Rare Beacon Ethyl Gasoline Sign Brings $55,000 at Matthews Auctions' Fall Peotone Auction

*Article & photos by Matthews Auctions, LLC
 The event was held prior to the start of the popular Chicagoland Petroleum & Advertising Show.*

A rare Beacon Ethyl Gasoline single-sided porcelain sign with a die-cut lighthouse-shaped design, made around 1940 and in remarkable condition (rated 9 on a scale of 1 to 10), gaveled for $55,000 at a Fall Petroliana & Automobilia Auction held October 17th & 18th by Matthews Auctions, LLC, based in Nokomis, Illinois. The sign was easily the top lot of the auction.

 rated near mint at 9+ ($38,500).*

Fifty-Five Quality Dealers at CSADA's Fox Valley Antiques Show in St. Charles, Illinois

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The Kane County Fairgrounds in St. Charles, Illinois. Most of you know it as home of the famous Kane County Flea Market that's been held here for many years. There's another antiques event that has made the Fairgrounds its home for even longer: The Fox Valley Antiques Show, sponsored by CSADA - the Chicago Suburban Antique Dealers Association. They just held the 39th edition of its fall show, and it was one of the biggest and best in its long history. More than fifty-five dealers from seventeen states displayed their wares at the site that has become synonymous with quality antique shopping.

*My folk art favorite at Z & K Antiques: this excellent Civil War canteen painted and signed by C. H. Davis, Massachusetts and priced at $7,500.
 217-714-5016*

 6, 7 & 8*

*I don't think you could find a nicer Norwegian cradle than this example from Sebasky & Hildreth
 Antiques, in its original finish & priced at $1,400. 218-874-5777*

*I found this classic
 30" leaping stag
 hollow-body
 American Spirit Antiques, probably made by Washburne & Co and priced at $9,500. 913-345-9494*

*Two great pieces of functional folk art from Halsey Munson Antiques:
 the mid-19th century polychrome tin downspout priced at $1,450, the extra-chunky 44" floor-standing barber pole at $1,850. 217-972-4645*

Antiques from "Across the Pond" are a specialty at Redcoat Antiques, where I found this outstanding 19th century games compendium in a Biedermeier-style, entirely complete & original - $5,950. 847-426-3207

Kane County Fairgrounds Hosts 39th Annual Fox Valley Autumn Antiques Show

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

In fact, the CSADA has been holding their Fox Valley Antiques Shows here at the Kane County Fairgrounds since the inaugural show more than fifty years ago. The show has certainly grown in that time, and the fairgrounds has too – transforming from a group of pole buildings into the state-of-the-art 32,000 square-foot facility you'll find today, with ample (and free) parking. You can find out all the details at their website www.kanecountyfair.com.

The focus of the Fox Valley Antiques Show is always classic Americana. And the theme of this fall's event: "Folk Art: Simple Pleasures." And there were countless examples of just that all over the show, from the charming Scottie dog-themed hooked rug at Kentucky's Bruce Rigsby Antiques to the matched set of Indiana-made canvas-back decoys at Thomas Rawson Antiques.

Painted furniture more your thing? Look no further than Mary de Buhr Antiques, who had among the best selections at Fox Valley. My favorite there: a one-piece New England fireplace breast with built-in shelves above, in an old red finish & priced at $3,600. There were plenty of painted furniture choices for those of us on a budget too, like the classic red Sheraton washstand at Richard Larson Antiques priced at a very reasonable $550.

You're sure to find something to love among the fifty-five exhibitors here, from the antique toys and advertising at Z & K Antiques to the Native American trade goods at Arizona's Turkey Mountain Traders.

It's the quality dealers like these that have kept folks coming to the Fox Valley Antiques Shows for generations, and why it's considered one of the best antiques events in the Midwest - or anywhere. Come once and you'll realize that the Fox Valley Show's motto "More Than Half a Century, & Still Setting the Standard" is no idle boast.

