Three Days of Excitement at Tumbleson New Year's Weekend Auction

Article & photos by Rich Penn Auctions

Get the holiday blues? Well, Tumbleson Auction has the cure for you! They're famous for their big, multi-day holiday auctions held several times each year. I headed down to their twin auction galleries in Princeton, Illinois for their latest event - a three-day New Year's Weekend Auction. No matter what you collect, you probably would have found it there. Day-one saw everything from high-end art glass to Victorian furniture cross the block. Vintage cars & advertising were day-two highlights. And sporting collectors were all here for Saturday's finale, with decoys by makers of the likes of Perdew - plus countless period guns, fishing lures, and the like. Star of the sale: a rare '34 Ford Model-B pickup that rolled off for a cool $18,000!

Day-three's decoy winner was this 1940's Charles Perdew Illinois River mallard drake that fetched $2,000.

Family lore was that this large hand-painted French wall hanging was taken directly from Adolf Hitler's home by an American soldier at the end of WWII. Who knows if it's true, but it managed to sell for $3,200 nonetheless.

Auctioneers Tom & Mary Tumbleson with the top-lot of the three-day sale: a rare 1934 Ford Model-B promotional pickup truck that rolled off for a cool $18,000!

It took a $3,400 bid to win this marked Handel slag glass table lamp with a tropical motif.

Illinois State University Hosts Top of the Class Antiques Show in Normal, Illinois

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

One attendee described the Top of the Class Antiques Show as "one of the best in central Illinois," and I'm sure pretty near everyone who made their way out to this midwinter event in Normal, Illinois heartily agreed. Forty-plus quality antiques dealers from several states converged at the Illinois State University campus for the three day event held on January 30th through February 1st. Quality was the keyword at the show, where buyers found exceptional pieces around every corner.

Nothing New Antiques brought this rather festive art glass epergne, a 1950's example made in Murano, & priced at $475. 765-869-5147

Winged Griffins guarded the base of this imposing late 19th century oak library table at New to You Antiques, 62" in length and priced at $4,800. 952-500-3370

Antiques came with advertising including this neon Rock-Ola clock ($375) plus oddities like this vintage music box/cigarette holder ($130) where your smokes bob up & down to the tune when the lid is opened! 920-210-4101

Pearmont Antiques came with advertising

Great look to this circa 1940's chrome & leather armchair from Rod & Susan Bartha Antiques, one of a set of four priced at $995. 847-366-1976

Appraisal Institute Releases Its 2014 "Trending Data" For Antiques & Collectibles

It's been almost three years since the Asheford Institute of Antiques, a professional-level, distance learning program on antiques, collectibles and appraising, released its inaugural report on buying and collecting trends within the antiques and collectibles community. But this year they're back with a new survey that's aimed at what the school calls, "the more relevant aspects" of the antiques marketplace, according to school spokesperson Tony Drew. "When originally released, our first survey was meant to merely gauge general areas of antique interest, but now that we've garnered some fairly extensive data over the past few years, we're finding that much of that information seems to be backing-up our initial discovery regarding the movement of certain antique trends within the marketplace," said Drew.

The latest survey, which was compiled from enrolled students and former graduates of the Institute, was intended to focus on the current trends of antiques and collectibles, and was based on sales and buyer's requests for specific items. And while no measurable scientific practices were utilized, and the survey remained informal in nature, the results still proved quite illuminating, said school Deputy Director, Chris Hughes, "What we've really noticed, is that there continues to be an apparent shift in the marketplace - especially when it comes to the younger generation - categories that tended to gain traction and move up the list in a truly meaningful way, were almost invariably connected to younger buyers. Conversely, categories of antiques that seemed to be off the Internet's central radar, appeared to remain relatively neutral in their respective rankings, and any movement that did occur, was usually the result of older more established buyers.

The link between young and old was not lost on Don Kirpatrick, a 30-something dealer in the Northeast, who participated in the school's original survey, as well as the current one, and who agrees with the Institute's latest findings, "A few years ago I started sensing that younger buyers were interested in different periods, and so I began adjusting my buying - I dumped the heavy ornate Victorian stuff - and instead concentrated on Art Nouveau, Art Deco, and even some 50's kitsch, and it's really paid off," says Kirpatrick. Staffers from the school also noted this sentiment, saying that many of the respondents from the latest survey had echoed these same thoughts, stating in essence that there had been a noticeable shift in overall buying preferences towards the "flashier" side of the Victorian spectrum. "It's just not my parents' antique store any more," said Julie Walsh, a dealer on the West coast, "I mean, I just can't sell what they sell... It simply doesn't resonate with my generation." According to Shirley Huey, one of the staffers involved in completing the survey, younger dealers continued to have very different items and inventory when compared to older dealers. In fact, said Huey, "Not only were they vastly different when it came to inventory, but in their marketing approaches as well. It's a trend we're likely to continue to see," added Huey.

