Stanton's 3-Day Spring Auction came to a close on April 27th. Buyers from all across the United States and Canada were in attendance, as well as Europe and Asia. This auction also generated pre-sale and website bidding from interested buyers, as well as phone bidding that took place during the course of the auction. Stanton's had up to six phone lines in service at different times, making sure that everyone with an interest in participating in the bidding would have that opportunity.

The 48th Annual National Antique Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show – America's Premier Decoy Event

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Circa 1930s Ignatius Stachowiak
(LaSalle, IL) mallard drake in mint condition, from Dan Skoff -
$4,500. 815-695-5508

It was way back in 1966 when a small group of decoy collectors got together and formed the Midwest Decoy Collectors Association - and held their first show in that same year. Now forty-seven years later, the Midwest Decoy Collectors Association has grown to be a truly international organization, with over 1,400 members from all fifty states, Canada, and Mexico. Other members hail from as far away as England, Switzerland, and Japan. Their annual show - the National Antique Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show - has grown right along with the association, and has become the largest and most important decoy & sporting collectibles show in North America.

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

At this year's event, held on April 26th & 27th at the Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles, Illinois, the huge Mega Center Exhibition Hall was filled with four-hundred tables of decoys and sporting collectibles. Buyers and sellers come from throughout North America and beyond, both for the show itself and for the several days of room-to-room trading that precede the show. Also not to be missed: the Guyette & Schmidt Decoy Auction held in conjunction with the show. It's quite probably the largest decoy auction in North America, grossing several million dollars, with individual decoys regularly selling for $100,000 or more.

It's something you won't see anywhere else on the planet. Each year, I'm still amazed as I walk through the doors of the Pheasant Run Resort Mega Center, long-time host of the National Antique Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show. The huge hall is a sea of literally tens of thousands of antique and vintage decoys and other sporting collectibles, completely filling the 38,000 square foot space. For many of the dealers, it's by far their most important event of the year. But the show itself is only part of the story for the decoy fanatics.

An entire wing of the Pheasant Run Resort gets filled with collectors as early as the Monday preceding the show itself, for the all-important room-to-room trading. For some, well over half of their sales take place before the show even begins! Trading takes place all day and late into each evening, you just pop into any of the 300-plus open doors. One collector likened it to a very plush indoor flea market for decoys.

By Wednesday, there are M.D.C.A. seminars to attend, as well as the preview for the much-anticipated Guyette & Schmidt auction. The auction itself is a two-day affair, held on both Thursday and Friday. And if that's not enough, the Callmakers & Collectors Association of America hold its annual convention and competition concurrently with the M.D.C.A. show, right here at the Pheasant Run Resort. Then there's the M.D.C.A. Show itself on both Friday and Saturday. Admission is only $5 for adults and free for kids, and there's always plenty of free parking on the resort grounds. Each annual show has a featured exhibit of decoys - most all from the members own collections. This year: a fascinating display of classic Maryland decoys, plus a May 24th seminar discussing the Chesapeake Bay region's decoys and the men who made them.

Exhibitors come from all over the U.S. and Canada. And yes, you'll find the rarest-of-the-rare decoys here, selling for many tens of thousands of dollars. But those of us with thinner wallets had lots to choose from too. You'll find many thousands of vintage decoys and other sporting collectibles in a more modest price range. And of the contemporary carvers' offerings, when you consider the 100-plus hours a decoy carving might take to create, their prices start to look like fabulous bargains too.

You'll find nearly everybody associated with the world of decoy collecting at this event: hundreds of enthusiastic collectors of sporting memorabilia, many noted authors, and dozens of North America's best decoy carvers. If you have a few family heirloom decoys you want to find out a little more about, feel free to bring them along. Both days of the show offer free identification and evaluation services. Whether you're into decoys or not, you'll still have a wonderful time at the show.

It was a very busy week indeed for Midwest Decoy Collectors Association president Rick Sandstrom. He bought his first decoy at age twelve - and still has it to this day! "It was another great show for the club," Rick told me, "the exhibition hall was sold out as always, it was a gangbuster auction, with many lots exceeding their estimates, and we had among the most active room-to-room trading ever, with over 300 rooms booked as early as Friday of last week. I took a quick look at the license plates in the parking lot and counted vehicles from three-dozen states."

