RWCS Celebrated it's 36th Anniversary at Their Convention July 10-13 in Red Wing, Minnesota

An 8 gallon Red Wing blue-banded pantry jar was the top item in this year's Red Wing Collectors Society (RWCS) Convention Auction on July 11. Thanks to its good condition and the fact that the 8 gallon size is quite hard to find, it drew an impressive $4,200 gavel price.

At $4,200, this 8 gallon Red Wing pantry jar was the top lot in this year's Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Auction. Nearly 1,500 collectors from around the country attended this year's Convention in Red Wing, Minn.

Article & photos by the Red Wing Collectors Society

The bidding ended at $2,100 on this 2 gallon Elephant Ear Ice Water cooler. It had a faint hairline on the back side.

Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles – The Badger State's Newest Must-See Antiques Destination

Wisconsin is already home to many quality antiques establishments, and you can now add another not-to-be-missed shop to that list: Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles. They've packed the impressive purpose-built structure with quality antiques in every category, and the front lawn with some choice classic cars from their vast collection. The attached Blossoms Deli & Coffee and Steve's Cheese make Pedal Pushers a true antiques destination, so just take exit-171 off of Interstate 43 just south of Green Bay and spend an hour – or a day!

Out & About

Hard to believe it has been twelve years since the tragic events of 9-11. I am sure today everyone had a quiet memory. My daughter Mekenzy had a 9-11 assignment. She had to ask three people what they recalled, where they were when they found out, how they felt and how they felt it changed the world today. As she was just two years old, she was too young to remember. Although every year, we manage to be together as a family and talk about that day and watch some sort of documentary. My son was only 11 days old and my mother-in-law was visiting from Arizona. She was too afraid to fly home, so my husband drove her part way home to meet up with her husband. We hung a 10' x 6' American flag in the bay window of our home for a year, and now it resides on our son's bedroom wall. Brandon is a collector of Patriotic memorabilia, especially flags. I remember the stillness and the quiet, for weeks to come, it took a long time before you felt life was back to some semblance of normalcy. Now it is part of our children's school history lessons. This will be a day that no one will ever forget. Please try to take some time and either donate or volunteer in your community. A little time makes a big difference.

From Art Glass to Antique Cars & More at the Brand-New Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

Stop by Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles and you're likely to find owners Bernie & Mary Smits on hand to greet you. They're open seven days a week year 'round from 10-5:30.

It's true. Bernie Smits was a "picker" decades before the term even existed. I guess that's what growing up in the family salvage business will do to you. So collecting is both a business and an obsession for Bernie and his wife Mary, who've accumulated an amazing amount of collectibles over the years. Selling antiques started almost by accident for the pair. "We were using vintage bicycles that came into the salvage yard as lawn decorations, and customers asked if they could buy them and do the same," Bernie told me, "and that's how Pedal Pushers was born."

Fast forward a decade or two, and the Smits realized they needed a dedicated site for their antiques enterprise. So just this year, they built Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles in tiny Denmark, Wisconsin - a stone's throw south of Green Bay. And it's hard to miss! The 7,000-square-foot structure looks for all the world like an old time general store, with a two-story cedar façade and long covered porch.

But it's what awaits within that will truly impress antiques enthusiasts. Bernie and Mary have diverse collecting interests, and that's reflected in the store's inventory. Inside, you'll find choice collections of everything from trade stimulators to art glass to period tin toys. And what about those vintage bicycles? There are probably a hundred or more here, displayed in long rows atop the countless showcases.

And as you arrive at Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles you won't fail to guess what Bernie's other main collecting interest is: classic cars. He's installed several special display pads out front just to show them off. There the day I visited were some real show-stoppers, from a baby-blue 1956 Mercury Monterey ($4,500), to a 1949 Hudson Commodore, asking price $7,500.