School spokesperson, Tony Drew noted that while the latest survey conducted by the Institute was by no means scientific in nature, it still managed to show the development of certain patterns and trends within today's antiques and collectibles marketplace. "I think our survey is here to stay," said Drew, "We've had an awful lot of requests since the first one came out, so it's likely we'll continue with them well into the future."

For readers seeking more information about the school's latest survey, or their Antiques and Appraisal Course, they can be reached at (877) 444-4508 or visit their web site at: www.asheford.com. # Out & About

Be sure to check the upcoming events page for shows added weekly. Clip that auction calendar to put on your refrigerator or cork board. I have a huge cork board in my mud room that is 5' x 4', we keep all our calendars there for each other. There are a lot of auctions and shows in these next few weeks. The weather has been kind to us here, others have not been as fortunate. Ground Hog says six more weeks of winter. Good thing we didn't put up our ice rink this year, it wasn't cold enough to form and keep the ice. Next year we hope to.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

41st Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealer Association Antiques Show & Sale on Friday, February 6th & Saturday, February 7th. Located at Waukesha County Expo Center in Waukesha, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

Antique Spectacular on Friday, February 6th, Saturday, February 7th & Sunday, February 8th. Located at Iowa State Fair Animal Learning Center in Des Moines, Iowa. See upcoming events for more information.

42nd Annual Collector's Clique on Sunday, February 22nd. Located at Juneau Community Center in Juneau, Wisconsin. See upcoming events for more information.

Brandon #6 has been enjoying hockey more this year. I think because he grew so much. He is now taller than me and still growing. Although this is his first year to be able to check, he still hesitates to do so. We did notice this last weekend, that he is asserting himself more. He is built like a tank, and kids always try to check him, but they always fall down and he keeps right on skating. The coach has been working with getting the kids to pass the puck to Brandon, as he has a wicked slap shot. He even sometimes gets to play center, where he wins the battle 90% of the time.

Big Turnout, Big Fun, at Tumbleson Auction's Three-Day New Year's Weekend Sale

Tumbleson Auction conducts close to one-hundred auctions each year, but has become famous for their multi-day holiday events. Pretty much pick a major holiday and Tumbleson Auction will be having a two or three-day auction. Princeton, Illinois may seem like it's far away, but it's actually just a two-hour drive from Madison, Chicago, or Dubuque. The TT Tumbleson Auction Gallery is just a few blocks off of Interstate 80 in north-central Illinois.

They don't actually have an auction gallery - they have two. On big Holiday events like this one, auction-goers have an opportunity to preview all three days of the auction set up in the adjoining climate-controlled twin halls - a big convenience for both buyers and sellers alike.

I attended the first day of the sale, which offered the full-house crowd a wide array of quality antiques from a huge local estate - from art glass and pottery to Victorian furniture to some choice period lighting. And it was that lighting that proved the most popular. The clear winner: a Teco pottery table lamp topped by a signed Tiffany Studios shade that for $4,900. A marked Handel slag glass table lamp did well too, fetching a solid $3,400.

Day-two was a mix of area estates. There was furniture from country & city, period advertising, a collection of toy sewing machines, and vehicles new & old. The half-dozen late model cars & trucks did well as always, but the vintage vehicles were of course the big draw of the day. A pretty cool 1976 MGB convertible was driven off by a lucky buyer for $3,400. It was left in the dust, though, by that 1934 Ford Model B Pickup truck. A promotional model in nice condition, it saw competitive bidding from many in the crowd, and sold for a whopping $18,000.

Things couldn't have looked more different than on sporting collectibles Saturday - day-three of the sale. There were guns from the as far back as the flintlock days, plus pretty much anything else related to the outdoor pursuits. A flock of vintage decoys filled several tables - many of them coveted Illinois River birds. A 1940s example by Henry, Illinois' own Charles & Edna Perdew proved to be the winner of the bunch, bringing $2,000.

