Machine Guns Top Kramer's Summer Gun Sale

Beretta Model 38/42 9mm Submachine gun sold for a high bid of $13,200.

S&W Model 76 9mm Sub-machine gun brought $9,900.

Article & photos by Kramer Auction Service

Gun collectors of all types gathered for a unique offering of weapons at Kramer Late Summer Gun Auction Saturday, August 16th in Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin. A rare offering of 6 registered and transferable machine guns were due for top billing on this day. Registered, Transferable machine gun can be owned by individuals, not just Class III dealers in most states & jurisdictions. The top selling machine gun of the day was a rare Beretta Model 38/42. These guns had a great reputation with the Italians & German troops. This nice original example burst to a final price of $13,200.

Out & About

The signs now tell us that fall has officially arrived. With the cooler weather and the changing of the leaves.

There is not much time left to finish those fall chores before the snow arrives. Some of us have already noticed the change in our daylight time shortening. For those of you who have been closing up camps and preparing your boats for winter storage and have missed your weekend fixes of antiques, don't fret there are still many more auctions and shows in the upcoming weeks. Also, many more great finds and bargains from what our subscribers are telling us.

Tia has been painting her bed that she made in woodshop, it is looking pretty good. Kenzy has been working at the two hockey rinks in the consession stand.

She has also had weekly hockey practice along with daily workouts to get prepared for the hockey season. Brandon has been in conditioning for two weeks to get prepared for tryouts. He is excited and nervous at the same time as he is on a checking league this year. So this should be an exciting year!

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

On the Square Antique Mall is having a mall closing sale from now until October 17th. Located at 101 Beloit Street in Walworth, Wisconsin.

Lauren's Antique & Art Centre is having a mall wide moving sale the month of October. Located at 230 E. Walworth Avenue, Delavan, Wisconsin.

63rd Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association on Friday, October 3rd & Saturday, October 4th. Located at Waukesha County Expo Center in Waukesha, Wisconsin.
See upcoming events for more information.

Kane County Flea Market on Saturday, October 4th & Sunday, October 5th. Located at Kane County Fairgrounds in St. Charles, Illinois. See upcoming events for more information.

Mark your calendars for:

Isanti County Fairgrounds Hosts 23rd Annual Cambridge, Minnesota Antique Fair

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

I'd guess that nearly every antiques enthusiast in Minnesota and beyond is familiar with its venerable summer antiques shows - Gold Rush Days, The Minnesota Antique Spectacular, and the like. But there's another Gopher State antiques tradition that's been around nearly as long: the Cambridge Antique Fair, held just north of the Twin Cities in little Cambridge, Minnesota. From humble beginnings, the show has grown to attract hundreds of dealers and thousands of shoppers at each two-day annual event, always held on the first weekend of August.

The show was founded two decades ago by local antiquers Shawn & Cheryl Hewitt, and has matured into a major regional antiques event in the subsequent twenty-plus years. When the Hewitts retired a several years ago, they passed the reigns of the event to an equally experienced pair of antiques show promoters: Kermit & Jeanie Wellman. The Wellmans, who have been antiques dealers for twenty-five years, are able successors to Shawn & Cheryl Hewitt, as they've also promoted the nearby Anoka Antiques Show for nearly as long.

"2014 turned out to be another successful year for the show," Jeanie told me. "It's helped that we'd been dealers here since soon after the founding of the show. The indoor booths filled quickly, and included quite a few new vendors. The weather cooperated for the most part, and we had a nice crowd on both days." The Isanti County Fairgrounds, a little more than thirty minutes of the Twin Cities, has been the show's home for its two-decade history. Parking is free, and admission only $6.

You'll even find a discount admission coupon at their website www.metropromos.com.

Many of the dealers have been returning since that very first show. Among them: area antique enthusiasts Cliff & Sherry Thornberg. You'll find them set up just inside the main entrance, their booth filled with vintage toys, advertising, and more. They're inveterate marble collectors too; just ask to see the large selection they bring to each show.

