January, 2014

Hello!!

I hope everyone has had a wonderful Christmas! One of our clubs little elves has been working very hard this season preparing our yearbook for publication. We want to make sure we get every one's information correct. Please contact Celene Terry at bcterry1119@gmail.com to change your address, phone number or email. Our yearbook will be going to print in a couple of days so let her know ASAP.

Membership fees of $25 are due to Selwyn Wilson as soon as possible to make sure your name gets in the yearbook.

The January Committee is Rosalie*, Meridel, Bobbie, and Suz. Please be prepared to hang on Jan. 3rd and those that have things hanging will need to pick up your paintings on this same date.

Our next business meeting is Jan. 10th, 9:30 at City Hall. This is an important meeting because it is the last one before our show.

In preparation for the art show we will have our mat cutters up at City Hall on Jan. 31st. Bring your mat board and we will have members that will be able to help you if needed in cutting your mats.

In talking about the show, I hope you are paint, paint, and painting! Each member is allowed up to 10 paintings in the show. Only half of what you bring has to be new. The other half can be pieces that have been shown before.

March 6 & 7 Ann Moyer will be presenting a workshop on "Pouring."