Charlie was born near Henry in 1874 and was a hunter and carver of decoys. Edna was born in Henry too, and their marriage in 1902 formed an artistic partnership that lasted almost sixty years. For much of that time, Charlie carved and Edna painted from their home and workshop at the edge of town. That humble homestead is now the Charles Perdew Museum, open on summer Sundays. Just go to www.charles-perdew.com for all the details. Other Saturday highlights ranged from a Colt Army Frontier 44/40 pistol selling for $1,650 to a 19th century iron door from a Bureau County, Illinois jail cell that was carted off for $575.

Tumbleson Auction has built up quite a loyal following in their thirty-plus years of operation: it was a full house for all three sale days with a crowd of both local folks and collectors from several states. Tom, Mary, and second-generation bid-caller Tiffany Foes are fast and friendly auctioneers. Each sell at close to one-hundred & forty lots per hour, so grab a catalog, find a seat, and be sure to keep your bid card handy!

They've has been serving northern Illinois' auction needs for more than thirty years, conducting auctions of all kinds - both onsite and at their twin auction galleries. TT Tumbleson Auction Company can be contacted by phone at 815-872-1852, or through their website www.tumblesonauction.com. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming auction listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

A clean 1976 MGB convertible fetched $3,400.

17" Van Briggie Three Graces vase - $350.

Matched pair of Walter "Tube" Dawson Illinois River mallard decoys - $750.

A $375 bid took this (repainted) German immigrant's chest.

A Tiffany Gold Favrile bowl with under-plate and a 6 3/4" Tiffany pastel blue plate each made $500.

Two-door oak china cabinet with drawers below - $500.

11" Tiffany console bowl with flower frog - $600.

This three-piece 1940s bed-room suite was in pristine condition, and sold for $400.

Day-three of the sale was devoted to sporting artifacts – everything from period firearms to decoys, advertising, and more.

Victorian glass bride's basket with enameled accents - $325.

Roseville pottery filled this lighted cabinet and several others. The cabinet alone later sold for $725.

Day-one's furniture winner, this carved oak hall tree that sold for a surprising $1,150.

Curved glass oak china cabinet, refinished - $375.

Furniture did well at the sale, with this newer open cupboard bringing $400, this carved Victorian sofa $675.

Early J. & P. Coats five-drawer spool cabinet - $325.

This marble-top walnut parlor table made $350, the Ansonia shelf clock atop it $575.

The contemporary furniture found ready buyers too, with this Asian-inspired sofa & loveseat set bringing $575.

Best of the spool cabinets: this J. & P. Coats Spool Cotton tambour-front example that fetched a surprising $1,400!

Two six-drawer J. & P. Coats spool cabinets sold for $425 apiece.

Matched pair of vintage Japanese woodblock prints - $375.

Now here's an unusual lot: a 19th century iron door to the Bureau County, Illinois jail-house. It later sold for $575.

Vintage ladies diamond & gold anniversary rings fetched up to $800.

Table lamp with reverse-painted Jefferson Glass shade - $500.

Estate jewelry drew many to the sale, with this panther-themed 14k yellow gold necklace bringing $1,500, this ladies gold & diamond dinner ring $450.

It was a full-house as usual for the Tumbleton Auction Three-day New Year's Auction, held at the Tumbleton Auction facility in Princeton, Illinois.

An $825 bid won this carved walnut bookcase with drawers below.

Another surprise among the furniture: this restored ornate brass & glass étagère that made $950.

Winner among the Tiffany Studios glass: this 13" Gold Favrite vase that sold for $875.

Several Van Briggie Pottery vases crossed the block, including this 15" figural nude version in an ivory glaze that sold for $475.

A 19th century walnut library table made $375, a one-door mahogany bookcase $525.

Two more Roseville art pottery winners: the Snowberry two-handled floor vase made $425, the Clematis cookie jar $375.

14k gold & diamond men's ring - $600.

Colt 1849 pistol with factory engraving & ivory grips - $1,350.

Top-lot among the period pistols: this Colt single-action Army Frontier 44/40 that brought $1,650.

Rifle highlights ranged from this Saco bolt-action 300 ($1,300) to a Springfield Model 1865 .50 caliber with bayonet that brought $950.

Tiffany Studios Gold Favrite bowl & underplate - $325.