And shoppers found exceptional period furniture all over the show. New To You Antiques always has a large furniture display, this time including everything from an antique Brunswick-Balke-Callender billiard cue rack to an inlaid Italian gaming table with hidden roulette wheel. Jeff & Sue Pankratz had an eclectic furniture mix too, my favorite a 36" pine trunk that opened into a four-drawer carpenter's chest.

Sporting memorabilia more your thing? Look no further than the booth of Decoy Ducks-N-Antique Stuff, whose display was stuffed with period decoys, shell boxes and the like; or Kitchen Antiques' great selection of vintage baseball and football collectibles.

It's unique finds like these that have kept shoppers coming back to the Cambridge Antique Fair for more than twenty years. For more information about the show, and about the June Anoka Antique Show, give the Wellmans a call at 612-558-8097, or visit their website www.metropromos.com. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of next year's Cambridge Antique Fair in the Auction Action Antique News!

It was a packed house in the vast display of The BIG White House, where I found this working Pathé phonograph priced at only $75! 763-506-0562

You knew you were in Hamm's Beer country in the display of Your Home Investments, where shoppers found these cool aluminum coolers ($175-$225) and early wooden shipping crate - $120. 612-850-1998

A huge array of framed art awaited at J. B. Framing Studio, from Victorian oil landscapes to these signed Alberto Vargas lithographs priced at $899 each. 763-242-2244

A whole row of Red Wing pottery awaited at Your Home Investments, including this nice 30-gallon large-wing crock priced at $275. 612-850-1998

Kevin Bauer of Bauer Brothers Salvage brought some big iron, most notably this 1880s gear from the Minneapolis Pillsbury mill, plus finds like this pristine Magic Chef range rescued from Hamline University - $2,200. 612-521-9492

Bauer Brothers Salvage brought pieces from their 93,000 square-foot Twin Cities shop, from architectural artifacts of every description to this Emil J. Paidar barber's chair in green enamel - $900. 612-521-9492

At Sue & Jeff Pankratz's display, an ordinary looking 36" pine trunk opened into a wonderful four-drawer carpenter's chest, asking price $325. 715-264-6047

Two more finds from Sue & Jeff Pankratz: the vintage medical Antiseptic Sterilizer cabinet priced at $395, the country store seed bin counter at $2,500. 715-264-6047

Decoy Ducks-N-Antique Stuff brought plenty of both, from ducks galore to this folk art lamp made of Popsicle sticks & priced at $125. 952-412-3751

There were dozens of choice shot-boxes to pick from at Decoy Ducks-N-Antique Stuff, my favorite this Climax Heavies example, asking price $275. 952-412-3751

3 Highlights at Miller's Antiques included this pagoda-form store display spice tin, plus a stack of salt-glazed Red Wing Crocks - the jumbo 20 gallon "butterfly" crock priced at $700. 651-213-5556

It was vintage advertising central at Miller's Antiques, among the mix this Victor Oil Seals wall cabinet - $148. 651-213-5556

Tom Briscoe of Retr 'O' Namia with two nice petroleum signs: the classic Standard oval priced at $650, the pristine Linde Acetylene sign at $750. 320-532-3971

Book Description

Over 1000 beautiful color photos display a wide spectrum of Elegant Glass patterns, colors, shapes, and etchings. The book's listings are updated and over 100 patterns of elegant American glass are represented in this new 4th edition. Several patterns have additional listings. Each pattern includes a complete listing of all known pieces made. Detailed descriptions are given for each item listed. Captions include descriptions of each piece pictured. The major companies of Cambridge, Fenton, Fostoria, Heisey, Imperial, Morgantown, New Martinsville, and Paden City are represented, along with their most popular patterns. Introductions to each pattern include production dates, pattern and/or etching numbers, and original company colors. Full lines of dinnerware and their companion patterns are listed, along with bedroom, bath, and decorating pieces. Aiding collectors in identifying patterns, a detailed image of each etching is provided in every description. Collector resources, a detailed bibliography, and a glossary complete this thorough guide.

