Country Antiques the Focus at May 30th Reed's General Merchandise Auction

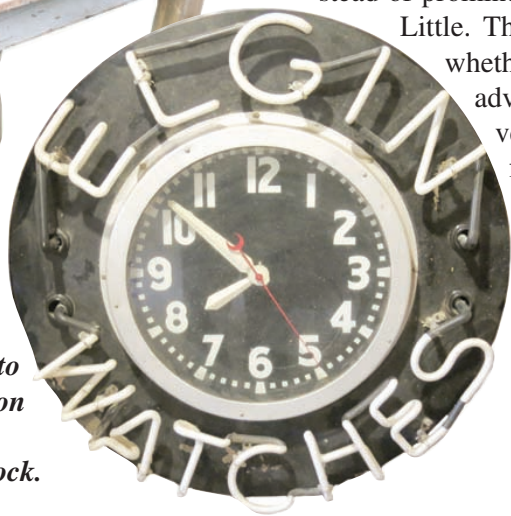

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

May 30th was the date, and rural Kingston, Illinois the place, for a great antiques & collectibles auction held by Reed's General Merchandise. A nice group of bidders dodged the raindrops at the on-site sale, held right on the farmstead of prominent local antiques collectors and dealers Jim & Maureen Little. There was likely something here for you at the auction, whether your tastes gravitate to farm primitives or to period advertising. Top lots at the sale included a ten-foot-long harvest table and a cool Elgin Watches neon clock that each fetched $775.

Country furniture winner of the sale: this near-10'-long harvest table that sold for a solid $775.

It took a $775 bid to take home this neon Elgin Watches advertising clock.

A colorful two-tone dry sink sporting three drawers made $550.

Auctioneer R. Kyle Reed coaxes another bid for a jumbo steel Hannibal Cleaners sign that brought $750.

A $375 bid took this hand-painted tin spice display cabinet.

Among the Best in Gopher State: the 2015 Minnesota Antique Dealers Association Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The beautiful Minnesota State Fairgrounds in St. Paul once again hosted the Minnesota Antiques Dealers Association's Annual Antiques & Decorative Arts Show, held this year on June 6th and 7th. Forty dealers from throughout the Gopher State and beyond displayed their wares at the event, filling the Fine Arts Building with quality antiques - from ancient artifacts to Arts & Crafts to Mid-Century Modern. The historic Fine Arts Building is a great venue for the show, giving the event a unique art gallery feel all its own.

My fine art pick at Rod & Sue Bartha Antiques: this circa 1900 rural scene oil painting, measuring 32" x 42" and priced at $1,375. 847-366-1976

Ron Christman Antiques & Art came with works from regional artists, my favorite this signed L. F. Jones scene of Wisconsin's Rib Mountain, circa 1930 and priced at $6,500. 262-853-1229

Two colorful vintage soft drink trays from Steve Ketchum Antiques: the Lakeside Grape Juice tray priced at $379, the Rock Springs Ginger Ale tray at $225. 952-221-0915

Two 19th century painted wood flax knives from Country Gallery Antiques, both signed and dated, $295 and $395. 715-425-7107

Fertile Ground for Collectors at Fantastic Reed's Auction in Rural Kingston, Illinois

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

So what's not to like? Out on the farm in rural northern Illinois, surrounded by hundreds of country antiques. Tents filled with primitives and country accessories, tools, and the like. And just across the yard, past rows of farm artifacts and architectural fragments sat the big barn brimming with period American furniture. That was the scene at Jim & Maureen Little's farmstead just outside of Kingston, Illinois on May 30th, where an enthusiastic crowd of bidders from near & far came to join in on the fun.

You might know Maureen & Jim Little, for they've been active antiques dealers in the area for years. And, no, they're not quitting the business! Maureen told me that they just plain ran out of room for their ever-growing inventory, and decided to reduce it a bit to better focus on the old-paint furniture and primitives the couple is best known for.

Many came for a chance to bid on the large group of American country furniture. There was plenty to choose from too, ranging from primitive farm-made pieces to some nice country Sheraton pieces. That near 10'-long harvest table sporting a worn painted finish proved the winner of the bunch, bringing a solid $775. A colorful two-tone dry sink did well too, selling for $550. Other furniture highlights included a country pine corner cupboard that brought $400, and a cherry wardrobe that crossed the block at $350.

There was some choice advertising here as well. The biggest offering: a huge "Hannibal Cleaners" painted steel sign that saw competitive bidding and quickly rose to its $750 hammer price. That vintage neon "Elgin Watches" advertising clock did even better though, selling for $775.

