Fertile Ground for Collectors at Stade Auction Company Farm Estate Auction in Jefferson County, WI

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

A lot of auctioneers advertise that "there's something for everyone" at a sale. It was true in spades at the April 1st Stade Auction Company estate auction, where thousands of items sold right from the Lloyd Hake Century Farmstead just outside of Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. Antique farm implements were Lloyd's main collecting interest, and there were hundreds of examples, from cherry pitters to potato harvesters to some choice vintage tractors. A John Deere Model B tractor proved to be the best of those at $2,300, but it was slightly newer form of transport that was the top-lot of the day: a 2005 Arctic Cat 400 ATV that drove off for $4,100.

This massive farm wagon was in great shape, and sold for $1,150.

This clean & complete Red Wing four-gallon churn made a surprising $370.

It took a $4,100 bid to drive this low-miles Arctic Cat ATV.

Best of the tractors: this full-fendered John Deere Model B that sold for $2,300.

Best of the period furniture: this curved-glass oak china cabinet that fetched $550.

St. Norbert College Hosts 21st Annual AR Promotions De Pere Antiques Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

When you think Wisconsin history, you naturally think of the city of De Pere. The city is among the oldest settlements in the state, or in the entire Midwest, for that matter. I guess it's fitting then, that the historic town plays host every year to one of the largest and most popular antique events in Wisconsin: the AR Promotions De Pere Antiques Show, now in its twenty-first season. St. Norbert College hosts the show, where sixty-five dealers filled the Schuldes Sports Center with quality antiques of every description. Spring was in the air for the event, held in this Green Bay suburb on March 16th and 17th, and was busy with shoppers from start to finish.

From Princeton, Wisconsin's MNM Antique Mall, a painted tin Abbott Grocery Co. four-compartment coffee bin, 48" in length & priced at $795. 920-295-0176

From Weather Vane Antiques, a cast iron carousel horse head, asking price $1,225. 262-375-0641

From Schurter's Curio Cabinet, a matched pair of Hubbell brass electric sconces with marked Steuben Gold Aurene shades - $1,995. These fixtures originally graced the Tabor Grand Hotel in Leadville, Colorado, and are marked with the patent date 1904. 309-925-3031

Maple City Pottery to Sponsor Crock Fest

Red Wing, MN – The Red Wing Collectors Society announces today that Maple City Pottery of Monmouth, IL will sponsorCROCK FEST – Friday, July 12, 2013 - held in conjunction with the organization's annual Convention – Diggin' Red Wing – slated for July 11-13 in Red Wing, MN.

CrockFest was launched last year as a celebration of the Red Wing Collectors Society's 35th Anniversary to bring the Red Wing collectors and the City of Red Wing together to celebrate the organization's milestone and the rich pottery history of the city. On the success of the event, the RWCS wanted to make this community and collector event a permanent one for future Conventions; but it needed a sponsor.

On the heels of Red Wing Stoneware and Red Wing Pottery becoming sponsors of the overall 2013 Convention, Stacy Wegner, RWCS executive director, approached RWCS Commemorative Manager, Bob Morawski, about the possibility of Maple City expanding their participation in Convention. From that, the sponsorship of CrockFest became a reality.

"We are very excited to grow our relationship with the Red Wing Collectors Society by sponsoring CrockFest!" said Mellissa Schrock of Maple City Pottery. "We have our pottery wheels spinning with ideas for a limited edition piece for the event."

"I knew they would be as excited as we were to keep this exciting event going for 2013 and take a more active role in the Convention in Red Wing." said Bob Morawski, commemorative manager.

CrockFest 2013 will be Friday, July 12 from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. in Red Wing Central Park, Red Wing, MN. The Cruisers will return for a live performance. Meatheads Meats and Deli and Liberty's Restaurant have already signed on as food vendors for 2013, and more vendors are expected. The Red Wing Arts Association is promoting CrockFest through its summerConcerts in the Park series and with facility support. Everyone is welcome to come to Red Wing Central Park for music, food and fun.

Maple City Pottery was founded in 1987 and is located Monmouth, IL. Last year the pottery celebrated its 25th Anniversary. The Pottery produced the RWCS annual Commemorative for more 3 years. Last year, Maple City Pottery commemorated the 10,000 piece made for the RWCS in conjunction with their respective anniversaries.

