I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. ## Say It Ain't So!!!!

"But stretch out your hand and strike everything he owns, and he will surely curse you to your face" [Job 1:11]

In the book of Job, Satan boldly proposed some accusations to God against Job; and is also saying the same types of things about us. He thinks he knows us but God knows us best. Satan just knew he was right about Job, "surely he will curse you to your face"; he sounds mighty cocky to me. And it was proven that he was and still is a liar and the father of lies. As Christians just because we have a natural reaction to a situation does not mean we have backslidden. Crying, being angry, even feeling fearful does not always mean you need to go to the altar and repent. Faith does not mean you are made of steel, God gave us emotions. With emotions present and tears streaming down your face, the next word that comes out of your mouth will prove who you have faith in. Satan thought he had Job figured out, so he made accusations based on what he saw Job do regularly. He watched Job purifying his children, rising up early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for all of them. Job did this because he thought his kids had sinned and cursed God in their hearts. Satan is also watching and studying us, trying to get some dirt on us but whatever accusations he comes up with, let it not be so!!! (Job 1:11, John 8:44)

Job had it going on, he was blessed, naturally and spiritually. The bible says Job was the greatest man among all the people in the east. We can see why Satan thought he had Job figured out because most people with his status probably would have been exactly as he said. Satan didn't believe what God said about Job because he was going by Job's actions, but the bible says, "Man looks at the outside but God looks at the heart." [1 Samuel 16:7] Loving and serving God is personal, it's a heart issue and no one knows our heart like the Father. Even though God had blessed Job and his family, his children did not have the same heart towards God. Our actions may not always be righteous but our hearts should always be pure towards God and the things of God. We cannot fool God, he always knows the truth and he knows our hearts better than we do. An area of constant attacks may be his area of accusations against you.

Sometimes it seems like people enjoy being in bondage. I'm not talking about the kind of bondage where there is no freedom at all, or starvation or being beaten. One of the definitions of the word bondage is involuntary servitude. People are involuntarily serving the enemy, yet enjoying it. But the bible did tell us that sin is good for a season. [Hebrews 11:24-26] People are blinded and drawn away to sin by their own lust and enticed. [James 1:14] This is what I meant when I said people enjoy being in bondage. Job's children were in a blessed place but deception and probably some rebellion was also present. Isn't it funny how the enemy tries to make our blessed place look like a cursed place? All the time his agenda is to get us out of the will of God. We have all been there, especially when we were in the world doing our own thing and having a good time, so we thought. We didn't know we were involuntarily serving and promoting Satan's agenda.

Psalm 126:5 says, Those who sow in tears, will reap with shouts of joy.

Satan has placed all sorts of influences, snares and traps around us. For us to fall into predicaments that we later regret. The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life will lead us into places of involuntary servitude. [1 John 2:16] Remember sin will always take us further than we want to go, cost us more than we want to pay, and keep us longer than we want to stay. Have you ever found yourself doing something not on your agenda for that day, that's no coincidence? Something or someone persuaded you to do it. Remember the enemy studies us, just like he did Job. And he knows what and who to put in our paths to throw us off course. We think we get up every morning and make decisions of what we want to do; Satan is always on duty, waiting for the right moment to interrupt up our day. That is why acknowledging and seeking God daily is so vital. Have you ever seen a commercial before walking out the door that seduced you to do something that was not on the agenda? Although God was dealing with you about exercising and eating healthier, we swung into the IHOP parking lot because of the commercial- instead of obeying God's voice. SAY IT AIN'T SO!!! Satan is subtle, he doesn't overwhelm us with sin because he would get shut down. He uses one bait at a time until we're caught, hooked, line and sinker. And if God does not help us, we will find ourselves out of control. Which voice will we obey, God or our belly? Deuteronomy.30:19 says, "I have set before you, life and death..... choose life" I know we don't think it's that serious but the next decision we make can be a life or death decision. Adam and Eve didn't think the forbidden fruit would cause the damage it did; and we are still suffering today.