All in all, it was a good time for all, despite some intermittent rain. The Reed's Auction crew had erected tents to protect the bidders for the outdoor items, and the friendly crowd all squeezed into the barn when the furniture was sold. A group of first-time auction-goers came out too, encouraged by auctioneer Kyle Reed's helpful (and free) "Bidder 101" class he holds for newbies before every auction he conducts.

Some other prices:

- Early slate gray stoneware jug - $250
- Set of four graduated tin measures - $95
- Vintage boxed croquet set - $50
- 14" toleware platter - $35

Auctioneer for the day was R. Kyle Reed of Reed's General Merchandise, a family owned and operated auction and internet consignment business located in a historic general store in rural Lily Lake, Illinois. They conduct regular consignment auctions there, as well as on-site auctions of all sorts year-round. Reed's General Merchandise can be reached by phone at 630-365-2753, or through their website www.reedsgm.com. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming auction listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

A $250 bid took this country step-back cupboard in a worn gray finish.

This cherry Sheraton chest of drawers was a nice buy at $150.

Figured maple commode, $125.

An $85 bid took this tiny doll-sized chest.

Primitive wood bin in old blue paint, $125.

Carved wood pretzel trade sign, $200.

This desk & bookcase sold for $80, this pine corner cupboard $400.

Pine hanging corner cupboard, scalloped top & bottom, $85.

Painted country chests made up to $250 each.

Dovetailed dough box, $250.

Folks guessed it was a minnow scoop, and a bidder later paid $55 for it.

24" wooden Max Greenfield Sewing Machine Co. sign, $165.

This primitive yarn winder made $65, this woven-seat tête-à-tête $120.

A trio of brown stoneware jugs made from $25 to $105 each.

A patriotic-themed embroidery sold for $125, a folk art tricyclist toy $50.

Primitive pine & brass cheese press, $40.

I'm not sure exactly what this giant carved knife & keys set was made for, but a bidder paid $175 for it.

Auctioneer R. Kyle Reed of Reed's General Merchandise & Auction conducted the sale, held right on the farm in rural Kingston, Illinois.

It was tight quarters in the barn that housed much of the furniture! Here auctioneer Kyle Reed squeezes in behind a cherry wardrobe as he sells it for $350.

A two-tone bentwood box made $70, these Rockingham pottery plates $35 each.

Vintage Hampshire, Illinois baseball jersey - $55.

Choice of colored glass lightning rod balls yielded a $50 bid.

This cast iron duck pull-toy made $85, this Use Navarre Golden Sun Coffee advertising scoop $90.

Box lots of vintage postcards sold for $85.

Another odd lot: this life-size beatnik plywood stand-up figure that fetched $45.

Choice of vintage braided rugs yielded a $105 bid.

Lightning rods fetched up to $105 each.

Small firkins brought $50 each.

A $250 bid took this bar or counter front.

Painted folk art sewing box - $55.

Massive Dean Stump John Deere memorabilia collection offered by Rich Penn Auctions at the John Deere Two-Cylinder XXV Expo

Match safe, John Deere Plows-the World Standard, "Compliments of Deere & Webber Co.-Minneapolis, Minn.", celluloid & metal, mfgd by Whitehead & Hoag-Newark, NJ, Exec cond, 2.25"H x 1.5"W.

John Deere collectors from around the world will gather in Waterloo, IA, July 16-18 for the Two-Cylinder XXV Expo. After twenty five years...this is the final Two-Cylinder Club Expo. It will be one of the most memorable, providing attendees the world's finest vintage John Deere exhibits, a tractor sale, a swap meet and an important auction.

Rich Penn Auctions was selected to bring the Dean Stump John Deere memorabilia collection to the collector market. Dean's collection has often been referred to as the finest private John Deere literature and memorabilia collection ever assembled. According to Penn, "I've lived in Waterloo most of my life. My dad, my brother, my wife all worked for Deere. The tractors were made here in Waterloo. I've seen hundreds of pieces of Deere memorabilia. The Stump collection was a real education! It's full of things I've never seen and I'm sure collectors will be saying the same thing."

The one day auction, without reserve, will be held Saturday July 18, starting at 9:00 a.m. on the National Cattle Congress Grounds at the Electric Park Ballroom in Waterloo. The National Cattle Congress Grounds is where the Two-Cylinder XXV Expo will also be held, just a stones throw from the original Deere site in Waterloo.

Dean Stump was well known throughout the Deere collecting community. His collection was often the source of collector reference. It was also sought after for photography of some of his extremely rare pieces. The 2000 John Deere corporate calendar features many pieces from the Stump collection.

