Aztec Biface Ceremonial Blade Brings $10,000 at Rainbow Traders Auction

Article & photos by Rainbow Traders

On December 6th, 2014, Rainbow Traders held an auction of prehistoric & historic estates Indian Relics at the Sangamon County Fairgrounds in New Berlin, Illinois. The auction featured pieces from the collections of Charles McCorkle, L.P. Coplin, Robert Johnson, Henry Van Tuyle, Joe Shurtleff, as well as finds from Terry Bourret & James Kanehl. There were some fantastic pieces in this auction which drew strong prices throughout the sale.

Surprising Finds at the Forty-First Annual WADA Winter Antiques Show & Sale

The Waukesha Expo Center once again played host to one of Wisconsin's most venerated antiques events - the Forty-First Annual Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association Winter Show & Sale. WADA is the oldest continually-operating state antiques organization in the nation, founded way back in 1948. Since then, generations of collectors have benefited from the integrity of the members of this organization. Here, you can shop with confidence from the carefully vetted displays of more than fifty-five dealers at this two-day, must-see event.

At Aladdin Lamps sat this rare De Luxe Woody Woodpecker motion clock in mint condition, price tag $350. 414-453-2611

Steel toy standouts at John Turney Antiques included this Henry Katz & Co. "The Red Arrow" aeroplane ($525) and boxed Wyandotte "Flash Strat-O-Wagon" priced at $295. 773-972-4895

At Coin Operations sat two very different one-cent machines: a mint-condition Boraxo 1¢ Hand Soap Dispenser display priced at $750 and a Watling "gooseneck" one-cent Twin Jack Pot gumball slot machine. 414-559-9681

Out & About

Employee Tom saw an eagle flying over the channel by us holding onto a large branch. So, Tom is taking this as a sign of spring. I know that we have been most fortunate compared to the East Coast. I will be the first to say, I am not complaining about the light winter. I know for you outdoors enthusiasts, this year so far has been a disappointment. I haven't heard anything about how ice fishing or snowmobiling has been this winter, usually that is all the chatter. I do know that sturgeon fishing starts this weekend and prediction is a good one. Water is clear and a record number of licenses have been sold, all signs for another short but successful season. I like when the season is over, I always seem to catch a convoy of shanty's returning home. I like to see their creativity.

I do know that everyone has been taking advantage of attending the antique shops/malls and antique shows. We hear that attendance and sales are up. Which means everyone is eager for those outdoor auctions to start. Remember, there are still plenty of indoor auctions to attend, to keep your antique craving in check.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

The WADA Antiques Show & Sale - Synonymous With Quality Antiques Since 1948

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

It's now been forty-one years that the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association has been putting on this winter-edition antiques show. That's quite an accomplishment in itself, but you have to remember that this show is a relative newcomer to the WADA show schedule. The original WADA Fall Antiques Show & Sale will be celebrating its sixty-fourth anniversary later this year! There can't be too many other antiques associations around that can make that claim.

And in those six-plus decades, WADA has done much more than just hold antiques shows. As a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving the State's cultural heritage, WADA has a long history of providing grants to groups throughout the State - including the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society and many other Badger State not-for-profit organizations.

All of the WADA shows are held at the Waukesha Expo Center, just a short drive west of Milwaukee. It's a great show site - right off the interstate, with lots of free parking. Inside, the dealers can spread out among the three well-lit adjacent halls of the Forum Building. It's those dealers, of course, that are the reason that folks have been coming to the WADA shows for so long. And with more than fifty dealers at both the fall and winter editions of the event, you're almost sure to find something to love.

And while the WADA Show is best known for classic Americana, you'll now find purveyors here with everything from Arts & Crafts furniture to vintage advertising. Like at Coin Operations, whose display was filled with "big boy's toys" like vending machines, one-armed bandits, and more. Or at Elves Antiques, where the focus is always on the Holidays. There, shoppers found Christmas memorabilia from the 19th century onwards, plus some great vintage Halloween decorations.

Fine furniture more your thing? There were examples all over the show, from the classic American country furniture at both Pipsqueak & Me Antiques and Beneath the Dust Antiques. And J & L Antiques' booth did a brisk business in primitives of all sorts. Among the fifty-plus quality dealers who exhibit at every WADA Antiques Show & Sale, you're just about sure to find something to love, whether your tastes run to sophisticated fine art or to rustic artifacts.

WADA is also continuing its founding sponsorship of the 30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction, a biennial fundraiser held at the Wisconsin Historical Society's Old World Wisconsin Historic Site. The 2016 edition of the event is still a year away, but they've already gotten some wonderful donations. Most notable among them are two "outsider art" pieces from Wisconsin's Adam Berg. Berg retired to Wild Rose after life as a Chicago cab driver, and produced some astonishing works he called "oil carvings." And one of the artworks slated for the auction is his self-described "masterpiece of his life's works" - a monumental & highly detailed scene titled Heaven on Earth.

