Psalm 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.

Dear Caterpillars,
As you travel through your journey of your flight know that God is guiding you to where he needs you to be. Feel his unmeasurable Agape love that he has for you! Remember He hears your cries and knows your every need. May his love, his wisdom and guidance fill your hearts. May your hearts yearn for Him.

May God Bless you and keep you close to him.

Decolores!
