K<sup>ee</sup>p Speaking the WORD!

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.<sup>7</sup> For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. [2 Timothy 1:6,7]

Have you ever heard of the saying “the truth shall set you free?” Well, I have a question, What does the word “truth” stand for in your life? In the life of a believer there is only one truth, and that is the Word of God. 2 Timothy 4:2 reads, Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage – with great patience, and careful instruction. (New International Version) If we are ever going to be truly effective in the Kingdom of God, we must learn to read, learn to live, and finally learn to speak the Word of God. Every day we wake up, we are blessed because we have been given another opportunity for God’s glory to be given in and through our lives. Just keep speaking the word and watch how God’s truth continues to set us FREE in Jesus Name!

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Stay on Board!

Today, we encourage you to Move Your Feet, begin to walk by faith and not by sight into the promise God has for you!

When trials come, Suffer to Glory If we suffer, we shall also reign with him...

[2 Timothy 2:12]

As believers, your everyday experience is not solely predicated on what you see, but also by "every word that proceeds from God's mouth." That is why the enemy cannot understand your posture of praise or position of worship. It is not logical for us to praise God during present pain... But as believers when we come into the presence of the Lord, we through Faith transition from where we left, to what God has done. We understand that it's not about what we see with our natural eyes, but it is more about what God says in our ears. [p18]

Thank you for supporting The Conductor Magazine, we pray that its contents not only bless the readers and doers of His Word but that you would pass it on to a friend, co-worker, or relative that could use a Word of inspiration to live on purpose each day they rise.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD,

that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. <sup>17</sup>For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. [John 3:16-17]

Receive Jesus today by believing in your heart and confessing with your mouth!

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name. Amen!”

Suffer to Glory

If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he will also deny us. [2 Timothy 2:12]

Glory does not come without a story or situation. Just like a victory without a battle. We like hearing about Glory, blessings and manifestation in our lives but despise the route to them. There will be a next level if are not willing to make some changes. What we have and what we are doing can only keep us where we are; it's going to take something different to take us to a different destination. I know we've heard it before, insanity is doing the same thing and expecting a different result. The old man has to die before the new man can come forth. Our old man can not handle God's new Glory. And it is not that God doesn't want His children to operate in a greater glory, but He knows we all can't handle it yet. He's not going to give us anything premature just because we think we're ready. The Father knows best. The bible says it like this, "no one puts new wine into old wine skins..." [Matthew 9:17] Old thoughts and mindsets can not go into new territory; If so you will not be there long, because your new life will reject the old you. Your new life accepted the new you, not the old you. There will be a cost to the new glory in our lives. If we really want a new life, an investment will have to be made and remember, investments do not pay off overnight.

The Father will get all the Glory because he alone is

God will not allow sufferings to out-do his Glory. [Romans 8:18] Things may look bad for a season for the children of God, but don't judge too soon. Even man will try to take the credit for the things they have done, but God is not sharing his glory with his creation. Easy going all of the time does not make us stronger but a little resistance does increase strength. The Father will get all the Glory because he alone is worthy. Hallelujah!!!! It will be said, without question, this is the Lord's doing and it's marvelous in our eyes. [Psalms 118:23] 1Corinthians 10:13 says "but God is faithful, who will not suffer us to be tempted above that which we are able; but will with the temptation also make a way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it." Psalms 34:19 (AMP) says, "Many evils confront the (consistently) righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them ALL." God is not the liar, Satan is, and if God said we're coming out, we are coming out. His word will not return unto Him void. [Isaiah 55:11]

It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. [Psalm 119:71]

We do not like to suffer anything; we do not like to experience or be subjected to anything bad or unpleasant. We do not like to be uncomfortable or hurt, and we like to get our way. Sometimes suffering is good for us. [Psalm 119:71] Not necessarily good to us but good for us. Suffering forces us out of our comfort zone, it makes us think out of the box and do things differently. Suffering brings creativity out of us. Do you remember the tin man from the Wizard of Oz? He had no heart preventing him from feeling good or bad. Sometimes Christians wish we didn't have a heart so we do not feel pain. But that comes with the territory; a part of life. We expect good all of the time and no suffering. [Job 2:10] Marvin Sapp said, "I'm stronger, I'm wiser, I'm better, so much better" through the things he suffered "but I never would've made it without you" (Jesus). Hebrews 5:8 says, "He (Jesus) learned obedience through the things he suffered." What about us?

