campus for the three day event held on January 25th through the 27th. Quality was the keyword at the show, where buyers found exceptional pieces around every corner.

From Missouri dealer Zaffir Antique & Decorative Arts, a way-cool 1950s Alamo mahogany lap steel guitar in great shape, asking price $445. 314-276-3469

Fine furnishings is what 4-Ever Lookin' Antiques is best known for, but I found this vintage Coca-Cola soda fountain dispenser there too, price tag $475. 219-863-4515

Country at Heart lived up to its name with a huge display devoted to country & primitive furniture and accessories, including this mid-19th century pie safe in old blue-over-mustard paint, 46" x 60" and priced at $1,195. 815-795-6616

Book Description
 This book is the culmination of many years' work from two authors who have "lived and breathed" the subject for the past forty years: one, a military antiques dealer of international standing; the other, an extremely knowledgeable collector of German World War I uniforms and equipment. Using mostly never before published period photographs as well as a wealth of highly detailed color studio photos of tunics drawn from one of the world's greatest private collections, it is an absolute must for any collector of World War I uniforms. Indeed, for any collector of German World War I memorabilia, laying out as it does in a very clear and precise way, all the variations of tunic, their origins and usage. This reader-friendly book will help guide the novice and experienced collector alike through the often difficult and confusing information on the subject.

Out & About

What crazy weather we have been having. My son asked on our wild drive to work this week, how do people do this in Alaska? I told him, I don't know, but that I was ready for this crazy weather to be over. Don't get me wrong, I enjoy snow, only if I don't have to drive in it. I can only describe what we have been getting as awful. Freezing rain, snow, wind, more snow, frigid cold, all wrapped up in one storm. It always seems then that I have to travel during the storm.

Forty Quality Dealers Meet at Normal, Illinois' Top of the Class Antiques Show

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

Doug Jennings has managed the event since year-one. It's held right on the Illinois State University campus, in the Brown Ballroom of the beautiful Bone Student Center Building. Normal, Illinois, at the crossroads of Interstates 74, 55, and 39 might sound like a long drive, but it's actually only two hours from Chicago, St. Louis, or Indianapolis.

The location of the show is no accident, for Jennings has a day-job too, as a program director with the Illinois State University's School of Communication. The School of Communication here is eight-hundred students strong - with more than two-hundred of them in the Public Relations program. The Show serves as a department fundraiser and learning tool for those P.R. students too: over twenty serve as interns at the three-day event.

That doesn't mean that the show is an amateur affair. Quite the contrary - the event attracts some of the best antiques dealers from the Land of Lincoln and several surrounding states. And with the goal to make the show as balanced as possible, show manager Doug Jennings has crafted a diverse mix of dealers offering everything from country stoneware and vintage toys to advertising, estate jewelry, and more.

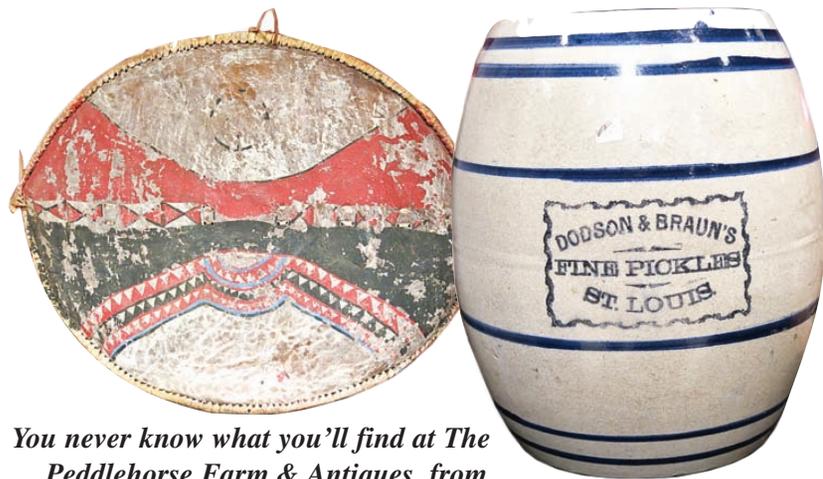

Missouri's Old Paper Boy Antiques was one of those dealers. They brought an eclectic mix of oddities and ephemera, among them period Military posters from both WWI and WWII. Also there: a mint-in-box unassembled Monogram Jumbo 1963 Deuce Coupe plastic model kit, asking price $750.

Shoppers found posters of a very different sort at the nearby display of Academy of Posters: movie posters by the hundred. From classic one-sheet posters to lobby cards, there were examples from classics like Singin' in the Rain to swinging 60s Annette Funicello beach flicks. A rare original watercolor storyboard from the making of the 1956 Audrey Hepburn romantic comedy Funny Face was a highlight there, complete with Paramount Pictures documentation on the back and priced at $800.