The Smits will be bringing many more classic cars to the shop from their collection, including in no particular order: a 1961 Ford Thunderbird, 1958 & '59 Studebakers, a 1963 Corvair, a 1932 Chevrolet Coupe, a 1932 Willys, and a 1967 Triumph

Be sure to take a look at the choice group of period firearms while you're there too. An ornate 18th century blunderbuss was in stock when I visited, along with some rare German drilling rifles, and American classics from the likes of Colt and Winchester. Some early Winchester calendars hung on the wall nearby, as did a 21" "Ask for Winchester Guns & Cartridges advertising clock, price tag $4,000.

Need a break after all that antiques? You won't have to go far, as Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles has its very own attached deli, coffee, wine, and cheese shop called Blossoms/Steve's Cheese. "Take a load off" there, where you can enjoy their selection of Collectivo coffees - or a bite to eat including homemade bakery goods and fudge made fresh daily by owner Tammy Smits-Sommer. Both would make great gifts too, as would something from their extensive wine & cheese selections.

So be sure to stop by Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles next time you're heading north on Interstate-43 for a visit long-or-short. They're open year 'round seven days a week from 10:00 to 5:30. And for you dealers out there, Pedal Pushers also has some showcases available to rent - just call Bernie or Mary at 920-863-8984 for details. And as always, keep an eye out for featured items at Pedal Pushers Antiques & Collectibles in the Auction Action Antique News!

It's hard to miss the new Pedal Pushers Antique & Collectibles shop as you take exit 171 off of Interstate 43 just south of Green Bay. The 32'tall cedar façade impresses - as does the 7,000 square feet of quality antiques and adjoining cheese, wine, & coffee shop complete with deli!

Super-clean 1934 Indian motorcycle - $27,500.

This way-cool 1950 Harley Davidson Service Trike could be yours for $10,500.

Pristine 1958 Cushman Eagle scooter, complete with original manual - $6,750.

Early Peerless bicycle in good original condition - $825.

Another oddity: this antique railroad mail car toilet (the kind where you can see the tracks when you open the lid!), asking price $1,000.

My furniture favorite at Pedal Pushers: this 19th century railroad conductor's desk, 32" x 60" and priced at $1,495.

Unusual 19th century oak and walnut step-back secretary with extensive carving and hidden storage cubbies - $2,450.

Enameled steel Hershey's 1c candy vendor - $545.

Take your pick of these 1934A $500 bills for $1,150 each.

This compact Murphy Bed with a fancy oak cabinet is an engineering marvel, & priced at $975.

Bernie found this early Elto Pal outboard motor packed just as you see it along with bamboo rods & other fishing accessories - $1,250.

Circa 1950s Roadmaster bicycle in its original red & black finish - $1,250.

"Ask for Winchester Guns and Cartridges" advertising clock, 21" in diameter - $4,000.

Framed 1914 Winchester Arms calendar, mint & complete - $6,275.

Matched pair of Carry-Lite salesman's samples mallard decoys (with pen for scale) - $650.

Pexto sample or miniature cast iron stove - $575.

Own this unique Christmas tree formed from one-hundred-plus shed mule deer antlers for $7,500.

Very-rare Roolo cash register with built-in pachinko-type trade stimulator, complete with original instructions - $975.

Ornate 18th century blunderbuss with gold, silver, & ivory inlay - $1,750.

Two vintage wooden model boats, one with a gas outboard, one with a Johnson Sea Fury battery outboard. Both measure 16" and are priced at $975 each.

Grover Cleveland graces this 1934A $1,000 bill, asking price $2,450.

Framed 1912 Winchester Arms calendar - $3,750.

8 Gallon Blue-Banded Crock Scores $4,200 at Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Auction

Although 2 gallon Red Wing crocks are plentiful, this is the only one known to have the "2" surrounded by floral decorations. This particular marking was used by the Fort Dodge Stoneware Company, a subsidiary of the Red Wing Union Stoneware Co. Despite a hairline at the base, the crock sold for $625.

(hairline), $2,100; 2 gallon "Geno Mfg. Co." advertising water cooler (mint), $2,100; Red Wing Gray Line cake stand (cracked), $1,300; and a 20 gallon butterfly crock back-stamped "Red Wing Stoneware Company" (mint), $1,050.