1960 Was A Very Good Year! 55th Annual Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association Show

Rare homemade wick burning fishing lantern

1960 is a memorable year. The John F. Kennedy/Lyndon Johnson ticket won the presidential election. The sexual revolution had just begun. The thriller "Psycho" was a box office hit. But let's not forget! That was also the year the Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association (NIADA) gathered for their first antiques show!

For the 55th year, 40 professional antiques dealers from throughout the Midwest will gather Saturday, February 21, and Sunday, February 22, at Forest Hills Lodge in Loves Park near Rockford, Illinois. Saturday hours are 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM; and Sunday, 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. These experienced dealers have been saving their best 19th and early 20th century furniture, textiles, pottery, silver, folk art, toys, garden adornments and decorative elements for this special event, all merchandise presented in pleasing individual booth displays.

Diversity is the key to this show's continued success. A wide selection of antiques and collectibles in every price range tempt both the experienced and beginner collector. Friendly dealers share their knowledge and excitement with customers, making for a memorable "thrill of the hunt"; the satisfaction of finding that perfect item!

For additional information about the show, a list of participating dealers, pictures from past shows, directions, & a discounted admission coupon please visit the NIADA website at NIADAantiques.com. Here you will also find a list of the historic organizations who received donations from NIADA so they may continue their excellent work in historic preservation & education.

Forest Hills Lodge is conveniently located 1/2 mile East on Route 251 on Route 173. From I-90 take the Route 173 exit & go west to the lodge. Admission to the show is $6. Food is available during the show & parking is free. Door prizes will be awarded throughout the 2-day show. For more information call: 815-761-1444. Forest Hills Lodge GPS address is 1601 West Lane Road, Loves Park, Illinois.

Forty Quality Dealers Meet at Normal, Illinois' Top of the Class Antiques Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

From Blue Goose Antiques, two circa-1950s Carl Bissman walnut tables in the Danish Modern style: the two-tier square end table priced at $300, the kidney-form cocktail table at $225. 309-838-7080

Fenton art glass specialists Schurter's Curio Cabinet came with an astonishing array of pieces, among them this Mulberry Mystical Bird enameled amphora on a bronze stand ($450) and rare circa-1940 Green Hobnail squat jug priced at $350. 309-925-3031

It was hard to miss the glowing Fenton Opalescent glass at Schurter's Curio Cabinet, my favorite this Cactus Topaz cookie jar, price tag $475. 309-925-3031

Doug Jennings has managed the event since the show's inception a decade ago. It's held right on the Illinois State University campus, in the Brown Ballroom of the beautiful Bone Student Center Building. Normal, Illinois, at the crossroads of Interstates 74, 55, and 39 might sound like a long drive, but it's actually only two hours from Chicago, St. Louis, or Indianapolis.

The location of the show is no accident, for Jennings was a program director with the Illinois State University's School of Communication for many years. The School of Communication here is eight-hundred students strong - with more than two-hundred of them in the Public Relations Program. The show serves as a department fundraiser and learning tool for those P.R. students too: more than twenty serve as interns at the three-day event.

That doesn't mean that the show is an amateur affair. Quite the contrary - the event attracts some of the best antiques dealers from the Land of Lincoln and several surrounding states. And with the goal to make the event as balanced as possible, the Top of the Class Antiques Show has crafted a diverse mix of dealers offering everything from country furnishings and vintage toys to advertising, estate jewelry, and more.

Minnesota's New to You Antiques was one of those dealers. They brought an eclectic mix of period furniture from America and beyond, including some impressive, just-acquired 19th century English oak pieces. And American country furniture lovers couldn't have been disappointed with the selection at Bear Your Heart Antiques, with its wide array of painted primitives of all sorts.

More into art glass? There were choice examples all over the show, from Schurter's Curio Cabinet's huge inventory of Fenton Glass and more to the sparkling display of American Brilliant Period cut glass in Andrews Antiques display. In fact, no matter where your collecting interests lie, you'd probably have found something to love here, from the high-style furnishings and fine art at Rod & Susan Bartha Antiques to Rory Evans Antique's impressive assortment of period cast iron doorstops, nutcrackers, and the like.