Of course, they'd love to take your quality donations too! Just give Riene Wells (262-363-4700) or Debbie McArdle (815-575-1272) a call for all the details, or visit www.friendswisconsinhistory.org.

I look forward to every WADA Antiques Show & Sale. Each dealer has something different to offer, whether it's that special antique you've been hunting for, an impromptu history lesson, or stories of the treasures they've found (and lost) over the years.

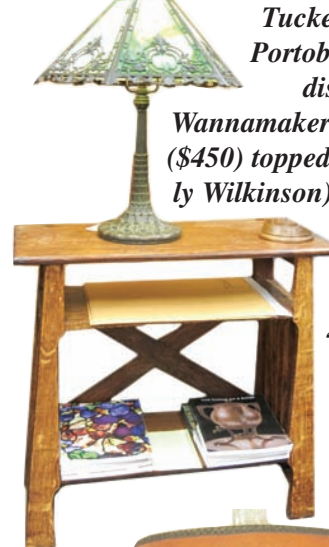

If you missed this show, be sure to mark your calendar with the dates of the fall edition of the WADA Show. It also takes place right here at the Waukesha Expo Center, on the first weekend in October. For 2015, that would be October 2nd and 3rd. You can find more information (and a discount admission coupon) at their website www.wisconsinantiquedealers.com. And as always, keep an eye out for all the WADA Antiques Show listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

Riene Wells (left) of the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society and WADA's Debbie McArdle pose with the 1963 Adam Berg oil "carving" titled Heaven on Earth, recently-donated to the Friends for inclusion in next year's 30th Star Antiques Benefit Auction. Co-sponsored by both groups, proceeds from the biennial event help fund the Historical Society's continuing efforts to preserve important cultural sites throughout the state.

Portobello Road Antiques came with some choice period lighting, like this Duffner & Kimberly table lamp, price tag $4,350. 414-630-5624

Tucked into a corner of Portobello Road Antiques' display sat this oak Wannamaker Encyclopedia stand ($450) topped by a (likely Wilkinson) slag glass table lamp priced at $725. 414-630-5624

At J & L Antiques, a well-loved German Teddy Bear ($195) snoozed on a child's Old Hickory rocking chair priced at $225. 608-575-0162

Shoppers found this exceptional four-sided J & P Coats Spool Cotton store display at J & L Antiques, price tag $1,600. 608-575-0162

I found this Frantz Toys "Great American Game" baseball game at John Turney Antiques, complete with box & priced at $475. 773-972-4895

Aladdin Lamps brought wonderful examples sporting their original parchment shades, like this red Lincoln Drape lamp with a Lovebirds shade ($800) and 12" pottery vase lamp with a forest-scene shade - $700. 414-453-2611

I found these elegant Pairpoint candlesticks at Sandra Ann-Tiques, 11 1/2" tall & priced at 425 for the pair. 715-617-4310

A sold sign sat on this pine harvest table at country specialists J & L Antiques. The primitive bench in front sported a scalloped skirt, and was priced at $245. 608-575-0162

Victorian House Antiques brought just that, including this matched set of L & F Moreau French figural electric lamps "Fisherwoman" and "Good Fishing", priced at $1,200 for the pair. 608-879-2567

A trio of vintage boxed child's toys from Victorian House Antiques: the Spear's Table Croquet priced at $75, the Mother's Little Helper set at $75, and the Little Boy Blue wash set at $135. 608-879-2567

Shoppers found country furniture at very appealing prices at Scott Rizer Antiques, plus this cranberry rake in old red paint priced at $110. 262-366-0783

Fine jewelry is the main focus at Olson's Antiques, but there was a whole army of tin soldiers there too (priced from $9.50) and circa 1930s German composition soldiers selling for only $4.50 apiece. 262-702-8922

Exceptional antiques from America and beyond awaited at Gwen S. LeFevre Antiques, from a dated-1825 Scandinavian wooden horse hame in its original paint-decorated finish ($1,195) to an early American "pig stool" in grass green paint - $325. 715-495-3284

Funky furnishings at Early Times Antiques included this wooden sled-turned-cocktail table ($475) and Waukesha-made Wilbur Lumber Company oak kitchen cabinet - $575. 920-382-3470

You never know what you'll find at Iowa's T's Antiques, from this dated-1901, 29" plaster bust of a Native American brave to a 5' tall German feather Christmas tree priced at $595. 563-343-5693

Noah's Ark came with four pristine 1920s new-old-stock Gridley Dairy posters, measuring 20" x 26" and priced from $245. 414-350-5852