CSADA, the Chicago Suburban Antique Dealers Association, actually holds two Fox Valley Antiques Shows here at the Kane County Fairgrounds each Year. You just missed the fall edition of the event, always held on the third weekend of October. The 57th spring edition of the event, held on the second weekend in March, happens this coming year on the 8th & 9th of 2014.

A not-for-profit association, CSADA benefits several organizations dedicated to preserving area historical sites, including the DuPage County Historical Museum, housed in the historic former Adams Memorial Library Building. Erected in 1891 by John Quincy Adams as a gift to the community of Wheaton in honor of his late wife Marilla Phips Adams, the building is now on the National Register of Historic Places.

Their nationally reviewed exhibit "Early Illinois Folk Art 1825 to 1925" just finished a successful summer showing, but there's plenty to do there this holiday season too. Be sure to stop by on November 16th for the Museum Guild's 30th Annual Holiday Bazaar, featuring all sorts of handmade ornaments and decorations. And the kids will love the Museum's December 12th Holiday Program featuring music of the season played by harpist Amy Lee, children's activities, and of course a visit from St. Nick himself. You can find out more at their website www.dupagemuseum.org.

Be sure to visit the Chicago Suburban Antique Dealers Association website too, www.csada.com, where you'll find a member list, discount admission coupons, and more. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of all of the upcoming Fox Valley Antiques Shows in the Auction Action Antique News!

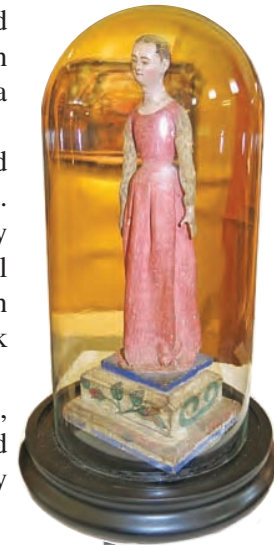

A great mix of period furnishings awaited at Cothren House Antiques, from this handsome American Federal settee ($1,645) to this funky home craftsman-made Mission oak & slag glass chandelier - $545. 815-227-5896

Painted wares from Richard W. Larson Antiques: the Sheraton washstand in its original red finish priced at $550, the arch-top fireplace surround at $395, and the "Axe Yard" figural trade sign at $195. 763-479-2033

Circa 1920s ice cream parlor table with self-storing chairs & a 24" square etched black glass top, from Cothren House Antiques - $945. 815-227-5896

From Tom & Marsha Brown Antiques, a 19th century Peruvian Santos figure stood under its protective glass dome, 10" tall & priced at $1,125. 574-532-7449

Shoppers found this exceptional 1870s American applied quilt with stuff-work fruit at Liberty Tree, measuring 76" x 80" & priced at $1,500. 630-469-5320

From Cothren House Antiques, a charming dated-1914 Norwegian oil-on-canvas landscape measuring 34" x 44" - $1,945. 815-227-5896

I found this wonderful 18th century New England "Entertainment by W. Palmer" tavern sign with hand-forged iron hardware at Jean Doty Antiques, asking price $3,600. 409-838-0212

A standout at Halsey Munson Antiques – this rare hollow-body brass fishmonger's or restaurant trade sign measuring 42" in length, originating in New England and priced at $4,900. 217-972-4645

Jean Doty Antiques came from the Lone Star State with some choice early New England papered boxes ($1,150 to $1,850), plus this mid-19th century birch hanging shelf - $1,600.

Antique children's ($75 to $295) chairs became wall art at Richard W. Larson Antiques – the original-finish country tea table below priced at $295.

