Keepp Speaking the WORD!

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, <sup>2</sup> Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

<sup>3</sup> Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

<sup>4</sup> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

You Are A Blessing Right Now

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. [Romans 12:2]

The word of God warns us, but we didn't take heed. The mentality of the world has infiltrated the church. Romans 12: 2 says, "Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think." (NLT) Some people in the church associate being blessed with the amount of things we accumulate. And that's not completely incorrect but it's not completely the truth either. God didn't say, things make us blessed, that is worldly thinking. By no means am I saying things are not needed or good, but they should not define if we are blessed or not. I believe being blessed is a matter of the heart. A person with a giving, generous spirit can be a blessing no matter their financial state. But a stingy person, one reluctant to part with money or goods even though they are loaded, will not be a blessing to others because of the condition of their heart. The fear of not having enough comes from a poverty spirit.

Every spiritual blessing, promise and benefit given to us is ours not because of what we have done. The scripture says, "All praise to God, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. God chose us in Christ to be holy... and adopted us into his family through Jesus Christ." Our blessings are all connected to our relationship with Christ Jesus. People with earthly education and knowledge are honored and revered by people of this world. No matter how many degrees they obtain, they are still limited to earthly knowledge. But as the children of God in Christ Jesus we have the advantage and some without degrees

All praise to God, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms... [Ephesians 1:3] because not only do we have access to the knowledge of this world we are also blessed with spiritual blessings and knowledge. Look around, it is obvious that this world needs knowledge beyond this earthly realm. This world needs answers that only God has and He desires to reveal those things to his sons and daughters. (Ephesians 1:3-5)

The rich young ruler was not satisfied with all the things he had accumulated. We think those we call rich are happy and content. But if this was the case, why did he desire eternal life like Jesus if possessions are the goal to being blessed? To have the God

kind of life, a quality of life that possessions could not give him. He saw something on Jesus that he didn't have, even with all his possessions. But when Jesus began to tell him how to obtain eternal life, he went away sad. Notice the young man never did what Jesus had proposed, but the thought of selling his things and giving them to the poor grieved his heart. The attachment to his possessions had him crippled and he couldn't obey Jesus. Out of all the commandments he had obeyed, none of them included money and getting rid of his possessions. Jesus said a rich man shall hardly enter the kingdom of heaven. If we cannot depart from worldly possessions, it's going to be very hard to enter the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 19:16-22, -30)

A man crippled and lame from birth was put at the gate called Beautiful to beg for money as people were going into the temple. One-day Peter and John was going to prayer service and the man asked them for (alms) money. Peter said to him, "I don't have any silver or gold for you; but I'll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk! The man received strength to jump, walk and run then followed them into the temple. Notice he didn't reject his healing and say no that's ok I'll take the money instead. Money became obsolete to what really mattered to him. The scripture doesn't say he ask for (alms) money anymore. His healing and freedom was more valuable than the money he would have collected at the gate. Peter and John's faith in the name of Jesus put a complete stop to the man's begging days. There are some things more valuable than money. (Acts 3:6)

Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. [Acts 3:6]

Most people have the necessities of life. But if the question was asked, would you prefer a new car, or your lung healed? A diamond ring or a sound mind? Promotion on your job or your family made whole or the love of your spouse or your children off drugs? Would a person in their right mind choose money or things in situations like these? Money is a must in life but there are still some things that money can't buy. If Christians would go & pray for those with terminal diseases in the name of Jesus and they receive their healing, what price tag can we attach to that? Silver & gold, we may not possess in abundance but such as we have we GIVE THIS WORLD JESUS. He is the real All-Inclusive deal that money can't buy, which includes healing, deliverance, soundness, prosperity, protection and salvation. "God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved." (Acts 3:1-6,16, 4:12 NLT)

The scriptures say money answers all things, it does not say things answers all things. Not only does money allow us to purchase things, money also allows us to be a financial blessing to others. Money allows us to pay someone else's mortgage who may be threatened by eviction, pay their car note, or provide groceries. Money allows ministers of the Gospel airtime to preach the Gospel to people worldwide. Money allows shelters to be a blessing to those who have found themselves in an unforeseen place in life. Money also help provide services for abusive women and children. Money is a great tool if it's in the right hands. Money empowers us to have and to do things for others while doing the will of God & showing the love of God. Money is not evil, but the bible says it's the wrong relationship with it that's evil. (Ecclesiastes 10:19 and 1 Timothy 6:10)

I believe that I receive, Double...

SPEAK the WORD!

Take Spiritual Authority Over Your Finances

Running over with blessings

- ♦ God wants me wealthy with a reason
- ♦ I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings
- ♦ I'm on my way to a wealthy place.
- ♦ God wants me to have money with a plan
- ♦ I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings!
- ♦ Thou has caused men to ride over our heads,
- ♦ We went through the fire, we went through the water, but thou brought us out into a wealthy place.
- ♦ There's money in my mouth. I'll speak it out of my mouth.
- ♦ I believe that I receive, Double, Double, in every area of my life this year.
- ♦ I call my house and all my assets paid for,
- ♦ I believe that I receive super natural provision today.
- ♦ I command the blessings of God and the favor of God to over take my life and my family's life.
- ♦ Send now prosperity.
- ♦ Thank you Lord for meeting all my financial needs so that I have more than enough to give into the Kingdom of God.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. [Psalm 95:2]

God said he chose the base, foolish, and weak things of this world to confound the wise. One reason is because everybody doesn't have money and things. So if I don't have money, God can't use me, not so. But with God's anointing, he gets all the glory. The material he uses does not look like much and that's why we can say this is the Lord's doing and it's marvelous in our eyes. Most of the people, we call blessed, are not Christians. Most Professional Basketball, Football, and Baseball players, movie stars, and CFO's are not Christians. A lot of them are not helping the homeless or blessing those who really need it, outside of their circle of friends and families. (1 Corinthians 1:27 and Psalm 118:23)

Can we be a blessing working at McDonalds, the mall or the gas station, of course we can. God has given us something more valuable than money, his presence or his anointing. Jesus said it like this, "the spirit of the Lord is upon me..... God didn't give Jesus the biggest castle in the land, neither did he give him the best donkeys to ride on. As a matter of fact, Jesus did a lot of walking. Jesus was not poor, remember after his birth he was blessed with three types of gifts.... But even with all that he didn't do supernatural things until the spirit of the Lord descended on him in the form of a dove, God's presence. (Luke 18) God has a plan to use the church to display his love, goodness, and wisdom. We are his chosen people, royal priesthood, and holy nation, so why do we have a complex about who we are in Christ? We are the blessed ones. There's a saying, "You don't miss/appreciate something until it's gone," Let's not forfeit the privilege to be used by God in these last days. Isn't it crazy, church people trying to be like the world. When the bible says, "the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God". They're not satisfied with what they have and who they are, if they were why are they secretly seeking spiritual things. If they are so blessed with all their stuff, why are they claiming to be saved & giving shout outs to God? The world is waiting for us to let Jesus have his way in us. You don't have to wait to be a blessing, if you have Jesus in your life, you're blessed right now. (Ephesians 3:10, Romans 8:19, 1 Peter 2:9)

Greatest Grows Best in the Dark Part II: Go for the Eyes

<sup>15</sup> And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. <sup>16</sup> And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; <sup>17</sup> That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. <sup>18</sup> And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. [Judges 16:15-18]

The first thing the Philistine did was put his eyes out. Why? The enemy knows better than some saints, without vision the people loose restraint and give up. Darkness in scripture represents ignorance. Thus we see, after Samson fell, he did not know what to do. So God, the Potter, puts Samson back on the wheel again. Things may be dark in your life, but do not give up on God, because he has not given up on you. You maybe in the dark, but you are growing. To walk in the dark, many times, means to walk by faith and not by sight. [2 Corinthians 5:7] Even though you cannot see what God is doing, trust God enough to know, like Job, when he is finished you shall come forth as gold. Everything that God has ever used has gone through a dark place. To tread at the wheel everything that God uses has gone through a dark place. Abraham got the covenant of Israel in a Dark Place.

Moses spent forty years on the back side of a desert in a dark place. Jacob became Israel, wrestling with an angel all night in a dark place. When you go through a dark place it does not mean God has left you. The dark place is a prerequisite to greatness. You will never do your greatest task until you go through a dark place. A dark place – a place of guilt, shame, regret, affliction, illness, loneliness, despair, lack of joy, lost sense of pleasure, a place with no

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. [3 John 2]

victory. But God is faithful to bring you out of darkness into the marvelous light. [Psalm 23:4-5]

One thing the devil forgot to check when he cast Samson out into darkness was his roots. The enemy was so busy trying to destroy you, he stopped paying attention to the new growth in your life. [Judges 16:22]

It is crazy how people get closer to God when they go through the valley and shadow of death; fear looses its grip and faith takes on a new form. Now you are looking, living, and loving better than you ever have before. Your hair is growing back again to let you know that what you are seeing on the outside is evidence of what God has restored on the inside. The bible says faith is the substance of things hoped for and evidence of things not seen. [Hebrews 11:1] The hair represents the glory of man. It is in those dark times when we get our glory back. Nobody wants to fall, but when you fall, rejoice knowing God is going to bring you out of the darkness with all power in your hands, Amen! His soul was prospering. John said, and I paraphrase, physical growth will be commensurate with soul growth. [3 John 2] When they brought him out to make sport of him, they did not know of the change that occurred in the dark. He went in one person, but came out another. There is no way you can go through the stuff you have been through and come out the same person. When you go through a mighty battle you do not come out the same man. You come out with a new attitude, a new tenacity and a new spirit. If you have ever been in a dark place, it was only a sovereign preset planned period to positively perpetuate his power in your posterity. That simply means he paused life to make you great.

When you go through a mighty battle you do not come out the same man. You come out with a new attitude, a new tenacity and a new spirit.

When God released him, God gave him a helper this time to lead him. The lad to Samson was what the Holy Spirit is to us. He leads and guides us to all truth. Whenever you go through a dark place, God will always give you what you don't have. Samson had strength, but the boy had eyes. Can I prophesy to you? You are going to partner with someone who has what you lost. You are going to have a strength you never had before. For Samson, the scriptures were true: "your enemies you will see no more." The Spirit will show you, like the little boy showed Samson, where to put your hands. There are some things that use to rob you of the victory, but when you come out of darkness, you pay no more attention. Now I did say greatness grows best in the dark, right? God brought a new man out, old things have passed away.

Even the strength he once had which was good, but it was not great. For if it were great or perfect it would have never failed. But I would prove to you Samson was operating under a greater anointing. The bible goes on to say, "so the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life." [Judges 16:30] Weeping was only designed to water the seeds of your darkness, but joy, the strength of God comes into your life as you embrace this new day of greatness. And see the great things the Lord has done for you!

Matthew 21:10-11

The Question is the Answer Matthew 21:10-11

Summary

Who do men say that "I am?" The Christ, the Son of the Living God. It's Jesus, the King of Kings! Here He comes, riding on a young colt preceded by its mother. Both the colt and mother will bear the clothes of the King's disciples. Notice on the path below their feet are garments, which have been spread by the multitude, along with branches cut from trees to garnish the way. The people all praise the King, crying Hosanna in the highest! Who is this you say? This is King Jesus, our answer to everything!