The Pheasant Run Resort, as it has for more than twenty years, will be home-base for the 49th edition of the National Antique Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show - on April 24th & 25th of 2014. You can find more details at the club's website www.midwestdecoy.org. While you're there, print out a coupon for discount admission to the show, or better yet join the M.D.C.A. for only $25. That'll get you all of the club's newsletters - as well as free admission to next year's show. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of the 2014 National Antique Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

Michigan's John Rogus of Marshland Collections came with unusual factory birds, from a Padco pintail drake to a pre-WWII pair of Victor #1 mallard - $260 for the set. 231-462-3677

Midwest Decoy Collectors Association President Rick Sandstrom is an enthusiastic ambassador for the hobby. The 1,100 member-strong organization, founded in 1966, now has members from all fifty states, Canada, and beyond.

I found these fine Harold Haertel (Dundee, IL) decoys in Dan Skoff's display, the 1960s preening canvasback hen priced at $10,000, the 1980s red-head drake at $3,500. 815-695-5508

Veteran Illinois carver Keith Littlejohn brought lots of classic-style birds like this canvasback drake ($75), plus some of his famous shadow-box scenes - $600 each. 815-695-5327

Ohio carver John T. Sharp's display was among the most impressive at the show, with wildlife carvings made from huge single walnut logs - priced from $8,000 to $25,000. 330-678-0227

From Marshland Collections, a jumbo Faulk's Duck Call counter display call (with pen for scale), asking price $155. 231-462-3677

Two more Michigan birds from Jim Szabo: the circa 1900 Harson's Island canvasback drake priced at $500, the 1940s Ben Schmidt black duck at $1,600. 231-779-0072

California collector Paul Mazzilli brought birds from all over, from these Charles Brisky oversized Wisconsin pintails ($400), to these circa-1940s California green-wing teal in the style of Dick "Fresh Air" Janson - $450. 209-474-1193

Fish decoy collector Jim Szabo came with a large group of examples from famed Michigan carver Oscar Peterson, plus decoys including this Doc Baumgartner (Houghton Lake, MI) diving duck - $450. 231-779-0072

Here's an odd one from North Dakota's Jim Szymanski: a circa-1930 Tuveson flying mallard with canvas wings & in good original paint - $575.

Missouri Mason Decoy Factory specialist Grand River Decoys came with gems like this 1905 Mason Premier snaky-head canvasback pair, all original paint & priced at $2,600. 660-707-1389

Badger State birds are always the focus in the display of the Bob & Kristin Lehmkuhl Collection, here featuring Kristin with a whole flock of Wisconsin-carved coots. 414-617-9040

Vintage Herter's balsa wood decoys from Rick Simpson: the crow priced at $150, the hard-to-find owl at $1,700. 320-760-0856

Another rare bird from RJG Antiques: this Ward Brothers old-squaw drake in excellent original paint - $2,200. 603-433-1770

Classic early 20th century George Boyd black bellied plover decoy, from RJG Antiques - $9,500. 603-433-1770

Two rare Illinois River decoys from Tom O'Key's Field & Flyway Antiques: an excellent Hector Whittington mallard drake ($4,800), and a circa 1920 Perry Wilcoxon Canada goose, asking price 7,500 847-842-8847

Noted Illinois exhibition decoy carver Bill Thumm made an appearance at the show, bringing examples like this wood duck drake ($350), and widgeon pair - $350 each. 815-399-2959

Matched pair of resting lesser scaup (bluebill) carvings by Don Shunk: take your pick for $600. 262-736-4533

The best in decoys of every category could be found at New Hampshire's RJG Antiques, from a whole collection of A. Elmer Crowell miniatures to this rignate set of three circa-1900 Cape Cod sanderling decoys - $9,500. 603-433-1770

Two Suzie Hill-carved decoys pairs (Wolf River Decoys, Antigo, WI) displayed by Andy & Diane Schoneich: take your pick of the bluebills or canvasbacks for only $125. 708-448-3061

Award winning carver Don Shunk's display contained life-size waterfowl & perching birds galore, plus raptors like this gyrfalcon, asking price $2,900. 262-736-4533

From noted author and decoy collector Donna Tonelli, an amazingly detailed 1977 Ken Ingram mallard hen, asking price $500.