One of my furniture favorites at the Fox Valley Show had to be this imposing figured maple corner cupboard at Tom & Marsha Brown Antiques, measuring 82" x 48" and priced at $4,900. 574-532-7449

The eclectic mix at Somerville's Antiques included this funky folk art airplane ($850) and a great-looking William & Mary tavern table, the surface measuring 27" x 34" - $2,200. 262-348-0157

Two more highlights from Liberty Tree: a 5' tall feather tree loaded with vintage glass ornaments, plus an extra-rustic open wide-board cupboard in a faded gray-green finish - $995. 630-469-5320

From Schoolhouse Antiques, an 18" x 30" flight of drawers in an exuberant original faux-grain finish - $1,950. 314-306-5200

Mary Anne Erenberger of Iowa's Erenberger Antiques admires a 52" painted plate shelf with pot-hooks, asking price $650. 319-622-3230

Mary de Buhr Antiques had among the best displays of period American painted furniture at the show, with finds like this 30" x 54" pewter cupboard/bench in faded red paint ($1,595) and New England fireplace breast measuring 43" x 87" - $3,600. 630-985-9449

Basketry finds at Missouri's Schoolhouse Antiques included this 27" hickory splint cheese basket, asking price $350. 314-306-5200

An unusual 1832 English sampler from Halsey Munson Antiques, with images of a "Poor Blind Man" out with his guide dog, and Adam & Eve being tempted by the serpent - $2,800. 217-972-4645

Two nice American Queen Anne pieces from Verdigris Antiques, the elegant 36" diameter mahogany tea table priced at $2,600, the Hudson Valley rush-seated side chair at $750. 847-674-7967

Shoppers were spoilt for choice with all the wonderful folk art rugs at the Fox Valley Show, among them this shirred-silk table rug from Verdigris Antiques, 22" x 38" and priced at $1,200. 847-674-7967

I found this extra-cute Scottie-dog-themed hooked rug at Bruce Rigby Antiques, 28" x 40" and priced at $1,250. 859-619-2343

From Kansas's American Spirit Antiques, a signed Aldro Hibbard oil-on-board titled 'Early Spring, Vermont, measuring 18" x 25" and priced at $11,500. 913-345-9494

Two fine Shepard Hardware cast iron mechanical banks from Z & K Antiques; the Uncle Sam bank priced at $2,950, the Jonah and the Whale at $2,495. 217-714-5016

Two period seating standouts from Bruce Rigsby Antiques: the continuous-arm Windsor chair in bittersweet paint priced at $2,250, the Canterbury Shaker rocker in its original red finish also priced at $2,250. 859-619-2343

Vermont's Marie Miller was quilt-central at the show, with dozens of examples of 19th and early 20th century American examples. 802-867-5969

A colorful display of painted American wooden bowls filled a corner at Colleen Frese Antiques, with prices starting at $80. 319-360-4301

At Spring Hill Farm Antiques, antique flag-pole finials became art. Also there: a pretty-cool 4'-long wood & composition fraternal lodge symbol, asking price $225. 608-879-3333

Denise Scott Antiques traveled from Rhode Island with a choice group of American pewter, including this circa 1840 camphene lamp with saucer base & lozenge font - $245. 401-886-1633

Fanciful carvings (including a two-headed eagle) adorned every inch of this 35" European walnut trunk from Thomas Rawson Antiques, price tag $1,375. 319-364-8943

From Sebasky & Hildreth Antiques, an Edwardian paint-decorated satinwood desk in the Sheraton style that once graced a Pillsbury heir's mansion - $4,700. 218-874-5777

Two wonderful 18th century Massachusetts fan-back Windsor chairs ($1,975 and $2,350) sat at Craig W. Illa Antiques, separated by a diminutive 18th century Queen Anne candle stand, asking price $795. 573-769-4299

From The Rock Step Antiques, a stave & bentwood sugar bucket ($375) sits atop a nine-drawer Pennsylvania spice cabinet (circa 1850, 18" x 22") in its original paint finish - $845. 608-588-2701

Period samplers are all you'll find at the aptly-named The Needle's Work Antiques, with examples including this 22" square Tower of London sampler dated-1846 ($3,200), and 1822 Massachusetts example with a prayer surrounded by roses - $2,375. 309-635-3729

