FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD,

that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. [John 3:16-17]

Receive Jesus today by believing in your heart and confessing with your mouth!

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name. Amen!”

Is Your Seed In Or Out of Christ?

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed, it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. [Genesis 3:15]

Some people do not realize that God, Jehovah Himself has been declaring the good news a long time. The Gospel was not first spoken through men but by God Himself. God told us in Genesis Chapter 3 that there was going to be some hostility and hatred between our seed and the seed of the serpent. Since He already warned us, why are we struck with amazement? Our seed are like arrows in the hand of a warrior according to Psalm 127:4. Are you a warrior in God's army? If so, do you know what to do with your arrows? A warrior does not use arrows to play patty cake, arrows weapons are for warfare. If we do things God's way, our seed can be detrimental to the kingdom of darkness. Our seed, as Christians are in Christ, the Anointed One. But for the serpent, his seed is of Satan. God told us that He put enmity between us and our seed. [Genesis 3:15] And since God is a God of purpose, enmity must have an assignment in our lives. Because of what happen in the garden, this is a part of the curse.

News flash, Satan does not like you or your children!!! And guess what, the feeling should be mutual. If someone were trying to deceive my mother in order to get their way, I would have a problem with them, what about you? Well, in the garden, the serpent was not talking to Eve because he was seeking friendship, deception was his goal. Rev. 12:17 says (Satan) the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.” The enemy has a problem with anyone who is trying to do right by God. Do not take it personal, he does not like any of us. If you have been serving God any amount of time and have kids you already know, when the enemy can not get to us, he will start messing with our children. As warriors we must train our arrows (seed) to have a relationship with Christ. Because it is not a matter of if they will be attacked but when they will be attacked. And they need to know that their victory is only in Christ Jesus.

God is a God of provision.

As warriors we must train our arrows (seed) to have a relationship with Christ.

He takes excellent care of His children. And He knows what is best for us. A good father does not always give his children what they want but what they need. With that being said, we must understand that provision is not only money, clothes, food, etc. Provision is whatever is needed for the journey and God has provision for everything we need. So, sometimes enmity may be a part of our provision. If God allows it, we should too. In the end, it is all going to work together for our good and make us who we need to be in Him. [Romans 8:28] This is why He, the master craftsman, says, “many are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivers him out of them all.” [Psalm 34:19] Did you see that, He delivers out of them all, not some. Without conflicts, there is no need for victory. Do not lose hope and do not lose heart. It may look like your seed is losing their battle but remind yourself of what God has said in His word and hold fast to your confession of faith. Do not allow what you see to change your confession. Be confident in God’s word, it will produce. Even though there will be challenges, God said our seed is going to do more damage than the enemy’s seed. [Hebrews 10:35, Genesis 3:15]

If someone gives you a gift whether it’s your birthday,

In the end, it is all going to work together for our good and make us who we need to be in Him.
[Romans 8:28]

anniversary or whatever, how do you respond? We all like gifts. Gifts are given to help, to put joy in our hearts and a smile on our faces. Psalm 127:3 says, “Children are a gift of the Lord, the fruit of the womb is a reward.” When the Lord blesses us with children it’s a good thing, a reward from the Lord. Rewards come as a result of good accomplishments, if God gave you children do not take that lightly, you have found favor with the Father. As parents we must be good stewards with our gifts, after all they did not ask to be here. It is our job and responsibility to love, nurture, train, and be examples before our children. [Ephesians 6:4] The life we live for God should create a desire in our children to want to serve Him too. If we have trained our seed in the word of God like He told us to, we should have confidence knowing that word will not return void. [Isaiah 55:11] As parents we do not want our children to suffer. We do not want them to struggle, but we did, and we came out alright. If we would admit it, our times of lack, hurts and disappointments made us stronger. We have got to allow our children to go through their Samaritan experiences, they are necessary for their destiny. Proverbs 22:6 says to, “Train up a child in the way he should go, when he is old he will

GOLD NUGGETS If it's going to work it has to come from God. —Dr. Ford not depart from it.” By no means can we force our children to live righteous and holy lives, God does not even do that to us, but if we train them righteously, at least now there is no excuse. They know better. Now we have got to trust God. [Proverbs 3:5]