The ordinary can be an enemy to our next level. I heard someone say, "Good is the enemy to great." We get complacent and the next thing we know ten years have passed by. But God has a teacher name suffering, which we probably would not choose. Do you remember that teacher in school we said didn't like us, not because it was true but because she pushed us to do more and do better. All she was trying to do was help us learn, be creative, and challenge us. But because it was not who, what, when, where, and how we wanted to learn we threw off on the teacher. We would say, "It does not take all that or I'm not going to use this stuff anyway."

Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

But God knows how to stir up our nest to get us out of the ordinary and into the extraordinary. Only God knows the right ingredients needed to get the results He desires for us. He knows the perfect situations, classes, and circumstances we must go through. He does not ask for our approval or opinion, because we would choose the route of least resistance. Years down the road, we think to ourselves, I am thankful to Ms. Smith for challenging me. Even with God, after we have suffered a while then begin to see manifestation, we'll say turn my captivity again Lord. And when we really think about it, it wasn't that bad after all. The bible says, "It was good for me that I was afflicted that I may learn your statutes." [Psalm 119:71]

God wants our relationship with Him to be so secure, that no matter what we're facing we can count it all joy and in everything give thanks [James 1:2, and 1 Thessalonians 5:18] Our attitude should be, if God allowed it, I trust Him enough to know it's going to work together for my good. [Romans 8:28] My heart is fixed and I'm trusting in the Lord. [Psalm 112:7] The relationship will be tried. During Psalms 23, verses 1-3 we are in the courting stage of the relationship, the Lord is allowing His goodness to woo us. In most new relationships, both parties are trying to make the first impression impressive. They only have one time to make a first impression. A bad first impression might mean this will be a short term relationship. God allows His goodness to overwhelm us in the beginning expecting the good word of the relationship to be an anchor to our souls and outweigh any obstacles against the relationship. During verses 4-6 the relationship is about to be challenged. Hard times, disappointments, and

Move Your Feet!

Joshua 1:1-3

Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord it came to pass, that the lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, 2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel 3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

The history of Israel is very interesting and very compelling as we try to understand the track that God was using to bring the Children of Israel into their place of promise. We are moved by their history as we find Israel enslaved under the Egyptian rule for over 400 years. God's elect are now the slaves and prisoners under Egyptian Hand. God now raises up a young man named Moses, in the house of Pharaoh, to be the deliverer of Israel. It is very interesting because even though Israel has been labeled and tagged as God's Chosen people, God allows them to find themselves in a compromising position, not for 10, 20, or even 100 years, but now 400 years.

God allows Israel to remain in an uncomfortable state for 400 years, proving God is more interested in development than comfort.

God finally raises a young man of power to be the deliverer of His people. Moses has

(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

[2 Corinthians 5:7]

been given charge of more than three million people. He then identifies certain challenges that forces him to have dialogue with God. Life has a way of pushing us into a conversation with God. Israel was God's chosen people, which means they should have been familiar with the customs and creeds of Judaism. But to Moses surprise, he finds a people who are knowledgeable about Jehovah God, but have no personal relationship with God. They only have a vicarious relationship with a God who calls them His children.

Israel's lack of relationship with God created a problem for Moses. When God began to deal with Israel, unless they had a mediator, He was always faced with a challenge or struggle moving them from one place to the other. Israel felt they needed to see everything that God was doing. They did not know Him for themselves, so there lies the formula for distrust. They knew Him through the Patriarchs and Matriarchs of old. Beloved you cannot move in God if your basis of trust is someone else affirmation of God. This is a crisis because many times, God will not speak to anybody else but you. Israel's problem was this, if they could not see what God was doing, then they did not believe that God could do it. Consequently, they found themselves murmuring and complaining about everything they did not understand.