The word bondage makes us think about a person in chains and in a dark place. Slave is not a word many want to be associated with but the bible says we are slaves in Christ. [Romans 6:18] It seems like we are free agents, running the show but we're not. We are like puppets on a string and whoever we yield our members to is our master. In the right state of mind, nobody enjoys being in bondage outside of Christ. And that is the battlefield, our mental state of mind. The GO-SPEL is a spell, or bondage I don't mind being controlled by. Many have ruined their lives and the lives of others thinking they were in control. Now God has to come in and be the cleanup man. Cleaning is not easy and takes time. You may need to move some furniture around, heavy furniture for some of us. You might find some things that were lost while cleaning and have to reorganize. So as the song writer says, 'He gotta clean up, what we messed up, so we can start over again'.

There are laws in our land that we have to abide by and anyone who breaks these laws suffers the consequences. Even though we have laws in place, there are a high percentage of people who think they are above the law and they can out smart it. People break the law every day, the law of the land and God's law. There are some who think they are an exception to the rule. 'I won't get caught', although thousands are in jail for the same crime; that's deception. The bible tries to help us in Deuteronomy 30:19, "I have set before you, life and death, blessing and cursing, therefore chose life...” Choosing life is not a onetime decision, we have to choose life daily.

Even though God says in His word, that His ways are not our ways, neither His thoughts our thoughts,” why do we get discombobulated when the unexpected happens and start feeling some type of way towards God? God is not concerned about us always being comfortable, but effective. A good parent gives their children what is good for them, not always what’s good to them. God isn’t like earthly parents who want to be the popular parent. “Yea though we walk through the valley and the shadow of death we will fear no evil for thou art with me...” [Psalm 23:4] Yes sometimes we will go through some valley lows. Rejection can mean redirection if we trust God, pain can lead to promotion if we truly believe our times are in his hands. Why do we trust our GPS system more than God? When it is rerouting we don’t keep doing our own thing, we wait for the next word so we can continue on our journey. We do not know the way to our destiny, but God, our spiritual GPS, knows every highway, back road, even the traffic flow, if we trust him. [Isaiah 55:8, Psalm 23:4]

The bible says “all the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes...” [Proverbs 16:2] We do not like to look bad, so when the accuser starts harassing us, we must declare like Jesus did, “the prince of this world cometh but he will find nothing in me.” [John 14:30] “Let God be true and every man a liar.” [Romans 3:4] Jesus came to make us free from every spirit of bondage but it’s up to us to believe, receive and walk in our freedom. John 8:32 says, we shall know the truth and the truth shall make us free. Truth is only what God has said about us, so who’s report will we believe? We should expect an attack anytime bondage is being broken and advancement is close. The enemy is afraid of us advancing the kingdom of God. The Lord has already made so many things available to us as His children but we have to exercise our faith to receive them. Having faith doesn’t mean things will change immediately but having faith does mean change is on the way. Your issue might not get better today but since God said you are healed, I know He cannot lie, so I choose to believe it is so. (Isaiah 53:1, Proverbs 16:2, John 14:30 Romans 3:4]

God did not describe Job by his possessions but who he was in the spirit. If you were asked to define yourself, would you tell them about the things you have or who you are in God? God gives Satan permission to touch our stuff but not us. “Can we only accept good from God and not evil?” [Job 2:10] How is it that we can see God in acts of good and not discomfort? Things that challenge us that bring out the best in us. After the tragedy of losing everything, Job fell to the ground and worshipped, and said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave and the Lord hath taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord. In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. [Job 1:20-22] After all of that God allowed Job to experience, the accusations of the enemy backed fired. Let this be our testimony as well.

Say It Ain’t So,

Lady Travy Ford

God's New Nation

<sup>8</sup>And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. <sup>9</sup>But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a Holy Nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light; <sup>10</sup>Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. [1 Peter 2:8-10]

Dead men tell tales? I've often wondered in light of the testimony that is being given by the church. But I am quick to be reminded of the words of Christ, "except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone (single seed), but if it dies it bringeth forth much fruit". [John 12:24] We who are dead in Christ, in light of faith, appear to tell tales in representing the facts concerning the kingdom of God. For example, we speak of healings we don't possess, money that has not been deposited into our accounts and a Holiness that is not always resident in our everyday lives. But when you look at what Jesus said about the power of a seed, it only reaches the fullness of its potential when it is resurrected. The church may appear powerless, dormant, and sometimes weak, but when it arises it shall be everything and more than this world could ever think, dream, or imagine. [1 Corinthians 2:9]