Society for Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains

The Society for Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains is an organization of collectors and dealers who admire and collect Old Ivory and Ohme Porcelains. The purpose of the Society is for the members to share information and educate themselves and the public about the history and beauty of these porcelains, promote the collecting of Old Ivory and Hermann Ohme porcelains, and to develop communications between those who collect these porcelain items.

The SOIOP website is clean looking and traditional looking in keeping with the character of the collecting area the Society represents. The homepage has representative photos of Old Ivory and Ohme porcelain pieces plus a side navigation bar.

There is a section on the history of Old Ivory and Ohme porcelains and some excellent segments with photos covering the types of porcelain, patterns and marks.

The site's sections on the Society, itself, and on their annual convention is almost secondary. This is an excellent reference site for both collectors and dealers, or for that person who just happens to own a piece of Old Ivory or Ohme porcelain and wants to know a little more about it.

THANK YOU BANOWETZ ANTIQUES!

Submitted by Tom Devine, Maquoketa Area Chamber of Commerce

Kathy & Viri

Thanks for the memories. October 24, 25 and 26 will mark 45 years in business for Banowetz Antiques. On Friday, Oct. 24th an auction at the old site on the Caves Road will begin the end of a tradition of antique shopping in Maquoketa. Two to three auction rings will be working to give bidders treasures and memories to take home. AAA Auction Company, specially comprised of Ben Schueller Auction Service and Steve Morehead's Circle M Auctions, will be on hand for the Antique Auction to end all auctions.

Friday will be an on site auction only, but Saturday the 25th and Sunday the 26th will be live at the Banowetz Antiques Mall on McKinsey Drive. The bidding will also take place online Saturday & Sunday only on auctionzip. This will be a categorized - no reserves absolute auction. Little did Viri and Kathy know back in 1970, that their treasures would be one of the major landmarks and attractions of not only Maquoketa, Eastern Iowa, the country and even the world. Over the years, antiques have been shipped or delivered to all 50 states and over 20 foreign countries. The California and Iowa Capitol buildings are home to Banowetz Antiques and when there was a fire in Austin, TX the first thought was to call Banowetz

Antiques in Maquoketa, Iowa. In the 80's (before the internet), a 7 piece set was shipped to Australia. Little did Kathy, a city girl from Dubuque and Viri, a farmer from Sugar Creek realize in 1970, that a passion of Viri's parents would turn into the store on the Caves Road, two mall stores in other towns, one more in Galena, the old Pamida building, the current Antique Mall as well as Squiers Manor Bed and Breakfast employing at one time 35 to 40 people. Banowetz Antiques has been an investor in the Maquoketa Area Chamber of Commerce for 45 years because, as Kathy says, "The Chamber promotes the Community, so the Community must support the Chamber." Banowetz Antiques has a mission of promoting tourism to benefit the community, not just their ventures. Banowetz Antiques also believes that, "Maquoketa is a nice community, centrally located between St. Louis and St. Paul as well as Chicago and Des Moines." Kathy goes on to say "Maquoketan's must be positive and appreciate what we have...they just have to look and they will see we have so much to offer." Feelings can be best summed up by a note in the "Memories" book at the front door with a quote from Nancy Legner of Sandwich, IL. "It makes me so sad to visit your mall for the last time. I will hold all of the visual memories in my heart forever! Your stores have been a delight to me, an experience I always looked forward to. Thank you for providing the Antique World with so many exquisite treasures. Fondly, Nancy."

Early 1900s Carousel llama

On behalf of the Maquoketa Area Chamber of Commerce, the treasures we will miss the most are Viri & Kathy at Banowetz Antiques. Thanks for the Memories.

Publishing November 2013
A portable, pocket size gem
The perfect companion piece to Miller's Handbook & Price Guide
& Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia

From the leading authority in antiques guides comes MILLER'S ANTIQUE MARKS (Miller's, November 2013, paperback, $9.99) - a complete guide to identifying antique marks.

