How to Make Invisible Ink

Materials Needed: Lemon Juice, Small glass, Toothpicks, Paper, and an Electric Iron

PROCEDURE: #1. Pour a little lemon juice in a glass. #2. Soften the point of a toothpick in the juice. #3. Write a message with the juice. #4. Heat the message (with the iron) to make it visible. The message should appear brown.

Using Your Detective Skills at Home

"The Detective" method of Bible study is considered a long method. "The Detective" searches to find all the facts about a Bible book, its author, and its content. Choose a book (letters are best to start with). Take notes and answer the Detective questions. 1) WHO IS THE WRITER? 2) TELL EVERYTHING YOU KNOW ABOUT HIM? 3) WHO WAS THE BOOK WRITTEN TO? 4) WHY WAS THE BOOK WRITTEN? 5) HOW MANY CHAPTERS DOES IT HAVE? 6) WHAT ARE SOME OF THE IMPORTANT TEACHINGS IN THE BOOK? 7) WRITE AN IMPORTANT VERSE. 8) WHAT CAN I LEARN FROM THE BOOK?

Movie Night

Rent your favorite Spy Kids movie, pop some popcorn and have lots of great snacks. Your secret mission is an evening of fun and family!

I Spy

Play a game of I Spy. "I spy with my little eye something that is.....". Make an "I Spy" poster. Using a piece of posterboard and cuttings from magazines. Tape or glue your pictures onto the poster and write an "I Spy" rhyme, see if your friends and family can spy different objects in your poster. Or take the whole family to the library and check out the "I Spy" books from Scholastic Publishers.

Spy School

Notes

Spies and the military use secret messages everyday to protect their messages from others. The science of scrambling and unscrambling secret messages is called "cryptology." Can you guess what a scientist who does scrambling and unscrambling is called? A "cryptologist!"

Jesus has a message that he wants all his disciples to share with the world, and he doesn't want us to keep it a secret.

The message is called the gospel, it's a message of God's love.