Remember Mary, the mother of Jesus, not one time did she go to God and pray please stop all the abuse and affliction against my son. Absolutely not, but will you? Mary knew that Jesus had to go through the whole process to get to his destiny. I know it hurt her to watch her son suffer but it was necessary. And it hurts us also to see our children suffer but we must permit it without interference. The bible says Mary was highly favored among women and she had favor with God. [Luke 1:28] All of us learned things along our journey growing up and they were not all pleasant but they made us who we are today. Therefore why do we think it is going to be helpful to exempt our children from their journey? We need to stay in our lane and let God be God. He knows those treasures He has put in us and in our seed. [2 Corinthians 4:7] Remember treasures are not discovered on the surface; you may have to go through some dirt to get to the treasure but it will be worth it in the end. And afterward, clean yourself off and enjoy your discovery. Remember God already told us it is going to be some friction between us and Satan. Therefore everything is not going to be smooth sailing all the time and no waves. The boat will be rocked a few times. But God also gave us some good news that there is only going to be some heel damage to our seed compared to blows to the head to his seed. Sounds like a good deal to me, I'll take it, what about you? [Genesis 3:15]

God is telling us that Satan is under our feet. I know it looks like he's getting the advantage over our seed but keep looking, it ain't over yet. Maybe you think the word isn't working but now is the time to stir up your mind and put yourself in remembrance of God's word. God can't lie and He watches over His word to perform it. He said, no weapon formed us shall prosper and that's what He meant. It won't work and We Win!!!! [Isaiah.54:17]

It's Not About Where You've Been, It's About Where You're Going

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

² For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

³ And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

⁴ Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

⁵ Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

⁶ And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel. [Exodus 19:1-6]

Let's begin by making a confession, "I am working on something, because I am going somewhere." (Repeat 3x) Notice the plight of Israel immediately after God supernaturally delivered them from Egypt, they came to Sinai. Sinai is defined as a thorny place. This journey represents, to me, the road many believers who want to be used by God and have a real anointing from God have to travel. What I see in the lives of many believers is they have failed to understand that no real power with God is possible outside an experience with God. Strangely enough, the place where God has ordained his people to meet with Him, to receive an anointing from Him and have that experience with God is the very place where most saints are ducking and dodging. There is one thing to receive a blessing, but it is another thing to take the blessing home. The Bible is filled with individuals receiving a blessing:

The woman who had an issue of blood [Mark 5:28]

The dead man who fell on the bones of Elisha. [2 Kings 13:21]

The infirmed who received aprons or handkerchiefs from the garments of Paul. [Acts 19:11,12]

But it is an entirely different story to take the blessing home. The blessing, by definition, is an empowerment of God that He places on an individual's life to get results, specifically for others.

The Bible is filled with individuals come without a price.

You cannot be satisfied or fulfilled with an anointing that only affects you. This kind of empowerment is not cheap and will require focus and diligent effort on the benefactor's part.

Believers must realize there are some things you are not going to get from God by the laying on of hands. The blessing that makes rich may not come through just the anointing of oil, nor solely through a prayer cloth, and possibly not by just hanging around an anointed man or woman of God. These are points of contact and by no means am I making light or attempting to minimize the power of any of these supernatural points of contact. Furthermore, the scriptures reveal that those who desire a double portion of God's Spirit, which is possible, must be willing to endure the hardness of a wilderness experience. In this hour of the grace movement, this symbolism may not be readily accepted, but still must be told. Gaining true effectiveness in ministry may not

There are some things you will never get from God, no matter how demonstrative the preacher, except there is a true intimate experience with God. There is a level of the anointing, power, revelation, and illumination that will never be achieved until we sojourn in the wilderness. People, I believe we have become very backwards in thinking. We ask and pray that God be patient with us, yet for what we want from God, it seems we should be the ones who are granting Him patience while He works out His will in our lives. Job said, "He knows the way I should take and when He is finished I shall come forth as gold." Therefore, since he is working all the days of my appointed time, will I wait till my change come." [Job 23:8-10, Job 14:14] Job's attitude toward the sovereign process of God should be modeled throughout the Body of Christ at large.

