CONFESSIONS

2nd Saturday of the month 4:00-4:30 p.m. in the Church Library

St. Julie Billiard Parish Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

From the Desk of Father Franco

Dear Parishioners,

The name of this Sunday in the liturgical year is Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. As regards to liturgical feasts, this one is relatively recent. It was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as a response to a growing secularism. In his letter Quas primis #33 Pope Pius XI wrote:

If to Christ our Lord is given all power in heaven and on earth; if all men, purchased by his precious blood, are by a new right subjected to his dominion; if this power embraces all men, it must be clear that not one of our faculties is exempt from his empire. He must reign in our minds, which should assent with perfect submission and firm belief to revealed truths and to the doctrines of Christ. He must reign in our wills, which should obey the laws and precepts of God. He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to him alone. He must reign in our bodies and in our members, which should serve as instruments for the interior sanctification of our souls, or to use the words of the Apostle Paul, as instruments of justice unto God.

In the mind of Pope Pius XI, the reign of Jesus begins over each aspect of our person. When Jesus reigns in and over us, then his reign can be expressed in the world.

The Vatican II document called The Church in the Modern World, paragraph #78 elaborates on bringing an aspect of the reign of Jesus into the world. It speaks of peace.

Peace is not merely the absence of war; nor can it be reduced solely to the maintenance of a balance of power between enemies; nor is it brought about by dictatorship. Instead, it is rightly and appropriately called an enterprise of justice...But this is not enough...Peace is likewise the fruit of love, which goes beyond what justice can provide.

That earthly peace which arises from love of neighbor symbolizes and results from the peace of Christ which radiates from God the Father. For by the cross the incarnate Son, the Prince of Peace reconciled all men with God. By thus restoring all men to the unity of one people and one body, He slew hatred in His own flesh; and, after being lifted on high by His resurrection, He poured forth the spirit of love into the hearts of men.

Our world is filled with many kinds of governments and many different rulers. It is a world with much frustration, strife and violence. As we pray for peace in our world and pray that our civil leaders will bring the nations into a greater justice and peace, let us always look to Jesus Christ. As He rules us, we become instruments of His peace.

In Christ,

Fr. Bob Franco

Family Perspective

The gospel today is clear that "everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Truth is critical to human fulfillment and happiness. Without the truth we live suspiciously in a world of lies. What is the truth about the effect of our actions on children? The importance of a father's presence to the development of a child? The effect of cohabitation on a relationship? The result of long work days and too little time with families? Live the Gospel truth.