The Red Wing Collectors Society Convention is slated for July 11-13, 2013 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing. To learn more about CrockFest, the annual Convention, or the Red Wing Collectors Society, visit www.RedWingCollectors.org or find them on Facebook or follow on Twitter.

Lloyd Hake Century Farmstead Site of Fantastic Stade Auction Company Estate Auction

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

When has spring arrived? For most folks it might mean the return of the daffodils or when the grass starts to grow, but for auction enthusiasts there's another gauge: the first big outdoor farm auction. And this year that happened on April 1st, date of the Bill Stade Auction Company's Lloyd Hake farm estate auction.

Lloyd lived on the farm his whole life, and was well-known in the area as an inveterate collector and auction-goer. The farmstead itself was about as picturesque as could be, a white frame house reached by crossing a babbling stream on the farm's very own covered bridge. Lloyd milked cattle for much of his life, which seems appropriate as the farm is just a few miles from that of William Hoard, the early Wisconsin Governor who's best known as the father of the state's dairy industry.

Another bit of historical trivia from the area: just down the road from the farm in the tiny hamlet of Cold Spring, Abraham Lincoln had his horse stolen while camping on his way home from the Blackhawk War, forcing him to walk the three-hundred miles back to New Salem, Illinois.

It was a sunny-but-brisk April Fool's Day Saturday for the sale itself, but that didn't deter anyone from coming, as there were well over one-hundred folks assembled on the lawn by auction-time. The farm had been owned by the Hake farm for more than a century, and as is the case with many Wisconsin farms, they seem to have kept just about everything. Like the row of washing machines from antique wooden tubs to vintage Maytags in the front yard. Or the succession of cream separators lined up in front of the milking shed. The same was true of the household furnishings, which ranged from Victorian to Mid Century Modern.

It was the antique farm implements, however, that were the big draw of the day. You might collect postcards or petroliana, but there are folks out there that fancy something different – like hand-cranked corn shellers or silage cutters. And there were plenty of both at this sale! A cast iron Rumley model was the winner among the shellers at $390, with a Smalley Mfg. silage cutter right behind at $350. A Mann's Green Bone cutter (used to crush bones as a feed additive) did well too, fetching $390. Beating them all: a Sears & Roebuck dual-basket cider press that made $450.

Of course, the vintage tractors, mostly in good condition, had plenty of bidders too. That John Deere Model B sporting full fenders was the crowd favorite, selling for $2,300. The two Farmalls, a Model C and a Model M, both found ready buyers at $1,800 and $1,750. Other auction highlights: a jumbo farm wagon in nice condition that made $1,150, and a very clean Red Wing four-gallon churn that brought a surprising $370. All in all, it was a good time for all. I hope the photos give you a small idea of what you missed. The Bill Stade Auction team did their usual terrific job handling the sale, as they've done for the past fifty-six years.

Auctioneers for the day were Bill & Mike Stade. The Bill Stade Auction Company has been serving the Badger State for over half a century, conducting more than one-hundred auctions of all kinds each year. A quick look at their auction calendar showed seven different auctions in the first week of April alone! They can be reached at 262-585-2431. Don't forget to bookmark their website www.stadeauction – and take a look at the many Wisconsin farm and residential properties for sale there too. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming auction listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

It took a $450 bid to win this Sears & Roebuck twin-basket cider press complete with grinder.

I think every washing machine the family ever owned was still here, with a group of three Maytags bringing $180.

Refinished 19th century cherry chest - $300.

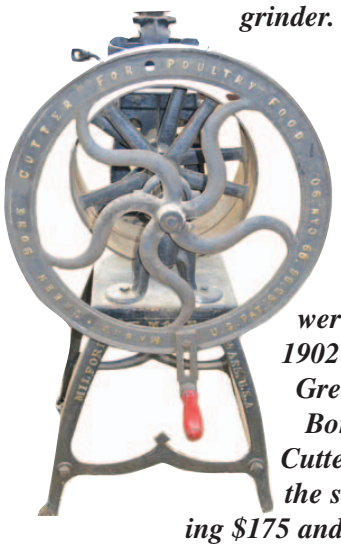
Golden oak chest with applied carvings - $170.

Mahogany-cased Victor VV-100 phonograph - $140.

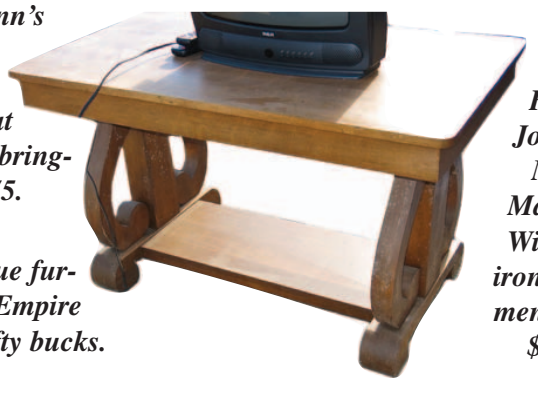
Set of four cane-seat side chairs - $100.

A $100 bill bought this early 1900s oak dresser with mirror.

There were some kinda-nice Mid Century furnishings, like this sofa & chair set that brought only $34.



There were two circa 1902 Mann's Green Bone Cutter's at the sale, bringing $175 and $375.



There were plenty of antique furniture deals, including this Empire library table that sold for fifty bucks.

Fuller & Johnson Mfg. Madison Wis. cast iron implement seat - $150.

There was plenty of interest in this Rumley & Co hand-crank corn sheller that later sold for $390.

A $300 bid took this horse-drawn four-row seeder.

Agricultural oddities were everywhere, from this dangerous-looking gas buzz saw ($150) to many horse-drawn potato harvesters – this one bringing $60.

This four milk can cart brought $140, the horse-drawn Chadborn & Coldwell reel mower $300.

Belle City Mfg. Co. (Racine, Wisconsin) silage cutter - $325.

Yes, laundry must have been a breeze with this gas-powered tub washer – it sold for $175.

Two more silage cutters: the AAA Co. example (left) bringing $160, the Smalley Mfg. (Manitowoc, WI) version $350.

Sears Farm Master glass churn - $70.

Stoneware prices were mostly strong; with this Stone Mason Fruit jar & jug selling as a pair for $150.

A few of the many cream separators at the sale, the better ones fetching $200 or more.

Gale one-row seeder - $210.

A $1,000-bill bought this vintage Minneapolis Moline Model Z tractor.

This vintage Allis Chalmers lawn tractor brought $350, the Simplicity $700.

A $250 bidder took this steel-wheeled wooden push-cart.

Extra-rough Farmall Model H tractor - $675.

Two vintage Farmall tractors: the Model M bringing $1,750, the Model C $1,800.

Challenger Wind Mill burr mill, original stenciling - $250.

Choice of five-gallon Red Wing jugs yielded a $120 bid.

Bill Stade is one of the most experienced auctioneers in the business, calling his first auction more than 56 years ago!

15 & 10 gallon Red Wing crocks brought $90 and $70.

A $200 bid won this pretty-cool Johnson Skee-Horse snowmobile.

Restored oak secretary/bookcase - $300.

A $240 bid won this carved oak mirror & hat rack.

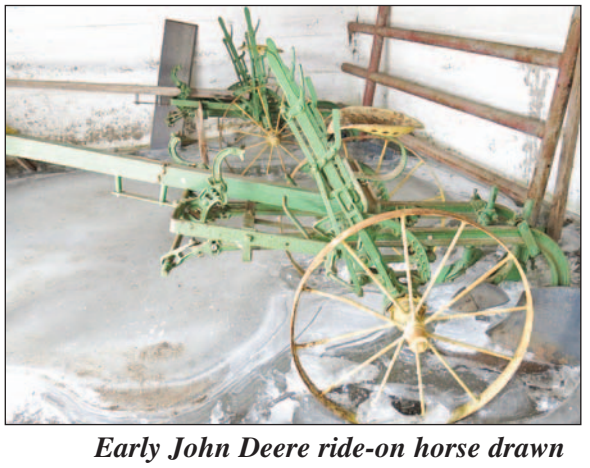
Hand-painted floral Limoges ewer - $60.

6' long claw-foot display case - $275.

This petite-sized oak chine/buffet brought $525.

There weren't any hit & miss engines at the sale, but there was a hard-to-find cart to fit one that brought $260.

Early John Deere and International Harvester walking plows brought $250 and $240.



Early John Deere ride-on horse drawn plows brought $200 and $275.

Shadow box display filled with vintage ethnic dolls - $100.

Early one-man crosscut saw - $140.

The sale was held right on the farm near Jefferson, Wisconsin - complete with a civil-war era home, rushing stream, and covered bridge!

Hundreds turned out for the century-farm sale, held on a sunny-but-brisk April 1st Monday.

History Comes Alive at 21st Annual De Pere, Wisconsin Antiques Show & Sale

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

It was more than three-hundred and seventy years ago, the year 1634 to be exact, that famed French Voyageur Jean Nicolet and his crew traversed the Great Lakes, paddled into a huge cove on Lake Michigan, and stepped ashore where the Fox River enters what is now known as Green Bay. He thus became the first known European to enter what became Wisconsin. Nicholet was met by members of the Ho-Chunk Nation, and established a trading post at the site.

Within forty years of that landing, two Jesuit missions had become established in the area. One was erected in what is now the city of Green Bay, the other by Pere Claude-Jean Allouez at the last set of rapids on the Fox River, a site known as Rapides Des Peres, or Rapids of the Fathers. That mission, the St. Francis Xavier Mission, was the foundation of the town that came to be known as De Pere.

Fast forward a couple of centuries and you come to another of the city's defining moments: the founding of St. Norbert College, host of the De Pere Antiques Show. Opened in 1898 by Abbot Bernard Pennings, the college is now one of the region's premier educational institutions. The college offers undergraduate programs in more than forty areas of study, and enrolls about two-thousand students. St. Norbert is consistently ranked as one of the top five comprehensive colleges in the Midwest by U.S. News & World Report, and is also listed among the "Best in the Midwest" by Princeton Review.

The college has hosted the De Pere Antiques Show since its start more than two decades ago. "This show was the first on-site antiques show I'd ever done" said Audré Hanson of A R Promotions. "I had started a mall show in Wausau a few years earlier, but always felt there was a need for a quality antiques show in the Green Bay area. It turned out to be true, and it's still the largest show I run, with consistently over sixty-five dealers."

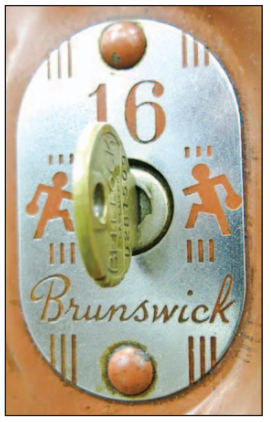
Virginia Wierman Antiques has been among those dealers for many years. The eclectic inventory there ranged from English fine art to WWII artifacts. And first-time exhibitor Picker's Playground had an equally-wide selection of merchandise that included both a huge milk glass clock face rescued from a Cincinnati building to a tiny Native American child's vest, heavily beaded front & back.

Art glass more your thing? Schurter's Curio Cabinet had hundreds of pieces to choose from - the best a matched pair of Hubbell electric sconces sporting Steuben Gold Aurene shades that had originally graced the lobby of the Tabor Grand Hotel in Leadville, Colorado. Shoppers found more great glass at K-J Antiques, including a spectacular pair of 19th century Baccarat glass candelabras. From vintage advertising at Ted Slaton Art & Antiques to primitives at J & L Antiques to jewelry galore at Laura's Collectibles, you'd be hard pressed to not find something to love among the sixty-plus dealers at the De Pere Antiques Show.

When you're done seeing the sights at the show itself, be sure to take a stroll through the beautiful St. Norbert College campus, situated right on the shores of the Fox River. Those a little more adventurous can follow in the footsteps of the voyageurs on the Fox River Trail, a twenty-five mile hiking, biking, and equestrian trail that passes right through De Pere on its way to the shores of Lake Michigan in Green Bay proper.

Audré & Ray Hanson of A R Promotions did their usual great job organizing the event. If you missed the show, you'll be able to visit some of these same dealers at two other A R Promotions shows scheduled for later this year.

Their popular Door County Antique Show & Sale will be here before you know it, at the Gibraltar High School in Fish Creek on July 18th through the 20th. And the Park Holiday Antique Show is the last of the A R Promotions events for 2013, held each November at Marathon Park in Wausau. For more information on any of their shows, A R Promotions can be reached at 715-355-5144. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming show listings in the Auction Action Antique News!



Funky 1940s finds at Traditions included a Brunswick bowling alley locker - and a 48" square wooden game board, asking price $245. 715-571-4548

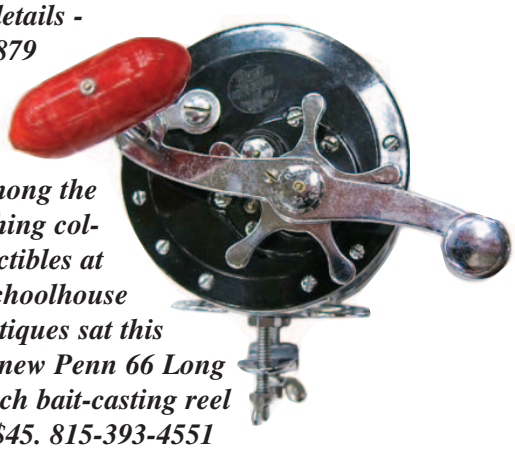
Strange boothmates at Virginia Wierman Antiques: the WWII German helmets priced at $85 and $350, the 19th century David Hicks English landscape at $495. 715-720-9092

You'll find show promoter Audré Hanson, along with hubby Ray, at every AR Promotions event. They're among the most successful of Badger State show organizers, having produced hundreds of events over the years – from southern Wisconsin to Eagle River in the great Northwoods.

Antiques purveyor Virginia Wierman lends scale to a vintage carved wood & gesso mermaid, price tag $850. 715-720-9092

Best of the art glass at K-J Antiques: this matched pair of 19th century Baccarat candelabras with gilt & enameled details - $3,295 for the set. 920-725-4879

Pearmont Antiques was toy-central at the show, but they brought lots more, like this near-mint Ward's Orange Crush syrup dispenser, price tag $1,395. 920-210-4101



Among the fishing collectibles at Schoolhouse Antiques sat this like-new Penn 66 Long Beach bait-casting reel - $45. 815-393-4551

There were several 19th century caster sets to choose from at K-J Antiques, like this Vaseline thumbprint glass example ($195) and clear glass version with built-in bud vase - $245. 920-725-4879

Village Blacksmith Antiques displayed this unusual 19th century English double top-hat traveling case ($345, complete with key) and a Milwaukee-labeled beaver top-hat to fit it, asking price $145. 920-993-9817

There was plenty of antique kitchenalia at Out on the Farm Antiques, plus this two-tone Quebec Maple Syrup stoneware jug, asking price $175. 920-294-3068

Anchoring the display of first-time exhibitors Picker's Playground was this jumbo 1922 milk glass & copper clock face originally from a Cincinnati clock tower, asking price $2,500. 715-258-3865

Highlights at The Peddlehorse Farm & Antiques included this litho-tin Sergeant's Dog Medicines store display cabinet ($675) and salt glazed six-gallon churn, asking price $575. 715-266-4409

I found this tiny Woodland Tribe child's tunic at Picker's Playground – heavily beaded front & back and priced at $2,500. 715-258-3865

Among the Mid Century lighting in the display of Steven J. Bina Antiques sat this matched set of accent lamps, 24" tall & with fiberglass shades - $115. 608-385-3598

Vicki Carbonari's Hikchick's brought furnishings with a feminine twist, like painted & stenciled dresser, asking price $265. 715-484-2006

From Weathervane Antiques, two wooden twenty pound tea crates ($189 and $98), and an antique litho-tin spice bin - $89. 715-735-5077

Unusual tramp art crucifix & candlestick set, from Weathervane Antiques - $295. 715-735-5077

Two 1950s St Louis Cardinals yearbooks from sporting specialists Kitchen Antiques: take your pick of the military-themed 1952 version or the 1953 Stan Musial one for $125. 608-752-1279

Among the local interest antiques at Wrightstown Antique gallery: this Bingham & Risdon (West De Pere) glass jug with traveling case - $355. 920-532-4308

My litho-tin toy favorite at Marker's Antiques: this Marx Balky Mule wind-up complete with box - $115. 715-635-3581

It was all about clocks at All About Time, with examples like this Western Union calendar regulator ($295) and unusual Tabasco Sauce advertising clock - $325. 608-831-5580

Art glass is what Schurter's Curio Cabinet is best known for, but I found this early 1900s child's watercolor kit there too, asking price $150. 309-925-3031

Primitives purveyor J & L Antiques brought finds like this extra-rustic wooden parts cabinet, 22" x 27" and priced at $295. 608-575-0162

Gems at Welsch's Antiques included this Iroquois Indian Head Beer tray ($68) and dated 1831 Norwegian trunk only 24" in length - $900. 920-923-3842

From Indian Creek Antiques, a 19th century cobbler's bench with drawer, 48" in length & priced at $275. 262-363-7338

60" painted wood Vilas Bros Paint sign, from Wrightstown Antique Gallery - $550. 920-532-4308

Brass Candlestick Antiques had plenty of early steel too, including this log-marking hammer ($265) to an early 19th century hand forged hewing axe - $228. 920-478-3223

Wrightstown Antique Gallery brought a wide variety of pieces from their popular antiques shop, from this Phelps pattern-maker's plane set ($350) to a 19" Spode "Tower" meat platter - $365. 920-532-4308

I found this ornate patented-1877 desktop magnifier at Victorian House Antiques - $95. 608-879-2567

Laura's Collectibles displayed some charming vintage Scottie dog items, my favorite a Syroco brush valet, asking price $68. 414-466-4000

Ted Slaton Art & Antiques made a splash at the show with finds like this 1950s Snow Crop Orange Juice cooler ($495) and near-mint 1969 Columbia tandem bike in hot pink paint - $495. 608-792-5470

From fashion & jewelry to fishing lures and more, there was something for every collector among the near-seventy dealers at the De Pere Antiques Show.

16th Annual Madison Antique Show Expands One Of Wisconsin's Greatest

Find a way to get to the Madison Antique Showcase and Sale, One of Wisconsin's greatest. Larry Kaczmarek, the new proprietor has added exciting features to this year's show including our second year at our new location The Exhibition Hall at the Alliant Energy Center, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison, WI.

The date is: Saturday, May 4 and Sunday May 5, 2013. The times are 9:00 AM. - 5:00 PM. on Saturday and 10:00 AM. - 4:00 PM. on Sunday.

The Madison Antique Showcase and Sale is a family oriented event, and encourages adults and youth to explore, learn and own a piece of the past, which were used and cherished by our ancestors. The show is known for its knowledgeable and friendly dealers, who always bring the best high quality antiques and collectibles of every design and make.

Including:

• Furniture of all styles and shapes including Mission, Victorian and Primitive , that are well over 100 years old and will last another 100 years with little care. We will have some great Danish retro items too.

• Antique Jewelry, Crystal, Brass, Copper, Pottery, Majolica and Stoneware created by the masters, are still beautiful and useful as the day they were made.

• Warm attractive Textiles, Quilts, Carpets, colorful Art Glass and Stain glass windows will catch your eye and still delight the new owner with great decorating appeal.

• At the show you will find antique Maps, Postcards Paintings, Prints and Advertising that show the fine art with which they were made. These items make great gifts to cover that special wall.

• We will include wonderful Folk art, Native American, Primitive kitchenware, Cast iron, Bottles, Sporting and Military items. There will also be beautiful antique Dolls and Toys, plus Games and Marbles.

• Come and listen to the unique sound of a wind up Victrola or Edison player

Many other categories of antiques will be well represented. OUR HISTORY IS REMEMBERED IN OUR FUTURE

THIS YEAR AT THE SHOW:
The Wisconsin Historical Society

Is excited to be a second year participant in this year's Madison Antiques Show. At their booth you can examine several historic image reproductions, an interactive website station, and some exciting historic artifact reproductions. Information about their collections, museum, Wisconsin historic sites, online store, library, and much more will be available for those who stop by.

• A Scavenger Hunt New to our show will be a search for 3 selected antiques each day, one per family. Bring it to the front desk. The lucky hunter will keep his treasure and also receive a prize

• Antique Appraiser Another popular event this year, we are happy to have an antique appraiser to provide short verbal appraisals for your small items.

Limit of two at $1 each. No coins, jewelry or weapons. Appraisal times during the show will be: Saturday 10AM- 4PM and Sunday 11AM-3PM.