You'll find much more than just decoys at the show. I found exhibitors with everything from vintage Skookum Dolls and sporting photographs to fishing lures and period Native American beadwork among the hundreds of displays.

It was fishing lure central in Don Ludy's booth, with finds like this jumbo Buck's Baits spoon plug ($500) and early plastic Flasher Lures plug - $265. 630-842-8635

Several nationally-known decoy carvers participate in the popular (and free) contemporary carving demonstrations.

An exceptional group of early shell boxes from Kim Nyman: the Western Paper Shot shell box priced at $3,800, the Peters League with running rabbit at $2,850. 920-589-4896

The National Duck Call Makers and Collectors of America Call Competition and Convention is held in conjunction with the M.D.C.A. Show. Here Gary Cobert

of Dead Ringer Custom Calls gives an impromptu lesson to one of the younger attendees. 309-787-2014

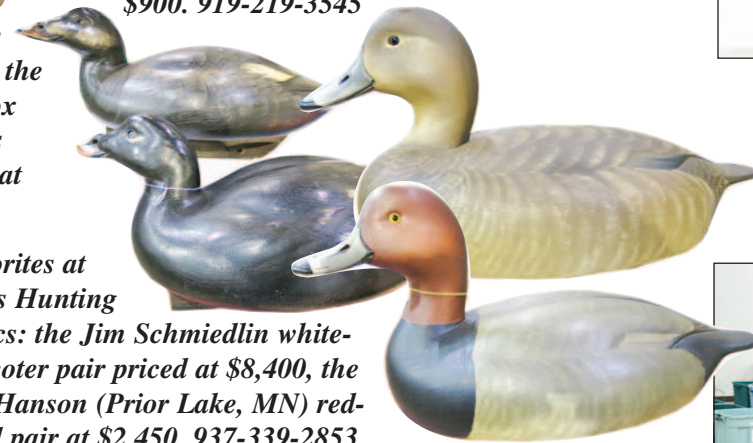

Every National Decoy Show has a special exhibit of birds from the member's own collections. At the 2013 show: a look at period Maryland decoys, with examples from the iconic Ward Brothers, Noah and Lloyd Sterling, and many more.

A fine group of David Ward decoys awaited at J & G Antiques, among them this Eskimo curlew ($850) and woodcock - $900. 631-598-5950

You'd swear they're feather-carved, but it's paint work alone that North Carolina carver Ben Heinemann employs on his work. He's been carving full-time for thirty-five years, & brought examples including this green-wing teal pair ($750 each) and mallard drake - $900. 919-219-3545

Favorites at Ohio's Hunting Classics: the Jim Schmiedlin white-wing scoter pair priced at $8,400, the Marty Hanson (Prior Lake, MN) red-head pair at $2,450. 937-339-2853

The inventory at Dave Kneebone's Muddy Water Decoys included unusual examples like this circa-1900 Long Island goldeneye ($550) and Pickton, Ontario bluebill hen - $350. Dave also just took over as promoter for the Illinois Valley Hunting & Fishing Collectibles Show, to be held on August 11th in Utica, Illinois. Just give him a call at 815-663-1568 for all the details.

From New York State collector Timothy Sieger, circa 1920 George Boyd yellowlegs and black belly plover decoys sold as a pair - $11,750. 631-537-0153

450+ Lots of Petroliana, Automobilia & More will be Sold June 22nd at Matthews Auctions' Check the Oil Auction in Dublin, OH

The auction will be held on the second day of this year's Check the Oil, Gas & Oil Show in Ohio.

(DUBLIN, Oh.) - More than 450 lots of highly collectible examples of petroliana (gas station) and automobilia (cars) will be offered at a Check the Oil auction planned for Saturday, June 22, by Matthews Auctions, LLC, based in Nokomis, Ill. The event will be held on the second day of the annual Check the Oil, Gas & Oil Show, a huge draw for fans of petroliana.

Standard Oil of Indiana double-sided porcelain die cut sign boasting "Clean Rest Rooms."

part of a great Mobil collection at this year's auction, plus other great consignments," said Dan Matthews of Matthews Auctions.