This collection has something for every Deere collector. From toys to tools, from belt buckles to brochures, from clocks to catalogs, from signs to tractor seats, from watch fobs to wooden displays, from a John Deere harvest bell to a John Deere baseball uniform, it will all be sold. Cardboard, paper, tin and porcelain signs....it's a massive collection of Deere pieces from the late 1800's to the late 1900's.

For any collector of John Deere memorabilia.....this is the one auction you must not miss. You will have an opportunity to add pieces to your collection that you may never see offered again.

As with all Rich Penn Auctions, there will be live bidding on site in addition to online bidding through LiveAuctioneers and on Penn's web site. Go to www.RichPennAuctions.com to register or to preview the auction and take a look at some of the preview videos on YouTube. Absentee and phone bidding is always welcome. Auction preview will be on Friday, July 17, from 2:00 pm - 6:00 pm and from 8:00 am to auction start on auction day. Full color catalogs will be available for $40, post auction prices realized will be available on Penn's web site. Just contact Rich Penn Auctions at 319-291-6688.

For additional information contact Rich Penn Auctions at 319-291-6688 between 9 AM & 5 PM CST, M-F.

Minnesota State Fairgrounds Hosts Annual MADA Antiques & Decorative Arts Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The Minnesota Antiques Dealers Association Antiques & Decorative Arts Show has been hosted by the Minnesota State Fairgrounds since its inception more than a decade ago. I earlier described the Fairgrounds as beautiful, and it truly is that. I first visited here several years ago, and my first impression was: what a difference from your typical fairgrounds! After passing under a large iron archway into the grounds, you're surrounded by what looks like the "streets of yesteryear," with tall trees shading the wide boulevards lined with lovely brick & stone buildings. It really is a pleasant place - and a busy one too! Be sure to stroll past the Art Deco/Art Moderne 4-H Building adjacent to the antiques show itself - and the nearby Art Deco Horticulture Building too. There are usually multiple events here on a typical summer weekend: both the GMCCA Car Show and the St. Paul Summer Beer Fest shared the fairgrounds with the MADA Antiques & Decorative Arts Show on this June 6th & 7th weekend. Another nice feature of the fairgrounds: plenty of parking adjacent to the venues, and free too!

The show itself is held in the Fine Arts Building, a grand old neoclassical brick structure. The huge open room is divided by dozens of freestanding white partition walls; giving the whole space the feel of a museum or art gallery. Each dealer has plenty of ready-made wall area for hanging objects, or just as a backdrop.

Those dealers ranged from Victorian to vintage to mid-century modern, or sometimes all-of-the-above in one booth. The Twin Cities' premier consignment shop, H & B Gallery, had one of the largest exhibits at the show, bringing furnishings ranging from an 18th century Pennsylvania chest to a stylish Kent Coffey Mid-Century Modern dining room suite. And period advertising collectors surely weren't disappointed at what the show offered, most notably Steve Ketchum Antiques' display of brewery & distillery focused display.

Things couldn't have looked more different than at Country Gallery, where Scandinavian folk art is always the focus. Finds there included everything from painted 19th century wooden flax knives to an intricately carved 1767 Swedish bride's box. And there was great fine art all over the show as well - from the likes of Ron Christman Antiques & Art, White Crow Fine Paintings, and Main Street Galleries.

Show Committee chairperson Carol Eppel told me not to forget to mention the countless hours the other committee members worked putting together this 2015 show, with the help of many dedicated volunteers. You can contact the Minnesota Antiques Dealers Association through their website www.mnantiquesdealers.com. There, you'll find a member list, an application for membership, as well as a discount coupon for admission to their annual show. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of the 2016 MADA Antiques & Decorative Arts Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

From Carol Eppel Antiques, an exceptional American Renaissance Revival walnut bedroom suite with marquetry panels, asking price $4,800. 651-430-0095

I found this near-4' tall Carved & painted 19th century religious figure at Sebasky & Hildreth Antiques, asking price $2,600. 612-804-6055

From Carol Eppel Antiques, an exceptional American Renaissance Revival walnut bedroom suite with marquetry panels, asking price $4,800. 651-430-0095

Finds at Sebasky & Hildreth Antiques ranged from fashionable French furniture to this 19th century Staffordshire "Vicar & Moses" figure priced at $295. 612-804-6055

Shoppers found all things Scandinavian at Country Gallery Antiques, from an intaglio carved Swedish bride's box dated 1767 ($2,500) to a funky folk art carved Viking head priced at $695. 715-425-7107