Our mission is to preserve our rich cultural heritage and the items left behind. The Wisconsin Historical Society was founded in 1846 and ranks as one of the largest, most active and most diversified state historical societies in the nation. As both a state agency and a private membership organization, its mission is to help people connect to the past by collecting, preserving and sharing stories. The Wisconsin Historical Society serves millions of people every year through a wide range of sites, programs and services. The collections of the Museum contain over 110,000 historical objects and nearly 400,000 archaeological artifacts documenting the history of Wisconsin from prehistoric times to the present. Learn about how you can explore these collections when you stop by our booth at the show!

So find a way to get to 16th annual Madison Antique Show and Sale. Antique lovers and collectors of all ages are welcome.

Bring your truck or trailer for that great buy on an antique desk, table, cupboard or chair. Or find a unique treasure that was made with quality; "the way things used to be". Recycle, repurpose, restyle and up cycle. We were green a long time ago.

Room to Room Trading Offers Pre-game Tailgating Atmosphere for Fun

The National Antique Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show sponsored by the National Decoy Collectors Association will be held at the Pheasant Run Resort near St. Charles, Illinois April 26-27 2013. There are many reasons for attending this show; however, if you arrive on the 26th, you will have missed one of the show's unique events: room to room trading.

By the afternoon of Tuesday the 23rd of April, collectors from all over North America will have descended upon Pheasant Run Resort and hundreds of rooms will already be overflowing with every imaginable item of sporting collectibles. There will be duck decoys by the thousands, fishing lures, spearing decoys, traps, rods, reels, duck calls, paintings and prints, and items so unique there may be only a few in existence. You will have to weave your way down the hallway as the overflow of offerings from the rooms spills its way into hallway displays. There will be outboard motors, canoe paddles, stacks of wooden ammo boxes and of course baskets and tubs full of decoys.

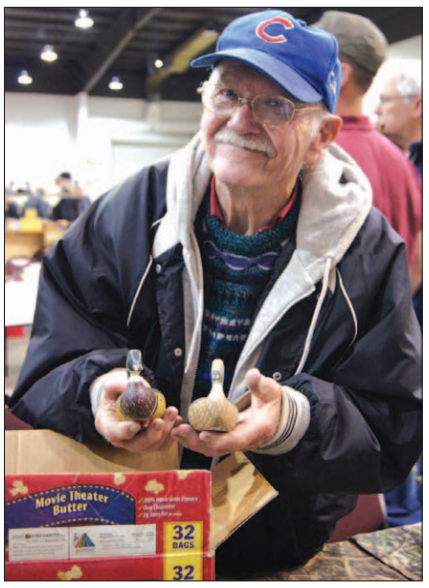
This is an event that has to be experienced to be believed! As you work your way from one room to the next, you will be greeted with "Have a beer or a soda." "Would you like a hot dog or a brat?" Yes, you will find any manner of food and drink offered in the rooms as well as evening feasts being prepared on the verandas outside the rooms.

This is an antique picker's paradise! For all of you dealers, why spend your weekends standing in the cold and rain at local auctions where you are lucky to pick up an item or two when in two days you could fill a moving van with enough inventory to last you a year? In addition to sporting collectibles, you will find all manner of antiques. There will be stoneware, marbles, old toys, oyster tins, Inuit ivory carvings and Indian artifacts. You name it and you are likely to find it here.

If you are a novice collector, then this is the place for you. Why try to figure out the difference between a Mason decoy and a Dodge decoy by reading a book? Come to the Show and walk into a room, have a dealer hand you a Mason decoy for one hand and a Dodge for the other and give you an on the spot lesson. You will learn more in a couple days than you could in a year.

There is not another event in North America that can compare to this one. Attend this year's National Antique and Sporting Collectibles Show for an experience you will never forget.

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art. This convention and show is the premier opportunity for the novice, antique dealer or the experienced collector to network and learn more about the decoy as functional folk art or to add to their collections. For more information, please visit midwestdecoy.org



Artie (Behmetuik) Bennett was at last years show & found some of his old carvings. We had the opportunity to share his birthday & reminisce about the experience on the Illinois River.

It's great to see youngsters growing up around these decoys.

There is a wide range of items on display at the show as

Dick Walters with some of those great fish decoys that are on everyone's favorite list.