I hope the photos will give you an idea of some of the treasures you missed. For more information about the Top of the Class Antiques Show, you can reach show manager Doug Jennings by telephone at 309-438-2872, or through the show's website www.topoftheclassantiques.com. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of next year's Top of the Class Antiques Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

pages 16 & 17

Two very-different wood carvings from Weather Vane Antiques: the folk art carved tobacco humidor with a Native American motif priced at $265, the signed 20" Irish bog oak carving at $435. 262-375-0641

Two nice finds from Indiana's Nothing New Antiques: the silver-over-copper Victorian writing set priced at $375, the unusual burgundy & lime bride's basket in a silver-plate mount at $325. 765-869-5147

Oddities of all sorts awaited at Links with the Past Antiques, from a hand-cranked Phenix Emulsifier ($160) to this mint-condition Toycrete kit that makes miniature concrete blocks - $40. 309-378-4242

A trio of hard-to-find Fenton Emerald Green Coin Glass from Schurter's Curio Cabinet was priced from $45. 309-925-3031

American Brilliant Period cut glass is a specialty at Andrews Antiques, where the large inventory included this two-piece punch bowl priced at $475. 217-322-3100

Period lighting at Blue Goose Antiques included these sylvan-themed slag glass

table lamps. The Miller Lamp Company example was priced at $925, the other sold on the first evening of the show. 309-838-7080

Classic Americana is always the theme at Bear Your Heart Antiques, with finds like this country pine step-back cupboard ($695) and elegant carved wood hobby horse also priced at $695. 309-310-3596

At Bear Your Heart Antiques sat a tower of painted country benches starting at $40. 309-310-3596

Wonderful English antique furniture awaited at New to You Antiques, like this ornate oak hall tree ($2,495) and carved oak secretary/bookcase with a Northwind theme - $3,495. 952-500-3370

Here's an odd find from Rory Evans Antiques: a circa 1928 promotional cast iron nutcracker from England's Ariel Motorcycle Company, in the form of the firm's stylized horse logo - $695. 913-708-2497

Shoppers could peruse a great mix of period art glass at Freelance Antiques including this trio of Victorian pickle castors, the Vaseline Glass example in the center priced at $280. 847-431-1839

An unusual Roseville piece from Freelance Antiques: a 12" Wincraft vase in a pale yellow glaze, asking price $295. 847-431-1839

Turtle Creek Antiques came with some choice flow blue china, plus period American textiles like this dated-1888 silk crazy quilt, price tag only $235. 773-545-7181

Two pressed steel toys from The Peddlehorse Farm & Antiques: the 12" Buddy L U.S. Navy Landing Craft priced at $185, the 14" Girard windup/battery-lit Fire Chief Siren Coupe at $275. 715-266-4409

Kansas exhibitor Rory Evans Antiques specializes in period doorstops, like this cast iron spaniel in the Staffordshire Pottery style & in great original paint - $750. 913-708-2497

My fine art favorite at Rod & Susan Bartha Antiques: this 19th century oil-on-canvas portrait of Ulysses Grant's favorite General John A. Logan - found in Illinois and priced at $3,950. 847-366-1976

From Andrews Antiques, a colorful green glass water set with floral enameling - $275. 217-322-3100

Rod & Susan Bartha Antiques always brings a wide assortment of quality furnishings, like this unusual country-meets-metropolitan table with a pull-out double washstand ($590), and circa-1870 walnut desk from the old Illinois State Senate Chambers - $1,475. 847-366-1976

Toy finds at Betty's Antiques & Collectibles ranged from this Marx "Buttons the Push Button Pup" to a circa 1900 Royal "The Queen" toy cast iron stove priced at $185.

From CR Antiques, a circa 1900 mahogany & leather railroad station bench with two matching armchairs - $1,500 for the set. 217-519-0162

Vintage sporting collectibles are always the focus at Jesse Behr Antiques, where shoppers found some nice vintage fishing reels and lures, plus choice Illinois River decoys like this mallard pair by famed carver Bert Graves. 309-661-2148

Funky finds at CR Antiques included this stylish Mid Century gilt & etched glass cocktail set ($95) and industrial-style typist's stand - $165. The Underwood #5 typewriter atop it was priced at $90. 217-519-0162

Overseeing the display of Chicago's Hitman Antiques stood this 37", circa 1900 Infant Jesus of Prague statue, asking price $850. Behind it sits a massive oak church canopy, priced at $2,850 complete with its two 10' tall square oak columns. 815-258-0759

The annual Wisconsin Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show will be held from March 11th thru March 14th at the Hilton Gardens Inn at 1355 W. 20th Avenue in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. Take the Highway 44 exit from Highway 41 and turn right on 20th St. to the hotel. The entire show is open to the public for room to room trading on Wednesday night, March 11th and all day and night Thursday and Friday, March 12th & 13th. On Saturday March 14th, the ballroom is set up with scores of collectors and dealers displaying their wares from 8:00 am to 2:30 pm.

