

W elcome Statement from Greenwood's YPD Director:

I, Christal Thomas, am proud to introduce to you our great YPD officers. This group of Christian people is the faces of a "new beginning" for our church. I cannot be more proud of working with this committee. As we grow, glow, and go for Christ, we welcome you, with extended arms, to join in on our monthly fun activities and programs at Greenwood AME Church.

President

Sis. Latrice Robinson, from Memphis, TN, is an outstanding YPD President at Greenwood AME Church. She is the proud daughter of Clavin Sr. and Donte Robsion, and the oldest sibling of two brothers. Sis Latrice enjoys Greenwood's loving friendly environment and is eager to work more with the youth department. She has two best friends, Akara and Benica, who encourage her to do more in life. Growing up in Memphis did not stop this outstanding Christian from spreading Christianity to the rest of the world. She has traveled to Atlanta and Indianapolis. However, when she is back at home she enjoys playing with her two dogs, read books, and exploring the internet.

Vice President

Bro. Cedric Burns, from Atoka/Munford, TN, is gladly to serve the Lord as the youth Vice President. As a drum player, he enjoys the sweet melodies of the Greenwood Mass Church Choir every Sunday. He attends church regularly with his grandmother, Sis. Ella, and cousin, Sis. Morgan. Cedric and Karen Burns are the proud parents of Bro. Cedric. He enjoys dining on pizza with his best friends in the city. Even though he likes the character of Moses from the Bible, he thinks that nobody should be idolized; however, people should be treated as equal Christians in his eyes.

Recording/Communications Secretary

Sis. C'Lana Thomas, from Bartlett, TN, is grateful to be a part of the Recording/Communications Secretary for the youth. Bro. James Jr. and Sis. Christine Thomas are the proud parents of Sis. C'Lana. She takes pleasure in the many activities that the church does with the youth each month. Begin the youngest of three siblings, Sis. C'Lana has a big heart in serving the Lord everywhere she travels. She has been to Florida, Bahamas, and Georgia in her life time. During her free time, Sis. C'Lana enjoys shopping and having fun with her best friend Sis Jaydah and big sister Sis. Christal.

Historiographer/Statistician

Sis. Kourtney Pierce, from Memphis, TN, is a very active Historiographer/Statistician at Greenwood AME Church. When she is not taking beautiful pictures around church, she is always giving out a helping hand to other departments at church. Bro. Michael and Sis. Barbara Pierce are the proud parents of Sis. Kourtney. Among her five siblings, Sis. Kourtney looks up to her oldest sister as her role model. She has traveled to Florida and Mississippi. Sis. Kourtney loves reading and taking care of her two dogs. To get her day off to a good start, she likes to reflect back on the book of Ephesians 6:1.

Financial Secretary

Bro. Jeffery Perkins, from Memphis, TN, enjoys the mission of becoming a part of the YPD committee as the Financial Secretary. Sis Rose Hickerson is the proud mother of Bro. Jeffery. He is a cousin, grandson, and nephew to many members at Greenwood AME Church. Bro. Jeffery looks up to David G. Hickerson, whom encourages this Christian to move forward in life. Along with the sports and instruments he plays, Bro. Jeffery enjoys singing in Greenwood's Men and Youth choir at church. A few of his favorite songs include: "Nobody Greater," "Set Me Free," and "Speak to My Heart."