For notable art pottery items, a hard-to-find Red Wing Cleveland Brushed Ware vase sold for $1,200 and a pair of M3014 Decorator Line vases sold for $200 and $325, respectively. A 6.75-inch tall Nokomis glaze elephant sold for $450.

RWCS Commemorative Manager commissioned Maple City Pottery to make several special items for this year's Convention - all of which were auctioned off to benefit the Society. Thanks to its impressive artwork, this "Big Buttermilk Biscuits" Bulldog advertising churn sold for $650.

and enjoyment of attendees, combined with some fun and creative competition. Members bought and sold items throughout the week in the parking lot at Pottery Place Mall. About 200 volunteers helped make this

The RWCS celebrated its 36th Anniversary at this year's Convention, which brought nearly 1,500 visitors to the city of Red Wing from July 10-13 to buy, sell and learn more about the lines of Red Wing stoneware, art pottery and dinnerware. This year's event was sponsored by Red Wing Stoneware, Red Wing Pottery, Larry's Jugs Antiques and Treasure Island Casino.

Other items of interest in this year's auction, which was operated by Houghton's Auction Service, included a 2 gallon Elephant Ear Ice Water cooler

(hairline), $2,100; 2 gallon "Geno Mfg. Co." advertising water cooler (mint), $2,100; Red Wing Gray Line cake stand (cracked), $1,300; and a 20 gallon butterfly crock back-stamped "Red Wing Stoneware Company" (mint), $1,050.

Top dinnerware lots included a large grouping of Town & Country dinnerware for $350 and a 31-piece lot of Ernest Sohn Butter Mold dinnerware for $325. The auction, which consisted of about 190 items, brought more than $58,000 in total sales.

Events throughout the week included the annual business meeting, a "Crock Hunt" scavenger hunt around the historic Mississippi River town, and the always anticipated Saturday Show & Sale. There was also a special display room at Red Wing High School, where members created their own unique displays for the education year's Convention a success. RWCS Members Dennis Nygaard, Steve Showers, Paul Boudin and Connie Mathison officially kicked off the Convention on July 11 with a keynote presentation on digging in the Red Wing Pottery Dump. The Goodhue County Historical Society Museum also got into the act by opening its vault of archives to RWCS members during the week.

To increase funds and support for its new museum space, the RWCS Foundation held "Wine-ing for Red Wing" - an event that featured food and beverages, silent and live auctions and live music by musician Karl Burke. The RWCS Foundation is in the process of renovating the north half of the Pottery Place Annex building to house the new Red Wing Pottery Museum, which is scheduled to open during next year's RWCS Convention on July 9, 2014. The RWCS Foundation took in more than $30,000 in donations over the course of the week.

The year's commemorative, which could be purchased only by RWCS members, was a Red Wing stoneware Bulldog figure. Two limited-edition commemoratives were also produced. These were mixed in with the regular commemoratives and all commemoratives were packaged in sealed boxes, so a small number of members were fortunate enough to get one. Of all the Commemorative Bulldogs that were made, 90 percent were brown, 9 percent were white and black and 37 were two-toned tan. RWCS Commemorative Manager Bob Morawski also had several special items made that were auctioned off to benefit the Society.

Attendees had a good selection of topics to learn about during the educational sessions held on July 12, including an orientation for first timers, Red Wing zinc glaze, Red Wing 101, recent finds from the old pottery dump, Red Wing dinnerware, history of the villages surrounding the Goodhue County clay pits, Red Wing bowls and creating the 2013 RWCS Commemorative. Local potter Richard Spiller and Finnish potter Aba Luostarinen held hands-on pottery classes for adults, and the RWCS Foundation held an info session on all the news surrounding the future Red Wing Pottery Museum. In addition, the 2nd annual Crock Fest celebration featuring food vendors and music by The Crusiers was held at Red Wing's Central Park later that day. It was sponsored by Maple City Pottery.