God's desire now is to move Israel from a place where they knew God, vicariously, to a place where they knew God emphatically for themselves. The dilemma is when you do not know God for yourself, you will always deal with God on the basis of eyesight. The Bible says "we walk by faith, not by sight." [II Corinthians 5:7] So, it is always God's desire to move you from the realm of eyesight to the realm of Faith. You can never deal with God with your natural eyes. You must deal with God on the basis of the heart or Spirit. We live in a world that requires that things must pass the "eye test" as if it is the basis of truth. God wants His people to complete His desired plan. If you are going to walk with God in integrity, then you must allow God to transition your soul to embrace His vision. Eyesight limits you to the physical carnal realm, but when you deal with vision you also deal with the eternal spiritual realm. When nothing in our present looks like our promise, it pushes you to believe the Word of Faith you received in your heart. Anyone of us would agree that the reason we are still holding on is not because we already have the answer to our prayers, but we know in our heart God is going to work it out!

God gave us vision for our future when He gave us His word. The interesting thing is, although He begins with vision, God does not complete

His work at the level of vision. After he moves us into the realm of vision, He must then move us into the realm or dimension of insight. One of the problems with the church is many desire to know what God is doing, but we fail to lay before Him long enough to get the insight (on how God is going to do it). Vision tells us what He is going to do, but insight tells us how He is going to get it done. Therefore, we don't praise God based on a situation, but revelation received from the Word of God.

As believers, your everyday experience is not solely predicated on what you see, but also by "every word that proceeds from God's mouth." That is why the enemy cannot understand your posture of praise or position of worship. It is not logical for us to praise God during present pain. It doesn't make any sense for a group of people to come into the sanctuary and worship when they have present problems, challenges, struggles from hell of every kind. But as believers when we come into the presence of the Lord, we through Faith transition from where we left, to what God has done. We understand that it's not about what we see with our natural eyes, but it is more about what God says in our ears. Faith does not come by seeing, but Bible Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. [Romans 10:17] Some of you should be "coo-coo for coco puffs," with everything the enemy has thrown your way. But you are not moved, because you believe what God says. So, if God says, in all things you are more than a conqueror; or, all things work together for your good, we must believe what God has said. Like the Apostle Paul who said, "I believe God!" [Acts 27:25]

So, we see here God is trying to move His people into a new dimension, where we walk by faith. Once we master this concept, it will intensify our worship experience. You will finally come to the place where your praise and worship is no longer tied to your situation. There is a disconnect with individuals who only praise God when they have money or everything is "fine" in their lives. Your praise and your worship cannot be tied to your external situation. No matter how dire the situation, God is still God and worthy to be praised. One can compromise the integrity of worship by predicating your worship on external things. God is more concerned with your spiritual development than what you are going through; whether or not you have determined in your heart, that your praise is not tied to your situation but to Him.

In our text, Israel is struggling because they are a people who are bound by their physical situation that seemed hopeless. Bound in their freedom, because they cannot break free from their captivity. This still seems to be one of the greatest struggles in the church today, allowing what they are faced with to deter their Faith in God's ability to deliver. Thus, too many people have settled for mediocrity refusing to change and move forward. Where there is no vision, people usually give up or in to their situation and don't like to think outside of the box. The danger is many times we limit the creative Power of God. Moving in Faith allows us to get a revelation of God's plan so we can declare: "There is something better for me than this!"

Moses is challenged by this as he moves Israel. He is trying to let them know that even though you have been here 400 years this is not your destiny. You must be careful not to let the enemy deceive you, when you find yourself in a situation a long time. Satan wants you to believe that is God's will for you. I want to let you know our God is progressive; always moving. Ezekiel saw Him as a wheel in the middle of a wheel. Jacob saw Him moving as angels ascending and descending. So, when you find yourself stuck in a place, it is a compromise of the integrity of God's character. Always believe God will move you to your next level. This is who God is. [Genesis 1:2]

Moses is leading a people with purpose, but they have been abused so long their desire and drive has been defeated. So, he ends up trying to force them out of a place they should have been very excited about leaving. How many of us can relate to similar stages in our lives when God was impressing on you to go for your dream, but because of complacency we struggled to obey God?

