

Vicky Waggoner Jones is a retired teacher from Trigg County Kentucky. She taught special Education (grades K-8) in Christian County for 17 years, before moving to Trigg County where she taught special education for 1 year, regular education (grades 4, 6, & 8) for six years, and was the curriculum Specialist at Trigg County Middle School. Vicky is currently the Executive Director of Dyslexia Association of the Pennrile in Hopkinsville, Kentucky and serves as a Board of Director and secretary for the International Dyslexia Association Kentucky Branch. Her purpose and vision is to expand awareness of dyslexia in the Pennyrile area and beyond, as well as help facilitate tutorial programs for children and adults with dyslexia and other learning differences.