

«Youth Auxiliaries»

A. Purpose:

- To teach Christian Youth Spirituality.
- To teach young Christians how to have “a closer walk with God” in their personal lives, as well as each of the stewards and stewardesses roles and duties in the local church

All youth from ages 13-18, have confessed Christ Jesus as their personal Savior, are eligible to be members of the youth stewards and stewardesses.

B. Objectives:

- To generate an atmosphere for youth to experience Christ as their personal Savior
- To teach Christian youth how to pray
- To teach Christian youth how to witness
- To teach Christian youth how to use the bible and,
- To teach Christian youth the duties of stewards and stewardesses

C. Organization:

The supervisors for youth stewards and stewardesses should be stewards and stewardesses themselves. It is a must that they be persons who walk close with God and set good examples before the youth. They must have a good knowledge of the Bible, the A.M.E. Hymnal, the duties of stewards and stewardesses, and the history and structure of the A.M.E. Church. They must have a love for and knowledge of young people.

D. Activities:

Stewardesses assist other stewardesses with Holy Communion and other duties. Stewards assist other stewards with their duties when called upon.
