Our faith community is centered in the celebration of the Eucharist. Sent forth nourished by the Word of God and our sacramental encounters with the Lord Jesus, we endeavor to live the Gospel each day.

As a compassionate Christian people, empowered by the Holy Spirit, we minister to each other and the greater world community through prayer and action.

From the Desk of Father George

Greetings parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

The Scriptures this weekend lead us to rejoice. Our God had rescued and delivered us. The gift of His Spirit not only raised up Jesus from the dead, but also gives us life. As such, we are to live in the Spirit of Christ, not in the spirit of the flesh. Jesus calls us to come to Him. . . to take upon our shoulders His way and His truth. Each of us can find comfort in the Lord if we willingly approach Him through faith.

Our freedom to assemble and worship should never be taken for granted. In many parts of the world our brothers and sisters suffer persecution for their desire to gather in praise. The freedom of religion is a gift for which we need to offer thanks. As we celebrate July 4th, we should find much in which to rejoice. Although the economy may still be uncertain and the price of gas goes up and down daily, we celebrate our independence won and maintained through the cost of many lives. Throughout our history, men and women have sacrificed themselves because they believed in freedom. . . not only for these United States, but for others around the globe.

I hope that your holiday gathering or meal is enjoyable. And remember, it is never too late to teach your children the value of freedom and sacrifice and build not only a stronger relationship with God, but also an appreciation for Independence.

Fr. George

Family Perspective

Today is a day of rejoicing! As we celebrate our freedom, let us give thanks to God for our abundant blessings and remember God's Kingdom is being established on earth and we are to be part of this. We are sent into the world like the seventy-two were sent in the Gospel. Jesus wants us to bring the good news to our families, neighborhoods, workplaces—wherever we go!

"The work of handing on the faith to children, in the sense of facilitating its growth, helps the whole family in its evangelizing mission. It naturally begins to spread the faith all around them, even outside of the family." -Pope Francis, The Joy of Love #289