Mobil items will feature a Mobilgas Marine single-sided porcelain shield-shaped sign with Pegasus the winged horse graphic, dated 1947 and measuring 12 inches by 12 inches, rated 9 out of 10 for condition with just some tiny flea bites around the perimeter (these have been touched up). Despite the cosmetic repair, the sign is in good shape and should attract attention.

Also offered will be an original Mobiloil single-sided porcelain sign ("Recommended for All Motor Cycle Engines"), with upper case gargoyles "D." The sign, rated 9, is 9 inches by 11 inches and is in overall good condition, with just a little crazing in the bottom right hand corner. "This sign is the real deal and would be a great addition to anyone's collection," Matthews said.

Sinclair Aircraft double-sided porcelain sign with single-engine airplane graphics, rated 8.

The sign is from South America, where the Pegasus image began. The display has a small chip in the field and a chip in the corner and the flange has been straightened. The sign is rated 8.

A pair of Texas Rose 13.5-inch lenses will also be offered. One, with the "Regular" logo, is housed in a new Capco globe body and is rated 9+. Everything about the lens is in good condition. The other has the "Ethyl" logo and comes in the original Capco body. It is rated 9.5 and 8. The display lens is in good shape. The only flaw is some minor paint flaking at one notch.

Standard Oil of Indiana will be well represented in the sale, with a double-sided porcelain sign, 35 inches by 37 inches with flame logo, rated 9+, the first one ever offered by Matthews Auctions; a piece of decorating ceramic (or concrete) with a glazed face, that came out of the front of a building, framed, 29 inches by 32 inches by 12 inches, rated 8; and a double-sided die cut sign ("Clean Rest Room Award"), 51 inches by 15 inches, rated 9, with great gloss and color.

Mobilgas Marine single-sided porcelain sign with Pegasus the winged horse graphic, rated 9.

Service sign for Standard Oil of Indiana, concrete with glazed face, from the front of a building.

McColl-Frontenac Product (Red Indiana) double-sided porcelain sign, rated near-mint at 9.5.

A McConnell-Frontenac Product (Red Indiana) double-sided porcelain sign with logo, rated 9.5, 36 inches in diameter, with sharp gloss and color and a clean field, is marked "Vilas Enameled Products." Also sold will be a Shell Motor Oil double-sided porcelain sign in a strap base, measuring 24 inches by 24 inches, rated 9 on both sides and in overall excellent condition.

Petroliana signs with an aircraft theme will include a Socony Oils single-sided porcelain sign, 20 inches by 30 inches, rated 8.9 with wonderful gloss and color and some light wear and small chips; and a Sinclair Aircraft double-sided porcelain sign with single-engine airplane graphics, 48 inches in diameter, rated 8 (would be higher save for a hole drilled in the center).

Switching from air to sea, a Harbor Petroleum Products double-sided porcelain die cut sign with seaplane graphics, 39 inches by 35 inches, rated 7 and 6.5, is unique in that it's the first time Matthews Auctions has ever offered a double-sided Harbor Petroleum Products sign. Both sides have good gloss and color, but both also have chips and wear in the field (mostly reverse).

Additional expected top lots will include a Gilmore Lion Head Motor Oil ("Look, the Most Highly Filtered Motor Oil in America") single-sided tin sign, 20 inches by 14 inches, rated just 7 but quite rare in any condition; and a pair of Reliable Petroleum Regular 13.5-inch lenses housed in a Capco globe body, rated near-mint at 9.5, with both lenses in excellent condition.

Internet bidding for the auction will be provided by Proxibid.com. Phone and absentee bids will also be accepted. The Embassy Suites Hotel is located on the northwest corner of the metro Columbus (Ohio) area. Take I-270 to the State Route 161 exit, go east to the first stop light and turn right, then take the next right. The Embassy Suites' phone number is (614) 790-9000.

Dan Matthews has written a book about petroliana, titled The Fine Art of Collecting and Displaying Petroliana. For information on how to order a copy, log on to the Matthews Auctions website, at www.matthewsauctions.com. Or, you can order one by calling 1-877-968-8880.

Matthews Auctions, LLC is always accepting quality consignments for future auctions. To consign a single item or a collection, you may call them at (217) 563-8880; or, you can send them an e-mail at danm@matthewsauctions.com. For more information about Matthews Auctions and the Check the Oil auction on June 22nd, log on to www.matthewsauctions.com.