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of

Sinai. [Exodus 19:1]

Notice again, the first place that God leads a delivered, emancipated, new anointed nation, fresh out of bondage from Pharaoh was to the wilderness of Sinai – a thorny tight place. Isn't it amazing as soon as God saves you, fills you with the Holy Ghost, that he places you in a place of testing, a thorny tight place. Some compare this text to the Pentecost experience of the New Testament in the book of Acts. There God commanded a new Redeemed church to go to an upper room and wait for His Glory to endow them.[Acts 1-2] Now can you imagine approximately 500 guest, as some theologians have estimated, gathered together in one room. That's tight, stuffy, and sticky. Remember in those days, there was no indoor plumbing, no air conditioners, and no TV. To top it off they had to wait fifty days. No wonder there were only 120 left when the glory came. Ask yourself the question, how long would you be willing to deal with such challenging accommodations to receive true power from God?

There are some points about Sinai that are worth taking note of that we may gain a greater revelation into the mind of God as He transitions us into our promised land. Mount Sinai was a place where Israel had to remain for almost a year. In that place they experienced some high and low points, but it was for the glory of God. At Sinai the people rebelled against God and made a golden calf [Exodus 32]. But also at Sinai, God gave, and ratified the Ten Commandments. [Exodus 19:24] More importantly, the Glory of God appeared on Mount Sinai in the form of a thick cloud which came down around Sinai. Everybody wants glory, but no one wants Sinai, the thorny place. Sinai's physical location was a place of wilderness, a place of thorns and bushes. This type and shadow is for all who truly desire to go to the Mountain of God. This text teaches us, to get to the mountain you have to go through some thorns. Notice what Paul said after God denied his request to remove his thorns, "I'd rather glory in my infirmities (thorns), that the power of Christianity may rest upon

Therefore, since he is working all the days of my appointed time, will I wait till my change come.” [Job 23:8-10, Job 14:14]

me. [2 Corinthians 12:9b] Paul quickly received this revelation after his own requests to dodge the thorns were denied. God declared to Paul and He declares to us today, for every glory there will be some thorns. Anne Bronte said, “But he who dares not grasp the thorn, should never crave the Rose.” So if you find yourself in a Sinai situation, remember with every wilderness there is a mountain top, you cannot have one without the other. Selah

Notice they went from the wilderness of Sinai [Exodus 19:1] to the desert of Sinai [Exodus 19:2], a dry and dusty place. This reinforces in ministry you will have to deal with poor accommodations sometimes. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. The majority of the people do not mind staying at five star hotels, eating at fine dining venues, or living in lavish estates. We usually seek places of comfort, ease, and relief. Yet they still want to come out full of the power of God, prophesying, healing the sick, raising the dead are all their goals, but many end up tragically falling short. That’s like trying to train for a world championship fight on a luxury cruise. Don’t be like King David, when he was supposed to be on the battlefield, he chose to take it easy. [2 Samuel 11:1] Sorry, it doesn’t work like that. You cannot dodge your desert, and experience God’s glory.

Let’s take another brief look at the life of that trailblazer from Tarsus, Paul. God chose Paul, separated him, revealed His son Jesus to him and still sent him to the desert of Arabia for three years. [Galatians 1:15-18] What does that mean to us today? You can be chosen before the foundation of the world. You can be set out before you are born. You can be dedicated to God in the womb. You can even be destined for greatness and with all of that going for you, you still must understand not one person born was made complete. Yes, God has made you, but you still have to be transformed into his image, likeness and function. [Romans 12:1,2] Paul who wrote over half of the New Testament was still required to qualify his ministry through a season in the desert. Called, chosen, destined, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, wants to be used by God, but a trial of faith is still required for full development. In man, the spirit was created, the soul was given, but it takes the desert (dirt) to form you into what God called you to do. [Genesis 2:7]

Drawn Out to Bring Out

And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, because I drew him out of the water. [Exodus 2:10]