Moses now is dealing with a church that is comprised of churches that has formed within itself. He is dealing with cliques within the organization. You have to be careful of these spiritual wonders who come into ministries thinking they are junior pastors. This type of person will host unsanctioned Bible studies and private prayer meetings within their homes. Since they won't pay the cost to have their own church, they will start one in yours. Moses has a major problem because he has three churches within one church. This is a problem because God always speaks to the head-down, never from the bottom up. That would be a perverted anointing. Those who would operate under the anointing must be mature, whereas immature Christians can spell death to a move of God. Moses had too many people with their own agenda, thus the plan of God was hindered.

When you step with the Lord, you don't have an opinion, He again is Lord. When people are very opinionated, they are usually comfortable in captivity. If you are sitting under the Word, and you have not allowed God to move you to a new place in Him, you must be satisfied with bondage. Moses struggles with Israel's transition, as he brought them out to a new place, but not their final place. This transitional phase is called the Wilderness. On your way to your destiny, you must go through the wilderness experience. Moses had a group of individuals that took the position of "we will not be moved." They believed they were better off in Egypt in captivity. They believed their wilderness process was their demise. They did not understand that with vision, there is always provision. When you are in transition from now to then, God will always give you things that would not sustain you in any other place. God now gives them manna, which translates to "what is this?" God's provision will always sustain you in the process, understanding this not permanent.

Moses is trying to move a people who are not content within themselves. When things that are bad for you, start looking good, you require a strong leader. That is why God will always raise up a leader with a Word of Deliverance in his mouth. A word that will move you from Egypt to your place of promise. This second group Moses deals with is the lovers of the wilderness. They were glad to be out of Egypt, but satisfied with the place of process. Understand, a process still denotes movement. God never intended for us to get stuck in the process. The wilderness process is designed to mature you, to assist you in your growth. The process is designed to help you handle the predestinated blessing from God. The process can metaphorically be described as God's classroom. It is a series of testing and examinations. It is where you sit before the Lord to learn and understand what's in your heart. A series of uncomfortable testing to determine where you stand in Christ, hopefully, never becoming complacent. These people became satisfied with hanging out in the wilderness. Watch out for people who never want to move to the next level, who want to do the same thing over and over.

Israel tried to move with God, but were crippled by religion. In the 40 years in the wilderness, God always told them to build tents, never did He want them to use brick and mortar. Why? He wanted them to be able to move in an instant as the Spirit of God led. So God gave them a cloud, He wanted Israel to move with the cloud. How many times did they set up their tent in the morning, only to pack it up by evening. This was a type of teaching the people how to move with the Spirit. It's not about church government or tradition it's about you possessing the anointing of God.

Israel continued marching in a circle for 40 years and never realizing the hour of process was over. Whenever God tells you to move, to stand still is to remain is a sin. You must have a discerning spirit developed through God's word, to know if it is God or man leading. In my sanctified imagination, Moses began to cry out in exasperation, "there must be another set of people!" Remember, the first group of people were satisfied with being in bondage. The second group were content to be "stuck" in the process. Now God raises up a third group of people who desires to enter the promise. God always has a remnant who can believe God, hear His voice and see beyond their current situation. The curtain rises on two boys by the name of Joshua and Caleb who had another spirit. They spied out the promised land with ten other spies. The spies bought back an evil report, while Joshua and Caleb declared the Lord is with us and we are more than enough to seize the promise land. They refused to be influenced by the crowd, but rather desired to move with God. Joshua and Caleb were movers and shakers, because they were connected to God.

God allowed Joshua and Caleb the right to enter into the promised land because they were willing to move their feet. All who refused to move perished in the wilderness, they died in their process. While moving toward their promise. Even Moses, their fearless leader dies, what a tragedy! In retrospect, many leaders have died laboring to move a satisfied people to a place of more. Moses was anointed to bring them out, but Joshua was anointed to bring them in. No more mediator! In this third dimension, we must learn to go when God moves us. Israel died in a place of complacency. Then God raises up a Joshua generation and anoints them to enter the promise land.