Customers admire a large 1st posthumous casting of Remington's "Cheyenne," offered by Sue & Rod Bartha Antiques for $9,750. 847-366-1976

At Steve Ketchum Antiques, this funky 2' carved wood "Danish" pretzel trade sign was priced at $379. 952-221-0915

A wonderland of 19th century art glass awaited at Jeff Durst Antiques, with gems like this enameled satin glass celery server priced at $795, and floral-enameled pickle caster priced at $850. 612-715-2458

At Jeff Durst Antiques, this Arts & Crafts oak desk was offered for $395, the slag glass table lamps for $495 and $550. 612-715-2458

There were treasures from rustic to refined at Rod & Sue Bartha Antiques; with this great 19th century Black Forest antler mirror priced at $2,575, these ornate 19th century gilt bronze & onyx floor candelabras at $3,500 for the pair. 847-366-1976

K.E. Bronner Antiques came with a diverse group of pottery, from an English Black & Brownlow 2-gallon water cooler ($175) to this Arts & Crafts jardinière & pedestal standing 28" tall - $495. 952-920-4615

Jonathon Campbell of the Twin Cities' own H & B Gallery poses with a classic 18th century Pennsylvania chest of drawers sporting its original brasses, asking price $3,500. The 19th century portrait of a gentleman hanging above it was priced at $750. 612-874-6436

Shoppers found an entire Kent Coffey Mid-Century dining suite at H & B Gallery - the table, three leaves, and six chairs offered for $1,000, the matching china hutch for $850. 612-874-6436

Two silver finds from H & B Gallery: the Sheffield plate tea urn priced at $325, the silver overlay glass carafe also at $325. 612-874-6436

from the Schumacher Hotel in New Prague, Minnesota), asking price $3,750. 952-221-0915

Period breweriana from Steve Ketchum Antiques: the Prohibition-era Schlitz Famo sign priced at $265, the Chippewa's pride beer tray at $249. 952-221-0915

Main Street Galleries always comes with a nice selection of period bronze sculptures, this time including this 24" Italian "L'ABC" scene of a shepherdess & her daughter, asking price $2,250. 715-832-2494

Odd shelf-mates at Noel Swanson Antiques: the 19th century porcelain figure of an Indian princess priced at $575, the circa 1590 Spanish polychrome alabaster figure of Judith with the head of Holofernes at $675. 612-423-4040

Noel Swanson came with cultural artifacts from across the globe, including this tribal basketry cap from north-eastern India topped by a hornbill skull - $195. 612-423-4040

Shoppers found high-end home furnishings from every era at Claire Steyaert Antiques & Art, from a signed 1950s Philip LaVerne end table ($4,500) to a pair of 17th century copper-plate botanical engravings - $1,200. 612-339-7396

Art pottery at Xcentric Goods ranged from Mid-Century West German vases to this cool bust of Chairman Mao himself, price tag $65. 612-827-8043

I found this oil painting "View of the Harbor of Dunkerque" by French Impressionist (and friend of Claude Monet) André Barbier at Claire Steyaert Antiques & Art, asking price $3,800. 612-339-7396

Eastwood Gallery came with the Arts & Crafts furnishings they're best known for, plus Mid-Century gems like this pair of Russell Woodard Sculptura patio chairs - $1,200 for the set. 651-695-1902

Longtime MADA member Carol Eppel organizes their popular annual show. Here's Carol beside an American primitive corner cupboard with nine-lite glass door, asking price $1,495. 651-430-0095

At Richard Larson Antiques, an American Sheraton cherry table ($295) served as a base for an unusual Civil War-era cast iron dressing mirror with a patriotic motif - $395. 763-479-2033

Nice lines to this Prairie-style Arts & Crafts oak & slag glass table lamp from Eastwood Gallery, the shade measuring 19" across - $2,650. 651-695-1902

First-time exhibitors Ameritiques Ltd came with a most impressive display of antique KPM porcelain plaques, including a scene of a doctor performing an autopsy and a signed Arnold Bocklin Unicorn Rider. 815-347-2838

Antique Lamps To Light Nashville

Article by Joe DeMatteo (National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors)

Aladdin lamps have provided light for over 100 years. Aladdin's light is "magic" for those who collect, light and use the lamps. The amazing 100-year-old technology still works today!

Coal-oil, or kerosene lighting, is often "mystic" to those who are too young to have experienced the warm glow that illuminated homes in years past. Collectors restore and light the old lamps that were essential for our parents and grandparents. Many young people today are discovering the nostalgia and beauty that antique lighting add to their home décor-especially family heirloom lamps.

