Unlock the Secrets of your compatibilities and challenges using the science of numerology. This report was created especially for you to better understand your relationship, or potential relationship with others by comparing your life path numbers.

Your Life Path is 4

Your Compatibility with the 1 Life Path This combination has the ability to be solid as a rock, but also has the potential for crashing and burning in a blink of an eye. Both energies are gifted in the areas of persistence and ambition and both show these abilities in very different ways. Dear 4, you must recognize the difference in how your 1 lover sees reaching for a planned target - it's very different from how you tackle a 'to-do' list with that razor sharp exactitude you are known and truly respected for. Your 1 will not want to look at the potential 'consequences' list and come back with, 'damn the consequences, let's shoot for the moon!'. If not handled well, this could be grounds for war. Respect is needed to make this union last. Be sure to know if your loving 1 has any 4's backing their chart – that will make all the difference!

Your Compatibility with the 2 Life Path The Two and Four combination found inside of the Life Path is a powerful asset in your relationship. The tact, sensitivity, intuition and innate ability to recognize the more subtle things in life that your 2 Lover brings to your buffet table of life complements your grounded and practical gifts and abilities. It is a combination of extremes that brings both of you a feeling of comfort and finally be 'at home' with your other half. Just like mortar and brick, energy and matter, earth and sky, this is one of the most lucky (and blessed) combinations for you dear 4. However, with that said, precisely because two numbers are so opposite, there can, at times be a lack of understanding. Digging deeper into your personal charts is a must to navigate any disconnects.

Your Compatibility with the 3 Life Path Well Dear 4, this is a very promising, as well as a potentially difficult combo. Your 3 lover comes with a fun-loving, optimistic, creative, playful and perhaps even a child-like nature. Your 3 carries a certain faith in life that everything is just going to work out – no matter what. You, Dear 4 might have an issue with this care-free nature, as your approach to life is quite different, grounded in the practical and responsible which creates the comfort and contentment you desire. From one perspective, this makes for a nicely balanced relationship, a bit of sauce and sass, ying and yang if you will, but you've got to know this from the get-go, especially when problems arise in the mundane world, otherwise you, Dear 4 will implode from the inside out. The goal? Respect each other's strengths, acknowledge the weaknesses and work with the idea that there is more than one way to resolution than just yours.

Your Compatibility with the 4 Life Path Double 4's are just like any 'twin' number indicating a relationship that is either going to rock in the 'excellent' category or be extremely stressful. The success of your relationship relies on how compatible your daily routines are and here's why: the details are important because both of you tend to get quickly irritated when your carefully established daily routines are disturbed. The secret in sustaining this powerful combo? Respecting one another's needs and habits. Let's face it Dear 4's, yours is a finely honed machine that KNOWS what works and what doesn't and quite frankly, you are right pretty much ALL of the time. So, with that said, learn from one another, and this ship should sail smoothly for a long, long time. Dig deeper into both charts to understand the nuances of your 4 energies.

Your Compatibility with the 5 Life Path Well my Dear 4, do I say back out now, or later? Your 5 lover is a bit prone to the unexpected and craves change which might bump heads with your penchant towards routine and structure. The numbers four and five stand for each other's polar opposites in many ways, and initially, this is where the initial attraction lies. Your 4 energy is drawn to the daring and adventurous energy of the 5, while your 5 lover is drawn to the control and discipline you possess in spades. Truly, the only way this combination can survive is if your mutual love is strong enough to give each other room to live the life style of your respective choices. Knowing where other 4 and 5 energies in both of your charts will potentially balance out this relationship to a nice 'even-keel' and smooth running machine.

Your Compatibility with the 6 Life Path It is not that common for the 4 to fall in love, or even be attracted to the 6 Life energy. Both of you are practical, grounded, family-oriented and highly responsible with a strong sense of community and loyalty to others. In a nutshell, you're dating yourself and that might make certain situations tricky in the competitive department when most people would fall into support of one another. With that said, this is only one aspect of your charts, but quite possibly the hardest to overcome at the onset of your relationship. However, if support prevails over competition and you do become involved in a romantic relationship, it will usually be a strong, comfortable alliance right from the very beginning, an alliance that will, more often than not, last for a long time.

Your Compatibility with the 7 Life Path Dear 4, you've found your counterpart in your 7 Lover. This match is truly one almost made in heaven. The 'almost' can't be left out because there are some sharp angles to be rounded off. This relationship is founded more on intellectual and spiritual levels than on the sensual, physical plane. You, Dear 4 are firmly planted here on the earth plane with a wicked savviness towards what will work and what won't work. Your 7 Lover is firmly rooted in the Spiritual plane of higher ideals and philosophical thought and sometimes can be a bit of a dreamer. An 'Earth and Heaven' combo can make a powerful coupling for the simple reason that both compliment the other and support the idea of a Spiritual Being having a human experience. Life just IS. The sharp angles to tackle relate to how you manage conflict/resolution as a couple – it's all about respect and compromise.

Your Compatibility with the 8 Life Path This Life Path combination is absolutely excellent, both in romance as well as business. The four and the eight are like the gears in an engine: they connect perfectly and increase each other's torque. By joining forces, they triple or quadruple their output. Although the 4 and the 8 are different in many ways, they respect each other and recognize each other's value. Together, you are able to create a wonderful environment of trust, love and deep spiritual bonding. However, potential pitfalls do exist in this combination, just like any other Life Path combo. Your 8 lover can at times be stubborn and authoritarian and that will at some point get under your skin. The solution? Communication of ideas without judgments or criticism. Easier said than done, but if you can pull this off, then you have a match worthy of the Gods' attentions.

Your Compatibility with the 9 Life Path There is very little the 4 and 9 see eye to eye on, so you might want to learn to accept this from the get-go if you want this relationship to last. The problem is not that the two of you are not compatible, more that you simply don't connect. Again, dear 4, you've have to keep in mind that this is only one aspect of your chart, but even with that perspective, this is not a promising combination. Think of this relationship as two strangers who love each other than two like souls who found each other and fell in love. Here is a motto that will help navigate these divergent energies: the less the better. This simply means the less you try to understand your partner, the more you will be able to let love weld your hearts while keeping your minds free.

We hope you have enjoyed this quick snapshot compatibility report! A full compatibility report would allow you to compare your life path numbers more deeply including the core aspects of your collective charts. Comparing charts will tell you how close your attitudes and approaches are regarding money, career, communication, personal expression and yes, love. Your charts will be presented together and compared by key numerological aspect aiding in conflict resolution and reunion through compassion, awareness and understanding. This information is invaluable not just in love relationships but in understanding family dynamics as well as business partnerships.