Period furniture shoppers couldn't have been disappointed with the selection at the show either. Country at Heart Antiques brought their usual fantastic selection of primitive pieces - plus decorated stoneware to spare. And Peacock Antiques brought some notable pieces as well, my favorite there a country pegged corner secretary with fall-front desk - asking price $895.

More into toys? The Paper Moon had lots to choose from, including some choice litho-tin wind-ups. A rare 1930s Marx Popeye Express toy was one of the best there - price tag $750. Pressed steel toy gems awaited at Mad Cat Antiques, like an early Steelcraft Army Mack Truck ($650) nearly 2'-long; and toys from every era could be found at Bob's Americana, with cast iron examples dating from as early as the 19th century.

I hope the photos will give you an idea of some of the treasures you missed. For more information about the Top of the Class Antiques Show, you can reach show manager Doug Jennings by telephone at 309-438-2872, or through the show's website www.topoftheclassantiques.com. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of next year's Top of the Class Antiques Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

16" diameter electric clock with Postal Telegraph advertising, from The Peddlehorse Farm & Antiques - $275. 715-266-4409

Circa 1960's "Bobby" helmet from Lancashire, England, from Nigel Russell Antiques - $100. 636-947-4703

Among the many finds at Rae Patrick Enterprises: this circa 1910 N. L. White "King" trumpet, heavily engraved and priced at $395. 815-895-6033

Ohio's Robbins Metal Restoration brought a wide array of restored vintage silver, like this ornate 19th century water tankard, asking price $1,200. They can repair, re-plate, and polish all of your fine silver too - just give them a call at 877-257-0596

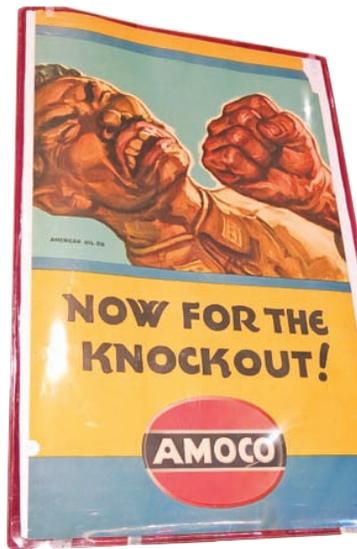

Vintage movies are the focus at Academy of posters, but you'll find much more there, like this original 1953 watercolor storyboard from the 1956 Audrey Hepburn romantic comedy "Funny Face," with Paramount Pictures documentation on the reverse - $800. 217-840-9590

All-original Wyandotte Truck Lines pressed steel hauler, 24" in length, from Bob's Americana - $139. 309-683-0899

British expat Nigel Russell brought a nice selection of memorabilia-of-the-realm, including this 10 1/2" Royal Doulton loving cup commemorating the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in 1953 (and with an image of Elizabeth I on the reverse), one of only 1,000 produced - $850. 636-947-4703

Two very different military posters from Old Paper Boy Antiques: the WWII Amoco example with a dehumanizing depiction of a Japanese soldier priced at $475, the WWI Liberty Loan version at $375. 314-524-9400

It was a wonderland of antique and vintage toys at The Paper Moon, with gems like this 6" Kenton double decker bus complete with passengers ($475) and 1930s Marx Popeye Express litho-tin windup, asking price $750. 309-452-2593

Mike Finley of Old Paper Boy Antiques lends scale to a jumbo 1963 Monogram Big Deuce 1932 Ford Roadster plastic model, mint and unassembled in its original display box - $750. 314-524-9400

Mike Cox of Academy of Posters with a rare 1938 Terry-Toons one-sheet movie poster in fantastic condition, asking price $375. 217-840-9590

J's Antiques came with a choice Gray graniteware in an unusual mottled pattern, with this Dutch "Zeep, Zand, Soda" hanging laundry set priced at $195, the utensil set with hanging rack at $248. 309-635-5374

A wonderful selection of decorated American stoneware awaited at Country at Heart, like this boldly-lettered Sheehan & Co. five gallon jug, asking price $450. 815-795-6616

More mottled gray graniteware from J's Antiques: the nine-egg poacher priced at $95, the nesting set of four mixing bowls at $145. 309-635-5374

Weller Pottery collector Joe Baran was on hand with a wide variety of the famed pottery's works, like this little jug-form Aurelian vase - $180. 847-431-1839

Buck & Wright St. Louis #10 covered cast iron skillet, from Zaffir Antique & Decorative Arts - $325. 314-276-3469

Chicago's Turtle Creek Antiques came with period quilts aplenty, among them this 1920s appliqued quilt in a Rose of Sharon pattern, price tag $285. 773-545-7181

Sporting finds at Jesse Behr Antiques included whole school of tin-boxed Al. Foss Pork Rind Minnow lures, the rarest this No. 3 white example priced at $75. 309-661-2148

Great look to this carved English oak chest from 4-Ever Lookin' Antiques, and priced at only $585. 219-863-4515

From Bob's Americana, a hard-to-find 1930s Bakelite pencil sharpener sporting the image of Our Gang's Spanky McFarlane - $120. 309-683-0899

Peacock Antiques was headquarters for restored antique furniture, my favorite there this country craftsman-made corner secretary with fall-front desk - $895. 309-289-2356

I found this useful country pine dining table at Peacock Antiques: 48" long closed, it opens to 84" by extending the breadboard leaves - $795. 309-289-2356

It was toy collector's heaven at Mad Cat Antiques, with finds like this early Steelcraft US Army Mack Truck, 22" in length - $650. 319-235-8866

Fenton glass is a specialty at Schurter's Curio Cabinet, where the choices included this Lime Green Opalescent Hobnail cruet, asking price $450. 309-925-3031

Circa 1860s Stevens cast iron cap pistol in good working condition, from Bob's Americana - $245. 309-683-0899

Glass anyone? There was no shortage at art glass purveyors Schurter's Curio Cabinet, where I found these Anchor Hocking green ribbed canisters ($90 each) and matching White City Coffee jar - $115. 309-925-3031

Doug Jennings has organized the event from the very first year. He's a long-time antiques collector and dealer, as well as a faculty member at the show's home - the Illinois State University's Normal Campus.

Enthusiasm & Excitement Surrounds Upcoming 63rd Annual Oregon, Illinois Antique Show

The Oregon Woman's Club is putting the finishing touches on what will be their best show yet and this is after a history of great annual events. # Annual 2013 All-Cambridge Glass Auction to Benefit National Museum of Cambridge Glass

The annual All-Cambridge Glass Auction will be held on March 3, 2013 at the Pritchard-Laughlin Civic Center Route 40, just outside Cambridge, Ohio. The preview starts at 8:30 AM with the auction starting at 9:30. Proceeds from the auction sale are used to help maintain the National Museum of Cambridge Glass located at 136 South 9th Street, Cambridge, Ohio.

NCC (National Cambridge Collectors) Members and Non-Members alike are invited to participate, either in person or by absentee bid.

The complete list of items is published in the January issue of the Crystal Ball newsletter (the clubs monthly newsletter). The list is also available on the Clubs web site in a "PDF" format so it can be printed for those who wish to do so. To see a list of items or other photos, please go to www.cambridgeglass.org/auction/auctionhome.php and for a copy of the auction list go to www.cambridgeglass.org/auction/2013auctioncatalog.pdf.

This year we have another great selection of beautiful Cambridge glass for your auction pleasure. Hopefully you will go to the catalog listed above and start making your list. We also have everything photographed so you can let your eyes do the shopping.

A wonderful selection of nude stems awaits you, including a Windsor Blue Flying Lady bowl & a Crystal Flying Lady bowl. We also have the matching candlesticks for both. An Amethyst mint dish, Forest Green Roemer, Topaz/Crown Tuscan cocktail and an all Emerald 7" Sea Shell comport. This is just a partial list of the nude stems.

For the rare items, we have the Ivory Owl lamp, a Mardi Gras triangle shaped vase, a Carmen #1336-18 inch palace vase, a 33 inch wide glass Portiere chain and lots lots more.

If you collect Cambridge Glass or just like elegant glass, this is the auction for you.

Please mark your calendar for March 2nd and plan to attend. Come out and support one of our most important fund raising functions of the year. For those of you too far away to attend in person, please consider an absentee bid. You can bid with confidence that we have described each piece as accurately as possible. We have even made it easier for you this year. You can use a credit card for bidding and shipping.

So don't let that special piece get away. It's easy. For complete information on the auction, including absentee bidding, please visit our web page at www.cambridgeglass.org and click on the auction tab. While you're there, you can again check out pictures of each individual lot, so you can really inspect up close and personal.

The annual Wisconsin Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show will be held from March 6th thru March 9th at the Hilton Gardens Inn at 1355 W. 20th Avenue in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. Take the Highway 44 exit from Highway 41 and turn right on 20th St. to the hotel. The entire show is open to the public for room to room trading on Wednesday night, March 6th and all day and night Thursday and Friday, March 7th & 8th. On Saturday March 9th, the ballroom is set up with scores of collectors and dealers displaying their wares from 8:00 am to 2:30 pm.

Decoys are always the main event at this show but there are all types of sporting collectibles available for all collectors. Items such as duck and goose calls, hunting knives, traps, wildlife paintings and prints, shotshell boxes and cartridges, all types of vintage fishing tackle and a large selection of collectors books will be on hand.

Show chairman Roger Ludwig states that last year all the tables were sold out, but this year the table area will be expanded so hopefully nobody will be turned away. To be safe, get your table reservations in as soon as possible.