A group of 19th and early 20th century Iroquois beadwork pieces from Turkey Mountain Traders - from ladies bags to dated whimsies. 480-423-8777

You'll always find interesting Wisconsin art at Ron Christman Antiques & Art, like this Richard Mouw "Wisconsin Farm Scene" oil-on-board, measuring 20" x 25" and priced at $950. 262-968-4913

It was all-things-Native American at Arizona's Turkey Mountain Traders, with finds like this 37" x 55" Navaho double saddle blanket made from hand-spun and Germantown yarns - circa-1920s and priced at $5,900. 480-423-8777

From Redcoat Antiques, a matched pair of circa-1820s miniature wax portraits of the Duke & Duchess of Wellington, in their original frames and priced at $895 for the set. 847-426-3207

Petroliana & Automobilia Bring Fantastic Prices at Matthews Auctions' Fall Peotone Event

Article & Photos by Matthews Auctions, LLC

The two-day event was held in Peotone, Ill., prior to the start of the popular Chicagoland Petroleum & Advertising Show held twice a year, always in Peotone. The action kicked off on Thursday evening, Oct. 17, with 200 lots of petroliana (gas station collectibles) and automobilia. Another 450 lots came up for bid on Friday, Oct. 18. More than 200 people attended in person.

Wyeth Tires single-sided porcelain curved sign with boy in early driving gear graphics, rated 9+ ($34,100).

Peerless Stages Bus Depot double-sided porcelain shield-shaped sign with large bus graphics ($33,000).

the five types produced, and was probably made in the 1920s.

A super rare Wyeth Tires single-sided porcelain curved shield-shaped sign, rated near-mint at 9+ and showing a whimsical graphic of a boy in early driving gear sitting in a stack of tires, breezed to $34,100. The 22 inch by 18 inch sign was marked "Wyeth Hardware & Mfg. Company, St. Joseph, Mo." and "Burdick Consumer Building, Chicago and Beaver Falls, Pa."

A Mohawk Gasoline single-sided tombstone-shaped neon sign mounted on a can, rated 9, 52 inches by 44 inches and with a graphic of an Indian with a single feather, with the can new and the neon in working condition, fetched $30,800; and an Oilzum Motor Oils ("The Cream of Pure Pennsylvania Oil") double-sided porcelain sign with logo, rated 9 and 8.75, 24 inches in diameter, with both sides showing nice gloss and color, went to a determined bidder for $27,500.

A set of five Weed (tire) Chains signs and displays were sold as single lots. One was a metal counter-top display with contents (chains, pliers, bags and more), in overall good condition (except for some minor wear). It brought $8,250. Also, a Mother Penn Motor Oil single-sided porcelain neon sign with logo, mounted on an original can, rated 9, changed hands for $16,500.

A Peerless Stages Bus Depot double-sided porcelain shield-shaped sign with great gloss and color and in super condition, measuring 36 inches by 31 inches, hammered for $33,000; and a Dodge Service double-sided porcelain sign with early "DB" (Dodge Brothers) logo, rated 8.75 and so scarce Dan Matthews said he'd never sold one before, went to a new owner for $7,150.

A Saxon Motor Car double-sided porcelain sign, rated 9 on one side and 8.9 on the other, 18 inches by 18 inches, marked Ohio Valley Enameling Co. (Huntington, W. Va.), with great graphics, garnered $19,800; and a Cadillac double-sided porcelain oval sign with crest logo, rated 9, 35 inches by 55 inches, with clean fields and very nice gloss and color, rose to $17,600.

A Paragon Motor Oil double-sided porcelain sign with derrick, truck and refinery graphics and in the original ring, 26 inches in diameter and boasting good color and gloss, hit $16,500; and an original Auburn Sales & Service porcelain flange sign, rated 9.5, marked Veribrite Signs (Chicago) and the first time one has been sold by Matthews, made $14,800.

