Fantastic Advertising Signs & Oil Cans Cross the Block at Millers Auction Co. Event

Article & photos by Glenn Miller

On June 1st Millers Auction Co of Hixton WI held a great auction at Tomah Wisconsin. The collection belonged to one man from Cornell Wisconsin and was moved to the Fairgrounds in Tomah Wisconsin to be sold. There were 300 advertising signs. The signs ran the gamut. Feed, Fertilizer, Seed, Gas, Oil, Batteries, Soda Pop, Sporting Goods etc. In addition to the signs were nearly 400 oil cans. Cans ranged in size from 20 gallons to handy oilers, most being quart and 2 gallon.

This Oilzum advertising sign sold for a high bid of $2,450.

This Coca-Cola sign brought a high bid of $750.

This Pabst beer sign brought a bid of $950.

One Down, Three to Go for Wisconsin's Massive Elkhorn Antique Flea Market

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

On Sunday, May 19th, the Walworth County Fairgrounds in Elkhorn, Wisconsin once again hosted the massive N.L. Promotions Elkhorn Antique Flea Market. Back in 1982, when they held their first shows, they were happy if fifty dealers showed up. Now, more than three decades later, 500, 600, even 800 dealers turn out for each of the four shows held every summer, at what has become one of the Midwest's biggest and best indoor/outdoor antique events. With that many dealers, you know you're going to find what you're looking for, whether it's classic or kitsch, and probably at a great price too!

Auction Action Antique News - Online! Always On Time!

Great Weather, Great Crowd, at the May Elkhorn Antique Flea Market

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

They say bigger is better, but in the case of antiques markets, that often is not the case. We've all seen numerous "antiques markets" slowly degenerate into everyday flea markets. But even though the N.L. Promotions Elkhorn Antique Market is one of the biggest around, it's still one of the highest quality indoor/outdoor antique markets in the Midwest.

At the inaugural Elkhorn Antique Market show in 1982, it was just a few dozen lonely dealers arranged in a circle in the middle of a field. As the show grew, dealers spilled into more and more of the fairground buildings. Today, pretty much the entire fairgrounds are taken up with the hundreds of exhibitors from near & far.

The dealers here run the gamut, from professional show dealers with high-end antiques to weekenders with old family treasures. Some have been coming since that very first season. Others, like Cody Manley, were set up here for the very first time. Cody came with a great selection of Mid Century Modern furniture and accessories, and sold much of it within an hour of the show's opening. Among the sold pieces: a pristine Contour Chair-Lounge sporting its original moss-green upholstery.

Things couldn't have looked more different than down the aisle at Jr. Pickers' display. A group of antique alabaster busts filled one corner of their tent, surrounded by everything from a carved mahogany rocker to a Gothic Revival walnut picture frame. And right next door sat Chicago architect Walter Myers, who brought an eclectic assortment of architectural ornaments including stone column capitols and terra cotta ornaments - plus all the parts to make your very own windmill.

Whether you're looking for funky furniture or fine art, vintage jewelry or vintage fashions, or pretty much anything else, you'll find it here in quantity. It's all here in one place, at prices that are just as attractive as the merchandise. Whether you're a dealer, decorator, or just a casual collector like me, I can't imagine a day spent at Elkhorn wouldn't be a productive one.

The Elkhorn Antique Flea Market is a one-day event, so get there early. Parking is free, and admission only five bucks. The gates open at 7:00 am, but you'll still be hard pressed to see even close to all of the hundreds of dealers at any given show. Luckily, there are four shows every summer. You still have three more chances to get here in 2013: June 30th, August 11th, or the season finale on September 29th. That September show often the biggest and best attended one of the year. Dates for the 2014 season are already set too, with Elkhorn Antique Flea Markets scheduled for May 18th, June 29th, August 10th, and September 28th. And if you need an "antique fix" this winter, N.L. Promotions, operators of the Elkhorn Antique Flea Market, also manage the West Bend Antiques Show, held this winter at the Washington County Fair Park on January 18th & 19th. Be sure to check out their website, www.nlpromotionsllc.com, for more details on all of the events. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming show listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

Thousands of folks turned out for the May Elkhorn Antique Flea Market - greeted by a perfect sunny spring day.

Chicago architect Walter Myers came with some great architectural artifacts, from this set of column capitols (sold for a bargain $150) and terra cotta acanthus-leaf panel - $800.

Jr. Pickers brought a wonderful of antique alabaster carvings, including this signed bust of a maiden - $850. 815-712-6151

The eclectic inventory at Jr. Pickers ranged from this disc music box ($1,450) to a gothic-framed religious lithograph - $195. 815-712-6151

You could have bought this "do it yourself" vintage windmill from Walter Myer for $300.

