33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute.” - Lk 21:15

From the Desk of Father George

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

The church year is drawing to a close. Next weekend is the Feast of Christ the King which is the last Sunday before beginning the Season of Advent. Our readings for today are focused upon 'end things'. As people of faith, we believe that God's love and mercy is beyond our greatest imagining. And yet, we strive to live holy lives. Imitating Christ should be our goal in all we do.

Looking at God does not mean that one must seek out the beautiful vision or await a dramatic theophany. Rather, looking at God means taking a cue from our ancestors in the faith, who learned to discern the face of God by remembering all that God had done for them. When we look at the goodness of God we can also see what our sins have done to us. We can distort God by our actions and consequently begin to see others with disdain and contempt.

As each of us is called to review his/her past year, we should ask the question: "How have we reflected the face of God to others?" While the thought of the Lord's second coming may fill us with dread or hopelessness, we are to leave the judging of ourselves and others to God. We are to set aside our fears and speculations and trust in the mercy and love of God. The good news is that Jesus assures us that if we show patient endurance, we will save our lives. He has already told us that we will not know the hour or day when he will come. We can't predict it, but we do know that when the blossoms are on the trees, it will be springtime once again.

Fr. George

"It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute."
- Lk 21:13-15

Family Perspective

We are a short-term, results-oriented society: "Show me the money!" "Cut your losses" is advised if gains are not in the near future. Today's gospel warns us that if we are not thinking long-term or if we react to the latest crisis in the news, we will probably be led astray. Jesus does not guarantee immediate gains in the Christian life. Stay invested in Him, especially when others are anxious and you will be rewarded in God's time.

There is still time to sign up for the Tea on Sunday, December 4 at 3:00 p.m. Please join us for some fun and fellowship as we prepare for the Christmas Season. Gather your friends to enjoy some good food, fun, and beautiful music. Sign up in the back of church. Cost: $15.

Why Use Envelopes

Because it enables us to recognize you as a practicing Catholic and contributing member of our parish. Very often we receive requests for letters of verification for purposes of acting as sponsors at Baptism, Confirmation or for school subsidy purposes. Without having a record of giving, it is difficult to do this.