Whether you are buying at auction, flea market or antiques shop, this is the book you need to identify and date your finds. More than 6,000 marks are organized for quick, at-a-glance reference with full color sections on silver, bronzes, ceramics, glass, costume jewelry, dolls and Teddies.

Marks are on the collector's most important tools when it comes to identifying and dating antiques, and this handy edition contains a carefully chosen selection of the most common marks collectors will find. Each mark is labeled with the name of the factory or designer that used it, their location and the dates of operations plus additional information where available. And each section opens with a bit of history on that particular category's marks, helpful hints on where to find the mark, and clues to dating.

MILLER'S ANTIQUE MARKS is the perfect companion piece to her recently published MILLER'S ANTIQUES HANDBOOK & PRICE GUIDE 2014-15 and the new edition of MILLER'S ANTIQUES ENCYCLOPEDIA.

Attention! Collectors, Dealers and Shop Owners, Hungry Buyers Are Needed To Buy Thousands of Antiques Before Christmas!

900 Lots of High Quality Antique Clocks and Watches, sell Friday, Oct. 3rd & Saturday, Oct. 4th.

Tom Harris Auctions in Marshalltown, IA is searching high and low for new and previous buyers to come to their auction house to participate in 5 huge auctions before this Christmas season!

If you're previous customer or if you've never attended a Harris Auction, times have never been better for buying at auction. The auction house is bursting at the seams with thousands of great quality antiques and collectibles of all types for collectors, dealers and internet sellers to massively stock up on for the winter season.

On Friday, October 3rd, there will be over 100 antique pocket watches including gold, silver, Railroad grade and other choice watches. In addition to the watches are 200 great antique clocks including over 50 beautiful City Series parlor and kitchen clocks from Kentucky and 100 lots of watch and clock parts from The Dick Broline Estate of Port Byron, IL and others.

Saturday, October 4th features one of the finest groups of antique clocks you've ever seen! This sale includes 70 beautiful Ansonia Royal Bonn floral painted China clocks from The Winston Carver Estate of Kentucky. Fabulous tall case clocks including a super carved JJ Elliott 9 tube, a circa 1715 Daniel Quare of London tall case and many other great grand-enough, this mid-week sale will include over 600 pieces of the highest quality colored cut back crystal items from Czechoslovakia, Romania, Germany and other European countries. Harris Auctions went to St. Paul, Minnesota where an 80 year old man collected this glassware for the past 40 years. He displayed it in a house that was just for the glass collection and he lived in another home.

Tom Harris says, "If you're a collector or dealer, this is the opportunity of a lifetime!" It is truly beautiful colored glassware from punch bowls, large to small, vases, rose bowls, decanter sets, eggs, baskets, cut back hanging lamps and much more. It is a must see and will sell in individual and many group lots. If you are a collector, have a shop or are an Internet seller, you will hit home runs all day long with bargains galore for these precious gems and they will sell for a fraction of their retail value just because there are so many items for sale, all with no reserves. Tom encourages and invites all glass lovers to come see this museum glass collection and participate on sale day!

The next event will be held on Wednesday, November 19th. On this day, a nationally important collection of Art Deco lamps and collectibles, Aladdin Lamps, furniture, artwork and other great antiques will cross the auction block. Over 500 lots will sell from several collections but most importantly, from a large collector out of Wisconsin. Tom and 10 other workers went to a large church in Shell Lake, Wisconsin, where a gentleman spent 40 years collecting lamps and other great antiques. He intended on opening a Lamp Museum, focusing on Art Deco items, metal figural statuary and awesome floor lamps. He filled the church, however he never realized his dream of opening to the public. The sale will include over 100 figural Art Deco and Art Nouveau lamps featuring many lamps with colored Czech style shades, figural woman, children, birds, dogs and other animals of all types will be included. Also, there will be over 50 high quality floor lamps sold. You have to see it to believe it. Nobody we have spoken to has seen this many lamps of this style sell at one time to the public at auction. Along with the lamps will be a great mix of glass and collectibles, furniture and Art Deco prints and pictures in original frames, many small metal deco collectible figures, animals, nudes and great unusual items all day long.

