Holydays......Consult the Bulletin

2nd Saturday of the month 4:00-4:30 p.m. in the Church Library

From the Desk of Father Franco

Dear St. Julie Parishioners,

Christmas is around the corner. With all its joy, there can be a measure of frustration that sets in, even here at church. We will be seeing people in church we do not normally see. Some of them will sit in our seats! Before we let resentment rise in our hearts, let us resolve now to be grateful that they are here. Let us pray that whoever attends our holy day Masses may be touched by the Lord. May our attitude be that of St. Paul in today's second reading: Rejoice in the Lord always. I say it again: rejoice! Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near.

Perhaps the key to that attitude lies in the lines that follow: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

The words of John the Baptist in today's gospel are both directive and motivational. The crowds, tax-collectors and soldiers all ask the question, What should we do? It is a question we would do well to take to the Lord Jesus in prayer ourselves. John's answer can be summarized by the words: Do what is right! We should share what we have with those needy around us. All business dealings should be above board and just. Pride has no place in our relating to other people. For our young people (and for some who are not so young!): No bullying! As for motivation, John tells us that the Messiah will gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire. Let us do what is right!

John ends his practical exhortation by saying be satisfied with your wages. We struggle with contentment in our time. There is always something new and better on the horizon. There is a time and place for trading in and trading up. However, our happiness does not depend on it. We are satisfied because we know Christ and have purpose, even in our suffering and loneliness.

Confession will be offered at St. Julie's on Saturday, December 22 from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the library. St. Peter Parish will be hearing confessions on Friday, December 21 morning, noon and evening: after the 8:15 a.m. Mass, then from 3:00-4:00 p.m. and finally from 7:00-8:00 p.m. Let us heed the cry of John the Baptist and prepare our lives to welcome our Savior with a fresh faith, joyful hope and charity that perseveres.

In Christ,

Fr. Bob Franco

Christmas Bells

Christmas bells are believed to announce the arrival of baby Jesus and mark the beginning of the holiday season. The tinkling sound of bells guide the lost sheep back to the fold, just like the Lord would guide us to walk in His ways.

Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one

mightier than
I is coming."

From the desk of Fr. George...

On this third Sunday of Advent - when we celebrate with joy the nearness of the Feast of the Nativity - I want to thank you for all your prayers and cards. My journey to better health has, at times, been an uphill battle. Two weeks ago, I spent four days in the Heart Failure ICU at University Hospital in Cleveland. I went in for an outpatient procedure and the results led to immediate admission. I feel much better and the cardiologists are continuing to adjust my medications. I have a heart ablation scheduled for mid-January and we will see what happens next. I am hoping to soon return to the helm, but better health comes first. Meanwhile, I plan to be part of the Christmas celebrations in some fashion. May God's Peace and Blessings be upon you all!

This week my prayers were for: my family; mom, dad, Ashley, Candy, Brian, Saidy, Sparky; Sadie, JJ, Jovie, Sparky, Uncle Jim, Mr. Gerace, Brian & Candy; my family; my family; uncle Patrick; my uncle.

This is how I used my time and talent for others: I went to first Reconciliation; I gave money to the Salvation Army charity worker and I got her coffee; shared time/info w/cub scouts; clene my house; doing laundry and helping cleaning; I helped put up Christmas tree.

Poinsettia

Mexico is the native home of this holiday flower and its legend. On Christmas Eve villagers placed gifts at the Nativity scene. Folklore claims a peasant boy had no gift and prayed outside the door. His prayers were answered when a red flower appeared through the snow. Joel Poinsett an amateur botanist brought the flower to this country in the 1820's. It is named in his honor.