Decoys are always the main event at this show but there are all types of sporting collectibles available for all collectors. Items such as duck and goose calls, hunting knives, traps, wildlife paintings and prints, shotshell boxes and cartridges, all types of vintage fishing tackle and a large selection of collectors books will be on hand.

Show chairman Roger Ludwig states that last year all the tables were sold out, but this year the table area will be expanded so hopefully nobody will be turned away. To be safe, get your table reservations in as soon as possible.

Display tables are $50, which includes admission for two. A $20 membership fee is good for 2 admissions to the show and the hospitality room on Friday evening. A $10 membership fee is good for 1 admission to the show and the hospitality room on Friday evening. Don't miss out on the hospitality room as there is always a good supply of great food for all to enjoy.

Spend Your Valentines Day At The Wausau Antique Show

Article & photos by Audre Hanson
(AR Promotions)

The 30th annual Wausau Antique Show is Feb. 14-15. The sale is at D.C. Everest Sr. High School, Greenheck Field House, 2305 Jelinek Ave., Schofield, Wisconsin. Sat. 9-5 & Sun. 10-4pm.

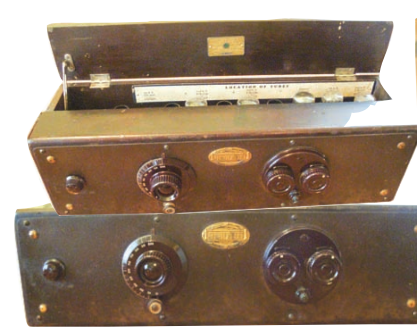

The show began in 1985 with 18 booths at the Wausau Center Mall. In 1994 we moved to Wausau's Marathon Park because it was under construction, so in 1999 we then moved to D.C. Everest Field House where we have been since. There are 50 booths! Adm. is $4.50 over 15, good for both days.

You will buy with confidence from these 50 Dealers who will assist you in your eager search to add to your collection, decorate your home, make an investment or just enjoy discussing the history of their antiques, vintage Finds or Eclectic Designs. Search for the unusual & rare items from 1870 to mid-century including antique furniture, stoneware, toys & dolls, a booth of Rockers, Am. Indian & Sports items, Bait, post cards, retro, early metal-ware, unique glass & china, primitives, advertising, textiles, tools, garden, military, lodge, precious & Costume jewelry, Valentines & more! A Crystal/China booth repairs while you shop. Also a Clock restoration booth available.

Enjoy this wonderful Antique-Finding weekend! There is a $50. Door Prize, & good food by the D.C. Everest concession stand. The show is exceptional & you have only two days to find your piece of history. 715-355-5144.

Antique American Glass & Pottery Show and Sale

The Antique American Glass sale will be held on Saturday, March 14, and Sunday, March 15, 2015 at the Concord Plaza Midwest Conference Center, 401 West Lake Street, Northlake, IL. This will be our 43rd year!

The sale is sponsored by the 20 30 40 Glass Society of Illinois. The Society members are collectors of American made depression era glass, pottery, and related material. Proceeds from the show are donated to glass museums that help to preserve the American made glass story.

There will be over 25 dealers from around the country. The glass and pottery that will be for sale is all American made. We will have early American pattern glass, elegant or handmade glassware, depression glassware, kitchen glassware, Pyrex, Fire King, and Fenton. There will be something for everyone. We will also have items to help set the table. Such as linens, silverware, etc.

All weekend there will be a glass identification table. Bring in that piece of glass to be identified. Our members will use the club's extensive reference library to help in the identification. There will be a crystal repair service all weekend also. We have hourly door prizes and a raffle of antique American glass. The winner of the raffle will be drawn late in the day on Sunday. Winner need not be present.

The public is invited during the hours of 10:00am to 5:00pm on Saturday March 14, 2015 and 11:00am to 4:00pm on Sunday March 15, 2015. Admission is $8.00 per person.

The Society meets 6 times a year to celebrate the beauty of American made glassware and pottery. We enjoy programs and displays on elegant or handmade glassware and depression era glass. Members may also bring in an item for identification. We enjoy a day of beautiful glass, knowledge, food, and friendship.

For more information or photos contact 20 30 40 Glass Society of Illinois Jane Schleinzer, telephone (630)851-4504, email JSANTIQUES@aol.com.