As we celebrate this time of the Resurrection of Christ, God is also releasing a new standard or new dimension in the lives of the believer. Not just against sin, but against spirits of religion and tradition and even against our bad habits. I believe God wants to bring forth his new creation. Everything that is in you may not have necessarily come out of you. Understand it is the Glory of God that hides a thing, but in this hour the King in you will discover these divine hidden treasures. God is bringing out the essence of what He intended when He first designated his people as a Holy Nation. Please don't be dismayed by what some denominations have done to the Holiness Banners. As some have termed us as rock gut Pentecostal, Spirit-filled. We were not known for having the greatest of character, though we were Holiness by tradition. The spotlight has somehow magnified those who lacked in strength of performance in demonstrating the discipline we upheld in the faith. Thus, the world developed a very poor image of the Spirit-filled church. We have gained a reputation of being very loud, but also became known for not paying our bills. We knew how to have good church, but we are debased for having far too many affairs. This profile has hurt the “Holiness,” Spirit-filled church in the marketplace. You see when you are numbered with the transgressors it becomes a challenge to any faith. When you cannot completely deny the labels, any act of immortality is painted with the same brush. We are all then numbered and linked together, despite the imperfections of some who did travel under the banner of Holiness. These misrepresentations do not go away with God’s original designation for His people, “Be ye Holy, for I am Holy.” [Leviticus 11:44] God desires and will have a Holy Nation of people who are set apart from the worldly living by God’s standards not the world’s. Not perfect, but distinct from the world. The text lets us know that is already our position in Christ. I prefer to be called a just man, than a gifted man. There are those in the world who label us as charismatic, but sarcastically are trying to cast a negative image on the believer. The enemy wants people to disassociate themselves with those who have embraced the ministry of the Holy Spirit. In the 80’s out of the top five Pentecostal churches in America, today only one out of the five exists. Why? Because of some type of immortality in the leadership, based on this startling observation it is no wonder the world looks at the church in a negative way.

“Be ye Holy, for I am Holy.” [Leviticus 11:44]

Ezekiel 3:15 says, “I sat where they sat.”

The church was put in the world to counter the culture of the time. We are anointed to relate to every sect of society, the teens, the rich, the poor, and the divorced. We have to be able to relate to their struggle in order to be effective. However, in our challenge to relate, we still must maintain our standard of holiness. We are not called to embrace the culture, but to counter the culture. The church was put here on the earth to be salt and light. [Matthew 5:13-16] Salt has to be different from what it is placed into that it may change the flavor of the situation. You do not salt something for it to taste the same, you salt something for it to taste different. God sprinkled Crossroads For Life Ministries in Douglas County Georgia to change the flavor of the area. We as believers have been put here on earth to counter the culture of the darkness. To just embrace it and say we are powerless to do anything about it is defeating the mission of God. We are not a powerless people who have to consent to do what the world is doing. We are the church, the body of Christ, the most powerful organism in the world today. [Matthew 16:18] When we pray we pull rank on the enemies of God. Remember the characteristics of this new nation of God’s chosen, they are peculiar, royal and they are Holy. That’s right Holy!!! One good thing about the Pentecostal Church is they live what they believe; they were never ashamed to live out their conviction. The problem was the mind set, we believed we were saved by grace and we thought we kept that salvation by living right. The moment you believe your salvation is dependent upon anything you do or do not do, you have just robbed God of his glory. The Bible says “salvation is the gift of God.” [Ephesians 2:8-9] By grace you were saved and by grace you are going to stay saved. You can never do anything to make God love you more than he already loves you or any less. His love and grace are perfect forevermore. God is going to get all the glory for our obtaining and sustaining our salvation. Now expressing our salvation is another issue, we define faith by the way we conduct our lives as believers.

The tree that Adam and Eve ate of was the knowledge of good and evil. What many people do not recognize is the good was just as destructive as the evil. Being good can foster a sense of spiritual pride making some Christians believe, because I am good enough I worked my way back into God’s grace. Conversely, if I do something evil enough I can work my way out. The scripture already reminds us that we are not strong enough to boast of our own good, but the work of Christ that made us righteous, holy and redeemed. [1 Corinthians 1:29-30] One of the problems with the early church was not the Gentiles being converted, but how these Gentiles would receive salvation without keeping all the laws. This is still the struggle with many sects of the church. What we need to understand is when an unbeliever accepts Christ, they can be on the same level playing field as the saints. Please remember dear Christians, if it had not been for the Lord on your side, where would any of us be?