More bargains from Walter Myers' display: the cherry work table priced at only $75, the 1960s Italian vase at $25.

Mid-Century purveyor Cody Manley brought, and quickly sold, this chair pair and pristine Contour Chair-Lounge in moss green upholstery. 262-994-9636

Cody Manley's booth was filled with lookers & buyers alike, with vintage finds like these lockers (sold) and extra-tall articulated lamp - $225. 262-994-9636

Choice pressed steel toys awaited at Chuck & Mary's Antiques, like this 1960s Tonka dragline - $165. 262-287-6537

Industrial artifacts from Chuck & Mary's Antiques: the 40" square factory cart priced at $125, the 12" hollow steel letters at $25 each. 262-287-6537

A trio of finds from collector Karl Heckel: the hard-to-find 7" Polarine Lubester sign priced at $585, the Swiss 15-jewel car clock at $95, and the "as is" Indian Motorcycle at $450.

Shoppers found plenty of country stoneware at Out on the Farm Antiques, plus petroliana including this Cen-Pe-Co lube dispenser ($70) and Cream City Utility Can - $55. 920-294-3068

Two classic Buddy L steel fire trucks from Abe's Old Hat Antiques & Country Store: the Pumper priced at 1,250, the excellent all-original 1920s Hook & Ladder at $2,500. 217-414-3320

"Extra-minty" best described this great Scott-Atwater Outboard Motor sign from Abe's Old Hat Antiques & Country Store, asking price $3,500. 217-414-3320

Spring was in the air at Serendipity Antiques & Uniques, where I found this vintage beach furniture set ($60) and 24" plant stand - $65. 608-921-2771

Two more vintage toy finds from J & B Collectibles: the 1958 Mattel Buckle Gun complete with box priced at $185, the 1950s Wyandotte Steam Shovel at $120. 920-235-0646

Spring was in the air at Serendipity Antiques & Uniques, where I found this vintage beach furniture set ($60) and 24" plant stand - $65. 608-921-2771

From Little Bohemia Antiques, a cute 30" mail sorting station originally from the Geneva, Illinois post office - $150. 630-513-8670

I found this charming child's stepback cupboard at Just a Little Bit Country, with punched tin panels & sporting its original blue-over-red finish - $595. 262-542-8050

A pride of lions adorn this early cast concrete garden urn from Cherub Haven Antiques - 18" tall & priced at $575. 414-421-2450

Terry Becker's Just a Little Bit Country came with a wide selection of restored country furniture, like this punched tin pie safe ($795), and wainscot cupboard that sold soon after for $575. 262-542-8050

You never know quite what you'll find at Iowa's T's Antiques, from this swingin' '60s acrylic pendant lamp (12", $195) to a great group of graniteware buckets priced from $265 to $295. 563-343-5693

It's always Halloween at Cherub Haven Antiques, with vintage decorations including this framed 1918 Brownies crepe paper panel - $85. 414-421-2450

Darren Bianco specializes in antique Japanese weaponry, but also brought along this just-acquired 12 1/2" x 16 1/2" Samuel Black "The National Medallion" 1859 brass plaque. 574-387-0208

I found these pretty-in-pink vintage patio chairs at Little Bohemia Antiques, asking price $225 for the set. 630-513-8670

Two litho-tin toy standouts from Yesterday's Memories: the Unique Art Sky Rangers complete with box priced at $595, the Marx Mickey Mouse Express at $800. 262-352-2335

Great period advertising awaited at Yesterday's Memories, from this pristine 15" Blatz Old Heidelberg Beer light-up clock ($650) to this 34" x 45" Velvet Tobacco framed lithograph - $1,200. 262-352-2335

From period furniture to art pottery & stoneware to architectural salvage, you're sure to find what you're looking for among the hundreds of dealers that set up at each of the four summer Elkhorn Antique Flea Markets.

A trio of vintage wedding reception table dolls from Little Bohemia Antiques, 15" tall & priced at $39 each. 630-513-8670

Millers Auction Co. Sells Advertising Sign & Oil Can Collection in Tomah, Wisconsin

Article & Photos by Glenn Miller

June 1st was the first beautiful day in Midwest Wisconsin in a few weeks. The auction drew a rather small crowd, competing with graduations, weddings, yard work and other auctions in the area. But that did not keep the auction from doing well. Many items sold well and there were a few deals for the guys who were paying attention. Auctioneer Tim Barnum did a bang up job selling around 100 items per hour.