Another unique aspect of the RWCS Convention was the participation of the younger generation through the KidsView program. The Society is on the leading edge of creating engaging and educational ways to get the younger generations involved in collecting. The focus on these RWCS members is an important part of the vision of the Society to ensure its continued existence and growth. Many interactive and challenging activities and seminars were offered for children of all ages, such as learning how to bid at an auction, what to look for in an antique, and several hands-on pottery creation projects. KidsView Co-Chairs Sue Tagliapetra and Aarika Floyd announced at the annual business meeting at the end of the week that they were stepping down from their roles after many combined years of service. They were given a standing ovation from those in attendance.

Young Red Wing collectors ages 13 to 20 participated in the Young Collectors Club at Convention. Activities included a hands-on pottery wheel opportunity led by RWCS Member Frank Sheldon, and a hike up Red Wing's famed Barn Bluff. The Young Collectors Club recently announced that participants can be eligible for a college scholarship by participating in club activities and earning participation points. Contact program chairperson Wendy Callicot at crocks701@aol.com for more information.

The next official RWCS event will be the annual MidWinter GetTogether, which will be held in Des Moines Feb. 6-8, 2014.

The Red Wing Collectors Society was founded in 1977 in Red Wing, Minn. and is devoted to educating people about all American pottery. There are about 4,000 members worldwide. The Red Wing Potteries had diverse pottery lines that included stoneware, dinnerware and art pottery. For more information or to become a member, call the RWCS business office at 800-977-7927, e-mail director@redwingcollectors.org or log on to www.RedWingCollectors.org. Bottom-signed "Saxon, Red Wing", this Brushed Ware vase sold for $1,200. It was reproduced and commercially sold by Red Wing in the early 1900s after the original version of the vase was given to President Grover Cleveland's wife when their train passed through Red Wing in 1887.

The blue-interior M-3014 Decorator Line vase designed by Charles Murphy sold for $200, while the bright green version sold for $325.

“Oh You Beautiful Doll!”

Altrusa of Wausau Wisconsin sets the stage for the 34th Annual Doll-Toy-Antique Show and Sale, where nationally and internationally renowned doll dealers arrive from Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota and Michigan. Up to 800 feet of collectible, limited edition, designer and antique dolls and toys reach out to everyone, adults and children, guys and gals, grandparents and singles, with unspoken words to "take me home" and "love me forever".

Mark the calendar for Saturday, October 12, 2013 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The setting is Saint Matthew's Gymnasium at 225 South 28th Avenue, Wausau, Wisconsin. The building is marked Faith Christian Academy. Admission is $4. Children 12 and younger enter free when accompanied by an adult.

The lure to dolls is nostalgia, from a favorite TV or storybook character to a once treasured memory. The fascination to dolls is their value and their history. Doll collecting continues today with new creations arriving for the holidays or cherished finds from vintage estates. The selections are endless: baby-faced dolls, fairy and angel dolls, Victorian dolls, Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls, Shirley Temple dolls, comic and commercial dolls, ethnic and cultural dolls, and more. The show and sale has limited and special edition dolls available among the artists' dolls. Doll clothes and accessories are on-hand, too, and many are hand-crafted. Toys, other related collectibles and antique items will be displayed. Gramma's Doll Room, Ashland, Wisconsin will be present for doll repairs. Doll appraisals are not practiced at the show; however, a dealer may arrange an appointment.

During the show and sale, the Altrusa food court will provide a moment to break from browsing and shopping. The Altrusa raffle in the food court supports the club's community service projects. The many items in the raffle, include $300 cash, an autographed Green Bay Packer football, and this year's exquisite "Nela" doll (featured here), made in the USA (Minnesota), where she was designed, modeled from vinyl like porcelain, mouth-blown glass eyes, hand painted and clothed with custom designed footwear. A&T Dolls will show and sell these artist dolls from Zofia & Henry Zawieruszyński.