Moses whose name means, “I drew him out” was the prime figure used by God in deliverance of the children of Israel. God called Moses on the backside of the Midian desert to bring God’s people out of bondage. [Exodus 3:1] The people were excited about the miracles Moses performed: 1) How his staff devoured those of Pharaoh's magicians; 2) How he placed his hand in his bosom and took it out with leprosy and put it back in his bosom; then took it out again and it was clean. 3) They were excited at how he pronounced judgment on Egypt with flies, frogs, plagues and water turning into blood. [Exodus 7:12, Exodus 4:6-7, Exodus 7-12] Everyone was excited that God was with this man, but this power it did not come from being in front of Pharaoh. The source of Moses' glory was not even in the working of miracles. God made Moses on the backside of the desert; it was through the things he endured that he learned the Lord. If you are to know God in the light of the burning bush, you must be willing to suffer the rejection of the world and brethren and reside on the backside of the desert. Moses accepted His rejection for he chose to suffer affliction with the people of God...than to enjoy pleasures of sin for a season. [Hebrews 11:25] Sometimes God has to force you out to challenge you to a greater walk with Him. That is what a real call will do.

What pleases God is not all the power and demonstration, but when you have the faith to remain in the desert until God gets through making you to His good pleasure. This is when God can say, "No good thing will I withhold from you that walk uprightly." [Psalm 84:11] We are by no means referencing any toleration with accepting the consequences of sin. We are redeemed. [Galatians 3:13] What I am saying is we must be willing to endure hardness as good soldiers of Christ. The potter is still at work on his wheel, which for your information is located in the middle of the potter's field (desert). Therefore, since we have to go on the wheel to be in his will, we might as well stay on and endure until the end, just like Jeremiah. Or we can dodge it like Judas for thirty pieces of silver (fame and fortune); and end up destroyed and cast into the potter's field. Your desert is not about where you are, but it's all about where you are going. Your history was not given to define you, but prepare you. Your desert is not your punishment of your past, it is the preparation for your glorious future.

Be encouraged!

The Battleground
Ephesians 4:26-27

The Battleground Ephesians 4:26-27

Summary

There is no end to the conflict from new birth to death. This study of the Battleground helps us study the areas that keep us from the Lord. First we see the command, "be angry, but sin not." Be angry against sin and injustice. But control yourself not to sin, as it leads to personal revenge and rage. Here the Lord cautions us not let the sun go down on your anger, make your heart right with God and man because the enemy is committed to slandering us.

This study examines five battlegrounds: Faith, Flesh, Forgiveness, Fellowship, and Fruit. For the faith, the enemy is fighting; are we sober and vigilant in the word in order to keep our faith in God? For our flesh, we battle with ourselves while unbeknownst the enemy is desiring to sift us as wheat. For our forgiveness, we must battle sin. We must ask ourselves have we submitted ourselves to God? For our fellowship with God, we battle the spirit. Have we allowed the spirit of Satan to fill us? For our fruit, we battle the scriptures. Have we given Satan the advantage by not reading daily and responding the demands of the word?

Utilize this outline regularly in teaching your church how to battle using the given scriptures and questionnaires.

| I. Battle with Satan for your faith [1 Peter 5:8] <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Has Satan kept you from total commitment?B. Has the enemy kept you from trusting completely?C. Does the enemy keep you from being triumphant continuously? | IV. Battle with the Spirit for your fellowship [Acts 5:3] <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Are you ignoring his urges?B. Are you impounding his undertaking to try to stop?C. Are you impeding his unction? |
| II. Battle with Self for your flesh [Luke 22:31] <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Are you weak spiritually, unable to take a stand for God?B. Are you wanting for worldly things or to be in worldly places?C. Are you wayward, unable to stay on the right road long? | V. Battle with the scriptures for your fruit [2 Corinthians 2:11] <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Are you reading daily?B. Are you responding to its' demands? |
- III. Battle with Sin for your forgiveness [James 4:7]
- A. Do you have pet sin?
 - B. Do you have petty sin– small, trifling, irritable sin?
 - C. Do you have powerful sin?

Father's Day

Thank you for setting my course.

Train a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not turn from it.

PROVERBS 22:6

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD,

that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. [John 3:16-17]

Receive Jesus today by believing in your heart and confessing with your mouth!

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name. Amen!”

If you have accepted the Lord today, write to us! We want to celebrate with you!!!