Owner Glenn Miller of Millers Auction Company is always looking for advertising collections to auction or he also buys collections. The next advertising consignment auction Millers has Scheduled is Dec 6th and 7th. They already have 100 lots consigned, so if you are interested in consigning don't wait until November, call now. 715 299 2543. Be sure to check out the website: www.millersauctionco.com

Coca-Cola sign sold for $750.

Monier Hybrids sign sold for $140.

Quaker State motor oil sign sold for $650.

AAA Emergency Service sign sold for $160.

This cute Real Estate sign brought $130.

Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Hands-On Pottery Experience With Richard Spiller To Feature International Potter Aba Luostarinen

Red Wing, MN - The Red Wing Collectors Society announces today that Aba Luostarinen, a student potter from Finland, will join Richard Spiller at the 2013 Convention - Diggin' Red Wing slated for July 11-13 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing, MN.

Spiller traveled to Finland and Estonia this past year. In August 2012, he participated in the Eco Ceramics workshop that brought together ceramic artists from Latvia, Estonia and Finland at Kohila in Estonia. Spiller returned in January to give master class workshops at the HAMK University of Applied Sciences in Finland and the Estonian Academy of Art - EAA.

While participating in the workshops, Spiller learned that ceramics students had a program requirement for an international ceramics experience; he met student Aba Luostarinen, who was looking for an opportunity. Since his return in January, Spiller worked with the universities and Luostarinen on creating a pilot program to Minnesota.

Spiller approached RWCS Executive Director Stacy Wegner about the possibility of Luostarinen joining his RWCS Convention Hands-On Pottery session as part of the exchange program. By including Luostarinen, it would give him the opportunity to expand the Convention session and encompass it with the exchange program.

"Having Aba join Richard this year to expand the Hands-On Pottery Experience for our Convention attendees is a ground breaking addition to the Convention," said Wegner. "We're excited to be a part of the exchange program."

"I am very excited to have Aba join me at the RWCS Convention this year to share Red Wing Pottery with an international student as part of her exchange experience," said Spiller.

With Luostarinen's assistance, Spiller's 2013 Convention Hands on Pottery Experience will be offered to attendees on both Thursday, July 11 and Friday, July 12 at Red Wing High School. Participants in the two-hour session times will have the opportunity to learn pottery techniques and make their own creation. Following the Convention, the pieces will be fired in the Anderson Center kiln and shipped to participants; the cost is $35.

In addition to the Red Wing Collectors Society Convention, contacts with the Northern Clay Center, Anderson Center and experience in Spiller's studio will make up a five week university accredited program to pave the way for future exchange programs.

Luostarinen, 27, lives in Hämeenlinna, Finland and is a student at HAMK University of Applied Sciences. Luostarinen is finishing her studies as a glass and ceramic designer. Her interest and experience is in using ecological materials in ceramics. And, like Spiller, she's also interested in wood and gas firing kilns. More of her work can be seen on her website: <http://abaluostarinen.fi>.

Richard Spiller joined the RWCS Convention educational program last year through a pre-Convention hands-on pottery class at the Anderson Center and pottery demonstrations at Red Wing High School during the Convention. The class gave RWCS members the opportunity to apply the Scraffito (scratching) technique to a crock.

The Red Wing Collectors Society Convention is July 11-13, 2013 at Red Wing High School in Red Wing. To learn more about the annual Convention, or the Red Wing Collectors Society, visit <http://www.redwingcollectors.org> or find them on Facebook or follow on Twitter.

The New Sunday At Sandwich Antiques Show Is Alive & Thriving

The New Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show is alive and thriving. After two second-Sunday events of May and June, the Blue Antique Productions group can look happily forward to continued support from dealers and enthusiastic visitors. The Sunday at Sandwich Antiques event will occur again on July 14, August 11 and October 13 at the historic Sandwich Fairgrounds in Sandwich, Illinois. This park-like venue boasts dealers exhibiting in buildings, tents, and on the manicured lawns under mature trees. Sunday at Sandwich Antiques Show is the only antiques market held at the Sandwich Fairgrounds.

Sunday at Sandwich is not a flea market, but variety is encouraged by the management. Visitors will find quality Americana, collectibles, garden fare, mid century modern, re-purposed items, advertising, industrial pieces, and some glitz and jewelry. No new craft items are allowed, but vintage folk art is welcomed.