Altrusa of Wausau Wisconsin has served its communities, locally and internationally, for 74 years. This fundraiser supports the club's service projects when the club donates money and volunteers time for special needs, scholarships and literacy programs. Visit us on Facebook: Altrusa International of Wausau

Folk Art Society of America

The Folk Art Society of America, founded in 1987, has become a dynamic, non-profit organization which advocates the discovery, study, documentation, preservation and exhibition of folk art, folk artists and folk art environments. Artists, educators, historians, writers, collectors, dealers, curators, museums, libraries and art enthusiasts from across the United States and around the world join together to share a common bond of interest in self-taught art and the unique individuals involved in its creation.

The home page of the FASA website at www.folkart.org is pleasing to the eye. Against a rich dark green background, it features a piece of folk art, the name of the Society and logo, how to contact the the Society and seven simple links: About the Society, how to join, the Society's magazine, Calendar of events, Annual conference, Catalog of books and links to other folk art sites.

Navigating the site couldn't be simpler and FASA seems to have all bases covered. The site certainly should give any first-time visitor a good feeling about the Folk Art Society of America.

Lifetime Collection of Don & Diane Sayrizi will be Sold at Auction Oct. 4-6 in Ann Arbor, MI

The auction will be held by Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven, Mich.

(ANN ARBOR, Mich.) – The lifetime collection of Don and Diane Sayrizi – advanced collectors in many categories, but especially antique advertising – plus consignments from over 100 other advanced collectors from all over the country will be offered Oct. 4-6 by Showtime Auction Services, at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor, located at 5055 Ann Arbor/Saline Road.

Action-packed Mills “By far this is the best collection of antique advertising we have ever had the privilege of selling,” said Mike Eckles of Showtime Auction Services, based in Woodhaven, Mich. “We’ve held big auctions in the past, many of which featured advertising items, but never like this. The antique signs, in particular, are highly desirable and would be fine additions to any collection.”

In all, around 1,800 lots will cross the auction block over the course of the three days – 600 lots on Friday, Oct. 4 (which will be for a live audience only; no phone, absentee or Internet bidding) and 1,200 lots on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 5-6, (which will be open to the live crowd, phone, absentee and Internet bidders). Internet bidding is provided by LiveAuctioneers.com and iCollector.com.

Campbell's Soups (“21 Kinds – Just Add a Can of Hot Water And Serve”) advertising sign (est. $40,000-$60,000).

tins, Coca-Cola, Western, Native American, guns, whiskey, primitives, lamps and bronzes.

Additional categories will include drug store, saloon, post office, coin-op, arcade, scales, gambling, cash registers, fishing, folk art, clocks, fine art and Santas. “About the only thing regulars to our auctions won’t find are firefighting antiques and memorabilia,” Eckles said.

Set of five early 20th century C.W. Parker carousel wood facias, all with different scenes (est. $15,000-$20,000).

a large collection of cast-iron toys, many of them rare, by Arcade and other makers.

Other collections of note will feature over 20 hard-to-find pedal cars; firearms and gunpowder posters and calendars; hundreds of tobacco and cigar tins; a large collection of breweriana; and scarce showcases, country store displays and counters. Also offered will be a fabulous Nickelodeon and three extremely rare Regina music players with discs from the 1890s, all in playable condition.

Individual lots that deserve special attention include a salesman’s sample cigar store showcase with original carrying case by Whitcomb Cabinet Company (Kansas City, Mo., circa 1895). “I feel very strongly that this is one of the top ten salesman’s sam-

Bally Reliance Jack-Pot 25¢ dice slot machine, professionally restored (est. $20,000-$25,000).

Early 18th century six-drawer ship's map case, wood, with original hand-painted scene on top (est. $3,000-$5,000).

Rare Coca-Cola rotation light-up sign showing the Sprite boy, 18 1/2 inches in diameter (est. $2,000-$4,000).

Circa 1920s Gendron Stutz pressed steel roadster, originally from the Kaufman collection (est. $7,500-$10,000).

ples ever offered at auction,” Eckles remarked. “It wouldn’t surprise me to see it sell for $50,000, maybe more.”

Another expected star lot is a Campbell’s Soup embossed tin sign, showing an image of an American flag fashioned from soup cans (“6 Plates for 10 Cents – Just Add Hot Water and Serve”), one of eight known. A similar sign, with a slight variation, was the top lot at Showtime Auction Services’ April 12-14 sale, where it brought $60,000. The one being sold is even nicer.