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name.

THE RESUME OF JESUS CHRIST

Address: Ephesians 1:20

Phone: Romans 10:13

Website: The Bible . Keywords: Christ, Lord, Savior and Jesus

Objective

My name is Jesus -The Christ. Many call me Lord! I've sent you my resume because I'm seeking the top management position in your heart. Please consider my accomplishments as set forth in my resume.

---

Qualifications

I founded the earth and established the heavens, (See Proverbs 3:19)

I formed man from the dust of the ground, (See Genesis 2:7)

I breathed into man the breath of life, (See Genesis 2:7)

I redeemed man from the curse of the law, (See Galatians 3:13)

The blessings of the Abrahamic Covenant comes upon your life through me, (See Galatians 3:14)

Occupational Background

I've only had one employer, (See Luke 2:49 ).

I've never been tardy, absent, disobedient, slothful or disrespectful.

My employer has nothing but rave reviews for me, (See Matthew 3:15 -17)

Skills Work Experiences

Some of my skills and work experiences include: empowering the poor to be poor no more, healing the broken hearted, setting the captives free, healing the sick, restoring sight to the blind and setting at liberty them that are bruised, (See Luke 4:18).

I am a Wonderful Counselor, (See Isaiah 9:6). People who listen to me shall dwell safely and shall not fear evil, (See Proverbs 1:33 ).

Most importantly, I have the authority, ability and power to cleanse you of your sins, (See I John 1:7-9)

Educational Background

I encompass the entire breadth and length of knowledge, wisdom and understanding, (See Proverbs 2:6).

In me are hid all of the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, (See Colossians 2:3).

My Word is so powerful; it has been described as being a lamp unto your feet and a light unto your path, (See Psalms 119:105).

I can even tell you all of the secrets of your heart, (See Psalms 44:21).

Major Accomplishments

I was an active participant in the greatest Summit Meeting of all times, (See Genesis 1:26 ).

I laid down my life so that you may live, (See II Corinthians 5:15 ).

I defeated the arch enemy of God and mankind and made a show of them openly, (See Colossians 2:15 ).

I've miraculously fed the poor, healed the sick and raised the dead!

There are many more major accomplishments, too many to mention here. You can read them on my website, which is located at: www dot - the BIBLE. You don't need an Internet connection or computer to access my website.

References

Believers and followers worldwide will testify to my divine healing, salvation, deliverance, miracles, restoration and supernatural guidance.

In Summation

Now that you've read my resume, I'm confident that I'm the only candidate uniquely qualified to fill this vital position in your heart. In summation, I will properly direct your paths, (See Proverbs 3:5-6), and lead you into everlasting life, (See John 6:47 ). When can I start? Time is of the essence, (See Hebrews 3:15 ).

Send this resume to everyone you know, you never know who may have an opening!

God's Dealings With Man's Problems

James 1:1-5

Summary

God send trials to test our faith. Trials we are to endure. Temptations we are to resist. When trials come, we need help, which God is ready to give. [v5] God is the origin of wisdom [Proverbs 2:6-8] He is the object of wisdom. [Matthew 7:24-25] When man has problems, let him not be tossed, wavering in faith. [James 1:6-8] But let him ask in faith, not wavering. Prayers go unanswered because we ask one thing while believing another. First we believe God, then doubt his power to carry it out, or doubt that we can have the thing we have asked for. Man must not be unstable, but strong in all things that he may yield the temptations to fear. No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond which you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it. [1 Corinthian 10:13] The tested man bridles his tongue and visits orphans and widows in their trouble in order to keep himself unspotted from the world. [James 1:26-27]

- D. Temptation Solved [1 Corinthians 1:13]

III. The Tested Man [James 1:26-27]

- A. His tongue is controlled [v26]
- B. His heart has compassion [27a]
- C. His walk is clean [v27b]
- D. Show them the way to God and the ways of God

IV. The Thoughtless Man [James 2:17,20]

- A. He is deformed
- B. He is informed
- C. He is not transformed
- D. Teach the doctrines of church

V. To be like Christ

- A. To go – where ever
- B. To do – what ever
