C/B A La Sprite Original Corset Display Sells for $17,100 at Showtime Auction Services' April 12-14th Auction

Bellingham Bay reverse glass sign in original frame, 19 1/2 inches in diameter ($31,200).

A C/B a la Spirite corset display with the original box, original etched and gold leaf on the front of the display case and even a mannequin inside (with a price tag of $1 affixed to the sample corset) sold for $17,100 at a three-day auction held April 12-14 by Showtime Auction Services, at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The display measured 23 1/2 inches by 42 inches by 20 inches and the mannequin was in very good original condition, except for some minor staining. The lot was typical of many other country store and general store displays that contained actual product, driving up their value and desirability as a collectible. Most of these displays had not been on the market for 30-40 years.

Weyauwega, Wisconsin's Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques set for May 10th Opening

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

OK, name this little Badger State Town. It's situated on a 250-acre lake that's part of a County Recreational System of two-hundred & forty lakes and seventy-nine rivers. Their popular Horse & Buggy Days Parade has been drawing crowds for half a century. And three well-known Cheese makers call the city home, whose name is so long locals refer to it simply as "Wega." Give up? It's Weyauwega, Wisconsin, a quaint historic town located between Stevens Point and Appleton that's home to a brand-new antiquing destination: Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques!

Home of the brand-new Rural Relics is this 100-year-old brick storefront on Weyauwega, Wisconsin's historic Main Street - a short drive west of Appleton, Wisconsin.

Vintage Underwood Master Typewriter ($295) and La Crosse-made office cart - $95.

My furniture favorite at Rural Relics was this circa 1830s Vermont fall-front secretary/desk in its original two-tone faux-grain finish, asking price $3,500.

Rural Relics co-owner Kathy Fehl with a huge three-sheet movie poster for the 1941 Tom Keene western "The Driftin' Kid." Priced at $145, it's one of dozens of vintage movie posters available there.

Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques of Weyauwega: Wisconsin's Newest Antiques Venture

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

May 10th marks the grand opening of Wisconsin's newest antiques shop: Weyauwega's Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques. The cooperative effort of four area antiques enthusiasts, Rural Relics will offer a wide array of antiques and collectibles from toys, furniture, and stoneware to a great selection of vintage movie posters and memorabilia. Shoppers can also choose from some exuberant-ly painted vintage furniture done by local artist Rebecca Eckhardt of Eckhardt's Originals.

But wander to the rear of the store, located in an 1896 brick storefront right on Main Street, and you'll see a "store within a store" filled with quilting supplies, patterns, and kits. That's because one of the partners in this new venture is noted quilter & quilt collector Jean Teal.

Jean Teal has been prominent in the quilting industry for more than two decades, winning awards for her designs at prestigious events including the New York American Folk Art Museum's "Great American Quilt Festival." You'll find many of Jean's "Designing Dresses" series of patterns and kits here, plus hundreds of fabrics both pre-cut and on bolts - including many faithful reproductions of antique and vintage patterns. You can find many of her popular patterns and kits for sale at her website too: www.jeanteal.com.

Jean's son Ian Teal is also an active partner in Rural Relics, and will be offering pieces from his large collection of movie memorabilia. Posters are his specialty, and you'll lots to choose from at the shop, from little "heralds" handed out to movie goers in days gone by to huge "three-sheet" posters standing nearly six feet tall.

The shop's two other partners are Kathy Fehl and Julie Spriggs, who both lend their years of experience and expertise in the antiques field to the project. So come on out! Rural Relics is located at 100 West Main Street in downtown Weyauwega - just seven miles from Waupaca's famed Chain O' Lakes. They're open Wednesday through Friday from noon to 5pm, and from 11am to 4pm on both Saturday and Sunday.

And while driving up Weyauwega's Main Street on your way to Rural Relics be sure to take a peek at Kathy Fehl and Ian Teal's other project: Weyauwega's historic Gerold Opera House. The pair formed the non-profit Wega Arts in 2007 specifically to restore the grand 1915 building. Today, the Gerold hosts events ranging from regional symphony orchestras to popular performers from near and far. It's also home to the improbable but very successful Weyauwega International Film Festival, who last year screened thirty-eight movies from seventeen countries. They included the Midwest premier of Holy Motors - the film deemed by the Village Voice as the year's best. Just go to www.wegaarts.org for all the details.