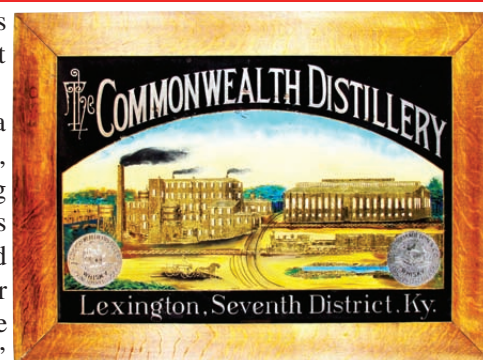

Other lots to watch include a rare 1958 two-sided petroliana sign for Mobile (not Mobil) Gasoline, 6 feet in diameter, with a graphic of a Bonneville Salt Flats-type car, one of possibly two known and graded 9 out of 10 on both sides for condition; and a complete three-station barber shop back bar, with chairs, occupational shaving mugs, razors and barber poles.

The hours for Oct. 4th live bidding will be 12 noon to 6 p.m. (EST), with previews that day from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and on Thursday, Oct. 3, from 12 noon to 5 p.m. Auction hours for Saturday and Sunday (Oct. 5th and 6th) will be from 9-5 (with a preview from 8-9 a.m.). For more information, log on to www.showtimeauctions.com.

The host hotel for this auction is the Clarion Hotel and Conference Center, located at 2900 Jackson Avenue in Ann Arbor. Guests are encouraged to book early, because of the many homecoming events at the nearby University of Michigan that could make for a busy time. For reservations, please call (734) 715-4444. Room trading will go on each evening after the auction.

Flyers for the auction will go out around Aug. 8th and catalogs will be mailed out the week of Sept. 2nd. To request a 200-page, full color catalog, call Amy at (734) 558-1145.

Showtime Auction Services is always accepting quality items for future sales. To consign an item, an estate or a collection, you may call Michael Eckles at (951) 453-2415; or, you can e-mail him at MikEckles@aol.com or mike@showtimeauctions.com. Their next auction will be held April 4-6, 2014. To learn more about Showtime Auction Services and the upcoming auction, log on to www.ShowtimeAuctions.com.

Commonwealth Distillery (Lexington, Ky.) reverse glass painted sign (est. $20,000-$25,000).

Red Crown Gasoline and Polarine tin sign, copyright 1913, 19 inches by 28 inches (est. $10,000-$15,000).

Salesman's sample cigar and tobacco store show case with carrying case, made in 1897 (est. $15,000-$25,000).

Make one stop on October 4 & 5 and visit 58 dealers at the upcoming Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show in Waukesha. In addition to WADA member exhibitors, there will be a record number of non-member participants, many from Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Minnesota who rarely exhibit in Wisconsin. Here collectors will find a wide variety of antiques offerings from 7 states all under one roof.

Gathering for their 62nd consecutive autumn show, many of the most respected dealers in the Midwest will offer fresh-to-market wares. Authenticity, condition and rarity are the guidelines for merchandise exhibited by their carefully-chosen antiques professionals.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association (called W.A.D.A. by many) was formed in 1948, making it the oldest, continually-functioning State antiques organization in America. Their not-for-profit group is dedicated to preserving Wisconsin's heritage and to providing ongoing education for their dealers and the general public - thus their free exhibit, "Antique Firefighting Memorabilia", a mere 142 years after the October, 1871 Peshtigo & Chicago fires that changed Wisconsin's great timberlands forever.

Finding insurance companies that understand antiques collections can often be a challenge. As a public service a representative from the Antiques and Collectibles National Association, Davidson, North Carolina, will be on hand to answer insurance questions for collectors and dealers alike.

The Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this event. Show hours are Friday, 11-9 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a Friday Night Fish Fry has been added to the menu so bring your appetite! Admission of $6.00 funds scholarships for high school students as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups.