Paved walkways between areas facilitates handicapped visitors to shop in their wheel chairs or with their walkers. It also helps young moms with children in strollers, too. Parking is free at Sunday at Sandwich Antiques and admission is only $5.00, with under 12, free. A variety of food vendors are always on hand, and attended restrooms are always clean. Early buyers may shop on set-up Saturday and early Sunday for a $20 fee. Dealer inquiries are invited.

An added plus for customers to the market is the opportunity to also visit the several antiques malls and shops in the quaint town of Sandwich. One can shop as long as one has energy to do so. Only 62 miles from Chicago, and 75 from Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, it's worth the trip to see all of the offerings. Visit www.sundayatsandwichantiques and facebook for more information.

It's Back! Banowetz Antiques July 4th Sale

Submitted by Kathy Banowetz

That's right. After a three year hiatus we decided to bring back the Traditional July 4th Sale @ Banowetz Antiques in Maquoketa, Iowa. After 40 years of never having a July 4th off Viri & I decided to move the sale back to an Anniversary Sale in June. That was three years ago, but our customers were and are used to a sale over the 4th of July. So we are bringing it back by popular demand. From now until July 8th, many of our 50 plus dealers will be offering 20% - 25% discounts. Some dealer discounts will be less and some will be up to 50% off the regular price.

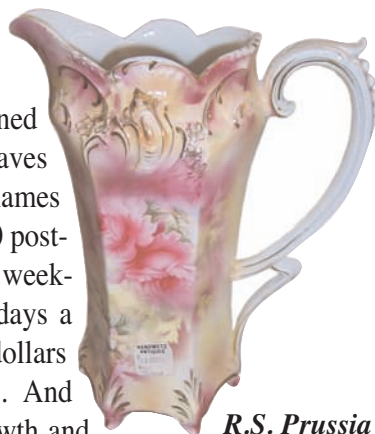

It all began in 1970 when we opened our store in Maquoketa on the Caves Road. The first year we collected names from checks and sent out about 200 post-cards inviting customers to come over the July 4th weekend and save 10% on their purchase. In those days a round oak table was selling for about $40 - $60 dollars and pressed back chairs were about $8 - $10 each. And we sold everything as is! Throughout all the growth and changes in our business over the past 40 plus years we continued the July 4th sale. It grew to a Show and Sale where we set up tents to better display the inventory and sent out color catalogues showing a sampling of what was available.

If you haven't visited our new mall yet now is the time! Customer response to the smaller building is positively amazing. Actually "amazing" is the word used most frequently by our customers when they see how much inventory we have in the smaller space as well as how diverse and organized it is. Even though we have a smaller building the inventory is still one of the biggest in the state, especially when it comes to furniture and lighting. With over fifty dealers, plus the mammoth Banowetz Antiques inventory, there is much to choose from.

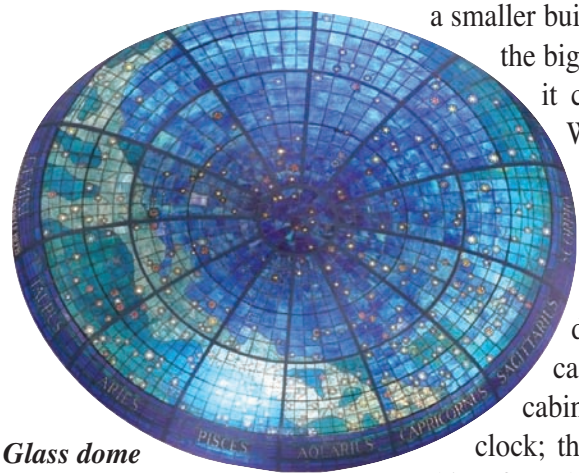

See the burled walnut dental cabinet; revolving book-cases; Larkin curved glass china cabinets; the heavily carved tall case clock; the Brunswick oak back bar with matching front bar; Peoria, Western & Redwing stoneware; the railroad memorabilia, book & coin dealer's booths & showcases; sideboards and servers in several styles; Victorian parlor & bedroom furniture; and country American furniture for every room in your home. Choose from over 100 dining room tables and 100's of chairs. Of course we carry a full line of china, glassware, and collectibles in most categories.

PLUS this year we are opening up our warehouse in the country. For those of you who remember the chairs hanging from the rafters and tables stacked 2 & 3 high, come and visit for old time's sake. You'll have lots of fun poking around. Some pieces are refinished, some not, and there are lots of projects for the do-it-yourself enthusiast. AND you'll have a chance once again to see the fabulous stained glass dome made by the Kinsella Glass Company in Chicago, c. 1914.

Viri and I thank you for your past patronage and look forward to seeing you soon.