Aladdin Knights and collectors who prize old lamps will hold their annual Gathering (convention) July 22-25, 2015 at the Airport Marriott Hotel, Nashville, TN. The Gathering is sponsored by The National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors (www.aladdincollectors.org). Events begin Tuesday and conclude with Saturday banquet. More than 500 are expected to attend.

Joe DeMatteo and Bill Courter are the General Knights (hosts) who plan and organize Gathering events. Calling themselves Aladdin Knights, the group is America's largest club of antique lamp collectors. Knights collect Aladdin kerosene incandescent lamps and Aladdin electric lamps as well as other brands.

All lamp and lighting collecting clubs are invited to attend: The Rushlight Club (www.rushlight.org), oldest lighting club in America, who will hold their summer meeting in Nashville; The Night Light Club (www.nightlightclub.org), collectors of miniature lamps; International Coleman Collectors Club (www.intlccc.net); The Historical Lighting Society of Canada (www.historical-lighting.on.ca).

Collectors and students of antique lighting attend to study and learn history of lighting ranging from rushlights and whale oil to discovery of new fuels and technology in lamp improvements. Gathering events include seminars, display room of rare and unusual lamps, auction, raffle, banquet and the huge Lamp Show & Sale. The "Ladies of the Knights" donate their time and talents to make a beautiful, handmade quilt that a lucky member will win at the annual banquet.

The 26th Antique Lamp Show & Sale opens to registered members on Friday and to the public on Saturday. Spectacular, rare, and beautiful are words that describe this unique and unusual show featuring antique lighting. World-class dealers will offer an immense variety of antique lighting and accessories. Lamps of all kinds include colored pattern oil lamps, Gone-With-The-Wind, art glass lamps, opalescent lamps, miniature lamps, student lamps, finger lamps, Victorian hanging fixtures, floor lamps, center-draft lamps, as well as early electric lamps, plus the world-famous Aladdin Deco style figurines!

The public is invited to the 26th International Lamp Show & Sale on Friday 2:00 to 6:00 PM and Saturday 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Airport Marriott Hotel. Website: www.aladdincollectors.org. There is a nominal admission fee.

For more information, contact Joe DeMatteo, 2170 Post Rd, Clarksville, TN 37043 or dematte@bellsouth.net.

Come join us for the 55th annual Eagle River Antique Show and Sale!

Article by Joan Walter (Rotary Club of Eagle River)

It will be held at the Eagle River Derby Track Exposition Hall, located on Hwy 45 north of Eagle River Friday, August 7th, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and Saturday, August 8th, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

This antique show is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Eagle River. This show is the longest running antique show in the Northwood's and the ONLY antique show up North entirely benefiting a service club's community projects. All the proceeds from this show, including all the fees collected at the door, are used by the Rotary Club for their special community projects. The Club yearly sponsors two $1000 scholarships for local graduating seniors, sends 2 girls annually to Badger Girls State, supports the local Cranberry Fest, Klondike Days and sponsors a "Warm the Children" winter project. The Rotary also supports an ongoing Youth Exchange Program and holds a wine tasting event as another fund raiser in addition to the Antique Show and Sale.

Exhibitors for the show are professional antiques dealers from the Northern Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association along with select guest dealers. The Rotary Club and NWADA work very hard every year to provide a unique and quality antiques show that has become a successful, anticipated summer event. Top quality antique dealers from Wisconsin and Illinois will be bringing their best antiques.....including many items they have saved special just for this show.

An excellent selection of antique furniture in a wide variety of woods and styles will be available. You can also expect to find fine antique and vintage costume jewelry; sterling silver flatware and hollowware; brass and copper; ironstone; art pottery; elegant, depression & kitchen glassware; kitchen collectibles; decorative lodge-look items; sports items; decoys; art; children's toys & collectibles; vintage textiles; art glass; Military collectibles; and small primitives and country pieces at this show. There is something for everyone in every price range!

Also we are happy to announce that Mary Lou's Crystal Repair will again be joining us this year! You can bring your damaged crystal, china, porcelain or pottery with you to the show and have it repaired while you shop.

Mark your calendar now! Come out and help us celebrate our 55th year.....the Rotary Club is a wonderful community organization and is deserving of our support and appreciation! A lot of good things happen in Eagle River every year thanks to this fine organization, but none of this can happen without your public support.

The show also has free parking. Food and a full bar will be available for purchase from the Derby. For questions or additional information call (920)533-8731.

Mary Lou & Bob Gates have perfect the art of china & crystal repair. Bring in your chipped or cracked china, porcelain & crystal & let them work their magic. Minor repairs can be done while you shops. Phone 815-735-8294