Closing out the End of the Year comes another great all day glass and collectible auction, just in time for Christmas! This sale includes 300 more pieces of colored cut back crystal, large Lladro figures, important elegant dinnerware sets, early American pattern glass items, a great variety of Victorian Art Glass including more great cracker jars, water sets, Carnival Glass, Flow Blue, Custard Glass, R.S. Prussia and figural Royal Bayreuth items. Also included in this great sale will be more bride's bowls, pickle castors, Greentown Slag Glass, Fenton items, and silver plated tableware. Other items to note include Lenox, Belleek, Goebel, many Precious Moments and a large collection of antique half dolls.

As always, Tom invites all Auction Action readers to participate and encourages everyone to come see this wonderful merchandise. It has been years since we've had such a great line up of high quality items at this time of year. Tom says it is going to be a busy year to come and asks all interested parties to go see hundreds of pictures and details at www.TomHarrisAuctions.com. The website gives details on how you can participate at these auctions. You can bid live in person, by telephone, absentee bids or live Internet bidding. Tom reminds all that for over 64 years his family has and still travels nationwide to pack and transport single items or whole collections and estates to their Marshalltown, IA auction gallery. They advertise your lifetime purchases and investments to the world on the Internet, websites, National trade papers and magazines and direct mailings to millions of potential buyers. They have been selling antiques for 64 years and their knowledge of antiques adds value and a trust factor that is very important when selling your collections. You can only sell your items once so go with the company that has a great reputation, time tested and will get you what your items are worth in today's worldwide auction market. Visit www.TomHarrisAuctions.com weekly as the website is always changing with newly added items and call Tom Harris today at 641-754-4890 to discuss selling your precious investments, appraisals or to discuss your estate planning!

Very Important Art Deco Auction, 500 Lots of great merchandise will sell Wed., Nov. 19th.

500 Lots of Glass Including Victorian tableware, Nippon, Wavecrest and 600 pieces of European cutback glass sell Wednesday, Oct. 22nd.

The 58th Annual Holiday Antique Show & Sale

Article & Photos by Patty Murray Olson
Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society

The Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society’s annual Holiday Antique show and sale takes place on Saturday, November 29th from 9am-6pm and Sunday, November 30th from 10am-4pm. An opportunity for the public to see and purchase furniture, jewelry, collectibles, china, glassware and art from dealers from across the country.

Crystal repair on site by Mary Lou Gates. Raffles, bake sale, and free identification of an antique or collectible.

The place to find that unique holiday gift for a special someone...or yourself! Rock Garden Banquet & Conference Center. 1951 Bond Street Green Bay, WI. Fine quality antiques dealers from around Wisconsin and the United States. Admission is $6.00

To support the Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society’s efforts to preserve historically significant objects from Northeastern Wisconsin. It is the Society’s main fundraiser. Proceeds from the event fund the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Grant Program. We are proud to report that through this program over $600,000 has been gifted to preserve and restore cultural artifacts pertinent to our community. Among the organizations benefiting from the program are the Brown County Historical Society – Hazelwood Historic House Museum, Green Bay Catholic Diocesan Museum, De Pere Historical Society – White Pillars Museum, Green Bay City Stadium, Heritage Hill State Historical Park, National Railroad Museum, Neville Public Museum of Brown County, St. Norbert Abbey, and Woodlawn Cemetery. Those who do not remember the past are doomed to repeat it.

This year’s show and sale coincides with post-Thanksgiving shopping. Shoppers who didn’t find that “certain something” at the mall on Friday are invited to come to the Rock Garden Banquet and Conference Center, 1951 Bond St. Green Bay, WI to find a truly unique gift for their loved ones.

