WAIVER OF CONFIDENTIALITY UNDER AS 47.10.093

Upon signing this form and joining the Anchorage Youth Court program, I agree that I will waive my right to confidentiality under AS 47.10.093 in the following manner:

I authorize McLaughlin Juvenile Intake to disclose to the Anchorage Youth Court Legal Advisor and/or the Executive Director information about any crime, which constitutes a misdemeanor or felony, if I should commit a crime in the future while I am an AYC member. Juvenile Intake is authorized to disclose to the Anchorage Youth Court Legal Advisor and/or the Executive Director the circumstances surrounding my arrest provided the charges against me are not dismissed by Juvenile Intake or the Anchorage Police. AYC will not, at any time, have the right to inspect my prior record, which is confidential.

I understand that if I commit a misdemeanor of felony, Anchorage Youth Court may use the information about my crime to bring ethical violation charges against me before the AYC ethics board or to take other appropriate administrative action. Ethical violation charges are not criminal, but are civil in nature. If the ethics board finds, after a hearing at which I may be represented by an AYC counsel, that by committing a crime I have breached my ethical duties, I understand that I can be disciplined by the AYC ethics board, up to and including disbarment, as set forth in the AYC Constitution.

Anchorage Youth Court will only use the information about me in connection with its administrative or ethical proceedings and will not release the information about my crime to anyone who is not directly affiliated with AYC.
