There is a way that seem right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of death. We must get away from the thought that if a lot of people are doing it, it must be right. Scriptures say in Matthew 7:13-14 ...for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that lead to destruction....because strait is the gate and narrow is the way which lead unto life, and few there be that find it.

I am not saying it is going to be easy to follow, because to deny you or to esteem another over yourself is not easy. Following takes a whole lot of humility but Jesus said the greatest among you is a servant. [Matthew 23:11-12] Galatians 2:20 says I am crucified with Christ; to die is still a vital part of this walk with Christ. I believe one of the reasons why people have a hard time following is because flesh wants some glory. And God is not sharing His glory with anyone. We should be esteeming God instead of trying to be seen. If we lift Him up, He will draw all men unto Himself, not us. Think about this, what can we offer others by leading them to ourselves? Our knowledge and wisdom is so limited, but God is unlimited. If you had a choice who would you follow? Selah!!! If I am imperfect why would I want to lead you to imperfection instead of to the one who is perfect? God is not in competition with us; outside of Him we can do nothing. Perfection does not need help, just cooperation. Blessings and favor are awaiting those with submitted spirits. Rebellion does not get anything but a hard time with God.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: [Philippians 2:5]

Everything in society today is so smart. Smart phones, cars, etc. But God does not need our intelligence, we need His. He said, let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus that means He doesn't need our mind. [Philippians 2:5] Proverbs 6:17 says, God hates a proud look, the spirit that makes one think more of himself than he ought to. Proverbs 8:13 says, the fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride and arrogance...do I hate. If God says He hates these things, we should too. When we will not yield to His leading, there is some pride there and we need to get rid of it before we get ourselves in trouble. Do you remember Lucifer. Instead of trying to make our name great, let's focus on making His name great. Our goal should be to please Him, not to build our own empire. When God identifies wrong motives, it is not going to work.

Everybody needs a tour guide, every once in a while. It does not matter the arena everybody had to follow somebody to get where they are in life. None of us just arrived with our own smarts and intelligence. But isn't it amazing at how high minded people get when they become knowledgeable in something somebody else told them. God chooses the base things of this world to confound the wise, that's us; we are instruments that bring glory to the Father. [1 Corinthians 1:28] We have a tour guide, our helper, the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of Truth, the one who leads and guides us every day. And all we have to do is follow His lead. We do not have to be afraid nor hesitate with Him because He only leads us into the things of the Father. Let's make a decision today, to be the best followers of Jesus Christ this world has ever seen, bringing glory to God.

Wherever He leads we will follow. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

Follow the Leader

And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice 5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of stranger [John 10:4-5]

When we were children, we played a game called Simon Says. The rule of the game was simply to do whatever Simon said. In order to win, you had to be a very good and careful listener; it was important that you did not follow any other voice or command. Listening was key in order to endure to the end of the game. This childhood game sounds a lot like our journey with Christ, in order to endure to the end victoriously, being good listeners and followers is key. John 10: 4-5 says, “and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice. And a stranger they will not follow.” This entire journey with Christ is all about us being transformed and changed from our old ways of doing things and learning how to live, move, and be a new creation in Him. And we accomplish this by following the leader. The last person standing in Simon Says, the one who listened and obeyed, receives the honor of becoming Simon, the leader.

Jesus said if we want to be His disciples, we must learn how to be proficient in listening and following. You would think following Jesus would be an easy task and it is, if we comply. Following sounds so simple, especially if you are following someone who has already succeeded in what you are trying to do. But because most want to be a chief instead of an Indian, following is difficult. Psalm 37:5 tells us to “commit your way to the Lord, Trust also in Him, and He will do it.” Something designed to be so simple, has become so complicated. We do not have to wreck our brains trying to figure things out, just follow the leader. We must humble and deny ourselves, our thoughts, and our will and take up our cross and follow Him. [Matthew 16:24] Stop thinking we know more than the shepherd, we still are the sheep of His pasture. We do not know the way but He is the way. Proverbs 14:12

1 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; [Luke 18:1-8]

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. [Galatians 6:9]

This is not the time for the people of God to faint. We are in the midst of a global harvest. God planted a seed in the Earth over 2000 years ago and it is ready to come to fruition. The text warns us not to faint or lose heart. Do not give in to the doubt, fear, unbelief, discouragement, or to use excuses for unbelief when prayer is not answered immediately. Rebuke and resist all oppositions that come to hinder your prayer from being answered. Cast down all vain suggestions of failure. It is your divine, blood bought, covenant right to receive an answer to prayer, so “do not loose heart.” [John 14:13,14]

And he shall speak great words against the most high, and shall wear out the saints of the most high, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. [Daniel 7:25]