Mobiloid single-sided porcelain sign with upper case "D"; 9 inches by 11 inches rated 9.

Reliable "Premium Regular" gasoline 13.5-inch lenses in the original Capco body, rated 9.5.

Buyers from US, Canada, Europe & Asia Vie for Music Machines at Stanton's 3 Day Auction

Article & Photos by Stanton's Auctioneers & Appraisers

Not only were the collectors of antique music boxes & phonographs in attendance, but others interested in the private collections of surveying equipment and scientific machines were onsite for their offering. In addition to the collectors, were people watching the auction and analyzing the sale of machines, who have decided to liquidate their own collections at future sales to be conducted by Stanton Auctioneers.

With over 1400 lots being sold during the three day event many rare examples were sold including a very rare Multiphone floor model cylinder phonograph (that rotates 24 different records like an early juke box) sold for $77,000.00, a superb Regina 20-3/4" drum table in Rookwood finish (1 of 23 made) sold for $24,200., an oak Reginaphone (in a Columbia lions head cabinet brought $19,200., Regina automatic changer (15-1/2") Style 35 sold for $17,600, a cylinder music box with Mandarin bell strikers and dancing dolls brought $10,450 selling to a buyer in London, 2 Regina floor model Orchestral 27" units for $13,200 & $11,550, A fine Reginaphone Style 150 w/matching cabinet $7,150, a Polyphon 14" disc music box with 12 bells sold for a record price of $11,000, Victor VI phonographs sold for $6,050 & $4,950. and another example for just over $5,000, an Edison Model A floor model cylinder player in excellent condition brought $5,720., Columbia AB (McDonald) $3,850, Regina Style 40 console model music box w/Rookwood finish $9,075.; Edison Concert $2,420, Victor E Rigid Arm machine $2,090 (replaced horn), Zon-o-phone Grand Opera $8,525., Edison Home w/Polyphone attachment $4,950.; Capitol Phonograph Lamp $3,080, an Edison Concert (with recent nickel plating) sold for $6,050.00, a fine Mermod Freres Long Marche 17" cylinder music box in a burl wood serpentine case $8,250.00, a rare set of floor model Talking Scales verbally told the user how much they weighed $6,600, & an oak Edison Opera sold for $4,950. Nearly 1400 lots were sold over the course of the auction.

In addition to the music machines the private collection of scientific instruments and surveying equipment were well received. Two (2) Wild T-4 Theodolite surveying units sold for $8,800 and $5,200 each. Some of the scientific examples sold including an Upright Steam Engine Demonstration model that brought $5,170; a Geisler Tube spinner w/motor, rare $2,860; Hand Crank Generator $2,200; A single electric fan w/vertical blades sold for $1,320; Many other pieces from both categories sold to the interested buyers.

Now that our April sale is done we have already begun work on our fall events. Our first sale of the fall will be held on Friday & Saturday September 20 and 21st, (see full page of information in this flyer), this sale will liquidate the collection and Estate of David Adamitis of Pennsylvania ; Our annual Fall Music Machine Auction will be held November 21, 22, & 23rd. Both sales will be held in Charlotte, Michigan.

We are presently arranging our traveling schedule to visit and acquire machines and collections for our upcoming fall sales. During the preparation for our recent Spring Auction we traveled nearly 25,000 miles meeting with collectors, estates, museums and private individuals in acquiring the items that were sold. Our travels took us all over the United States including the west coast, the mountains states, as well as the Midwest, the eastern and southern portions of the United States and multiple trips to different areas in Canada. Call us to talk about your collection and our service.

Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Hands-On Pottery Experience With Richard Spiller To Feature International Potter Aba Luostarinen

Red Wing, MN - The Red Wing Collectors Society announces today that Aba Luostarinen, a student potter from Finland, will join Richard Spiller at the 2013 Convention - Diggin' Red Wing slated for July 11-13 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing, MN.

Spiller traveled to Finland and Estonia this past year. In August 2012, he participated in the Eco Ceramics workshop that brought together ceramic artists from Latvia, Estonia and Finland at Kohila in Estonia. Spiller returned in January to give master class workshops at the HAMK University of Applied Sciences in Finland and the Estonian Academy of Art - EAA.

