Your Life Path is 2

Your Compatibility with the 1 Life Path This is a very promising combination, because, strange as it may seem you actually have very little in common, but look a bit further and you find two energies at play: The 2 energy is 'the power behind the throne' and the 1 Energy 'holds the throne'. Both are needed to be successful and to maintain continued success. You, the gentle 2 peacemaker is the perfect backing for the driven and ambitus energy of the 1. Be clear, the 1 will always want to be in charge and you are the magic that makes it all come together whether the 1 ever acknowledges it or not. Learn more about what backs your lovely 1 to help navigate all seasons together.

Your Compatibility with the 2 Life Path This coupling can go two ways Dear 2: a union of emotional intelligence that respects the feeling center at all times and is quite comfy with telepathic communication, (and respecting it) or constant arguments and blow-outs. Fabulous in the bedroom, not so fabulous in the mundane world. If I were to tell you one number to opt out of, it would be this one. Oil and water just doesn't mix, no matter how much you shake it. That said, if you just can't shake your 2, dig deeper into both charts to learn more about this magnetic connection and how it clicks!

Your Compatibility with the 3 Life Path This combo can enhance creative juices for you both, bringing out your beautiful sense of harmony can bring out the stunning creative expression that is so native to your 3 lover. Shared creative interests is what keeps the passion alive in this dynamic combo right alongside clear communication to avoid quarrels and hurt feelings. Your 3 lover will bring you out into the world to play and show you that it can be fun. Enjoy this harmonious connection and examine the underpinnings of you and your 3 to find the bedrock required to put steam behind your collective creative selves.

Your Compatibility with the 4 Life Path This beautiful union brings together elements that have great potential and is worth fighting for. A combination of extremes can bring balance to each of you, your gifts, talents and abilities. Both of you have specific gifts that are not like the other. If you can respect these qualities, and are careful with one another's emotions you'll have a powerful foundation that the strongest of storms can't blow off course. If you find yourself in a constant barrage of tough weather together then dig a little deeper in both charts to find the stiff winds that can be calmed with understanding.

Your Compatibility with the 5 Life Path My dear 2, might I suggest choosing friendship over love with this combo? There is a discordance here that is hard to get around. Think fire and water. In a controlled environment, each of them serve a purpose, but when they occupy the same space, one is going to destroy the other. The fire makes the water evaporate, or the water will kill the fire. IF you choose to pursue this combo, the directive is very simple: don't get in each other's way. Learn more about both charts to understand what that might look like.

Your Compatibility with the 6 Life Path Now you are cooking with gas my sensitive and intuitive 2! Love and passion are up, front and center with this combo and really, there is nothing that is 'too big' to take this union down. Your 6 lover is focused on family and that is exactly what will be delivered to your door. The only warning to you is to be clear with how much responsibility you want to take on here and to always maintain your personal goals to the top of your "Life List" – otherwise resentment plants itself between the two of you. Learn more about the key aspects driving both chart and you'll be good as gold as a couple!

Your Compatibility with the 7 Life Path I LOVE this combo dear 2, but it is rare, rare, rare and here's the reason. Intuition (2) meets intelligence (7) sensitivity (2) meets clinical research (7) and the heart (2) meets the mind (7). Rarely are these two numbers attracted to one another, but if you find yourself with a 7 lover, well then you are pretty much locked and loaded for life. Why? Call it destiny, call it fate, trust me you'll just know dear 2, so follow that brilliant intuition you were born with and fall into this amazing experience that is clearly laced with a purpose, higher vision and as I said, an overall sense of 'Destiny Point'. If you are having trouble navigating all the pre-destined energy, learn more about both charts to find the secret in the sauce.

Your Compatibility with the 8 Life Path This is a relationship between Strength and Heart and has the potential to last for years and years. Obviously you Dear 2, are the Heart. Both of you will breathe a sigh of relief when you finally find one another and fall into each strength like a cool glass of much needed water. Strength however, eventually dissipates and the heart slowly loses interest. How to keep the burner hot? Recognize and acknowledge who each of you is, and remember, there is an ebb and flow to life where strength and love waxes and wanes. Then, you'll be just fine. You'll fall in love over and over again

Your Compatibility with the 9 Life Path This combo is a powerful alliance in business (you can negotiate and influence just about anyone or anything) but when it comes to matters of the heart, both of your needs and desires are not very compatible. This doesn't mean that you shouldn't have a go at it Dear 2. You can help your idealistic 9 lover to 'loosen up' a bit and relax that constant focus on needing to save the world by having a go at simply living in the moment. It is one of your greatest gifts and abilities. Your 9 will need space to themselves, but this does not mean that they don't love you, or their love is not as strong as yours. Keep this at the forefront of your mind at all times, and this alliance has the makings to go the distance.