The devil has come down with great wrath, but this is futile to the believer if he knows the devil can not change the plan of God. The devil knows the only way his plan of destruction will work is if he gets the believer to faint. This is the reason Satan has fought the people so hard to give up. If you faint not, you win. It’s just that simple. Now, if this is true why are so many Christians seemingly giving up on God and abdicating there place of victory to the enemy? Let us look at some reasons people faint:

1.Lack of provision [Genesis 25: 29, 30]

Essau fainted because of lack of provision. This is why Jesus instructed us to pray, Give us this day our daily bread [Matthew 6:11] God knows we have needs, but he still requires our daily dependence on His supply to meet them all. [Philippians 4:19]

2. No exchange of strength. [Isaiah 40: 28-31] When we wait on the Lord, it means to chamber with God. In that place of waiting, God is exchanging his strength for our weakness. This is why Paul was able to say, “When I am weak, then am I strong. [1 Corinthians 12:10] This is why we must walk with the Lord. [Psalm 23] Anytime you feel your spirit is fainting, come and rejoice, be-

Don't give up on God, obey his instructions and God is going to give you a miracle. Your next miracle is in your

cause you are in a harvest season. [Galatians 6:9] You must keep moving and waiting on Lord. To wait is not an idle position, but wait like a waiter serving the Lord. The tips you receive as result of your service to God is the spiritual oxygen needed to take your next step. Hallelujah. Through movement, you stimulate circulation, which carries oxygen, oxygen brings life and life power. So in the words of David, wait I say on the Lord! [Psalm 27:14]

3. Endure in Adversity. [Proverbs 24:10]

There are those who say adversity makes you stronger, but that is not true. Adversity only reveals how strong you are, so if you find yourself fainting, it means you need to build up your faith praying in God. [Jude 24] No matter how far you have come, you never have enough. Jesus recognizes our evidences of weakness because he knows how far we have traveled in life and he commands us to eat of him (the word - spiritual food) or we will faint. [Mark 8:1-13]

4. Failure to create a miracle environment. [1 Kings 17:8-16] If you fail to create a miracle environment, we will faint. Whenever we are about to faint, there is a miracle on the horizon. Elijah confronts this widow and he asked her to give him some bread. She replies by saying, the Lord thy God lives; however, I do not have what you are asking for and that which I do have is only enough for my son and me. We will eat it and die (faint). The prophet's reply: "Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son" was a command for her obedience. Her obedience created a miracle environment; a place where God could do the supernatural. Don't give up on God, obey his instructions and God is going to give you a miracle. Your next miracle is in your yes! What is God asking you to do that you will not do? Do not let fear prevent you from turning your impossibilities to possibilities.

Lack of provision, no exchange of strength, weakness in adversity, and failure to create a miracle environment is only a sign that you are on the verge of a miracle harvest. God has given us the cure, pray. Prayer produces provision, prayer makes strong, prayer eliminates weakness, and prayer produces a miracle environment. If my people who are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray. [2 Chronicles 7:14] If you pray Elijah, I will close and open the heavens. [James 5:17, 18] If you, believer, pray Jesus will forgive you of your sins and save your soul. [1 John 1:19 - Romans 10:13] God is taking us somewhere and this is not the time to quit. You must keep on moving as a believer, anytime you are leaving one place going to another, it is a faith walk. The prophet Elisha, in his quest to cross Jordan in pursuit of a double portion of the prophet Elijah's spirit, faced the danger of fainting. Fainting at Gilgal— walking by faith. Fainting at Bethel— the house of God and again fainting at Jericho— the straight place, all figurative places at which each believer will be tested. But notice the confession of the young prophet at each place of assessment, “I will not leave thee.” [2 Kings 2:1-12] God tested his faith, but Elisha refused to faint and stayed in the presence of God and he renewed his strength to keep on moving to receive his blessing. The same promise is available for us today.

If we don't stop walking by faith we will receive the harvest that is ahead of us!

Bonds of Fellowship

Colossians 2:1-2

Bonds of Fellowship Colossians 2:1-2

Summary

Continuing our study on the Fellowship with God, we move to Bonds of Fellowship. Our study this month discusses how our fellowship with God holds us together. As the body of Christ we share the same savior, One who has shared in all of our infirmities. He knows the hurts and fears we keep silent, our shared savior knows the cares and concerns of each and every part of his body. Our shared savior offers salvation daily. The day you walked away defeated, our shared savior speaks to you before you even get home, try again! As we studied last month in Fellowship with God, the nature and need of man require fellowship with God for newness of life, which means bounds, fastens, and confines are necessary.

Continue in the your outline for more Bonds of Fellowship: salvation, spirit, scriptures, and service.

When we choose to remain in fellowship with God, we receive the blessings of fellowship, such as salvation, joy, and peace. Otherwise, we choose to allow barriers to overcome our thoughts causing us to speak ungodly disassociating with God. We must keep in mind to remain in fellowship with God, this is also our fellowship with the body of Christ.

This month we thought it appropriate to suggest the following song to accompany your message:
