An enthusiastic crowd of antique bottle collectors recently converged at the Country Springs Hotel & Conference Center in Waukesha, Wisconsin - site of the Forty-first Annual Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club Show & Sale.

Antique bottles are the focus at this one-day event, where show-goers can browse through more than one hundred & fifty tables filled with bottles and advertising from Colonial Era to the 20th century. Veteran breweriana collector David Kapsos has been running the show for the past many seasons, and the event is bigger & better than ever, with dealers filling two ball-rooms at the Milwaukee-area resort.

History Comes Alive at the 41st Annual Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Show

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

You only have to walk through the doors of the Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club Show to realize what a popular (and rather unusual) hobby bottle collecting is. Space at the show is always sold out long in advance, with an even longer waiting list for prospective exhibitors. When you talk to the members of the Club, they don't think their pastime is strange at all. But what other hobby is there that has folks scuba diving in frigid Wisconsin waterways in midwinter; thrusting Kevlar glove-clad arms shoulder deep into the bottom muck? Or digging holes several feet wide and deep in the back yards of old homesteads - all with the hope of finding that rare and elusive antique bottle.

A majority of the exhibitors are members of the Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club, one of many similar organizations located throughout the country. It really does seem to be an addictive pursuit, kind of like being an amateur urban archeologist. The fun of the hunt itself is the main motivation, with the majority of the bottles they find selling for pretty modest prices - but sometimes something really special turns up. And bottle collecting is popular all over: avid bottle collector Jim Hall told me that there's a bottle show going on somewhere in America on nearly every weekend throughout the year.

These guys are enthusiastic about their hobby, and when they get started with stories of their recent finds, that enthusiasm becomes contagious. I have to admit - I don't even collect antique bottles, but this show is more fun than just about any other antiques & collectibles show I've ever been to. Most are just passionate collectors, not professional dealers. For them, the show is a reunion of sorts, a chance to reconnect with other bottle collectors from all over the country.

Of course, knowing where to look is the most important part of bottle collecting, whether you're digging or diving. The earliest types of bottles tend to be the most valuable, so collectors become expert in finding collecting sites where the oldest human settlements occurred. In Wisconsin, that would usually mean around the mid-

19th century. I guess it's no surprise that beer bottles are among the most commonly encountered bottles in those early settled areas. Pepper-sauce bottles are common from that era too, as are "patent medicine" bottles that were really more of a socially-accepted form of alcohol than a cure for any disease.

Yes, there are thousands of antique and vintage bottles here to be found here, but they only make up a small part of the show. You'll also find a huge amount of advertising collectibles, much of it beer and soda related. I found everything from pre-prohibition beer posters to huge restored neon signs among the dealer's wares. And the region's most experienced bottle restorers are always here too, offering the latest in cleaning and polishing services.

The bottles most often restored are those that have spent the last century or more buried underground, especially those found in old privy holes. The acids and minerals in the soil create that strange iridescent layer (called glass sickness) on the bottle's surface. Using custom made rigs that are similar to rock tumblers, professional bottle restorers can carefully remove that layer with a slurry of abrasive material and return the bottle to its original appearance.

Bottle collecting truly is a fascinating hobby, where one can literally dig up the past in one's own - or someone else's - backyard. It's a fun bunch of people who make up the Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club, and the show is just as much fun to attend - even if you're not a bottle & advertising enthusiast. Or even better, go to www.milwaukeebottleclub.org and become a member. The venerable club is actively seeking new members, and is also premiering an autumn edition of its show this year. It'll happen on September 8th at the iconic Mitchell Park Conservatory, more popularly referred to as "The Domes."

If you have questions about either show, you can contact show organizer David Kapsos at 608-838-8041, or email him at bottleshows@charter.net. And don't forget to pencil in next year's 42nd Annual Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club Show for February of 2014, and as always, keep an eye out for listings of the show in the Auction Action Antique News!

003a Longtime bottle fanatic David Kapsos organizes the Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Show with lots of help from wife Debbie. For more info, give Dave a call at 608-838-8041, or email him at bottleshows@charter.net

Badger State beer trays at Opera House Antiques included this horse & dog-themed Citizens Brewing Co. (Antigo, WI) 13" square example. 920-755-4820

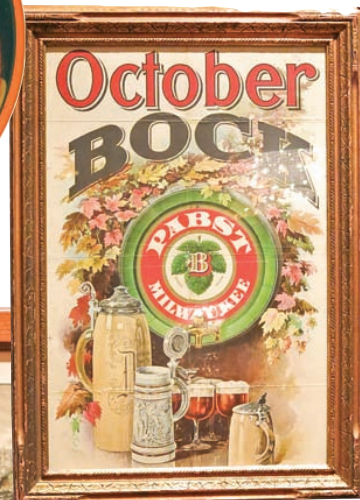

Two great period lithographs from John Steiner: the rare 1920s Miller Malt Syrup example priced at $950, the 1933 Cream City Brewing Co. Pilsner poster at $350. 262-252-3513

Rich Yahr brought beer trays from all eras, like this Peoples Beer/Old Derby Ale example - $165. 262-626-4369

Two-tone E. Ferris stoneware beer bottle, from Opera House Antiques - $125. 920-755-4820

Two exceptional early brewery lithographs from Rich Yahr: take your pick of the 24" x 30" Pabst Brewing Co. factory scene or the 20" x 30" Pabst October Bock Beer poster for $1,395. 262-626-4369

Two colorful local beer trays from Wausau's Stony Creek Antiques: the Red Ribbon Beer (Wausau) tray priced at $165, the Leidiger Select Beer (Merrill, WI) tray at $175.

Carey of Kountry Koop Antiques with an unusual Conoco Oil Lease marker sign from Ward County, Texas - $250. 920-699-2802

Two fashion-themed litho-tin trays from Bob's Antiques: the Edelweiss Beer version priced at $225, the Union Bottling Works tray at $700. 262-242-3968

Two etched glass rarities from Stony Creek Antiques: the Falk, Jung, & Borchert (Milwaukee) glass priced at $650, the Biedermann & Co. (Port Washington, WI) at $375.

Among the selection of patented golden amber glass canning jars in Jim & Jodi Hall's display sat this 'The Leader' example ($450) and 'Lightning' jar, asking price $115. 847-249-3715

I found this group of vintage Gittleman Milwaukee Beer press-board signs in Scott & Christy Campbell's display - take your pick for only $75. 262-569-5772

Period lithographs at Scott & Christy Campbell Antiques ranged from this 1904 Val. Blatz Brewing Co. calendar with Montana advertising (16" x 24", $850) to this charming 1925 Gridley Milk poster, 20" x 26" - $325. 262-569-5772

You'll find bottles from all eras and uses at the show, from early whiskey flasks and medicine bottles to beer bottles by the thousand.

There are only a few known examples of the Otto Zweitusch, Milwaukee quart bottle. Here, bottle-hound Steve Soike shows his example, a restored beauty with an asking price of $1,000. 414-281-7558

From Steve Soike: a P. H. Altpeter, Milwaukee, Wis. brown quart bottle, asking price $600. 414-281-7558

A lovely lady and her horse adorn this litho-tin wall plaque from Bob's Antiques, with Mt. Rainier Pure Malt Extract advertising on the back - $350. 262-242-3968

And while Bottles are the main focus at the show, you'll find advertising of all sorts here, like this 22" Garens Clothes, Milwaukee advertising thermometer at Kountry Koop Antiques. 920-699-2802

Debbie Markiewicz of Bob's Antiques with a Native American Maiden-themed North Star Shoe lithograph poster, dated 1907 and priced at $2,600. 262-242-3968

Steve Hochhalter of The Glass Artisan always makes an appearance at the show. He's been professionally restoring antique bottles for more than a decade - give him a call at 414-281-5885 for all the details.

Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Club president Steve Libbey is an enthusiastic advocate for the group, spearheading a new membership drive that was in full-force at the February 10th Show. You can see what's up with the group (or print a membership application) at www.milwaukeebottleclub.org.

A trio of 19th century flasks from Minnesota's Steve Ketcham: the Norwegian cobalt glass flask priced at $178, the salt-glazed stoneware example at $99, and the Masonic-themed blue-green glass flask at $499. 952-221-0915

A trio of Hamm's Beer rippling water motion signs from Brewery-Soda Advertisements, priced from $225-$475. 414-416-8121

Steven "Mr. Bottles" Libbey always brings some ultra-rare finds to the show, this time including a Dr. Bourbon's Aromatic Forest Bitters (Madison, WI) pint bottle, the only known example & valued at $5,000. Be sure to take a look at his amazing website www.mrbottles.com for tons of info on bottles from the Badger State and beyond.

James Rowley came with part of his huge collection of post-Prohibition enameled beer glasses, which replaced the earlier pre-Prohibition etched glasses. Rarities there included two different Chief of all Beer (Peoria) chaser glasses, price tag $300 each. 608-849-9310

Collector & author James Rowley has penned a series of breweriana guidebooks, his latest "A Guide to Enameled Beer Barrel Glasses." Give Jim a call at 608-849-9310, or email him at freedom1996@tds.net to get a copy!

I found this colorful Anheuser-Busch on Draught flange sign in Steve Ketcham's display, asking price $699. 952-221-0915

The Country Springs Hotel & Conference Center hosted the 41st Annual Milwaukee Antique Bottle & Advertising Show, where one hundred & fifty tables of treasures filled two ballrooms at the beautiful Waukesha, Wisconsin facility.

Early bitters & medicine bottles dominated the display of 1890 Glass Company, with oddities like this log-form Tippecanoe amber glass medicine bottle made by H. H. Warner & Co - price tag $225. 262-377-9611

This book is primarily a reference for the most famous revolver manufactured by Eli Whitney, Jr. during the late-1850s and throughout the American Civil War. The Whitney Navy Revolver documents the results of a two-year research project and provides clear and current information on the various models and types. A thorough description along with photographs of each model and type of Whitney Navy revolver is found in this book. In addition to serving as a reference work, this book provides a brief history of the firearms development and marketing efforts of Eli Whitney, Jr. along with extensive information on the use of his revolvers by both the North and South during the Civil War. Photographs of Union and Confederate soldiers with Whitney revolvers are included, along with a photograph of the Whitney revolver used by Confederate cavalry commander, General JEB Stuart. Much additional information is found in this book, including photographs of engraved revolvers, cartridge conversion models, and other revolvers that were copies of the Whitney Navy revolver. This book is a must for collectors and students of historical firearms.

Winchester 94 Wisconsin Home State Gun Brings $1,350 at Pientka Auction

Article & Photos by Col. George Pientka

I have been an auctioneer since of 2001, I could not pursue this career because of full time job with Delmonte. I retired in June of 2010 After 31 years of service to this company. As of 2010 I have put up a website and joined Portage business console. I have coaxed some of our family into helping as you can see.

The top item of auction was a 30-30 model 94 Winchester Home state gun made for the state of Wisconsin Portage county, 24kt gold plated sold for $1350.00. Top coin was a 1885 Carson City Morgan silver dollar sold for $525. Top Packers item was a Bart Starr signed picture sold for $230. The auction was held at Parkridge Family Restaurant located at 5110 Main Street, Stevens Point, Wisconsin at the intersection of Hwy. 10 & I-39 adjacent to the Econo Lodge. The turn out was great, as we had people from 24 different towns and cities from around Wisconsin, as far away as Phillips, Lacrosse and Granton, WI.

Prices realized on coin items: Morgan silver dollar 1878 Carson City $120; Morgan silver dollar 1880 Carson City $110; Morgan silver dollar 1882 Carson City $110; Morgan silver dollar 1883 Carson City $175; Morgan silver dollar 1884 Carson City $210; Morgan silver dollar 1885 Carson City $525; Morgan silver dollar 1888 Carson City $95; Morgan silver dollar 1890 Carson City $100; Morgan silver dollar 1888-S $130; Peace silver dollar 1921 $105; Peace silver dollar 1928 $340; Franklin half dollar book (35 coins) 1948 to 1963 $550; Walking Liberty silver dollar book 29 coins 1986 to 2012 $1090; 1853 21/2 dollar gold piece $255.

You can contact us at 715-341-8076, Email: geoanddoe@charter.net or visit our website at: www.pientkauction.com.

Silverain Pientka Granddaughter & Dorothy Pientka (Granma) auctioneer's wife. My wife Dorothy controls the flow of the auction and what items should come up and sell next. She knows every aspect of the auction business. Clerking, Cashier, Runner and after the auction she makes sure everthing comes out right and balances. (Book work) The only thing she don't do is call for bids. I would be lost with out her. As you see it is almost all family that help, Dorothy and I.

Over 2,400 Lots of Various Categories of Antiques will be Sold April 12-14 by Showtime Auction Services in Ann Arbor, MI

The auction will be held at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds, 5055 Ann Arbor/Saline Rd.

Circa 1880s wooden cigar store Indian, 83 inches tall, possibly carved by Thomas Brooks (est. $50,000-$75,000).

Extremely rare Mills Silver Cup trade stimulator slot machine, one of only four known (est. $30,000-$50,000).

known and in excellent, restored working order (est. $30,000-$50,000); and a full set of War Eagle slot machines with various denominations represented (est. $10,000-$15,000).

Native American Sioux beaded horse saddle blanket, very rare and in excellent condition (est. $2,500-$4,500).

Over 2,400 lots from three major collections of country store, pedal cars, toys and firefighting memorabilia will be offered the weekend of Apr. 12-14 by Showtime Auction Services, at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds, 5055 Ann Arbor/Saline Road in Ann Arbor. Internet bidding will be facilitated by both LiveAuctioneers and iCollector.

Headlining the event will be the outstanding lifetime collection of Bill and Kathie Gasperino. The couple is well known in antique circles as having one of the finest country store and advertising collections in the United States. Also sold will be Part 2 of the Robert and Harriett Potter firefighting collection and Part 3 of the Ed and Christy Ramsey collection of pedal cars and toys.

"This is shaping up as our best spring auction ever," said Mike Eckles of Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven, Mich. "Country store and advertising collectors will be astounded by what the Gasperinos have gathered over the years, the Potters have a vast accumulation of firefighting equipment, apparatus and memorabilia spanning 50-plus years, and the Ramsey collection covers 35 years."

In addition, bidders will be treated to the usual lengthy list of categories that have come to typify a Showtime Auction sale: country store, advertising signs, store tins, soda fountain, Coca-Cola, Western, Native American, farm signs, whiskey, breweriana, match safes, drug store, barber shop, general store, saloon, post office, coin-op, arcade, scales, gambling, cigar and tobacco tins, cash registers, petroliana, show-cases, store fixtures, millinery and more.

One of the expected star lots is an 1880s cigar store Indian with forged iron wheels, with attributes suggesting it was carved by Thomas Brooks (est. $50,000-$75,000). The figure is 83 inches tall (including the base), in very good condition and with most of the original paint intact. Also sold will be an excellent 1870s zinc cigar store Indian by William Demuth of New York.

Just two of the many rare and desirable automobilia and petroliana items being offered will include a Kelly Tire tin sign in good original condition, 24 inches in diameter (est. $15,000-$25,000), and a Hudson neon outdoor dealer sign in near-mint condition (est. $12,000-$15,000).

Bidders will be impressed by the rare Mills Silver Cup trade stimulator slot machine, one of only four Munsingwear tin die-cut store display, complete with three boxes of product, excellent condition (est. $2,000-$4,000).

West Coast breweriana collectors will doubtless do battle over the Bellingham Bay Beer reverse glass sign, housed in its original frame, 19 1/2 inches in diameter (est. $20,000-$30,000); and a rare Buffalo Brewery reverse glass corner sign with factory scene (est. $30,000-$45,000).

Certain to garner attention is a spectacular saloon back bar with four fancy columns with cast-iron embellishments, impressive at 12 1/2 feet by 9 1/2 feet (est. $25,000-$50,000). The back bar boasts high relief applied trim, beveled mirrors, marble top, slag glass cameos and original lights. Also sold will be a bank wall with teller window, post office, hardware wall unit, soda fountain front and back bar, plus many other desirable turn-of-the-century store fixtures.

Vintage cars will roar off with new owners at the wheel. These include a fresh-to-the-market 1948 Pontiac "Woody" 8-cylinder 4-speed station wagon with Hydramatic transmission, mechanically sound and ready for a road trip (est. $30,000-$40,000); and an eye-catching 1947 Fleet Mfg. "cabin car" wood tear-drop travel trailer, 14 feet in length (est. $3,000-$5,000).

1948 Pontiac "Woody" station wagon, 8-cylinder, 4-speed, with Hydramatic transmission, ready for the road (est. $30,000-$40,000).

If cash registers are your collectible of choice, this auction features more than 15 rare National Cash Registers, ranging from $1,000-$7,000 in value. One is sure to stand out, though. It's a National Cash Register Model 6 (commonly known as "the barber shop model") and it has been fully restored to its original condition, with an extended oak base (est. $3,000-$4,500).

Native American items will include an 1890 Sioux beaded horse saddle blanket in excellent condition (est. $2,500-$4,500). The early saddle blankets are some of the more rare beaded pieces available for collectors. Also being sold will be many other beaded Native American artifacts, to include moccasins, gauntlets, pipe bag, a complete suit and a baby's cradle.

Many rare store displays and products will come under the gavel, such as a Munsingwear tin die-cut store display in excellent condition, with 9 1/2 inch square base and 45 inches tall (est. $2,000-$4,000). It is one of four Munsingwear tin displays to be sold, along with other makers.

The first day of the auction – Friday, Apr. 12 – will be for the live audience only (no phone or Internet bidding). The hours will be 10-6 (EST), with previews on Thursday, Apr. 11, from noon to 5 p.m. and Friday from 8-10 a.m. The next two days – Apr. 13-14 – will feature live, Internet, absentee and phone bidding. Auction hours are Saturday from 9-6 (with a preview from 8-9 a.m.) and Sunday from 10-6 (with uncataloged items for live bidding only from 8-10 a.m.).

The host hotel for this auction is Weber's Hotel, located at 3050 Jackson Avenue in Ann Arbor. For reservations, call (734) 769-2500. Room trading will go on each evening after the auction. Catalogs will be mailed out around Mar. 7. To order a full-color 208-page catalog, call Amy at (734) 675-6265.

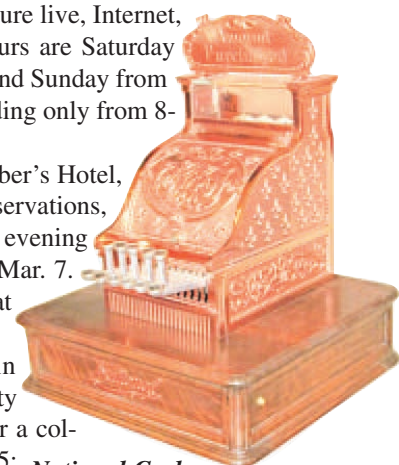

Showtime Auction Services is based in Woodhaven, Mich. The firm is always accepting quality items for future sales. New Show, Old Memories, A New Tradition!

What could be more fun than strolling around in a historic and beautiful country setting all the while looking at interesting antique objects and art, and then to find a resting spot for some delicious food? Antiques and collectables not your thing! Then appreciate the skill of handmade items shown by artists and craftsman, or select some nicely shaped topiary or planter for your yard or porch. Where does one find such a place? We are happy to announce the NEW Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show to be held at the historic Sandwich Illinois Fairgrounds on the second Sunday of each month beginning May 12.

The NEW Sunday at Sandwich Antiques show is being promoted by Blue Antique Productions, the group will launch their up-dated version of a monthly antiques and collectables Market. With memories of the days of past mega antiques markets at sandwich in mind, the Blue Antique Productions group will advertise the event and use their contacts and experience as antique dealers to give the public and exhibitors a quality show.

Are you a collector, craftsman, or antique person and are looking for a NEW place to show your wares? Visit our web-site at: www.sundayatsandwichantiques.com for dates, times and to download a dealer contract. If you prefer call 847-321-1712 or 309-310-3596 to request a mailed copy. Indoor and outdoor spaces available on a first come, first served basis. You will want to be a part of this NEW antique show, whether you're a returning sandwich dealer or a new one, the NEW Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show wants to hear from you.

Annual Badger Knife Club Show Coming to Janesville, Wisconsin

The Badger Knife Club, Inc. was founded in 1984 by a few knife-collecting enthusiasts. It has grown into a collector's club with about 500 members in the upper Midwest region. The club publishes a quarterly newsletter and meets four times a year in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. They sponsor what will be the 30th annual Badger Knife Show in Janesville, Wisconsin, held this year on March 22, 23 and 24, 2013.

The interest in knife collecting and making is supported by the mission statement of the Badger Knife Club, which is to encourage all aspects in the collecting and making of knives by providing a resource of information on all types of knives, making aware and expressing opinions concerning legislation affecting knives and enhancing the value of collections through expanded knowledge and demand.

The club includes members who are interested and knowledgeable about all types of knives, including: Antique factory made pocket and hunting knives, current production knives, custom made and hand made knives, and tactical and military knives

For contact information, go to the club website at www.badgerknifeclub.org or e-mail to badgerknifeclub@aol.com or call at 414-479-9765 or cell at 414-379-6819.

Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors' Convention

This year, Betty Harrington, principal designer for Ceramic Arts Studio of Madison, would have turned 100. To mark the occasion, CAS Collectors is throwing an extra-special party! The theme of the group's 2013 Convention, set for Saturday, August 24th, 2013 in Madison, is "Happy Birthday, Betty! A CAS Family Reunion!" In addition to celebrating "Betty's 100th", collectors will also celebrate the enduring appeal of Ceramic Arts figurines, which brightened homes from coast to coast during the 1940s and '50s, and continue to brighten hearts today.

From 9 am to 4 pm on August 24th, 2013 Convention attendees will take in the Wisconsin Pottery Association Show & Sale at the Alliant Energy Center. Later, all will gather at Madison's Howard Johnson Plaza for the Convention festivities, with activities and décor centered around a fun-filled "birthday party" theme. There'll be games from long ago, party favors and hats, souvenirs, colorful centerpieces, - even a birthday cake! In short, everything that makes family reunions so unforgettable.

Getting the evening underway will be a social hour, and the popular "CAS On Display Contest"; all in attendance are invited to submit entries. A buffet dinner, raffle, and membership meeting will be followed by the club's annual auction, featuring professional auctioneer Shirley Baumann. Events will conclude with door prizes, and presentation of the 2013 CAS Collectors Commemorative.

Convention registration, which remains at $60 per person, includes all evening activities, plus the Commemorative. Registrations received by May 31st will be eligible for an "Earliest Earlybird" prize drawing, to be held at the Convention. Forms and additional information are available on the club's website, www.cascollectors.com, or by writing CAS Collectors, 206 Grove Street, Rockton, IL 61072. Membership in CAS Collectors is open to all those with an interest in the work of Ceramic Arts Studio.

Celebrate the heritage of Ceramic Arts Studio-and take a stroll down memory lane-at the nineteenth CAS Collectors Convention. Ceramics collectors from near and far will gather August 24th, for "Happy Birthday, Betty! A CAS Family Reunion!". It's the kind of wonderful get-together that only comes around once every 100 years!