Antique Vintage Handkerchiefs Fun To Collect And Use

By Shelby Weister, Four Seasons Antique Mall

Handkerchiefs have been around for centuries, but in the 1920’s, Kleenex tissues began to take their place. A hanky became an inexpensive accessory for an outfit and the perfect “Christmas gift for a friend or relative because you didn’t need to know the size to purchase. Also they were a special gift easy to enclose in a card and mail.

Today, many ladies carry or tie them on their purses or put them in the cuff of a blouse so they are handy when needed. The distinguishing features of handkerchiefs are patterns and designs. They come in many styles, colors and shapes. Many animals, such as dogs, appear o handkerchiefs, while floral ones are plentiful.

Children’s hankies depict cartoon characters or nursery rhymes. In the 1930’s, many children went to school with a handkerchief pinned to their clothing.

There are designer handkerchiefs, and some are signed like works of art. Though they were mass produced, you’ll be able to recognize the style of a particular artist even if the handkerchief isn’t signed.

History and patriotism is a way of learning of a handkerchief’s age or time span. the red, white and blue hankies represent the armed forces and instill patriotism in the wearer. Many military personnel purchased hankies as gifts for loved ones. “Remember Pearl Harbor” is one of the most poignant of all the hankies. After World War II, gas rationing stopped and many people took to the road for vacations. No item was a better souvenir than a handkerchief - inexpensive and small.

Most handkerchiefs are cotton or linen and most have hand-rolled edges. There are also some that are silk.

To bring your handkerchiefs back to a nice condition, try to remove stains by soaking them in Oxy Clean or use cold water with hand soap. Always rinse thoroughly and never squeeze or wring it dry. Lay the handkerchief flat on a towel to dry and then iron it and store with acid free paper between each handkerchief.

Lace, crocheted and tatted handkerchiefs are very nice for special events, such as confirmation or first communion. For a wedding, a handkerchief can meet the need for something borrowed, blue, old or new.

Gun Collector's Pack Kramer Auction Gallery for Fantastic Summer Firearms Sale

Article & Photos by Kramer Auction Service

Next, a Smith & Wesson Model 76 9mm sub-gun followed closely at $9,900. A little known 45ACP Sub-gun mfg. by Phoenix Cartridge Co. finished third. This machinegun looked a little like a cross between a German MP40 & US grease gun. This was Serial #1 & functioned flawlessly running to a final price of $6,325. A Reising Model 50 45 ACP, once popular w/ police agencies in the 1950' & 60s ran strong at $6,100 followed by a remanufactured 30 cal M2 carbine at $5,500 & finally the STEN MKV rounding out at $5,225. Kramer's will have 3 additional full auto transferable sub-machineguns from the same collection on their Oct. 18th auction later this year. So if you missed your chance at these make sure to participate at the Fall Auction online at www.proxibid.com/kramer or call (608) 326-8108 for more details.

Early Percussion Guns, a long ways from spectrum of machine guns, made a strong showing as well, proving there are gun collectors for every aspect of the hobby. A Fine Colt Civil War Production Model 1849 Pocket pistol commanded $2,115. A Midwestern made Swivel Breech by J. Coleman of Freeport, ILL showed strong local interest at $1,925. Another semi local percussion combo gun by E. Rodgers of Dubuque Iowa stayed strong at $1,375. A fine example of Colts 1855 Root Revolver snapped to $1,650 & a Rev. War Styled Flintlock Musket sparked to $1,265. An Early & Scarce Evans Repeating Rifle loaded up at $1,425 with a good Winchester 1892 Lever action demanding the same.

Cedar Rapids Antique Show & Collectors Fair Midwest's Favorite Antique Show

Article & Photos by Kae Townsend
(Towsend Promotions Inc.)