Display tables are $50, which includes admission for two. A $20 membership fee is good for 2 admissions to the show and the hospitality room on Friday evening. A $10 membership fee is good for 1 admission to the show and the hospitality room on Friday evening. Don't miss out on the hospitality room as there is always a good supply of great food for all to enjoy.

For information on tables or membership contact Roger Ludwig, 3792 Leonard Point Road, Oshkosh, WI 54904 or call (920) 233-0349 or rogfuzz@charter.net For hotel information call the Hilton Garden Inn at (920)-966-1300

Rummage-A-Rama! This Weekend At Wisconsin State Fair Park

MILWAUKEE, WI – Rummage-A-Rama! is this weekend, February 23rd from 9AM to 5PM and the 24th from 9AM to 4PM at the State Fair Park Wisconsin Products Pavilion.

This mid-winter show is the biggest of the five-show season. A record number of participants, 115 to be exact, will be selling their wares this weekend. Customers travel from all over Southeast Wisconsin to visit this eclectic show. A recent survey by Rummage-A-Rama! revealed that nearly half of customers visit from outside Milwaukee and Waukesha counties. "I think it proves that this event is worth traveling for," says Owner/Producer Tim Gill. "Through cold, snow, wind, and hail, our customers are committed to hunting for treasures and bargains."

Rummage-A-Rama! also regularly attracts new customers. The same survey showed that about 1/5 of the customers at each show are first-time attendees. "A large percentage of our customers hear about the event from a friend or relative." Gill says. "It's contagious!" Rummage-A-Rama! comes to Wisconsin State Fair Park once more this season: April 6-7.

Admission to Rummage-A-Rama! is $4 per person, but patrons who bring a donation of two non-perishable food items for Hunger Task Force get in for $2. Since its return in 2009, Rummage-A-Rama! has collected 71,500 pounds of food through this promotion. As always, kids age 12 and under attend Rummage-A-Rama! for FREE.

FREE parking is available for all Rummage-A-Rama! customers in the North Lot by the Pettit National Ice Center via Gate 6; however, it requires an uphill walk to the Wisconsin Products Pavilion. Preferred parking is available within the park for a $5 fee, as regulated by Imperial Parking, by entering Gate 5 off 84th Street. For the most up-to-date information on Rummage-A-Rama!, visit Rummage-A-Rama.com.

Rummage-A-Rama! is a collective rummage-sale-flea-market event consisting of individual rummage sales and local and regional exhibitors offering an intentional and endless variety of new and used items. Milwaukee's next Rummage-A-Rama! event will be held April 6-7, 2013 at Wisconsin State Fair Park. Find Rummage-A-Rama! on Twitter at twitter.com/rummagearama, and on Facebook at facebook.com/rummagearama. For a complete schedule of show dates for the 2012-2013 season, visit Rummage-A-Rama.com.

RUMMAGE-A-RAMA!, P.O. Box 14101, West Allis, WI 53214 or www.rummage-a-rama.com for more information about Rummage-A-Rama!, or to schedule an interview with Tim Gill, please call Tim directly at 414-899-0893 or email tim@rummage-a-rama.com.

Show Theme "Blooming Antiques"

Iconic perennial favorites as well as unexpected surprises will be represented in a variety of 17th, 18th, 19th and early-20th century antiques at the March 9 & 10, 2013 Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show and Sale in St. Charles, Illinois. The show's theme, "Blooming Antiques", highlights the use of flowers as time-tested embellishments on furnishings and decorative accessories throughout the centuries.

At this semi-annual show, antiques gathered, researched and authenticated by 57 carefully-chosen, invitation-only dealers from 14 states will be offered for sale indoors at the bright and spacious Kane County Fairgrounds' Prairie Events Center. Catered lunch with comfortable seating is available and there is plenty of free parking. Show hours are Saturday, March 9, 10 - 5, and Sunday, March 10, 10 - 4, at the Kane County Fairgrounds, 525 South Randall Road, St. Charles, Illinois 60174 (enter on Randall Road between Routes 38 and 64). A not-for-profit organization, admission of $8 benefits local historical and educational organizations. Discount coupons are available on the CSADA website:

<http://www.csada.com/>

Produced by the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association, the show celebrates our heritage by collaborating with its sponsor, Garfield Farm Museum in LaFox, Illinois. This museum is the only surviving, historically-intact Illinois farmstead being restored as a working 1840's living-history farm and inn, a true asset for teaching American history.

Connect with others who love antiques and history. Share knowledge and exchange stories. Networking with members and dealers at the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association's Fox Valley Antiques Show is always welcome and often yields surprising results. A quick glance at the YouTube video featuring a recent Fox Valley Antiques Show can prepare the first-time visitor for this popular event. (Go to <http://www.csada.com/shows.php>)