At Pipsqueak & Me Antiques, this spiral staircase iron plant stand was priced at $99, the Ozark tourist-ware planters from $17 to $68 each. 608-295-7240

Nice look to this 60" pine sideboard ($1,075) at Pipsqueak & Me Antiques, the oil-on-board still life above priced at $545. 608-295-7240

Two wonderful 19th century Scandinavian cracker prickers from Gwen S. LeFevre Antiques, the hand-made primitive example priced at $125, the four-roller example at $135. 715-495-3284

Ron Christman Art & Antiques lived up to their name, bringing finds like this circa 1910 David Loring oil landscape "Old Mill", measuring 30" x 40" and priced at $1,450. 262-968-4913

A tale of two chests: from Beneath the Dust Antiques this early New England mule chest was priced at $765, this Ohio cherry chest at $695. 920-229-8298

Two fine art pottery finds from Antiques at Gordon's: the 11 1/2" Amphora handled ewer vase priced at $575, the Roseville Rozanne vase in an experimental glaze at $850. 262-377-4313

Framed art at Henry Teloh Antiques included this lovely 1935 Margaret Moorish California forest-scape (20" x 24", $495) and graphic WWII Pacific Theater "Ship Tally" painted on canvas - $225. 615-330-4224

Two fine art pottery finds from Antiques at Gordon's: the 11 1/2" Amphora handled ewer vase priced at $575, the Roseville Rozanne vase in an experimental glaze at $850. 262-377-4313

"Wisconsin Milk Bottles" was the theme of this WADA Antiques Show's special exhibit - with countless examples dating back to the early days of the Badger State's dairy industry.

From Sandra Ann-Tiques, a lovely French Art Nouveau clock garniture set was priced at $2,200, a 19" matched pair of opalescent Vaseline art glass vases in bronze mounts at $1,350. 715-617-4310

Shoppers could peruse the best in country Americana at Daryl D. Alpers Antiques, like this cast iron meal grinder ($395) or miniature screened pie safe priced at $589. 319-360-4301

More great period furniture could be found at The Calamity House, like this circa-1900 shaving stand in bird's eye maple ($995), and country pine secretary/desk priced at $1,295. 920-533-8731

The Rock Step Antiques brought a mix of both country & city antiques - a standout there this rare Pairpoint electric lamp in the form of a covered urn (model C 3074), its frosted pink glass shade accented by white enameling in high relief. 608-574-0957

Second Chance Antiques came with restored furniture for every taste, my pick this 50" carved oak bench adorned with winged Griffins - $1,950. 920-470-2319

It's always Christmas at the aptly-named Elves Antiques, where sat a selection of German Beltsnicker figures priced from $285, and this rather scary Santa Claus lantern priced at $685. 616-308-1299.

At Lee Bernard Antiques, this unusual "Jacobi" wood & wicker bakery bread mold was priced at $100. 262-677-2789

Strong Prices at Rainbow Traders December 6th Auction in New Berlin, Illinois

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

This was the second sale for the estate of the late Charles McCorkle of Tippecanoe County, IN, the third and final sale for the late L.P. Coplin of Sullivan, MO, the old estate collection of the late Robert Johnson of Godfrey, IL, estate of the late Henry Van Tuyle, a farmer from Greene Co., IL, personal finds of the late Joe Shurtleff of Texarkana, Arkansas, personal finds of James Kanehl of Ozaukee County, WI and personal finds of Mr. Terry Bourret of Hannibal, MO.

Rainbow Traders owner, Dennis Arbeiter reports, "Spades, axes, pottery and higher grade flint points have continued to bring significant value."

The next auction will be held on February 28th, 2015. Rainbow Traders has been in business since 1974. They offer auction services for antiques, Native American art, Real estate, as well as complete estate dispersal. They can be reached at 618-372-0248 or visit their website at: www.rainbowtradersauction.com.

37th Annual Tomah Antique Show ‘Freez’ N’ February

Article & photos by Steve Bina

The exhibition hall in Tomah Wisconsin's Recreation Park will once again be the site for the 37th annual Tomah, Wisconsin antique show. Thirty six years ago members of the Wisconsin West Central Antique Dealers Association started the show as an opportunity for their members to showcase their wares. Thirty six years later the show continues, now known as “Freez'n N' February”.

This year's show will be held on Saturday, February 21 from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM and Sunday, February 22 from 10:00 AM to 3:30 PM. 20 plus dealers from four states will be on hand exhibiting a wide variety of antiques and collectibles including primitives, glass, advertising, sporting items, post cards, pottery, fifties and sixties items, room ready furniture, stoneware, toys, jewelry, and much more.

