

A Valentine from Kryschendo

Unlock the Secrets of your compatibilities and challenges using the science of numerology. This report was created especially for you to better understand your relationship, or potential relationship with others by comparing your life path numbers.

Your Life Path is 5

Your Compatibility with the 1 Life Path The compatibility of these two numbers is just about as good as it gets. Never a danger of boredom, complacency, or emptiness in the relationships and believe me, it'll have heads turning and people whispering, 'how do they do it year after year?' Like wind and fire, the personality traits in this combination can both create and destroy, but the one and five feed on each other and respect each other's powers. They are like a blacksmith and his anvil, and when they set out side-by-side to fulfill their goals, and dreams, nothing can withstand their combined forces.

Your Compatibility with the 2 Life Path My dear 5, might I suggest choosing friendship over love with this combo? There is a discordance here that is hard to get around. Think fire and water. In a controlled environment, each of them serve a purpose, but when they occupy the same space, one is going to destroy the other. The fire makes the water evaporate, or the water will kill the fire. If you choose to pursue this combo, the directive is very simple: don't get in each other's way. And you guessed it: you are the fire.

Your Compatibility with the 3 Life Path One word: YUM!! Compatible, intelligent, full-loving and really, you just get each other. This match has the potential to last a lifetime if you can both share the spot light which is so natural for you to be in. The secret in your yummy sauce is to attend to the little things head-on with consistency. More easily said than done, for your 3 Lover tends to shy away from mundane tasks and conversations that just need to happen, but for you Dear 5 it's worth your effort. Go into this relationship with excitement, for the potential is just that: exciting. Also go in knowing this ONE thing is what is needed to be address for your ultimate success. Dig into both your charts more deeply to learn about the magic of this union.

Your Compatibility with the 4 Life Path Well my Dear 5, do I say back out now, or later? You are a bit prone to the unexpected and changes which might bump heads with your 4 Lovers penchant towards routine and structure. The numbers four and five stand for each other's polar opposites in many ways, and initially, this is where the initial attraction lies. Your 5 energy is drawn to the control and discipline of your 4 partner, while conversely, the 4 energy is drawn to the daring and adventurous energy of your fabulous 5 energy. Truly, the only way this combination can survive is if your mutual love is strong enough to give each other room to live the life style of your respective choices. Knowing where other 4 and 5 energies in both of your charts will potentially balance out this relationship to a nice 'even-keel' and smooth running machine.

Your Compatibility with the 5 Life Path This is a promising combination if both of you can just be yourself. You have much in common and all the ingredients are there for a long and happy and probably fun-filled relationship. The 5 Life Path is very loyal, once committed to a relationship even though neither one of you likes to be tied down in any way. Sensual and liking new and exciting experiences, sharp and quick witted, the two of you together just get each other on a telepathic level and have the potential to 'boldly go where no man has gone before'. However, there is a catch here Dear 5 and it's this: you both can wander to the darker side of the 5 energy, which can fall into over-excessive behaviors with food, sex and recreational drugs. In order to prevent a slow slide into a lifestyle that could eventually be quite difficult to get out of, you must be absolutely honest and use a healthy dose of self-criticism and self-evaluation.

Your Compatibility with the 6 Life Path It is interesting to note that when the 5 and 6 meet, there is an initial distrust that must be overcome because both energies present themselves to the world in very different ways. There is very little in common and rarely does this number combination reach out to bridge the gap. With that said, if an attraction is there it will first initially be focused on the physical and sensual and will remain so throughout the duration of the relationship. The challenge in this relationship is a social one for the 5 and 6 operate on very different levels. Let's just say that you Dear 5 like the pub, while your 6 lover prefers the home. Keeping this in mind, you must both offer each other a lifestyle that is in harmony with what you want for yourself.

Your Compatibility with the 7 Life Path Not only is this one of the best combinations for long-lasting relationships, but it is also a merging of archetypes that promises mental and spiritual growth for both of you. You both fulfill each other's needs in many ways, but particularly on the intellectual and spiritual planes. This is one of those partnerships that are larger and more promising than the sum of their parts. You, Dear 5 have a quick and flexible mind spiced with a wicked, offbeat sense of humor. Your 7 Lover is also powerful in this regard, but operates on a more serious level connected to the higher realms of consciousness and this is where misunderstandings can arise. Both of you process life in different ways, so it is important for you Dear 5 to give your 7 the freedom to express this to you without shutting them down. A very simple word must be used constantly by you both and it is this: respect. Frequently partnerships based on this combination are intellectually and spiritually dynamic and last for a very long time.

Your Compatibility with the 8 Life Path This coupling needs some very clear definitions of roles that are far, far apart (and different) if it is going to work in a harmonious and stable way. This combination works better in business than it does in the bedroom, but that doesn't mean all is lost. As I said, there are rules and those rules will keep this relationship alive, and healthy. As long as you don't try to influence each other, as long as you don't try to tell your partner how to behave or what to consider a priority, everything is fine. Make a stab at changing your partner and trouble will certainly be the result (this will always be interpreted as nagging, and no one likes a nag). This could be a tall order for both of you, as your 5 energy needs freedom of expression and your 8 lover is focused on structure and reaching the 'bigger goal' and for your 8, there is always a bigger goal – always. Dig deeper into both charts to bridge the gap.

Your Compatibility with the 9 Life Path There is very little this combination have in common, in fact there is no common ground at all. If we view these numbers as pure archetypes based on personalities of the cardinal numbers, you will never see a 5 and the 9 huddled together, laughing and talking and sharing jokes. In fact, keeping any conversation going is challenging at best. Like oil and water, the five and the nine won't, and don't mix. With that said, if you are in a committed relationship with a 9 Life Path'r, this indicates strong compatibilities in other areas of both your charts which has sustained this relationship. If you are serious at giving this coupling a go, I strongly recommend one thing: respect the fact that you see and experience your Life calling differently.

We hope you have enjoyed this quick snapshot compatibility report! A full compatibility report would allow you to compare your life path numbers more deeply including the core aspects of your collective charts.