For more information about Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques, visit their website www.ruralrelics.com, or give them a call at 920-538-5068. While you're online, be sure to visit www.weyauwegachamber.com too, to get a taste of what the little town of Weyauwega is all about. And as always, keep an eye out for featured items from Rural Relics Fabrics & Antiques in the Auction Action Antique News!

Journey past the hundreds of antiques to the back of the shop and you'll find a great selection of vintage quilting fabrics, plus quilting patterns, kits, and more.

Vintage blown-glass Christmas ornaments: the clown & snowman priced at $27.50 each, the rare Graf Zeppelin at $87.50.

Award-winning quilter and quilt collector Jean Teal is one of the partners in Rural Relics, and offers at the shop wall hanging & quilt patterns starting at $9.95 - plus complete kits with all necessary fabrics included for $55.

Quilters will be inspired by the many completed quilts and wall-hangings displayed at Rural Relics - exact copies of the patterns and kits offered there.

A trio of old cracker tins, with prices from $27.50 to $38.

Charming Victorian framed lithograph of a canoeing couple, 22" x 26" - $125.

Take your pick of two original Toledo draftsman's chairs for only $75 each!

Peruse through their inventory of vintage “heralds,” flyers handed out to movie-goers to advertise new releases, with prices from $15.

A trio of vintage chairs outrageously repainted by local artist Rebecca Eckhardt.

You'll find classic one-sheet movie posters here from the 1930s onwards, at prices starting at only $25.

I found a nice selection of vintage Japanese litho-tin toys: the 9" friction-drive airliner $147.50, the eight-piece camper rig at $225, and the 5" windup cat at $37.50.

Among the oddities at Rural Relics: exotic beetles & butterflies in shadow boxes, with prices from $28.

Local milk & cream bottles sit atop a vintage Creamland Dairy Oshkosh cooler, price tag $39.50.

There was plenty of 1930s Anchor Hocking Green Cameo glass on display, with hard-to-find examples like these juice tumblers (four for $120) and covered jam bowl - $95.

Early Effinger Brewery (Baraboo, WI) oak cask - $30.

Vintage decoratives ranged from a nice group of gray Graniteware to some swinging '60s Hull Continental pottery in Persimmon Orange – take your pick for $45.

Choose from Watt five-petal Starflower pieces with Weyauwega advertising at prices from $45.

Rural Relics co-owners Kathy Fehl and Ian Teal have another big project in little Weyauwega, Wisconsin: the historic Gerold Opera House, just down Main Street from the antiques shop. Purchased in 2007 by the pair through their non-profit organization Wega Arts, the restored structure now hosts events ranging from The Weyauwega International Film Festival to recent performers Lou & Peter Berryman! Just go to www.wegaarts.org for all the details.

Washtew Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor, MI Hosts Showtime Auction Services' 3 Day Event

Article & Photos by Mike Eckles

National Cash Register Model 442-E-L, with original goose neck lights, professionally restored ($6,600).

They came from the collection of the auction's headlining consignors – Bill and Kathie Gasperino, known in antique circles for having one of the finest country store and advertising collections in the United States. Also offered was Part 2 of the Robert and Harriett Potter fire fighting collection and Part 3 of the Ed and Christy Ramsey collection of toys and pedal cars.

In all, over 2,400 lots came up for bid in an auction that grossed about $2.2 million. "It was one of our best spring auctions ever," remarked Mike Eckles of Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven, Mich. "Over 500 lots were rare and unseen country store and general store displays and products from the Gasperinos. I can't stress enough the quality of their collection."

The auction featured merchandise from over 30 categories (fairly typical for Showtime Auction Services, which only conducts two auctions a year, spring and fall sales that are mega-events). Approximately 2,200 people registered to bid online, via LiveAuctioneers.com and iCollector.com. There were also over 300 phone bids and more than 250 absentee bids recorded.

Following are additional highlights from the auction. All prices quoted include a buyer's premium of between 14-20 percent, depending on how people bid and the method of payment.

The sale's top lot was an extremely rare Campbell's Soup embossed tin sign ("6 Plates for 10 Cents – Just Add Hot Water and Serve"). Measuring 40 inches by 27 1/2 inches, it is one of the most sought after advertising signs by advertising and folk art collectors. Some nail holes around the perimeter and light rusting didn't deter bidders, who drove the final price to $60,000.

Following close behind, at $57,000, was a 1917 La France automatic aerial ladder truck, professionally restored and in excellent running condition. "In our opinion, this is the finest hook and ladder fire truck ever offered at auction," Mr. Eckles said. The truck (Reg. #352) came with a period braided life net and equipment, and said on the side, "Martin's Ferry Hook & Ladder."

A Bellingham Bay Beer reverse glass sign in the original frame, in mostly excellent condition and 19 1/2 inches in diameter, soared to $31,200; an outdoor sand sign for Walden Eddy Plows (Greenwich, N.Y.), in very good condition, 59 inches by 24 inches, brought $20,520; and a rare Kelly Tire round tin sign in good original condition, 24 inches in diameter, made $17,100.

"The Happy Jap" coin-operated gum vendor, made circa 1902 and in good original condition, hammered for $28,500; and a National Cash Register Model 442-E-L cash register with reproduction top sign ("Try Our Oysters"), professionally restored by Peter Warns, whose grandfather was a repairman at NCR when the brass machines were first made, rose to $6,600.

A bronze sculpture by the Egyptian-born American artist Maher Morocos (b. 1946), one of only 20 cast, changed hands for $15,960. The sculpture, 34 inches tall, depicted an American Indian brave leaning down from his horse and handing a canteen to a wounded, thirsty cowboy. Titled The Only Good Indian, it was designed as a 73rd birthday present for Pres. Ronald Reagan.

An authentic Sioux Native American beaded baby cradle in a geometric pattern, made circa 1890 from sinew, sewn supple cowhide, 21 inches tall, garnered $7,500; a circa 1930s Steelcraft Auburn Super Charge pedal car, fully restored, with pneumatic tires, 55 inches long, sped off for $4,560; and a J. Chein Popeye bag puncher tin toy, near mint in the box, hit $3,600.

Showtime Auction Services' next big auction will be held Oct. 3-5, also at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor, Mich. It will feature the lifetime advertising collection of Don and Diane Sayrizi, plus consignments from over 100 advanced collectors, in the many categories that have made Showtime Auction Services renowned in the industry.

These include petroliana (gas station) and automobilia, general store, country store, toys, pedal cars, barber shop, tobacciana, fire fighting antiques and memorabilia, veterinary, hardware, advertising signs, store tins, soda fountain, Coca-Cola, Western, Native American, farm signs, whiskey, breweriana, match safes, drug store, saloon, post office, coin-op, arcade, scales, gambling, cash registers, folk art, department store, millinery, showcases and store fixtures.

Showtime Auction Services is always accepting quality items for future sales. To consign an item, an estate or an entire collection, you may call Michael Eckles at (951) 453-2415; or, you can e-mail him at MikEckles@aol.com. To learn more about Showtime Auction Services and the upcoming Oct. 3-5 auction, log on to www.ShowtimeAuctions.com. Updates are posted often.

Book Description

This book provides a unique view of the development of military and commercial aviation in Japan from the pioneering years before World War I to the end of World War II. There are comparatively few books in English that illustrate aviation in Japan in the years before World War II. This is the first book to make extensive use of Japanese aviation postcards to show how aviation in Japan grew from a dependence on foreign aircraft designs and engineers in the early years to an independent industry that produced world-class airplanes. The book uses more than 250 postcards to trace the history of Imperial Japanese Army and Navy aviation, and commercial aviation, during this thirty-five year period. Each of the book's four chapters begins with a narrative survey of key developments during the period covered. The postcards, some in color and some in black and white, show both military and commercial airplanes, many famous and some less so. Of particular interest to those interested in Japanese military aviation in World War II will be a number of postcards of wartime propaganda art.

National Depression Glass Association

The National Depression Glass Association - preserving America's glass manufacturing heritage - is dedicated to the preservation of American made glassware manufactured just before, during, and immediately after the "Great Depression". The organization is also dedicated to the dissemination of educational information regarding the same - including a membership newsletter, "The News & Views," an annual convention and show, and a variety of other member services. The NDGA's ultimate goal is a first-class museum of American-made glass and related items.

The NDGA website - www.ndga.net - has been greatly improved with a total new design and look earlier this year. The primary purpose of the site is to provide information to the members and other site visitors. The homepage provides a listing of contents and features the latest NDGA news. Appropriately heading this list is the latest news on the much anticipated July 2009 annual convention.

There is a growing section on The National Collection and how to donate either glass or cash for this project.

The site contains a wealth of information. Articles on Depression Glass, dozens of past features from the NDGA publications, glass reference books, past glass company advertisements, a directory of glass dealers and another of glass collecting clubs and photos of members' glass collections.

Anyone who happens to have the least bit of interest and appreciation for glassware is going to find this site a place on the Internet to visit again and again... and it must be a tremendous resource for NDGA members. Actually there also are members-only pages on the site in addition to all the public pages.

Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors' Convention

This year, Betty Harrington, principal designer for Ceramic Arts Studio of Madison, would have turned 100. To mark the occasion, CAS Collectors is throwing an extra-special party! The theme of the group's 2013 Convention, set for Saturday, August 24th, 2013 in Madison, is "Happy Birthday, Betty! A CAS Family Reunion!" In addition to celebrating "Betty's 100th", collectors will also celebrate the enduring appeal of Ceramic Arts figurines, which brightened homes from coast to coast during the 1940s and '50s, and continue to brighten hearts today.

From 9 am to 4 pm on August 24th, 2013 Convention attendees will take in the Wisconsin Pottery Association Show & Sale at the Alliant Energy Center. Later, all will gather at Madison's Howard Johnson Plaza for the Convention festivities, with activities and décor centered around a fun-filled "birthday party" theme. There'll be games from long ago, party favors and hats, souvenirs, colorful centerpieces, - even a birthday cake! In short, everything that makes family reunions so unforgettable.

Getting the evening underway will be a social hour, and the popular "CAS On Display Contest"; all in attendance are invited to submit entries. A buffet dinner, raffle, and membership meeting will be followed by the club's annual auction, featuring professional auctioneer Shirley Baumann. Events will conclude with door prizes, and presentation of the 2013 CAS Collectors Commemorative.

Convention registration, which remains at $60 per person, includes all evening activities, plus the Commemorative. Registrations received by May 31st will be eligible for an "Earliest Earlybird" prize drawing, to be held at the Convention. Forms and additional information are available on the club's website, www.cascollectors.com, or by writing CAS Collectors, 206 Grove Street, Rockton, IL 61072. Membership in CAS Collectors is open to all those with an interest in the work of Ceramic Arts Studio.

Celebrate the heritage of Ceramic Arts Studio-and take a stroll down memory lane-at the nineteenth CAS Collectors Convention. Ceramics collectors from near and far will gather August 24th, for "Happy Birthday, Betty! A CAS Family Reunion!". It's the kind of wonderful get-together that only comes around once every 100 years!

Arts Group Publishes Guide to Northwest Wisconsin Arts, Growers, Heritage

Written and submitted by Harriet Rice

In the small towns, villages and along the rustic roads of northwestern Wisconsin are some of the state's most valuable assets: creative human beings who nurture beauty, value nature and share their heritage through places, objects and edibles that are handmade and homegrown.

Now there's a brand new paperback guidebook published by the Wisconsin's Northwest Heritage Passage:: 208 pages that shine a light on these places and people who live and work along and around the Highway 63 corridor in 13 northwest Wisconsin counties.

It's called The Wisconsin Passage: an Adventure in the Handmade, Homegrown and Historical Offerings of Wisconsin from the Mississippi River to the Lake Superior, or simply, The Wisconsin Passage. The book is the culmination of a dream that began 12 years ago when a group of northwest Wisconsin people like Spooner weaver Alene Peterson realized that the cottage industries of working crafters, artists, growers were key to a sustainable "creative economy" in this region.

Peterson and a committee of five - all volunteers -- began by establishing a set of criteria. "We were looking for locally made or grown items, quality products, interesting destinations, environmental responsibility, openness to the public, and safety," said Peterson.

Each of the 350 listees in the book submitted written descriptions of their studios, galleries, farms, museums, and other arts, agricultures or culture-related businesses. Committee members visited each site, providing feedback about their experiences. Others collected and worked with submitted images or took photographs themselves.

Janet Krokson of Spooner was the book committee's muse who gathered the descriptions, historical facts, anecdotes, and other materials, weaving them into a narrative that makes the book an entertaining read as much as a travel guide.

Editor of the Spooner Advocate and life-long resident of the area, Krokson said, "It was a labor of love. I've lived in Highway 63 communities for the past 31 years," she said. "I love Wisconsin, and I particularly love this part of the state."

She continued, "I think of The Wisconsin Passage as a passage to more passages - to bygone days, to an adventure that anyone can take part in. It's about artists, artisans, performers, nature lovers, natural growers, pioneer settlers and storytellers of many genres who forged a life and culture along the heritage roads and trails."

Peterson added, "We want this book to bring the public together with artists and growers where they live and work and showcase those hometowns, villages and farms as well as the natural beauty of northwest Wisconsin destinations for travelers of all ages,"

The WNHP was founded in 1999 as an arts support group dedicated to supporting, showcasing and educating the public about the talents and creativity of northwest Wisconsin's communities. In 2001, 2004 and 2009, WNHP published and distributed more than 100,000 foldout maps listing handmade, homegrown and heritage sites. The Wisconsin Passage replaces those maps as a more permanent testament to the thriving creative economy in northwest Wisconsin.

There is no commercial advertising in the book. Production was funded by memberships, in kind and cash donations from businesses and private citizens through "Friends of the Passage." Proceeds from sales of the book will be used to update and publish future editions.

Following the initial book launch on August 27 at Northwind Book & Fiber in Spooner, additional launches are planned in each of the 13 counties in the coming months. The Wisconsin Passage may be purchased at Northwind Book & Fiber, 205 Walnut Street, Spooner, and online at www.heritagepassage.com, where there will be a list of other retail outlets selling the book. The WNHP is supported in part by the Wisconsin Arts Board. For additional information, call 715.635.9303, or email winhp@centurytel.net.

32nd Annual Blue & White Pottery Convention To Be Held In East Peoria, IL

The Blue & White Pottery Club kicks off its 32nd Annual Convention on Thursday, June 6th at the Embassy Suites in East Peoria, Illinois. Early registration begins at 3:30 p.m. & members can shop room sales in the afternoon & throughout the evening.

Friday, June 7 will be a busy day with the Show & Sale beginning at 10 a.m. During the day on Friday along with the show & sale, there is a silent auction, viewing of member displays, viewing of the clubs commemoratives, the business meeting, a seminar (this years seminar will be on Blue & White Spongware). Friday evening activities include a fun auction followed with "GLAZE" bingo and the continuation of room sales.

Over the past few years the club's consignment auction begins Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. This years auction already has over 125 quality consigned pieces of stoneware and we are looking at 200 or more pieces at the auction. Some rare pieces of stoneware already consigned include a rare 2 Gallon Western Stoneware Mennig-Slater Des Moines, Ia advertising churn, , The small, medium, & large Sponged Tea Pots, The Basketweave tall Crackers, Put Your Fist In, & Tobacco canisters, a 6 Gallon

Polar Bear Water Cooler, a Sponged GAR Pitcher, Swirl Coffee Pot, Swirl Tea Pot, Spear Point Measuring Cup, White Hall cake crock & cookie jar. Other pieces include a variety of Blue & White pastry crocks, butters, salts, pitchers, bowls, & Sleepy Eye.

The Blue & White Pottery Club's auctions have become the talk among all stoneware clubs in the Mid-West. Their auctions offer an outstanding variety of several different types of stoneware including, Western-Monmouth, Red Wing, White Hall & other Illinois Potteries, Sleepy Eye, as well as the full line of Blue & White Stoneware. Whether you are buying or selling, the Blue & White Pottery Club's auction is one of the premiere auctions of stoneware in the Mid-West.

The closing convention activity is the Saturday evening banquet.

The Blue & White Pottery Club's current membership is 305. To attend the convention and auction, you must be a club member and registered for convention. Membership information is available at the club website (blueandwhitepottery.org). For telephone contact information you can go to the club website and contact any board member. While visiting the website you will find a full convention agenda, convention registration form and photos from previous conventions.

Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Hands-On Pottery Experience With Richard Spiller To Feature International Potter Aba Luostarinen

Red Wing, MN - The Red Wing Collectors Society announces today that Aba Luostarinen, a student potter from Finland, will join Richard Spiller at the 2013 Convention - Diggin' Red Wing slated for July 11-13 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing, MN.

Spiller traveled to Finland and Estonia this past year. In August 2012, he participated in the Eco Ceramics workshop that brought together ceramic artists from Latvia, Estonia and Finland at Kohila in Estonia. Spiller returned in January to give master class workshops at the HAMK University of Applied Sciences in Finland and the Estonian Academy of Art - EAA.

While participating in the workshops, Spiller learned that ceramics students had a program requirement for an international ceramics experience; he met student Aba Luostarinen, who was looking for an opportunity. Since his return in January, Spiller worked with the universities and Luostarinen on creating a pilot program to Minnesota.

Spiller approached RWCS Executive Director Stacy Wegner about the possibility of Luostarinen joining his RWCS Convention Hands-On Pottery session as part of the exchange program. By including Luostarinen, it would give him the opportunity to expand the Convention session and encompass it with the exchange program.

"Having Aba join Richard this year to expand the Hands-On Pottery Experience for our Convention attendees is a ground breaking addition to the Convention," said Wegner. "We're excited to be a part of the exchange program."

"I am very excited to have Aba join me at the RWCS Convention this year to share Red Wing Pottery with an international student as part of her exchange experience," said Spiller.

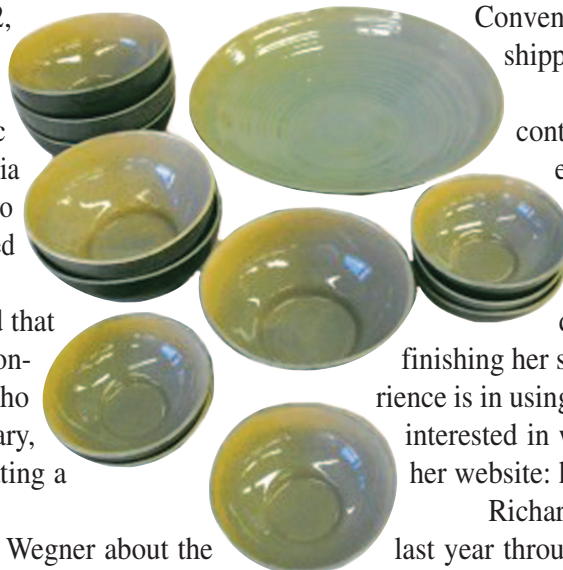

With Luostarinen's assistance, Spiller's 2013 Convention Hands on Pottery Experience will be offered to attendees on both Thursday, July 11 and Friday, July 12 at Red Wing High School. Participants in the two-hour session times will have the opportunity to learn pottery techniques and make their own creation. Following the Convention, the pieces will be fired in the Anderson Center kiln and shipped to participants; the cost is $35.

In addition to the Red Wing Collectors Society Convention, contacts with the Northern Clay Center, Anderson Center and experience in Spiller's studio will make up a five week university accredited program to pave the way for future exchange programs.

Luostarinen, 27, lives in Hämeenlinna, Finland and is a student at HAMK University of Applied Sciences. Luostarinen is finishing her studies as a glass and ceramic designer. Her interest and experience is in using ecological materials in ceramics. And, like Spiller, she's also interested in wood and gas firing kilns. More of her work can be seen on her website: <http://abaluostarinen.fi>.