Matthews Auctions' next big event will be the third annual Thanksgiving gun, antique advertising and petroliana sale, slated for Nov. 29-Dec. 1 in Raymond, Ill. Day one will feature guns, firearms advertising and coins, to include a collection of silver dollars (1880s-1920s); days two and three will have petroliana (including rare gas pumps), soda pop and country store items.

Dan Matthews has written a book about petroliana, titled The Fine Art of Collecting and Displaying Petroliana. For more information on how to order a copy, log on to the Matthews Auctions website, at www.matthewsauctions.com. Or, order a copy by calling 1-877-968-8880.

Matthews Auctions, LLC, is always accepting quality consignments for future auctions. To consign a single item or a collection, you may call them at (217) 563-8880; or, you can send an e-mail to danm@matthewsauctions.com. ## DONLEY AUCTIONS NOVEMBER SALE TO INCLUDE KIDDIELAND CAROUSEL AND OTHER UNIQUELY AMERICANA ITEMS

UNION, Ill. – One of the most respected antique experts in the country, Randy Donley, founder of Donley Auctions, will present a spectacular one-night auction featuring 300 one of a kind items, to include the Kiddieland carousel and a rare intact 1880's Soda Fountain and Pharmacy interior on Saturday, November 16 at 6 p.m. at Donley's Wild West Town, 8512 South Union Road, Union, IL.

A "first look" preview party will be presented on Friday, November 15 at 6 p.m., also to be held at Donley's. Viewing will also take place on Saturday at 10 a.m. until start of auction.

Other featured items include two other one of a kind carousels, a 1917 Harley Davidson motorcycle, a 1907 two-cylinder Horseless Carriage Automobile, a 1953 Packard Caribbean Convertible (one of only 30 known of its kind), a 1932 Buick coupe, a Steinway reproducing baby grand piano, leaded glass windows from the respected Bogenrief Studios, and antique restored pedal cars. Also up for auction is arcade equipment, nickelodeons, antique phonographs, music boxes, juke boxes, and paper and tin advertising. The event conveniently takes place the same weekend as the Chicagoland Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show being held at the Pheasant Run Hotel, only 30 minutes from the auction site.

The carousel from Kiddieland, the "PTC 72", was manufactured by the Philadelphia Toboggan Company, which was the largest producer of carousels and roller coasters in the world. It was the last carousel that the company would make. While the 50' in diameter carousel will not be moved to the auction site for presentation at the auction, the carousel's signature horses will be on full display at the event. The "Kiddieland carousel" with 48 hand carved horses, is the only carousel in the world with 16 "signature" animals, all of which have the company's logo carefully carved into the animal structures.

The 1890's Mt. Washington Soda

Fountain and Pharmacy interior from Haverhill Massachusetts is a significant piece of Americana history. The complete interior boasts all of the original displays, walls, drawer pulls and artisan leaded glass fixtures. The pharmacy, which was in business until 1984, was painstakingly disassembled piece by piece. The soda fountain portion of the interior features a polished marble counter and original marble syrup fountain produced by Lippincott Co, an early innovator in soda fountain manufacturing. This piece is a prime example of originality and completeness.

The auction will also feature an 1880's Hershell-Spillman Steam Carousel, one of the first carousels ever made. The machine appeals to a multitude of people, as it attracts steam collectors, train enthusiasts, and overall passionate carousel lovers. This 1880's steam carousel has 24 horses with two chariots and the original steam engine that came from the factory.

Also being auctioned is a solar carousel. This is the only self-sustaining, solar-powered carousel in the country. The amazing all-white carousel is powered by solar panels and is lit up by colorful TETRA Contour LED lights. The model is completely portable and traveled all over the country to promote solar energy. The 1940s Allan Herschell Carousel runs on clean energy and was painted all white to illustrate this point.

Both the steam and solar-powered carousels will be on full display and running at the high profile auction.