Tomah is situated at the division of interstate 90 and interstate 94, about 45 miles north of Wisconsin Dells. For those of you looking to make a day of it, there are a number of shops in a Tomah, Sparta, and Oakdale as well as other surrounding communities.

Once again on Sunday from noon until three, those attending the show with paid admission may bring in up to three items for an informal appraisal.

The Oakdale Lions club will be on hand to provide delicious homemade food and desserts to hungry customers and dealers. Admission is $3.50 for both days, and under 16 is free of charge, so bring the kids! Recreation Park is located approximately one mile west of Tomah on Hwy 16 at 1625 Butts Avenue. Limited dealer space may be available. For additional information, contact Steve Bina at (608)-385-3598.

In addition to their usual large collection of both fine and costume jewelry Time's Treasures Antiques of Portage, WI will be bringing 2 pieces of Georg Jensen Sterling Jewelry. A elegantly simple pair of Georg Jensen cufflinks with hematite stones and a rare Georg Jensen organic floral and foliate design, with green agate stones necklace. Ph: 608-617-7066

Iowa Gas & Rich Penn Auctions Gear Up for August 2015

Ron Hoyt from the Iowa Gas Swap Meet and Rich & Sharon Penn made an important announcement at Penn's October Auction. “We're joining forces.” said Penn. “We'll be working with Ron and his partner John Logsdon to put on the auction at Iowa Gas in August of 2015 in Des Moines, IA.” Iowa Gas is widely known as the nation's biggest and best Gas & Oil Show and Auction. Rich Penn Auctions is known for putting on high quality auctions with a global following and also conducting them in Des Moines.

Ron Hoyt offered, “Rich and I have been talking for quite a while. When we talked at his October auction, Rich was showing me the over 2,000 bidders from over 40 countries. So when you look at our show in Des Moines, and Rich & Sharon coming from Waterloo, to do their auctions in Des Moines... it's like we're next door neighbors. He can bring the entire world to our Gas & Oil people.” Penn added, “We've known Ron for a long time and we've been coming to the show for years. It seemed like a natural fit. Sharon and I are both excited about it. So is our auction crew.” John stated, “It's our intention to keep Iowa Gas the biggest and best. We feel it's absolutely necessary to offer our buyers and sellers the best possible experience. When we make changes for Iowa Gas...that's always our main concern. After researching options we decided this was the best choice and will enhance the auction experience for everyone at the show.”

Penn has been in the auction business since 2000 and was one of the first auction houses to introduce online live bidding. Their following is now world wide. Penn belongs to both the National Auctioneer's Association and the Iowa Auctioneers Association. His company has won dozens of National awards for their marketing and advertising. “We're looking forward to shifting into a new level of activity for Iowa Gas,” said Penn, “We're fueling up for the long haul and we've already started lining up consignments for this auction.” He went on, “We don't have as much room in this auction as we do in our 1,500 – 2,000 lot auctions. So we expect it will fill up quickly.”

Interested participants should contact Rich Penn or Ron Hoyt.

Antique American Glass and Pottery Sale and Show

Article & photos by Jane Schleinzer (20 30 40 Glass Society of Illinois)

The Antique American Glass sale will be held on Saturday, March 14, and Sunday, March 15 2015 at the Concord Plaza Midwest Conference Center 401 West Lake Street Northlake, Illinois. This will be our 43rd year! This show is the oldest Depression Glass Show in the United States.

The sale is sponsored by the 20 30 40 Glass Society of Illinois. The Society members are collectors of American made depression era glass, handmade glass, pottery, and related material. Proceeds from the show are donated to glass museums that help to preserve the American made glass story.

There will be over 25 dealers from around the country. The glass and pottery that will be for sale is all American made. We will have early American pattern glass, elegant or handmade glassware, depression glassware, kitchen glassware, Pyrex, Fire King, and Fenton. There will be something for everyone. We will also have items to help set the table. Such as linens, silverware, etc.

All weekend there will be a glass identification table. Bring in that piece of glass to be identified. Our members will use the club's extensive reference library to help in the identification. There will be a crystal repair service all weekend also. We have hourly door prizes and a raffle of antique American glass. The winner of the raffle will be drawn late in the day on Sunday. Winner need not be present.

The public is invited during the hours of 10:00am to 5:00pm on Saturday March 14 2015 and 11:00am to 4:00pm on Sunday March 15 2015. Admission is $8.00 per person.

The Society meets 6 times a year to celebrate the beauty of American made glassware and pottery. We enjoy programs and displays on elegant or handmade glassware and depression era glass. Members may also bring in an item for identification. We enjoy a day of beautiful glass, knowledge, food, and friendship.

For more information or photos contact 20 30 40 Glass Society of Illinois Jane Schleinzer, telephone (630)851-4504, email JSANTIQUES@aol.com.