Now that we understand the Grace standard, that it was God's grace that bought our liberty. We must also be aware that the enemy will seduce us, if possible, to use our grace as an occasion to sin. God's grace was never intended to give us wiggle room to sin. Grace really raises the bar for the believer. The word Holy in the Christian relationship bears the connotation as to be transcendent, reverent, set apart or a "cut above". When something is Holy, it is always a cut above. God is Holy, a cut above; likewise we should also be Holy, a cut above. Not to live like the world, but a cut above. Now that God has given us his Holy Spirit, we have a greater capacity to live Holy.

We no longer have to tolerate sin in any form in our lives, but have the power to destroy its hold and live a cut above. We must recognize sin's objective is to lead us away from the plan of God to bring us down to the destruction of the enemy. James said, "sin's ultimate goal is death." [James 1:15] Satan wants to be lord and he accomplishes this through the activity of sin in our lives. We must understand whatever you obey is your master. [Romans 6:16] Thus, if we are going to maintain the salvation we obtained from Christ Jesus, we must pursue His Holy plan of living. The writer of Hebrews says to pursue Holiness, without such no man will see the Lord God. [Hebrews 12:14] We abstain from evil not to get or be saved, no, but to stand as one who has been approved before the Lord. God leaves this matter of the flesh and its control over to the individual. Paul, the writer of over half of the New Testament, says I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest when I have preached to others I myself should become disqualified. [1 Corinthians 9:27] If sin of the flesh could disqualify Paul from receiving his reward, the one whose words we preach, what about us?

Thank God for his Grace, but let's not frustrate that grace, by allowing sin to reign in our lives. Because of what Grace has accomplished, what shall I render under God for all His benefits? Striving to live a Holy life, a life based on God's standards should be the response to grace. Not going back to the thing you were freed from is a testimony of the power of God operating in our lives.

Now the spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, to speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron. [1 Timothy 4:1-2]

The world is aggressive in its effort to desensitize Christians to sin. Through media alone you can see so much sex, food, and pleasure that you can become numb to sin. The world is overwhelmed with it to the degree of making you think you cannot survive without it. The world does this with sin to subtly lead us eventually away from God and his lifestyle. It is so bad now that you cannot eat a hamburger without having a side of sex. The purpose of the church now comes in full view to be that light to combat this attack from the kingdom of darkness. Again, the church has not been put here to embrace it, but to counter it. All forms of perverseness are being filtered into our culture in small doses so that we end up in an eternal hog pen. TV humor does a good job inundating viewers to sinful lifestyles. If you can laugh at it you will embrace it. [1 John 2:15]

The question now becomes, are we infiltrating the world or are they infiltrating us? What the church conquered in the 60's became normal in the 70's and is now a way of life. Let's be honest, this is leading this world to death. When are we as Christians going to wake up and stop acting surprised and stop saying how did we get here? When is God's Holy Nation going to say, enough is enough and raise up the Godly standard. One Holy Nation under God, no more slaves to our carnal desires. The goal of God is to present a church that is radiant, without stain, wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. [Ephesians 5:27] If truth be told, the world's greatest desire is to see the manifestation of the sons of God. This is my clarion cry for God's Holy Nation, his Royal Priest. The church's finest hour is upon us, no matter what we see that has come upon the face of the earth. Arise Christian soldier and let your light shine that men will see your 'Good works' and give God the glory which belongs to him! Forget those things behind us and let's begin to walk worthy of the call placed on God's church. Let the lives we live always bring praise to God!

"Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. ## Summary

Fellowship with family - Father [v3] = Fellowship with Adam

Fellowship with God edifies the people on the importance of proper fellowship with God. Due to the nature, and need of man, fellowship with God is essential for newness of life. Notice the foundation of man's fellowship with God, is it based on the word, will, and way of God? Does that man believe what God says, is he a doer of God's Word? Man must realize sections three and four come as a package; blessings and barriers. There will always be life and death set before you. When we choose to remain in fellowship with God, we receive the blessings of fellowship, such as salvation, joy, and peace. Otherwise, we choose to allow barriers to overcome our thoughts causing us to speak ungodly disassociating with God. We must keep in mind to remain in fellowship with God, this is also our fellowship with one another.