While participating in the workshops, Spiller learned that ceramics students had a program requirement for an international ceramics experience; he met student Aba Luostarinen, who was looking for an opportunity. Since his return in January, Spiller worked with the universities and Luostarinen on creating a pilot program to Minnesota.

Spiller approached RWCS Executive Director Stacy Wegner about the possibility of Luostarinen joining his RWCS Convention Hands-On Pottery session as part of the exchange program. By including Luostarinen, it would give him the opportunity to expand the Convention session and encompass it with the exchange program.

"Having Aba join Richard this year to expand the Hands-On Pottery Experience for our Convention attendees is a ground breaking addition to the Convention," said Wegner. "We're excited to be a part of the exchange program."

"I am very excited to have Aba join me at the RWCS Convention this year to share Red Wing Pottery with an international student as part of her exchange experience," said Spiller.

With Luostarinen's assistance, Spiller's 2013 Convention Hands on Pottery Experience will be offered to attendees on both Thursday, July 11 and Friday, July 12 at Red Wing High School. Participants in the two-hour session times will have the opportunity to learn pottery techniques and make their own creation. Following the Convention, the pieces will be fired in the Anderson Center kiln and shipped to participants; the cost is $35.

In addition to the Red Wing Collectors Society Convention, contacts with the Northern Clay Center, Anderson Center and experience in Spiller's studio will make up a five week university accredited program to pave the way for future exchange programs.

Luostarinen, 27, lives in Hämeenlinna, Finland and is a student at HAMK University of Applied Sciences. Luostarinen is finishing her studies as a glass and ceramic designer. Her interest and experience is in using ecological materials in ceramics. And, like Spiller, she's also interested in wood and gas firing kilns. More of her work can be seen on her website: <http://abaluostarinen.fi>.

Richard Spiller joined the RWCS Convention educational program last year through a pre-Convention hands-on pottery class at the Anderson Center and pottery demonstrations at Red Wing High School during the Convention. The class gave RWCS members the opportunity to apply the Scraffito (scratching) technique to a crock.

The Red Wing Collectors Society Convention is July 11-13, 2013 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing. To learn more about the annual Convention, or the Red Wing Collectors Society, visit <http://www.redwingcollectors.org> or find them on Facebook or follow on Twitter.

Dodgeville Lion's Host A Great Show Not To Be Missed

Original framed Railroad print from 1949 "Meeting of The Chiefs", Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railways.

The Dodgeville Lion's Club Flea Markets and Antique Shows have something for everyone and should not be missed. These events are held in the Ley Pavilion at Harris Park in Dodgeville, Wisconsin. The first of two great shows will be held on June 16th and the second on August 18th. This great show is now in its 21st year and keeps improving annually. This show has gained a reputation for having very helpful friendly dealers with great quality merchandise. The facility is top notch all being held inside a very large pavilion.

The June Show promises a large selection of antique tools, a great selection of military collectibles from past wars, a huge selection of old postcards and vintage high quality jewelry, a selection of fine pottery, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans collectibles, cast iron and matchbox toys, fine crystal, antique furniture items and an ongoing, unbelievable list of other great items.

The selection is great, the facility is outstanding, the fun to be had in the shopping experience is second to none. Come to Dodgeville for this great show. We promise, you will not be disappointed.

We have clean restrooms, and a great food stand on premises to include delicious home baked pies baked by the Dodgeville Lioness Club. Buy a single piece, pie alamode or the entire pie.

For more information contact Bob 608-935-3926 or write Bob Kratochwill, 413 W Spring St, Dodgeville, WI 53533.

Part of a selection of over 50 Matchbox toys in mint like condition & boxes.

A selection of wood decoys, including Mason & Evans.

The Shows!

National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors To Hold Midwest Regional Convention In Indiana

Porter Co. Expo Center (fairgrounds), 215 E. Division Rd., Valparaiso, Indiana. Hours are Saturday morning: August 3, 2013 from 9:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., $5.00 entry fee

The public is invited to bring in that old clock or watch for an opportunity to speak with clock and watch experts to learn something about its history.

There will be a large clock and watch show with hundreds of tables loaded with old clocks and watches for sale. Door prizes will be given out and there will be an exhibit and programs.