Richard Spiller joined the RWCS Convention educational program last year through a pre-Convention hands-on pottery class at the Anderson Center and pottery demonstrations at Red Wing High School during the Convention. The class gave RWCS members the opportunity to apply the Scraffito (scratching) technique to a crock.

The Red Wing Collectors Society Convention is July 11-13, 2013 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing. To learn more about the annual Convention, or the Red Wing Collectors Society, visit <http://www.redwingcollectors.org> or find them on Facebook or follow on Twitter.

The Best of the Old World is at the 39th Annual Door County Antique Show & Sale

The Sister Bay Lions Club is hosting the 39th annual Door County Antique Show Thursday through Saturday, July 18, 19, 20 at the Gibraltar High School in the quaint town of Fish Creek, WI on the peninsula by Lake Michigan, 60 miles NE of Green Bay. The High School is located on Hwy 42 North & the show's hours are 10 to 5pm each day. The show has 35 select dealers who are excited to be in Door County & have a good time selling & visiting with the local's & the tourists who are always anxious to come to this show to see the special items these dealers saved just for this summer event!

The Sister Bay Lions Club sponsors this event to raise money and awareness for the "Leader Dog for the Blind Program" which operates entirely on donations. Since 1939 the Lions Club has been providing dog guides to people who are blind and visually impaired to enhance their mobility and quality of life. The dogs are specially selected and bred, risen in foster homes and trained to socialize for one year and then send to Michigan to complete their training. Maggie Weir directs this program in Door County and has arranged for Leader dogs and their handlers to volunteer their time to be on site during the show. Maggie and other puppy handlers, have been rewarded with Thank You letters from all over the world from the visually impaired who are so happy with their leader dogs. Russell Sunstrom of the Lions Club, hopes that the puppies being on site will prompt a person or family to become a much needed handler for one year.

If you are looking for something Old & Precious & Unique you will find it here amidst the early furniture, folk art, Ladies accessories, a Civil War booth, jewelry, textiles, baskets, Americana decoys, Garden & Advertising items, Native American & Military items, tools, sterling flatware, postcards, Heisey, Majolica, Royal Doulton, lodge, Mettlach steins, fountain pens, oil paintings, coins, Victoriana, primitives, Country & Deco items! This is just a sampling of the authentic and wonderful items which can be found at the show! Also, a Glass & China Repair booth will be on site. Whether you have been collecting for years or just starting out, you will be sure to find friends and enjoy meeting new ones. Plan to spend your day or weekend trip in the historic and charming towns that make up Door County. Mark your calendar for this Sale because it has the Quality & Variety to Rival the Biggest Show!

The admission is $5.00, under 16 is free, good for all three days. Arrangements for the show are under the directions of Sister Bay Lions member Russ Sunstrom, Fish Creek, & Manager Ray Hanson. For further info call 715-355-5144.

A New Antiques Market in Sandwich, Illinois

A brand new antiques and collectibles market has swooped into the Sandwich Antiques and Collectibles scene. The name of this new enterprise is the Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show and is being launched by a half dozen seasoned antiques dealers and show managers. This group operates under the name Blue Antique Productions and they have created some excitement among local shops and businesses that welcome the energy and experience this group brings.

Being home for three active antiques malls plus several independent shops, Sandwich, Illinois, has long been a preferred destination for collectors and designers. The new Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show will bring an extra dimension to the thrill of the hunt and the satisfaction in the find.

The new market and show is staged indoors and out at the historic Sandwich Fair Grounds, 1401 Suydam Road, Sandwich, Illinois and will be held on the Second Sunday of each month beginning May 12, excepting September. Dealers from four states will bring fresh merchandise to the area with an expanded menu that includes antiques, collectibles, re-purposed items and garden fare. Flowers and plants will be offered by Redbud Farms. Food will be available from several vendors and parking is free. Admission is only $5 with children under 12, free. Hours are 8am-4pm. The market happens rain or shine. No pets. Saturday early buying available.