Antiquers from far and wide, whether dealer or collector will head for Cedar Rapids, Iowa for one of the Midwest's favorite antique shows at Hawkeye Downs. The show is October 10, 11 & 12 and is located at 4400 6th St SW in Cedar Rapids; it is easy to find and there is plenty of free parking in the lot outside the front entrance.

Dealers from coast to coast will be exhibiting their wares. You will find quality antiques, paintings, fine porcelains, jewelry, lamps, kitchen collectibles, autographs, advertising, banks, toys, hunting, fishing, buttons, playing cards, marbles, comics, coins, souvenir spoons, sewing items, sterling smalls, Fenton, depression glass, Fostoria, Cambridge, orientalia, old ivory china, chintz, Royal Doulton, Royal Bayreuth, Nippon, Pickard, R. S. Prussia, carnival glass, Czechoslovakian, cut glass, Victorian glass, Moser, Tiffany, Durand, Steuben, Daum Nancy, Galle, Burmese, Crown Milano, pattern glass, art pottery, bronzes, Roycroft, hatpins, napkin rings, match safes, holiday collectables, stoneware, primitives, furniture, oriental rugs, oil paintings, prints, stained glass, sterling silver flatware, mid-century modern, vintage items and much, much more.

The Cedar Rapids Antique Show and Collectors Fair has something for every collector from beginning to advanced...an education for every collector as well as a superb extravaganza. You don't want to miss this show!!

Show hours are Friday 10 am - 6 pm; Saturday 10 am - 6 pm; and Sunday 11 am - 4 pm. Admission is $6.00 which is good all week-end; mention Auction Auction News to receive $1 off one admission. For show information, call 507-2691473. Front door free parking and building is handicap accessible.

"Pioneer Spirit" Fox Valley Antiques Show & Sale

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle
(Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association)

Pioneer spirit is alive and well in St. Charles, Illinois. Traveling from 15 states in "modern wagons", 55 experienced antiques dealers will sell their wares at the 40th Fall Fox Valley Antiques Show. Their offerings will include a wide variety of authentic 18th, 19th and early 20th century antiques and art, presenting fresh ideas in decorating; something different with little influence from mainstream magazines and catalogs.

One modern-day pioneer new to the show is Gloria Oviatt traveling from Ann Arbor, Michigan who has been exhibiting at antiques shows since 1978. Gloria carries early country Americana furniture and related smalls including some folk art. An early step-back cupboard in mustard grain paint and a New England meeting bench are just two of the very special pieces she has been saving for the Fox Valley Antiques Show. Gloria will be in Booth #49, anxious to meet all that come to the event.

Marti and Mike Korba of The Old Shed, Russiaville, Indiana are also new exhibitors at the show. They specialize in 18th and 19th century original-surface furniture and accessories. A pair of wooden 17th century Spanish candle sticks in untouched, as-found condition and a circa 1820s original-red jelly cupboard head their lineup.

"Pioneer Spirit" is the theme chosen for the 40th Annual Event, in conjunction with the ongoing 175th anniversary celebration of the founding of DuPage County, Illinois. The antiques show's popular atrium display will feature two contrasting antique settings, one formal and one country, both reflecting lifestyles of earlier times.

Another unique first-time feature of the show will debut on Sunday morning. The first 75 Sunday-paid admissions will receive a free breakfast voucher good 10 a.m. until noon, sponsored by Inglenook Pantry.

Those arriving after the free 75 breakfasts on Sunday morning can partake of Inglenook Pantry's excellent lunch offerings. Comfortable seating is available and there is plenty of free parking. Show hours are Saturday, October 18, 10 - 5, and Sunday, October 19, 10 - 4, at the Kane County Fairgrounds, 525 South Randall Road, St. Charles, Illinois 60174 (enter on Randall Road between Routes 38 and 64).

Produced by the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association, the show celebrates our heritage by collaborating with its sponsor, the DuPage County Historical Museum. Both not-for-profit organizations, admission of $8 benefits local historical and educational endeavors. Discount coupons are available on the CSADA website. For further information visit <http://www.csada.com/> ATM on premises.