The National Watch and Clock Collectors is an organization whose members include hobbyists, students, educators, casual collectors, and professionals in related sales and manufacturing trades. The common bond is the fascination with art and science of timekeeping, where members share their interests and make friendships with other clock and watch buffs around the world.

NAWCC Membership is also available at the door, and should you choose to join, entry into our mart is free. Check out our website at www.nawcc.org to learn more about the National Association of Clock and Watch Collectors Eagle River Antique Show.....Take a Break from the Lake!

The largest high school field house in Wisconsin will be transformed to one of the Northwood's largest and finest antique show on July 6 and 7th. The air conditioned field house at Northland Pines High School in Eagle River, Wisconsin will be hosting the 21st annual July antique show and sale. 25 professional dealers from across the Midwest will be presenting quality items for all interests and all budgets. Customers will be able to see thousands of items in antiquing and collecting categories including room ready furniture, primitives, Northwood's vintage lodge and cabin décor, sporting collectables, fine glass, art pottery, oriental rugs, outstanding costume jewelry, fine jewelry including sterling and gold, vintage clothing, Native Americana, vintage linens and quilts, civil war items, advertising, postcards, vintage toys, folk art, pastels, fine art, and much more.

Veteran show promoter and Steve Bina works hard to provide a balanced show and personally screens each dealer for quality and authenticity. With over 30 years in the antique business and a professional background and in the fine arts, you won't be disappointed with the show's variety and quality. In addition to the dealers from the Midwest states, dealers from New York and South Carolina will also be exhibiting at the show.

The show is designed to be a family friendly event: adult admission is $4.50 and is good for both days, but children and young adults under 16 are free of charge. Show hours are 9:00AM to 5:00PM on Saturday and 10:00 AM to 4:00PM on Sunday. For further information on the show call Steve 608-385-3598 or Thelma 608-385-8911. Delicious food will be available both days, once again being provided by the St Peters Parish youth group. In addition, the Vilas County Humane Society will be providing an informational table.

Back by popular demand will be two events featured at last year's 20th anniversary show. These opportunities are designed to educate and create interest for current collectors and the "next generation" of antiquers.

SUNDAY APPRAISAL FAIR: On Sunday from NOON until 3:00 PM, customers attending the show will be able to bring up to three items for a free informal verbal appraisal. All items are welcomed with the exception of weapons or fine jewelry.

DEALER "SHOW AND TELL": Steve has invited a number of dealers to share their expertise with customers. Every half hour beginning at noon, a dealer will present a very informal 10 to 15 minute "show and tell" from inside their booth. Customers will be able to grab a cup of coffee, visit the dealer's booths, and listen to the presentation. Customers can stay for a few minutes or the entire presentation.

Dealers will talk about their area of expertise or interest, show examples, and answer questions, providing customers a unique opportunity to learn more about a specific area of antiques plus an opportunity to sharpen their flea market and antique hunting skills.

These mini-seminars are also being held to educate young people, hopefully sparking their interest item from the past. Bina states that he, along with other dealers, are excited to give young people opportunities to learn about antiques and to help them develop an appreciation and interest for the past.

Seminar topics scheduled thus far include costume jewelry, oriental rugs, Redwing Rum rill pottery, antique bottles, and collecting postcards.

If you're up north for the 4th be sure to "Take a Break from the Lake", and attend this great event!

John & Linda Welsch will bring this beautiful large Navaho Ganado rug, 1 of 6 to be at the show; array of Inuit Ivory carvings, several at show; Navaho Squash Blossom necklace w/matching earrings, 1 of 4 to be at the show; small wood carvings from George Brown Lac du Flambeau, WI; fine Western Apache basket, 1 of several to be at the show.

Designing Eye from La Crosse, WI will be bringing this Majolica Jard & Pedestal with Serpent base; these Sabino & LaLique; Mettlach Plaque; large woven basket.

Times Treasures will be bringing this large fish mount of Northern Pikes; great selection of hand painted china including: Limoges, Pickard, Bavarian, and Stouffer; a wonderful amethyst glass comport.

Lee Bernard Antiques of Jackson, WI will be bringing this old wood boat seat & boat cushion & this boar's head.
